THE anſ^r of the conventioun of þe eſtaits to the Remonſtrance and deſyres of the cōmiſſionars of the gñall Aſſemble

Ansuer of the Estats to the Commiſsioners of the aſsemblie

THE conventioun of the eſtaits of the Kingdome Haveing more particularly pervſeit the remonſtrance and deſyres of the cōmiſſioners of the generall aſſemblie Doe aknowledge And with greate cair and ſollicitude of heart Recent / the dangers of the reformed religion pairtly from the rebellious attempts of papiſts in Ireland pairtlie from thair power in Ingland wher they are ſo long in airmes and pairtlie from thair hopes in this kingdome wher they have thair plottis and correſpondence amongſt themſelffis and with thair confederattis abroad. And all theſe the greatter and the more to be taken to heart at this tyme / That they have the pretence of the kings ſervice and auctie / the confidence of the Queines zeale to thair profeſſioun and her power to promote thair deſignes / and the aſſiſtance of the prelaticall pairtie and of malignantts and many uthers / whom upon naturall and worldlie reſpect^e they have drawin againſt the oath of thair covenant into thair ſecreete / and have wnited into thair combina^one Theſe and the lyke dangeres expreſſit more fullie in the remonſtrance may be more then ſufficient to awake and ſtirr vp this kirk and kingdome to provyde for the preſervatioun of Religioun / the ſaiftie of the king and ſecuritie of the kingdome / which at this tyme In realitie can no more be ſeperated and divorced then in former tymes when it wes profeſſed both by king and people that the dangeres of on wer the dangeres of all that they had the ſame cōmon freindis and enemes and did ſtand and fall togidder: But whilles the eſtaits are thinking upon that which is remonſtrat wnto them / many other dangeres and diſtreſſes / which more directlie and immediatly threatten and preſe this cuntrey and kingdome / Offer themſelffis to be conſidered and are neceſſarie to be wniverſallie knowen that all men / Even ſuch as all this tyme have never takin religioun to heart may be made ſenſible of the preſent danger of thair native cuntrey wherin the private danger of everie mans / life / libertie / eſtaite and meanes is includeit. The lord^e of privie counſell / and the cōmiſſioners for conſerveing the peace have alreadie declaired that a treatcherous and damnable plott of the Iriſh / Ingliſch and Scotiſch papiſts / was begun to be diſcovered by lērs fund with the Earle of Antrum And by the depoſitioun of on of his ſervantis at his death: Now the depoſitiounes of the Earle himſelff and of another of his ſervantis both wpon thair othes / have bein read in face of the conventioun / Confirmeing what was written befoir of ſending ammunitioun to the north / and leavieing of forces in this kingdome and beareing that the Earle had inſtruc^nes for making peace betuixt the Ingliſch and Iriſch in Ireland Lykeas diverſe letters are ſent hither concerneing a ceſſatioun of armes in Ireland and the joyneing of the Ingliſch and Iriſch forces upon oath To go for Ingland to aſſiſt the king as is pretendit. But indeid to ſtrengthen and ayde the popiſch and prelaticall pairtie.

OUR merchantis and marineres are not only ſtopped and diſcuraged in thair treade by ſhippes / friggott^e and fliebott^e of dunkirk and of Ireland Haveing Iriſch cōmanders and ſouldieres / But thair ſhippes ather takin or brunt / They ſpoyled of thair goods and moneyes and thair perſounes torterred kiped captives or ſent away quyte naked Wherby his māties ſubjects have ſuffered more by ſea upon the ſudden and in a verie ſhort tyme / then they did ſuffer all the tyme of our lait trubles: And no other cauſe of all this violence and crueltie pretended But a cōmiſſioun and warrand from authoritie

THE Earle of Newcaſtell^e forces horſe and foote in greate numberes readie lyeing at the borderes and readdie / when they ſālbe commanded to mak incurſioun upon the ſouth pairts of the kingdome As many ill affected are no les willing To mak trubie in the North

IFF the wnhappie differences betuixt his mãtie and his pliãt ſall not be determined in a parliam'rie way but by the ſuord Not only ſall the airmie in Ireland be in danger to be loſt But this whole kingdome wilbe involved in the cõmon calamitie

NOR is it wiſdome againſt the continuall rumo'r and threatinings of forreine invaſioun to be ſo negligent and ſecure as if thair wer no appeirance or poſſibilitie of danger from w^th^out Experience haith proven the contraire in former tymes And altho thair wer no uther ground / Reaſoune doeth teache That princes and ſtates wſe to obſerve the opportunities of diviſioun and breaches amongſt thair niethboures

ALTHOUCH the cauſ^e^ of calling ane conventioun at this tyme wer wrgent eneuch yet the providence of God / watching over this church and kingdome for good have diſcovered diverſe of the dangers of religioun and of the kingdome and broucht them to licht in this opportunitie whill the conventioun of eſtats are ſitting As if they had bein called togidder to be informed of them and to provyde remedies againſt them And q'foir as the conventioun is reſolved To tak this mater / Which is of ſo publict and deip concernement into þair ſerious conſidera'ne So doe they deſyre and requyre that the cõmiſſio'r of the aſſemblie Who according to thair duetie and the laudable exemple of the aſſemblies of this kirk in former tymes have repreſented the dangeres of religioun / Will alſo with diligence think wpon the beſt and moſt powerfull remedies and remonſtrat them to the conventioun That by the bliſſing of God wpon thair ioynt endevoures ſo many approaching and immenent miſeries may be turned away and the religioun and peace w^ch^ God almichtie of his ſingular mercie hath grantit to this church and kingdome / may be preſerved and tranſmitted wnto the efter generatiounes / W^ch^ ſalbe honour to God / ſaiftie to the King and his poſteritie / and happines to his people

THE qlk day M Robert Douglas In name of the Comiſsioners of the Gñal Aſsemblie Gave in to the Eſtats the Remonſtrance following Q'of the tenor followeth.

Remedies of the Dangers of Religion

TO the honorable conventioun of eſtaits The humble Remonſtrance of the cõmiſſio'r of the geñell aſſemblie Concerneing the remedies of the pñt danger of Religioun

ALTHOUCH it be more eaſie eſpeciallie in ane tyme of many corruptiounes and greate difficultie to complaine of diſeaſes and dangers than to find out the richt cure and remedees: Yet from o^r^ conſcience of dewtie in the charge committed wnto ws at this tyme from our confidence in God / Whois providence hath diſcovered the dangeres And will in his own tyme provyde ſufficient remedies by the example of the geñell aſſemblies of this kirk And in obedience to your Lp̃es commandis we find a neceſſitie layed wpon ws And are moſt willing according to o^r^ knowledge to ſhow what we conceave to be the beſt remedies Leaveing the furder conſideratioun of them to yo^r^ Lp̃s wiſdome. Pollitick and worldlie men are indifferentlie diſpoſed towards everie religioun And doe conceave that the knowledge of a few principles joyned with the profeſſion of religion is ſufficient for ſalvatioun / without diſcending into particular differences and contraverſies. But this cannot be a remedie / ffor we know that herreſies and sectꝭ have bein of old and moſt ſtill be / that thoſe who are approved may be made knowen. Reconceilleres who wnder the ſpecious pretext of pacificaᵒne betuixt proteſtants and papiſts Intend no uther thing But in a ſubtile and craftie way To reduce the proteſtant kirks into Antichriſtian ſervitude and in the golden cup of the whore of Babell To propine agane wnto ws all thair abominatiounes and filthienes Theſe are alſo to be rejected and abhorred as preſenting ws with deidlie poyſone inſteid of remedeis. A third thair is But ane wnſufficient remedie / We doe with all thankfulnes and reverence / as becometh good ſubjects Receave the kings mãties declaratioune of his intentioune for mantaining our religioun And eſteim it no ſmall happines to leive wnder a Prince Orthodox in the faith and a nurſe father of the kirk: But his mãties diſpoſiᵒne to religioun / can nather obleidge his royall ſucceſſoures / as the frequent change of Religioune in Ingland and other kingdomes with the change of thair Princes / hath taucht ws: nor can it preſerve ws frome the plotꝭ ꝛ power of papiſtes / As we have even now learned by the conſpiracie of the Iriſch Ingliſche and Scottiſch papiſtes: If þej have bein devyſeing miſcheiff againſt ws in the verie tyme of his mãties declaratioun / What may be in all reaſoun expected efterward from thair immortall haitreid and wnceſſant working: And what may we looke for preſentlie / if whill they are now in airmes thair furie ſhall have ſucceſſe and they ſuffered to prevaill. We pray God ſave the King But we may ſay curſed be thair anger for it is feirce and thair wraith for it is cruell. The firſt true remedie / which chriſtian pietie and prudence miniſter wnto us Is to receave the love of the treuth / and to labour for the power of godlienes It is never eneuch obſerveit / That papiſtrie / Arminianiſme and diverſitie of ſects Are the iuſt iudgement of God wpon many in the reformed kirkꝭ for thair formalitie in religioun: Without this on remedee / all other remedies will want the bliſſing of God and prove wnproffitable.

A ſecond remedie is to abhorre and deteſt poperie not wpon conceatt or common oppinion / But from the particular and diſtinct knowledge of the groſſe hereſies in doctrine / manifold idolatrie in worſhip / and cruell tyrrannie in governement / which it teacheth defendeth and practiſeth: from which the lord in a wonderfull mercie hath delyvered ws; Againſt which ſo many thouſandis of the holy and faithfull martyres of Chryſt have borne record of the word of God and of the teſtimonie of Jeſus Chryſt / and waſchen thair robbes in the bloode of the lamb / And by which the lord ſufferreth ws and other reformed kirkes this day to be threatned again Becaus we have bein wnthankfull for our delyverance Not knowing the greatnes of the ill from wᶜʰ we have bein delyvered / nor conſidering the heavines of that Antichriſtian yock if it ſalbe again wraithed wpon oᵘ neckes / which would to God all Kings / Princes / Reipublicts and people would tak to hearte.

THE third is That all trew patriots and profeſſoᵘꝭ of the reformed religioun may learne to diſcerne and know the enemies of the kirk: wᶜʰ wilbe fund not to be papiſts only But malignants alſo Who wnder culour of the ſame profeſſioun with ws oppoſe themſelffis to the preſervatioun of religioun heire wntꝭ the reformaᵒne of religioun into Ingland / no leſſe then papiſtes: Who mak bandꝭ contrairie or preiudiciall wnto oᵘ naᵒnall covenant / Who frame and preſent petitiounes / croſſing the petitiounes of the cõmiſſioneres of the generall aſſemblie / give informaᵒne to the Kings mãtie / contrairie to þe informaᵒnes of the kirk and kingdome: Doe oppoſe the publiſching of the neceſſarie declaraᵒnes of the kirk: reid paperes in the aſſemblies of Godꝭ people / without warrant from the kirk: And offer to preſbetries in all the quarteres of the kingdome / papers contrairie to the declaratiounes of the cõmiſſioneres of the aſſemblie: Doe hold thair meitings againſt the conventioun of eſtaits And if þei could find miniſterꝭ to joyne with them wald keip eccleſiaſticall aſſemblies againſt the aſſemblies of the kirk which is the moſt factious the moſt ſcandelous / and the moſt dangerous way of deviſioun and ſeparatioun that haith bein hard of in any kirk or kingdome And thairfoir by eccleſiaſtick cenſures and civill puniſchmẽtꝭ to be ſpeidilie and powerfullie ſuppreſſit as a moſt pernitious practiſe Tending to the deſtructᵒne both of religioune and peace of this kingdome and directlie oppoſite to the propogatioune of the goſpell and reformatioun of other kirks / Which God by his providence is bringing to paſſe And is ardentlie deſyred ꝛ conſtantlie hoped for by all the Godly. The fourt is if efter all good meanes are wſeid to reduce the enemies of religioun whither papiſts or malignants to repentance and obedience the kirk be conſtrained by thair obſtinacie to proceid to the ſentence of excommunicatioune / ſome ſolide courſe may be takin that the civill puniſchmẽt which is according to law may be reallie and tymeouſlie inflicted that nether the law be eludeit nor any delinquent for his greatnes or any other reſpect be exempted or ſpaired.

THE fyft is Becaus thruch want of ſure and tymous intelligence a greate pairt of the people are ather left to wncertane rumoures or ſlichted by the negligence of common beareres Or abuſeit with malignant informaᵒnes that þei nather know thair awin danger / nor the danger of religioun ꝛ cuntrey A ſolide ordour would be ſet doun Wherby intelligence may goe furth from Ed^r to everie ſhyre and ſo to everie particular paſtor That the people may be informed both of ꝑ danger and dewtie / And ane accompt takin of the faithfulnes of men to whom materes of ſo neceſſarie and publict concernement ſalbe cõmitted and of particular miniſteres how thej acquite themſelffis in matteres of ſo greate traiſt

THE ſext is / That for the more ſpẽall applyeing of ſome clauſſ of our nationall covenant againſt the preſent evell certane articles may be framed to be ſubſcryveit and conſented wnto by all the weill affected / That we may be more ſtronglie wnited amongſt our ſelffis in the cauſe of God And that all malignantis and ſecreit enemies who hyd themſelffis wnder thair ſubſcriptioune of the covenant may be diſcerned and diſcovered.

THE ſevent is / That a remonſtrance be ſent to the kings mãtie from the honõll conventioune of eſtat^t Expreſſing the pũt dangeres of the kirk and kingdome with a renewed ſupplicatioune for wnitie in religioune and wniformetie of kirk governement / for diſbanding of all papiſts forces / and for wſeing of meanes for the Queines converſioune

THE eicht is / Althouch we be verie weill affured of the wiſdome and good affectioune of this honõll conventioune for w^ch as a meane of greate happines to this kirk and kingdome at this tyme / We heartilie bliſſe the lord: Yet from the neceſſitie of our duetie / which enforceth ws to exhort civill poweres to all vigilancie and faithfulnes: And according to the laudable example of the generall aſſemblies of this kirk in former tymes of publict danger / We moſt creave leive to intreate and exceite yo^r lꝛes ſpeidily to think and reſolve wpon the wayes for the ſaiftie and ſecuritie of the kingdome againſt inſurrec^ne of papiſts and malignantis from within / and invaſioun from without: Which may alſo be a meane to try and diſcover the mynds of the diſaffected / And to commit ſo greate truſt to none But to ſuch as are knowen to be zealous of the ſaiftie of Religioun / of the Kings honour / and peace of the kingdome. The nynt is Becaus the heartis of people are ſecure and ſlow in apprehending of dangeres / and the enemies ſuggeſt that thair is not any greate cauſe of feare: Whenſoever any lẽrs of negotia^ne and traffiq, betuixt papiſts or malignā^t heir and in other places are intercepted / Or any plottis or conſpiracies diſcovered / the ſame without reſpect to any perſounes q^ſoever may be publiſched in print and ſent throuch the Kingdome That all may be wairned of the danger / and be in readines to uſe the beſt meanes for thair ſaiftie And that ſuch wiked inſtrumentis may be cenſured and puniſched. The tent is That for the credite of the goſpell / for keiping the publict faith of the kingdome and for promoteing the deſyred and intendit wnitie in Religioune and wniformitie in kirk governement All the articles of the treattie of peace betuixt the tuo kingdomes be jnviolablie obſerveit and iuſtice done without partialitie upon the contraveineres. And foraſmuch as at the tyme of reformatioune and in o^r lait declaratiounes and remonſtrances in the tyme of o^r trubles and ſince the expreſſiounes of o^r deſyres to wnitie and amitie with the kingdome of Ingland have bein many and large / And we have many tymes from o^r feilling and feares made oppen profeſſioune That the not reforming or indangering of Religioune there hath ane influence wpon o^r religioune and the mutuall peace of the Kingdomes: Wee doe humblie intreate / according to the example of the geñell aſſemblies of this kirk That this honõll conventioune may be pleaſeit to tak into thair greaveſt conſideratioune the renewing of the league and aſſocia^ne with Ingland for defence of the Religioune againſt the cõmon enemie And how farre the ſame may be extendit againſt prelacie and popiſch ceremonies for wniformitie in externall worſhip ꝯ kirk governement.

The desyre of the English Cōmiſs^{rs}

WEE the commiſſioneres appointed by both houſſes of the parliam^{ē}t of Ingland are by our inſtruc^{o}nes commanded to put þ^{r} brethrein of Scotland in mynd that þe popiſch and prelaticall factioun which began with them about thir yeares 1638 and 1639 And then intrudeit to mak way to the ruine of the Kingdome of Ingland by theres / have not abated any þte of thair malice toward the nation and church of Scotland / nor are at all depairted from thair deſigne of corrupting and altering religion throuch the wholl Illand / thouch they have inverted the maner of thair procedings Conceiving now that they have ane eaſyer way to deſtroy them if they may firſt prevaill over the parliament and Kingdome of Ingland

IN which reſpect it is the deſyre of both houſſes that the tuo nations may be ſtrictly wnited and joynd togidder for thair mutuall defence againſt the papiſts and prelaticall factioun / and there adherentes in both Kingdomes / and not to lay doun airmes till theſe thair implacable enemies ſhalbe diſarmed and ſubiected to the authoritie and iuſtice of parliament in both kingdomes reẍtively And as ane effectuall meane heirwnto They deſyre ther breithrein of Scotland To raiſe a conſiderable ſtrenth of horſe and foote for thair ayde and aſſiſtance to be forthwith ſent againſt the papiſts prelaticall factioune and otheres thair adherentes now in armes in the kingdome of Ingland

AND for the better incouragement of the Kingdome of Scotland wnto this neceſſary and ſo much deſyred wnione and coniunctioun / We are by both houſſes authorized to aſſure thair breithrein that if they ſhalbe annoyd or indangered by any force or airmy ather from Ingland or any wther place The lordſ and commons of Ingland will aſſiſt them with a proportionable force and ſtrenth of horſe and foote to what thair breithrein ſhall now afford them To be ſent into Scotland for the defence of that kingdome from the invaſioun of the iriſch rebellſ or other enemies dureing ſuch tyme as the ſcottiſch airmie ſalbe imployed in the defence of the Kingdome of Ingland

AND to the end that nothing ſhould be wanting in þe pliãt and kingdome of Ingland to facilitate this work wherin the true reformed religioun not only in theſe tuo Kingdomes but thruchout all Europe is ſo heichly concerned We are further authorized to conſider with thair breithrein the eſtaits and kingdome of Scotland of what wther articles or propoſitiounes are fitt to be addit & concludeit Wherby this aſſiſtance and wnione betuixt the tuo natiounes may be made more beneficall and effectuall for the ſecuritie of religioun and libertie in both kingdomes

ALL which being takin into the ſerious and chriſtian conſideratioun of the richt honõ^ll the lordſ and utheres of the conventioun of the eſtaits of Scotland / Wee hope thair will not neid any arguments or motives to perſwade and exceite them to give thair conſent And that with all convenient ſpeid / to the deſyres of both houſſes of the parliament of Ingland · Seing they have now fully declaired / as by what þej have done alreadie / ſo by what they are yet deſyreous to doe That the true eſtait of this cauſe and quarrell is religioun / In the reformatioun wheroff they are and have bein ſo forward / and zealous / as that there is not any thing expreſſed to them by thair breithrein of Scotland by thair former or letter declaratiounes / which they have not ſeriouſly takin to heart and earneſtly endevoured to effect (notwithſtanding the ſubtill malicious / and induſtrious oppoſitiounes) that ſo the tuo kingdomes micht be broucht into a neir coniunc^ne into one forme of church government and directory of worſhip or catechiſme &c^ And the fundatioun layed of the utter extirpatioun of poperie and prelacie out of both / The moſt readie and effectuall meanes wherwnto is neir conceaved to be That both natiounes ſould enter into a ſtrict wnione and league for thair mutuall defence according to what is alreadie expreſſed in the deſyres of both houſſes

AND to induce the perſuaſione of this (if there wer cauſe) we micht obſerve that in the many declaratiounes made by the Generall aſſemblie or eſtaites of Scotland ſince the begining of theſe commotiounes in this Illand to thair breithrein in Ingland ther have bein findrie expreſſiounes manifeſting the greate neceſſity that both Kingdomes for the ſecuritie of thair religioun and libertie ſhould ioyne in this ſtrict wnion againſt the papiſtes prelattes and thair adherentes / and in the endevoures of ane wniformitie betuixt the churches of both Kingdomes / The apprehenſioun and foreſicht of which hath cauſet the popiſch and prelaticall factioun in forrane parts as weill as in theſe his ma^ dominiones ſtrictly and powerfully to combyne themſelffes to the hindrance of this ſo neceſſarie work and the wniverſall ſuppreſſioun of the proteſtant religioune in Europe / A courſe not much different from that which they tooke in the yeare 1585 when the wiſdome and zeale of this natioun to countermyne ſo wiked a conſpiracie / and from the due ſenſe of the mutuall intereſt of theſe tuo kingdomes in religion and liberty / fund a neceſſitie of entering into a league of this nature alſweill conſidering that thairby no leſſe ſaiftie micht be expected to both natiounes then danger by forbearing the ſamyn

AND thoch we doubt not in ſo neceſſary a good work many difficulties may aryſe to diſappoynt or at leaſt retard the ſame till the diſeaſe become deſperate / Yet wee are als confident that the hearty and brotherly affec^ne of this natioun to þe parliament and kingdome of Ingland will eaſily breake thruch them And the rather becauſe in the lyk caices of difficulty and danger as not only at the tyme of the league above mentioned / but not long befoir / and lykewyſe ſince / when any opportunity hath offered it ſelff / particularly during the ſitting of this pñt parliament / the kingdome of Ingland haithe bene verie readie and willing to lay to heart the dangeres of the Kingdome of Scotland as thair awine and to deduce no meanes in the reach of thair power for redreſſe or preventioun of the ſamen

August 12 · 1643 · WEE the Cōmiſſioneres appoynted by both houſes of the parliament of Ingland / are by o^r inſtructiounes commanded to repreſent to thair breithrein of Scotland the greate miſeries and calamities broucht wpon that church and kingdome of ingland by the ffactioun of papiſts and prelattes / Wherby they are diſabled for the pñt to mak payment of thoſe greate debts owing to this kingdome for the remander of the brotherly aſſiſtance and for the arreare of the airmie in Ireland / Notwithſtanding of which we are commanded to tak caire for the ſtateing and ſatling all debt^ℓ accompts and demand^ℓ betuixt the tuo natiounes of Ingland and Scotland and when the ſamyn ſhalbe reduced to certainty we are to treate and compound for the tyme and maner of ſatiſfac^one for the ſaid debts And firſt tutcheing the remander of the brotherly aſſiſtance Inaſmuch as the warre wpon the ſubjects and people of Scotland / begun and proſecuted in the yeares 1639 1640 and 1641 was procured by the factioun of papiſts prelattes and thair adherentes which occaſioned the comeing in of thair breithrein into that Kingdome and of the ingadgement thairwpon made for thair ſatiſfactioun We are commanded to ſignifye that both houſes of parliament doe thairwpon think it moſt iuſt and reaſonable that ſufficient land^ℓ of papiſts / prelattes and ſuch wther malignantes as have adhered wnto them / bee by the direc^one and appoyntment of both houſes ſet furth / out of which recompence ſhalbe made / for the forbearance of that money wntill ſueh tyme as ſatiſfactioun be geven for the diſcharge of all the ſaid debt with the intereſt due wpon the ſamen And as for the arreares due wnto the ſcottiſch airmie in Ireland / We are to deſyre that ſince it is impoſſible for the ſtate of ingland by reaſoune of the manifold trubles and burdings which lye wpon it / to mak pñt payment They would therfoir think of ſome wther way how ſatiſfac^one to thair content may be made ather out of the confiſcat land^ℓ In Ireland by way of adventure according to the raites and proportions at which they are to be delyverit to ꝑe Ingliſch adventureres Or ell^ℓ by eſtalment at four equall payments within two yeares efter peace ſhalbe ſetled in Ingland / Or in proviſion of victuall and apperell to be delyvered at reaſonable raites within this kingdome or els q^r or in any wther way within the power of the tuo houſſes It being thair earneſt deſyre to give thair breithrein full contentment ꝑin ſo far as God ſhall inable them therwnto In perſuance wheroff we are authorized to treate and conclude for the diſcharge of both the aforementioned debts and ſuch further payments as ſall growe due wntill ſatiſfac^one be made in any of the wayes befoir ſpēit And incaice thair breithrein ſhall not approve of any of theſe wayes / we are then to receave any ſuch further or any other propoſitiounes concerning the ſamyne as in thair wiſdomes ſhalbe thocht fitteſt We are alſo to mak knowen to thair brethrein of Scotland that by reaſoun of theſe wnexpected trubles in Ingland that natioun is in lykemaner altogidder diſinabled to countinue the charge of the airmie in Ireland / Leaſt thairfoir it ſould become too greate a burthen to this natioun by the diſabilitie of payment from Ingland Wee are to deſyre that the ſaid airmie may be diſmiſſed from that ſervice in ſome ſhort tyme Only ſuch gariſouns to be keipit on foote as thair breithrein ſhall think fitt to retaine for the guard of Carictfergus and Coleraine according to the treatie in that behalff made

IN this our extremitie firſt of all we declaire that we place not our confidence in our owne counſells and ſtrenth bot our confidence is in god almightie The lord of hoſtes who will not leave nor foreſake his people It is his owne trueth and cauſe that we mantein with all the Reformed Churches And which hath beene witneſſed and ſealled by the teſtimoney ſufferings and blood of ſo manie confeſſoris and martyres againſt the hereſy ſuperſtition and tirranie of Antichriſt The glorie of his own name the exaltac̃ne of the Kingdome of his ſoune And the preſervation of his churche and of this whole Iland frome vtter ruine [and devaſtation] is our ayme and the end which we have before our eyes His Covenant we have in both nations ſolemnlie ſuorne and ſub^{t} which he would not have putt in our heartis to doe if he had beene pleaſed to deſtroy ws The manie prayeris and ſupplications which theſe manie yeeres paſt bot eſpẽallie of late have beene offered vp with faſting and humiliation and with ſtrong crying and teares vnto him that is able to delyver and ſave ws Are a ſeed which promiſe vnto ws a plentifull harveſt of comfort and happines And the apoſtacy atheiſme [Idolatrie] blaſphemie profainnes crueltie exceſſe and oppen mocking of all godlines and honeſtie have filled the cupp of our adverſaries to the brime and threatten their ſpeedie and fearefull diſtruction Wnles it be prevented by ſuche extraordinarie repentance as ſeemeth not yett to have entered into their heartis Wpon theſe and the lyke grounds and conſiderations being confident that this warre wherein both nations now firmelie vnited are ſo deeplie ingadged is of god We reſolve with courage and conſtancie vnto the end to doe our pairt And the lord who hath ſtired vp our ſpirittis diſpleyed his banner before ws and given the alarum doe that which ſeemeth him good

SECONDLIE although everie man is to hope for the priñ" reward of his ſervice frome God who rewardis everie on according to his workis yett we find our ſelffis bund in conſcience and equitie to declare that beſyde theſe who have the publict faith ingadged to them for thair ſecuritie ſuche as ſince the beginning have done valiantlie and delt faithfullie in this cauſe And ſuch as have choiſen rather to ſuffer the ſpoyleing of their goodis then to affiſt the enemie Or to take armes againſt their Religion and Countrey And ſall continue conſtant in the ſame courſe of doeing or ſuffering vnto the end ſhall be according to their merites taken into publict notice and conſideration There loſſes (ſo farre as may be) repaired and themſelfes honored and rewarded by ſuche means and wayes as we truſt god in his providence ſall affoord and the parliamentis or eſtates of the tuo Kingdomes reẍiuely ſhall in their wiſdome juſtice and thankfulnes iudge moſt convenient So that no man who hath beene eminent in action or hath ſuffered anie notable loſſe for the publict ſall be neglected or ſlighted bot one way or other ſhall be thankfullie remembred to his owne honour and the good of his poſteritie

THRIDLIE although newtrallitie and indifferencie in the tyme of the danger of Religion be a thing deteſtable to god who willeth all chriſtians earneſtlie to contend for the faith And ſuche as have beene newtralls or indifferent in the tymes of civill diviſions and danger of the cõmon wealth have beene in all nations ſeverly puniſhed as pernitious and publict enemies yett that the conſciences of all men may be the more convinced And all pretextis removed We give now publict warneing to ſuche perſons to reſt no longer vpon their newtrallitie or to pleaſe themſelves with the nauchtie and ſlothfull pretence of indifferencie / Bot that they addres themſelffis ſpeedily to tak the Covenant and joyne with all their power in the defence of this cauſe againſt the cõmon enemie And by their zeale and forwardnes heirefter to mak vp what hath beene wanting through their lukwarmnes This they will find to be their greateſt wiſdome and ſaiftie otherwayes We doe declaire them to be publict enemies to the Religion and Countrey And that they are to be cenſured and puniſhed as profeſſed adverſaries and malignantis

ACT anent theſe who are or ſhall be found Fugitives and Run-awayes from their Companies and Colours.

11 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Taking to their conſideration the great prejudice and danger which may ariſe to the Armies raiſed and to be raiſed, for defence of Religion, Liberties, and Kingdomes, by reaſon of ſome, who having gone or ſhall go out with the ſaids Armies, have run away, or may hereafter run away from their Companies and Colours. For remedy whereof, It is ſtatute and ordained, that all thoſe both of Horſe and Foot, who ſhall run away from their Companies and Colours, without a Paſſe, ſhall be apprehended by the Colonels and Committees of Warre within ilk Shire and Diviſion, Captains of Parochines, or Magiſtrates within Burgh where they dwell, and others whom they ſhall appoint for that effect, where-ever they can be found, and ſent again with all diligence to their Companie and Colours, upon the publick charge, which is to be advanced by the Collectors of the Excife, and allowed in their compts; There to be puniſhed conform to the Articles of Military Diſcipline: Or elſe that the Committees of Warre, and Colonels within ilk Shire, and Magiſtrates within Burgh (if they think it expedient for the good of the Armies, and terrifying others from running away in like maner) decimate the ſaids Fugitives, both Horſe and Foot, being apprehended, and cauſe hang the tenth man of them, and eſcheat their goods for the uſe of the Publick: And if there be but one or more of them within tenne, to cauſe hang one of them, albeit there be but one, and cauſe ſend the reſt of the ſaids Fugitives, Horſe and Foot, to the Committee of Eſtates at Edinburgh, upon the expences of the Publick, as is aforeſaid, to be ſent back to their Colours, in manner as the ſaid Committee ſhall think fit. And becauſe the reſetting and entertaining of the ſaids Fugitives, imbolds and incourages them to keep themſelves ſtill lurking, and incourages others by their example to run away; Therefore it is ſtatute and ordained, that whoſoever ſhall keep, reſet, or entertain the ſaids Fugitives, Horſe or Foot, or ſhall have knowledge of their being within their bounds, & ſhall not delate & deliver them to the ſaid Committee, Colonels of Shires, Captains of Parochines, or Magiſtrates within Burgh, with all poſſible diligence; then the ſaids Reſetters or Concealers, ſhall be repute and eſtimate as diſaffected, and Enemies to Religion, their Countrey, and the Cauſe preſently in hand, and ſhall be accordingly puniſhed by the Committee of Eſtates, or Committees and Colonels of War where they dwell, or Magiſtrates within Burgh, and ſhall be lyable in the ſumme of five hundreth Merks for every Horſeman, and one hundreth pounds for every Footman they ſhall be found to have reſet in manner foreſaid: The one half whereof ſhall be imployed for the uſe of the Publick, and the other half of the ſamine ſhall pertain to whatſoever Perſons that ſhall delate the foreſaids Perſons, Reſetters, and Entertainers, and who ſhall qualifie the foreſaid Reſet and Entertainment; To whom the ſaids Eſtates promiſeth hereby to grant and diſpone, and by thir preſents grants and diſpones the preſent right of the ſame. And if the Committees and Colonels of Warre within each Diviſion, or any perſon being thereupon, Captains of Parochines, or Magiſtrates within Burgh, ſhall be negligent in taking order with the foreſaids Fugitives and Run-awayes from their Colours, and with their Reſetters and Entertainers, or ſhall delay and be deficient in putting of this Act to execution, after the form and tenor thereof: ilk Perſon of the ſaids Committees of War, Colonels, and Captains of Parochines, and Magiſtrates within Burgh, ſhall pay the ſum of five hundreth Merks, for ilk failzie, toties quoties; the one half of which Fyne ſhall pertain to the Publick, and the other half thereof to the Perſons delaters. And alſo it is ſtatute and ordained, that if it come to the knowledge of any Perſon, who have or ſhall happen hereafter to outreach Souldiers on Horſe or Foot, that theſe outreached by them are diſbanded and fled from their Colours, the ſaids out-putters of them ſhall be obliged to ſearch, ſeek, and apprehend the ſaids Fugitives through their whole Bounds and Lands, within whatſoever Paroch or Burgh the ſaids out-putters dwels, and ſhall either apprehend and appreſent them to the Committee and Colonels of the Shire, Captains of Parochines, or Magiſtrates within Burgh, that order may be taken with them, conform to the tenour of this preſent Act. Or elſe if they be without their own proper Lands, to require the Heritor, Bailie, or Officer who hath charge of their affairs, to produce the Fugitives delated by them to be within their Bounds, before the Committee of the Shire: Or otherwiſe to aſſiſt the ſaids out-putters, in ſearching and apprehending the ſaids Fugitives, as they will bee anſwerable within the bounds foreſaids. And if the ſaids out-putters and others, ſhall be negligent to do their exact diligence therein, the ſaids out-putters ſhall be obliged to make vp their number, by out-putting of men in their places, ſufficiently provided in Armes, and others neceſſaries, upon the ſaids out-putters own expences, and the Fugitives themſelves to be ſearched, apprehended, and puniſhed, as ſaid is. And it is ſtatute and ordained alſo, that the Captains of Parochines, who ſhall apprehend the ſaids Fugitives, or Magiſtrates within Burgh, ſhall produce the ſaids Fugitives before the Committee of Warre within their bounds, at the next meeting of the ſaid Committee, under the pains to be puniſhed and cenſured as Reſetters. And it is ordained likewiſe, That the Magiſtrates of Burghs, within whoſe Bounds the ſaids Fugitives ſhall be apprehended, ſhall receive the ſaids Fugitives from the ſaid Committee, to be keeped by them in firmance, upon the charge of the Publick, to be advanced forth of the Excize, and with all diligence to be ſent to the Committee of Eſtates at Edinburgh. Likeas it is ſtatute and ordained, that this preſent Act ſhall bee extended againſt all Reſetters, Fugitives, Committees of Warre, Colonels, Captains, and Magiſtrates of Burgh, and others foreſaids, for any reſet or neglect of the diſcharge of their duty reſpective abovewritten, in any time coming, after the publication of thir preſents, as well for Run-awayes and Fugitives, who have run away in any time by-gone, from any of the Armies levyed heretofore within this Kingdom for this common Cauſe, as for theſe who ſhall be levyed and run away in time coming. And ordaines this preſent Act to bee printed, and a Copie thereof to be ſent to every Paroch Kirk, and every Committee of Warre, and every Burgh within ilk Diviſion within this Kingdom, and that it be read at ilk Paroch Kirk, upon the firſt Sunday after the receipt hereof, and thereafter fixt on the Kirk door, or wall, to be read by every Perſon, that none pretend ignorance. And farther, leſt the Fugitives that ſhall run away, as ſaid is, might be ſuffered to lurk and eſcape unpuniſhed: It is ſtatute and ordained, That no ſtranger ſhall be received within any Pariſh or Shire, who ſhall not have a Paſſe from ſome Colonell, or a Teſtimoniall from the Miniſter and Seſſion from whence they come, and who ſhall reſet any ſuch Perſon without Paſſe or Teſtimoniall, and ſhall not delate them, ſhall incurre the puniſhment of Reſetters of Fugitives. And Ordains the Committee to be appointed by the Eſtates, to ſee the whole Heads and Articles of the Act foreſaid put to a full execution.

[LETTER from the Committee with the Army]

For the Right hono^ll^

THE Estats of the kingdome of Scotland conveened in Parliament at Edinburgh

May it pleaſe yo^r^ L̃ps

YO^R^ meitting together at this tyme in Parl^k^, & the opportunity therby offered vs to give yow an account of the p̃nt Condition, reſolutions, & juſt deſires of this army; hath moved vs for that purpoſe to make this addreſſe vnto yow, being thereunto obliged by the dewty w^ch^ wee ow both vnto yo^r^ L̃ps and vnto them and ſo much the rather that the Conſideration of o^r^ Condition and the power of graunting o^r^ deſires doeth properly & originally belong vnto yo^r^ L̃ps,

WEE are now (as wee have beene this moneth past) lying befor & about the city of York Prince Rupert is come into Lancashire & hes already raiſed the ſeige at Latham houſe there And by vertew of the Commiſsion of array is labouring to compell all the inhabitants of that county (and it is ſuppoſed he intends to do the lyke in Westmereland) that are able to beare armes to ryſe & joyne w^th^ him: for the preventing wherof & for the encourageing of the inhabitants of theſe countyes to joyne together in oppoſition to him; as wee have already ſent S^r^ Jo: Meldrum w^th^ tuo regim^ts^ of foote on from this and another from the Lord fairfax his army into that countrey who are now in the toun of Manchester So ther are alſo ſent from ther armyes tuo thowſand horſe & dragouners to joyne w^th^ the erle of Manchesters wholl cavalry who are to ly vpon the borders of York & Lankashires. And in the meane tyme the erle Manchesters foote are to joyne w^th^ vs in this ſeige of York wherof wee shall not faill to give yow a trew account according as wee shall have occaſion. This being o^r^ p̃nt condition Wee find that by o^r^ keeping of the feilds theſe full five moneths o^r^ regim^ts^ are become ſomewhat weaker then they wer at the beginning wherunto wee are not to expect any recrues from this Wee do therfor intreat yo^r^ L̃ps to think vpon ſome courſe for recruting of the seuerall regim^ts^ w^ch^ are already in this army and to give ſpeedy & effectuall order to the rest formerly deſigned w^ch^ are not as yitt come out to march into this kingdome & joyne w^th^ vs. Whill wee mention this Wee muſt renew againe vnto yo^r^ L̃ps what wee formerly deſired from the Committee in the behalfe of the Lieut: g̃nall that a regim^t^ may be reſerved for him to be collonell therof This is a favor almoſt never denyed to any of his place & howbeit it had not beene promiſed him yett his awne cariage & deſervings heir may juſtly challenge it. Wee are very confident that it is nowayes neidfull for vs to vſe any argum^ts^ w^th^ yow for the renewing in favors of this army & the perſones employed in it all acts formerly made in the late Parl^t^ in favors of that army then employed in this ſame cauſe as namely, anent the wards of ſuch as shall die in this ſervice; the diſchargeing of all proceſses in any inferio^r^ Courts ag^t^ any employed heir during thair employm^t^ or any other acts of that kind: ſeing therby w^th^out doubts or feares to ſuffer prejudices in thair privat estats the officers of this army will be encouraged constantly to attend thair seuerall charges

HAVEING ſaid this in the behalfe of the army in G̃nall wee muſt p̃icularly recomend vnto yow the condition of o^r^ g̃nall of artillary a prime officer therof in whoſe favo^rs^ the late parl^t^ vpon deſerving & hono^ll^ Considerations well knowne to them & vs did recomend to his Ma: the renewing of a penſion [of] 800 lib ſter formerly payed to him yeirly out of the exchecq^r^ of England (wherw^th^ his affection to this cauſe made him willingly to part howbeit it wes his wholl fortune) to be in tyme comeing w^th^ the arrearages therof during his lyftyme payed by the exchecq^r^ of Scotland (And that for his further ſurety) out of the cuſtome & impoſt vpon the wines Heirunto his Ma: at their earnest deſire w^th^out the knowledge or privity of the partie himſelfe wes moved to condiſcend. This being ſo wholly & properly a deid of the Parl^ts he had good reaſone to expect punctuall paym^t according to the tenor of his gift. Bott all this notw^thſtanding immediately after his Ma: parting the lords of the exchecq^r finding that his Ma: by granting promiſcuouſly to multituds of perſones howſoever affected gifts of pension and by aſigneing of localities in them wes lyke to dilapidate his wholl revenew in that kingdome did abſolutly w^thout exception diſcharge all localityes in any pension wherby he is lyke to be defrauded of the benefite w^ch the Parl^t it ſelfe did intend for him heirof wee cannot bot acquaint yo^r Lp̃s aſsureing o^r ſelvs that vpon the ſame grounds whervpon that gift wes w^th the expreſse locality graunted, yow will in the ſame maner renew and take ſuch courſe as no decreit of any inferio^r judicatorie may alter or infringe it in the leaſt meaſure heirw^th wee take o^r leave & reſt

WEE have ſo often written to the Committee for providing of armes both for ſerving the kingdome at home & furniſhing this army w^th ammunition piſtolls muſkets meale & cloaths & shoes, that we conceive it not needfull for vs to putt yow in minde therof. ACT for putting forth of Horſe and Foot, both for By-gones, and in Time-coming, and anent thoſe who are deficient thereintill.

19 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Taking to conſideration the many Acts of Convention and Committee of Eſtates, Ordaining all the Shires and Diviſions of this Kingdome to have put forth their Horſe and Foot for their firſt and ſecond Leavies, according to ſeveral proportions laid upon them, for the Defence and Preſervation of Religion, Crown, and Kingdome: Notwithſtanding whereof, there is ſuch deficiencie of the number of Horſe and Foot due to have been put out by the moſt part, if not all the Shires of the Kingdome, that the March of the Army have been and is daily retarded, the Publike heavily prejudged, and the ſeverall Regiments is much ſhort of that ſtrength they were expected to have been.

THEREFORE the Eſtates of Parliament, for advancement of the preſent Service, and preventing the like remiſſeneſſe in time coming, Have thought fit to Fine, and by thir preſents Fines every Heritor within the Kingdome that ſhould have put out Horſe in the firſt and ſecond Leavies, and was deficient therein, in the ſum of Four hundred Merks for ilk Horſeman, and One hundred Pounds for ilk Footman. And for the better payment of the ſaids Fines, Findes that the eſtates of the deficients, either reall or perſonall, ſhall be lyable aye and while the ſame be paid. Of the which ſum of Four hundred Merks of Fine for ilk Horſeman, there is allowed to the Committee of the Shire, who ſhall bee alwayes obliged for the out-reiking of the Horſe in time-coming, the ſum of Eightſcore Pounds in the firſt and readieſt of the ſaid Fine, & the ſum of fourty pounds for the outreiking of ilk Footman: And the remanent of the Fines to be divided equally, the one half to the Publike, and the other half to the Committee of the Shire or Diviſion for incident charges. [LETTER from the Committee with the Army]

FOR the right honoⁿ The Committee of Eſtats of Scotland at Edr

SINCE our last to your Loᵖˢ the Condition of our affaires heer ar not a litle changed for on monday last vpon notice of P. Ruperts march from knarſburgh towards ws wee reſolved and accordingly drew out the Armyes to have met him / And for that end did march the ſame night to longmarstoun moore about four myles on the weſt ſide of york / Bot he haveing notice thereof did paſe with his army at Borrowbridge / and ſo put the river of Ouſe betwixt him and ws / whereby wee were diſabled to oppoſe his paſsage into york the bridge wee built on the weſt ſide of the toun being ſo weak that wee durſt not adventure to tranſport our armyes vpon it. This made ws reſolve the nixt morneing to marche vnto Todcaster for the stopping of his paſsage southward / And the Armyes being ſo far on their way as the vann wes within a myle of it / Notice wes ſent ws by our horſmen who were vpon our reare that the Prince his Army horſe & foot were advanced the length of Longmarstoun moore / & wes ready to fall vpon them, whervpon wee recalled the whole armyes & drew them vp on a corne hill vpon the south west ſide of the moore in the beſt wayes we could ſo far as the straitnes of that feild and other diſadvantages of the place could permit. Before both Armyes were in readines It wes neer ſeven a clock at night / about wᶜʰ tyme both armyes advanced each toward other / whervpon followed a very hote encounter for the ſpace of two houres, wherof by the great bleſsing and good providence of God the iſsue wes the totall routing of the enemyes Army / and their loſse of all their ordinance to the number of 20 / amunition / baggage / and 100 colours and ten thouſand armes. There were killed vpon the place about thrie thouſand of them and above 1500 priſoners wherof many cheeff officers among whom there are above one hundreth officers, in wᶜʰ number is Sir Charles Lucas Lieutenent Generall to the Marquiſe of Newcaſtles horſe / Porter Generall Major / and Generall Major Tillier with diverſe other Colonells Lieut: Colonells & Majors. The Prince in great diſtraction with a few horſe & almost no foot marched the nixt morneing from York northward. Our loſse God be praiſed is not very great being only of one lieutenent Colonell, ſome few Captanes and about two or three hundreth cōmon ſojors / We have now lyne doun againe in our old leaguer before york, wᶜʰ wee are confident within a few dayes by gods help to gaine and have ſent a great part of our Cavalry after P. Rupert. The glory of all this belongs vnto God alone / and the benefite therof wee hope shall redound to both kingdomes / for which cauſe wee have appointed this nixt Sabbath for a day of ſolemne thankſgiveing throughout thir Armyes / And we hope your loᵖˢ will appoint a day for the ſame to be kept throughout the Kingdome / and notice ſent to ws thereof / that wee altogether may Joyne in it. Wee are informed that the Generall of Artilleries traine in Ireland hes reſsaved no part of that money ſent thither, wherof wee mervaill / And theirfore wee deſire they may have proportionall pay ſince they have done ſervice as the reſt. Wee hear lykwyſe that ſome of that victuall wᶜʰ wes ordained to be ſent hither for our Army is diſpoſed vpon for the vſe of the E. of Calanders Army / And theirfore wee deſire that als much may be ſent hither in place þof / and tymeous proviſion made of als much more as poſſiblie can be had / ſieing wee have reſſaved none from thence ſince our outcomeing more then wes provided befor. ACT anent the Ratification of the calling of the Convention, Ratification of the League and Covenant, Articles of Treatie betwixt the Kingdomes of Scotland and England, and remanent Acts of the Convention of Eſtates, and Committee thereof.

25 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament holden by his Majeſtie and the three Eſtates in Anno 1641. Conſidering that the Lords of his Majeſties Privie Councel, and Commiſſioners for conſerving the Articles of the Treatie, having, according to their intereſts and truſt committed to them by his Majeſtie and Eſtates of Parliament, uſed all meanes, by Supplications, Remonſtrances, and ſending of Commiſſioners, for ſecuring the peace of this Kingdome, and removing the unhappy diſtractions betwixt his Majeſtie and his ſubjects in England, in ſuch a way as might ſerve moſt for his Majeſties honour, and good of both Kingdomes, and their humble and dutifull endeavours for ſo good ends having proven uneffectuall, and their offer of mediation and interceſſion being refuſed by his Majeſtie, and thereby finding the weight and difficultie of affaires, and the charge lying on them to be greater then they could beare, Did therefore in the moneth of May 1643. meet together with the Commiſſioners for the Common Burdens, that by joynt advice ſome reſolution might be tane therein, and in reſpect of the danger imminent to the true Proteſtant Religion, his Majeſties honour, and peace of thir Kingdomes, by the multitude of Papiſts and their Adherents, in Armes in England and Ireland, and of many other publick and important affaires, which could not admit delay, and did require the advice of the repreſentative body of the Kingdome, Appointed and cauſed indict a meeting of the Convention of Eſtates (his Majeſtie having formerly refuſed their humble deſires for a Parliament) to be upon the 22. of June following: Which Diet being frequently kept by the Noblemen, Commiſſioners of Shires and Burrowes, and they finding theſe dangers againſt this Kirk and State ſtill increaſing, Reſolved, after ſerious deliberation, and adviee of the Generall Aſſembly, and joynt concurrence of the Commiſsioners authorized by the Parliament of England, That one of the chiefeſt remedies for preventing of theſe and the like dangers, for preſervation of Religion and both Kingdomes from ruine and deſtruction, and for procuring of peace, that both Kingdomes ſhould for thoſe ends enter into Covenant; which was accordingly drawne up, and chearfully embraced and allowed: Whereat the oppoſite and malignant party more enraging then before, did gather their ſtrength and power againſt the ſame, ſo as the Eſtates were neceſsitate to put this Kingdome into a poſture of defence, and for this purpoſe appointed Colonels and Committees of Warre in the ſeverall Shires for exerciſing the forces therein, and putting them in readineſſe for mutuall defence, in this cauſe of Religion, His Majeſties Honour, and Peace of his Kingdomes, as they ſhould be required by the Eſtates, or their Committee, who were entruſted with the charge of the publicke affaires of the Kingdome during the not ſitting of the Eſtates. And at laſt a treatie was agreed unto by both Kingdomes concerning the ſaid Covenant, and aſsiſtance craved from this Kingdome by the Kingdome of England in purſuance of the ends expreſt therein; and another Treatie for ſettling a Garriſon in, and ſecuring of the Town of Berwick, as the ſame more fully proports, conforme whereunto orders were iſſued forth, and an Armie raiſed out of the Shires and Burrowes of this Kingdome, and ſent into England. And the Eſtates finding themſelves bound in dutie and conſcience to provide all means for ſupply of that Army, and relieving the Scots Army in Ireland, Did reſolve that the ſame ſhould be by way of Exciſe, as the moſt conſtant, juſt, and equall way, leaſt prejudiciall to the Kingdome, and moſt beneficiall to the cauſe in hand, and ordained certaine rates and ſummes to be raiſed off the Commodities contained in the Act made thereanent, and Schedule thereunto annexed: And in reſpect of the neceſſitie of preſent money, and that the Exciſe could not be gotten timouſly in for ſupply of the Army, Did appoint that all perſons within this Kingdome who had moneys, or by their credit could raiſe and advance the ſame, ſhould lend ſuch ſummes to the Eſtates, or their Committee, as they ſhould be required, upon aſſurance of repayment from the publick, in manner contained in the Acts made thereanent, and gave order to their Committee to ſee them put in execution, who have accordingly beene carefull in diſcharge of that truſt committed to them. And the Eſtates being ſtill deſirous to uſe all good meanes, that without the effuſion of more bloud there may be ſuch a bleſſed Pacification betwixt his Majeſtie and his Subjects, as might tend to the good of Religion, his Majeſties true honour and ſafety, and happineſſe of his People, Did therefore give Commiſsion to John Earle of Lowdoun Lord Chancellour, Lord Maitland, Lord Wariſtoun, and Maſter Robert Barclay, to repaire to England, and endeavour the effectuating of theſe ends contained in the Covenant and Treaties conforme to their inſtructions: And in this interim, the Eſtates being informed of the traiterous attempts of ſome unnaturall Countreymen, who in an hoſtile manner invaded this Kingdome toward the South, and had their Complices in armes in the North, all for one deſigne, of ſubverting the Religion, Lawes and Liberties of the Kingdome, were neceſsitate, for ſuppreſsing thereof, to direct an Army to the South under the command of the Earle of Calender, and a Committee of the Eſtates to be aſsiſting to them; another Armie to the North under the command of the Marqueſſe of Argyle, and a Committee to goe along with him.

AND the ſaids Eſtates, Having taken the proceedings above-written to their conſideration, do finde and declare, That the Lords of Councell, and Conſervers of peace, did behave themſelves as faithfull Councellours, loyall Subjects, and good Patriots, in tendring their humble endeavours for removing the diſtractions betwixt his Majeſtie and his Subjects, and in calling the Commiſſioners for the Common Burdens, and by joynt advice appointing the late meeting of Convention, wherein they have approven themſelves anſwerable to the dutie of their places, and that truſt committed to them, and therefore ratifies and approves their whole proceedings therein, and declares, the ſaid Convention was lawfully called, and als full and free in it ſelfe, conſiſting of all the members thereof, as any Convention hath been at any time by-gone; And ratifies and approves the ſeverall Acts made by them, or their Committee, for enjoyning the Covenant, appointing of Committees, putting the Kingdome in a Poſture of defence, allowing the Treaties, raiſing of Armies, and ſending them into England, eſtabliſhing the Exciſe, and borrowing of Money, and all other Acts, Decreets, Sentences, Precepts, Warrants, Commiſſions, Inſtructions, Declarations, and other Deeds done by them.

AND alſo, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament (but prejudice of the premiſſes, and of the generall ratification above-mentioned) ratifies, approves, and confirms the foreſaid mutuall League and Covenant, concerning the Reformation and Defence of Religion, the Honour and happineſſe of the King, and the Peace and ſafety of the three Kingdomes of Scotland, England, and Ireland; Together with the Acts of the Kirk and Eſtate authorizing the ſame League and Covenant; Together alſo with the foreſaids Articles of Treatie agreed upon betwixt the ſaids Commiſſioners of the Convention of Eſtates of Scotland, and the Commiſſioners of both Houſes of the Parliament of England, concerning the ſaid ſolemne League and Covenant, and the ſettling of the Towne and Garriſon of Berwick; With the foreſaids Acts eſtabliſhing the Exciſe, and borrowing of Monеyes reſpectivè above-mentioned. And the ſaids Eſtates ordaines the ſame Acts, with the League and Covenant above-ſpecified, Acts authorizing the ſame, and the Articles of Treatie foreſaid, to have the full force and ſtrength of perfect Lawes and Acts of Parliament, and to be obſerved by all his Majeſties Lieges, conforme to the tenors thereof reſpective. Of the which League and Covenant, Acts authorizing the ſame, Treaties above-written, and Acts for eſtabliſhing the Exciſe, and for borrowing of money, the tenors follow.

A SOLEMNE LEAGUE and COVENANT, For Reformation, and Defence of Religion, The Honor and Happineſſe of the King, and the Peace and Safety of the three Kingdomes of Scotland, England, and Ireland.

WEE Noblemen, Barons, Knights, Gentlemen, Citizens, Burgeſſes, Miniſters of the Goſpel, and Commons of all ſorts in the Kingdomes of Scotland, England, and Ireland, by the providence of GOD living under one King, and being of one Reformed Religion, Having before our eyes the Glory of GOD, and the advancement of the Kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jeſus Chriſt, the Honour and Happineſſe of the Kings Majeſtie and his Poſterity, and the true publick Liberty, Safety, and Peace of the Kingdomes, wherein every ones private condition is included; And calling to minde the treacherous and bloudy plots, conſpiracies, attempts, and practices of the enemies of GOD, againſt the true Religion, and Profeſſours thereof in all places, eſpecially in theſe three Kingdomes, ever ſince the Reformation of Religion, and how much their rage, power, and preſumption are of late, and at this time increaſed and exerciſed; whereof the deplorable ſtate of the Church and Kingdome of Ireland, the diſtreſſed eſtate of the Church and Kingdome of England, and the dangerous eſtate of the Church and Kingdome of Scotland, are preſent and publick teſtimonies; We have now at laſt (after other means of Supplication, Remonſtrance, Proteſtations and Sufferings) for the preſervation of our ſelves and our Religion from utter ruine and deſtruction, according to the commendable practice of theſe Kingdomes in former times, and the example of GODS People in other Nations, after mature deliberation, reſolved and determined to enter into a mutuall and ſolemne League and Covenant: Wherein we all ſubſcribe, and each one of us for himſelf, with our hands lifted up to the moſt high God, doe Swear:

1. THAT we ſhall ſincerely, really, and conſtantly, through the grace of GOD, endeavour in our ſeverall places and callings, the preſervation of the Reformed Religion in the Church of Scotland, in Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government, againſt our common Enemies; The Reformation of Religion in the Kingdomes of England and Ireland, in Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government, according to the Word of GOD, and the example of the beſt Reformed Churches; And ſhall endeavour to bring the Churches of GOD in the three Kingdomes to the neareſt conjunction and Uniformity in Religion, Confeſſion of Faith, Forme of Church-government, Directory for Worſhip, and Catechizing; That we and our Poſterity after us, may, as Brethren, live in Faith and Love, and the Lord may delight to dwell in the midſt of us.

2. THAT we ſhall in like manner, without reſpect of perſons, endeavour the Extirpation of Popery, Prelacie, (that is, Church-government by Archbiſhops, Biſhops, their Chancellours and Commiſſaries, Deans, Deans and Chapters, Arch-deacons, and all other Eccleſiaſticall Officers depending on that Hierarchy) Superſtition, Hereſie, Schiſme, Prophaneneſſe, and whatſoever ſhall be found to be contrary to ſound Doctrine, and the power of Godlineſſe; left we partake in other mens ſins, and thereby be in danger to receive of their plagues; And that the Lord may bee one, and his Name one in the three Kingdomes.

3. WE ſhall with the ſame ſincerity, reality and conſtancie, in our ſeverall vocations, endeavour with our eſtates and lives mutually to preſerve the Rights and Priviledges of the Parliaments, and the Liberties of the Kingdomes; And to preſerve and defend the Kings Majeſties Perſon and Authority, in the preſervation and defence of the true Religion, and Liberties of the Kingdomes; That the world may bear witneſſe with our conſciences of our Loyaltie, and that wee have no thoughts or intentions to diminiſh his Majeſties juſt power and greatneſſe.

4. WE ſhall alſo with all faithfulneſſe endeavour the diſcovery of all ſuch as have been, or ſhall be Incendiaries, Malignants, or evil inſtruments, by hindering the Reformation of Religion, dividing the King from his People, or one of the Kingdoms from another, or making any faction, or parties amongſt the people, contrary to this League and Covenant, That they may be brought to publick triall, and receive condigne puniſhment, as the degree of their offences ſhall require or deſerve, or the ſupreame Judicatories of both Kingdomes reſpectively, or others having power from them for that effect, ſhall judge convenient.

5. AND whereas the happineſſe of a bleſſed Peace between theſe Kingdomes, denyed in former times to our Progenitors, is by the good Providence of God granted unto us, and hath been lately concluded, and ſetled by both Parliaments, We ſhall each one of us, according to our place and Intereſt, endeavour that they may remaine conjoyned in a firme Peace and Union to all Poſterity, And that Juſtice may be done upon the wilfull Oppoſers thereof, in manner expreſſed in the precedent Article.

6. WEE ſhall alſo according to our places and callings in this common cauſe of Religion, Liberty and Peace of the Kingdomes, aſſiſt and defend all thoſe that enter into this League and Covenant, in the maintaining and purſuing thereof; And ſhall not ſuffer our ſelves directly or indirectly, by whatſoever combination, perſwaſion or terrour, to be divided and withdrawen from this bleſſed Union and conjunction, whether to make defection to the contrary part, or to give ourſelves to a deteſtable indifferency, or neutrality in this cauſe, which ſo much concerneth the glory of GOD, the good of the Kingdoms, and honour of the King: But ſhall all the dayes of our lives, zealouſly and conſtantly continue therein, againſt all oppoſition, and promote the ſame according to our power, againſt all lets and impediments whatſoever: And what wee are not able our ſelves to ſuppreſſe or overcome, we ſhal reveal and make known, that it may be timely prevented or removed: All which we ſhal do as in the ſight of GOD.

AND, becauſe theſe Kingdomes are guilty of many ſins and provocations againſt GOD, and his Son JESUS CHRIST, as is too manifeſt by our preſent diſtreſſes and dangers, the fruits thereof, wee profeſſe and declare before GOD and the World, our unfained deſire to be humbled for our own ſins, & for the ſins of theſe Kingdoms; eſpecially, that we have not, as we ought, valued the ineſtimable benefit of the Goſpel, that wee have not laboured for the purity and power thereof, and that we have not endeavoured to receive CHRIST in our hearts, nor to walk worthy of him in our lives, which are the cauſes of other ſins and tranſgreſſions ſo much abounding amongſt us: And our true and unfained purpoſe, deſire, and endeavour for our ſelves, and all others under our power and charge, both in publick and in private, in all duties wee owe to GOD and Man, to amend our lives, and each one to go before another in the example of a reall Reformation; That the Lord may turn away his wrath, and heavy indignation, and eſtabliſh theſe Churches and Kingdomes in Truth and Peace. And this Covenant wee make in the preſence of Almighty GOD, the Searcher of all hearts, with a true intention to performe the ſame, As we ſhall anſwer at that great Day, when the ſecrets of all hearts ſhall bee diſcloſed: Moſt humbly beſeeching the Lord, to ſtrenthen us by his Holy Spirit for this end, and to bleſſe our deſires and proceedings with ſuch ſucceſſe, as may be deliverance and ſafety to his People, and encouragement to other Chriſtian Churches groaning under, or in danger of the yoke of Antichriſtian Tyrannie, to joyn in the ſame, or like Aſſociation and Covenant, To the glory of GOD, the enlargement of the Kingdome of JESUS CHRIST, and the peace & tranquillity of Chriſtian Kingdoms, & commonwealths.

Seſſ. XIV. Auguſt 17. 1643.

THE Generall Aſſemblies Approbation of the draught of the League and Covenant preſented to them.

THE Aſſembly having recommended unto a Committee, appointed by them to joyn with the Committee of the Honourable Convention of Eſtates, and the Commiſſioners of the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England, for bringing the Kingdomes to a more near conjunction and Union, received from the aforeſaid Committees, the Covenant above-mentioned, as the reſult of their conſultations: And having taken the ſame, as a matter of ſo publick concernment and of ſo deep importance doth require, unto their graveſt conſideration, Did with all their hearts, and with the beginnings of the feelings of that joy which they did finde in ſo great meaſure upon the renovation of the Nationall Covenant of this Kirk and Kingdom, All with one voice approve and embrace the ſame, as the moſt powerfull mean, by the bleſſing of God, for ſetling and preſerving the true Proteſtant Religion, with perfect Peace in his Majeſties Dominions, and propagating the ſame to other Nations, and for eſtabliſhing his Majeſties Throne to all ages and generations. And therefore with their beſt affections recomend the ſame to the Honourable Convention of Eſtates, that being examined and approved by them, it may be ſent with all diligence to the Kingdome of England, That being received and approven there, the ſame may bee with publick humiliation, and all Religious and anſwerable ſolemnity, ſworn and ſubſcribed by all true Profeſſors of the Reformed Religion, and all his Majeſties good Subjects in both Kingdomes.

THE Convention of Eſtates their Approbation of the draught of the League and Covenant aforeſaid, 17. Auguſt 1643.

THE Noblemen, Commiſſioners of Shires and Burrows now conveened, having received the Covenant above-mentioned from their Committee, as the reſult of their conſultations with a Committee of the Generall Aſſembly, and the Commiſſioners from both Houſes of the Parliament of England; And having taken that Covenant unto their graveſt conſideration, Did with all their hearts and great expreſſions of joy and unanimitie approve and embrace the ſame, as the moſt powerfull meane, by the bleſſing of God, for ſetling and preſerving the true Proteſtant Religion, with a perfect Peace in all his Majeſties Dominions, and propagating the ſame to other Nations, and for eſtabliſhing his Majeſties Throne to all ages. And being very confident that their Brethren in the Kingdom of England will heartily receive and approve the ſamine; Therefore according to the earneſt recommendation of that venerable Aſſembly of this Kirk now met, thinks it moſt neceſſary for the good ends aforeſaid, that it be ſent into that Kingdome with all diligence, That being received and approved by their Brethren there, the ſame may be with all Religious ſolemnities ſworn, and ſubſcribed by all true Profeſſors of the Reformed Religion, and all his Majeſties good Subjects in both Kingdomes.

EDINBURGH 11. Octob. 1643.

ORDINANCE for the ſolemne receiving, ſwearing, and ſubſcribing of the League and Covenant.

THE Commiſſioners of the Generall Aſſembly, having received from their Brethren ſent unto the Kingdome of England, the ſolemne League and Covenant above-written, as it was apprven by the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England, and the Aſſembly of Divines in that Kingdome, and ſolemnly ſworn and ſubſcribed there. After due examination thereof, did all in one voice moſt heartily receive and embrace the ſame, as agreeing with the draught, unanimouſly and chearfully approven and embraced by the late Generall Aſſembly, and Convention of Eſtates, As the moſt powerfull meane, by the bleſſing of God, for ſetling and preſerving the true Proteſtant Religion with perfect peace in his Majeſties Dominions, and propagating the ſame to other Nations, and for eſtabliſhing his Majeſties throne to all ages and generations: And therefore according to the power given to them by the ſaid Aſſembly, Ordaine this ſolemne League and Covenant to bee with publick Humiliation, and all Religious ſolemnities received, ſworn, and ſubſcribed by all Miniſters and Profeſſours within this Kirk; And, that this may bee univerſally performed, It is alſo ordained that this League and Covenant be forthwith printed, and that the printed Copies, bound with ſome cleane ſheets of Paper be ſent unto the Miniſtery, And that every Miniſter upon the firſt Lords Day, after the ſame ſhall come to his hands, read and explaine it, and by exhortation prepare the People to the ſwearing and ſubſcribing thereof ſolemnly, the Lords Day next immediatly following. And it is further ordained that Presbyteries take account of the performance hereof in their ſeverall bounds, and that they proceed with the Cenſures of the Kirk, againſt all ſuch as ſhall refuſe, or ſhift to ſweare and ſubſcribe this League and Covenant, as enemies to the preſervation and propagation of Religion, And that they notifie their names, and make particular report of their own diligence hereintill, to this Commiſſion, or their Moderator, or Clerk to be delivered to them. And the Commiſſioners think it very convenient, for good example, and the better encouragement of others, that this Covenant be ſolemnly ſworne, and ſubſcribed by themſelves now preſent, before the Congregation, in the Eaſt Kirk upon Friday next the 13. of this inſtant, after Sermon and exhortation to be made by Maſter Robert Douglas Moderator; And that the Commiſſioners of the Convention of Eſtates now in Town, and the Commiſſioners from the Parliament of England, and the Divines of that Kingdome here preſent, be earneſtly deſired to joyne with them in this ſolemne and Religious Action.

AT EDINBURGH the 12. of October 1643.

THE Commiſſioners of the Convention of Eſtates, having received from the Commiſſioners of the General Aſſembly, the Solemn League & Covenant above-mentioned, approven and ſolemnly ſworn and ſubſcribed in the Kingdom of England, And having taken the ſame to their ſerious conſideration, doe unanimouſly and chearfully receive and embrace it, as agreeing with that draught, approven by the late Convention of Eſtates and Generall Aſſembly. And therefore ordains the ſame to be with all Religious Solemnities, ſworn and ſubſcribed by all his Majeſties Subjects of this Kingdom: And that under the pain to ſuch as ſhall poſtpone or refuſe, to bee eſteemed and puniſhed as enemies to Religion, his Majeſties Honour, and Peace of thir Kingdomes; And to have their Goods and Rents confiſcate for the uſe of the Publick, and that they ſhal not brook nor enjoy any benefit, place, nor office within this Kingdome. And als ordains all Sheriffs, Stuarts, and others his Majeſties Magiſtrates to Burgh and Land, and Committees in the ſeverall Shires, To bee aſsiſting to Miniſters and Presbyteries, in procuring reall obedience hereunto. And that with all diligence they make report to the Committee of Eſtates, of the names of all ſuch perſons as ſhall poſtpone or refuſe, to the effect courſe may be taken with them, as aforeſaid. And that they may be cited to anſwer to the next Parliament, as enemies to Religion, King and Kingdomes, and to receive what further puniſhment his Majeſty and Parliament ſhall inflict upon them. And further ordains thir preſents to be Printed with the former Act of the Eſtates, and publiſhed at the Market Croſſes of the Head Burrowes of this Kingdome; Wherethrough none pretend ignorance of the ſame.

ARTICLES of the Treatie, agreed upon betwixt the Commiſſioners of the Convention of Eſtates of the Kingdome of Scotland, authorized by the Committee of the ſaid Eſtates, and the Commiſſioners of both Houſes of the Parliament of England, having power and commiſsion from the ſaids Honourable Houſes, concerning the Solemne League and Covenant, and the aſsiſtance demanded in the purſuance of the ends expreſt in the ſamine.

WHEREAS the two Houſes of the Parliament of England, out of a juſt and deep ſenſe of the great and imminent danger of the true Proteſtant Religion, in regard of the great Forces of Papiſts, Prelats, Malignants, and their adherents, raiſed & imployed againſt the conſtant Profeſſors thereof in England & Ireland, thought fit to ſend their Commiſſioners into the Kingdome of Scotland, to treat with the Convention of Eſtates, and Generall Aſſembly there, concerning ſuch things as might tend to the preſervation of Religion, and the mutuall good of both Nations: And to that end, to deſire a more neer and ſtrict Union betwixt the Kingdomes, and the aſſiſtance of the Kingdome of Scotland, by a conſiderable Strength, to be raiſed and ſent by them into the Kingdome of England. And whereas upon a conſultation, held betwixt the Committee of the Convention of Eſtates and Generall Aſſembly, and the Commiſſioners of the Parliament of England, no means was thought ſo expedient to accompliſh and ſtrengthen the Union, as for both Nations to enter into a Solemne League and Covenant, and a forme thereof drawn and preſented to the Convention of Eſtates, and Generall Aſſembly of Scotland, and the two Houſes of the Parliament of England, which hath accordingly been done and received their reſpective approbation. And whereas the particulars concerning the aſſiſtance deſired by the two Houſes of the Parliament of England, from their Brethren of Scotland, were delivered in by the Engliſh Commiſſioners Auguſt 19. to the Convention of Eſtates, who did thereupon give power to their Committee, to conſider and debate farther with the Engliſh Commiſſioners of what other Propoſitions might bee added or concluded, whereby the aſſiſtance deſired might be made more effectuall and beneficiall; And in purſuance thereof, theſe Propoſitions following were conſidered of, and debated by the Committee and Commiſsioners aforeſaid, to be certified with all convenient ſpeed, to the Convention of the Eſtates of Scotland, and the two Houſes of the Parliament of England by their reſpective Committees and Commiſſioners, to bee reſpectively taken into their conſideration, and proceeded with, as they ſhould finde cauſe: Which being accordingly done, and theſe enſuing Propoſitions, approved, agreed, and concluded of, by the Committee of the Eſtates of Scotland, and the Houſes of the Parliament of England reſpectively; and power by them given to their reſpective Committees and Commiſſioners formally, to agree and conclude the ſamine, as may appear by the order of the Committee, bearing date the 17. of November, and by the Votes of both Houſes, dated firſt of November; We the ſaid Committee and Commiſſioners, according to their ſaids Orders and Votes, doe formally conclude and agree upon theſe Articles following, and in confirmation thereof, do mutually ſubſcribe the ſamine.

I. IT is agreed and concluded, that the Covenant repreſented to the Convention of Eſtates and Generall Aſſembly of Scotland, and ſent to both Houſes of the Parliament of England, in the ſamine forme as it is now returned from the two Houſes of the Parliament of England to their brethren of Scotland, and allowed by the Committee of Eſtates and Commiſſioners of the Generall Aſſembly, be ſworne and ſubſcribed by both Kingdomes, as a moſt neere tie and conjunction betwixt them, for their mutuall defence, againſt the Papiſt and Prelaticall Faction and their adherents in both Kingdomes; and for purſuance of the ends expreſt in the ſaid Covenant.

II. THAT an Army to this purpoſe ſhall be levyed forthwith, conſiſting of eighteen thouſand Foot effective, and two thouſand Horſe, and one thouſand Dragooners effective, with a ſuteable traine of Artillerie, to be ready at ſome Generall Rendezvous neer the Borders of England, to march into England for the purpoſes aforeſaid with all convenient ſpeed, the ſaid Foot and Horſe to be well and compleatly armed and provided with Victuals and Pay for fourty dayes: and the ſaid traine of Artillery to be fitted in all points ready to march.

III. THAT the Armie be commanded by a Generall appointed by the Eſtates of Scotland, and ſubject to ſuch Reſolutions and Directions as are and ſhall be agreed and concluded on mutually betweene the two Kingdomes, or by Committees appointed by them in that behalf, for purſuance of the ends above-mentioned.

IV. THAT the charge of levying, arming, and bringing the ſaids Forces together furniſhed; as alſo the fitting of the traine of Artillerie in readineſſe to march, be computed and ſet down according to the ſame Rates, as if the Kingdom of Scotland were to raiſe the ſaid Army for themſelves and their own affairs; all which for the preſent is to be done by the Kingdom of Scotland upon accompt, and the accompt to bee delivered to the Commiſſioners of the Kingdome of England: And when the peace of the two Kingdomes is ſetled, the ſamine to be repayed or ſatisfied to the Kingdome of Scotland.

V. THAT this Armie be likewiſe payed, as if the Kingdom of Scotland were to imploy the ſamine for their own occaſions, and toward the defraying thereof (it not amounting to the full moneths Pay) ſhall be monethly allowed and payed, the ſumme of thirtie thouſand pounds ſterling by the Parliament of England, out of the eſtates and revenues of the Papiſts, Prelates, Malignants, and their adherents, or otherwayes: And incaſe the ſaid thirty thouſand pounds monethly, or any part thereof, be not payed at the time when it ſhall become due and payable, the Kingdom of England ſhall give the publick Faith for paying the remainder unpayed with all poſsible ſpeed, allowing the Rate of eight pound per centum for the time of the forbearance thereof. And incaſe that notwithſtanding the ſaid monethly ſumme of thirty thouſand pounds payed as aforeſaid, the Eſtates of the Kingdome of Scotland, ſhall have juſt cauſe to demand further ſatisfaction of their Brethren of England, when the peace of both Kingdomes is ſetled, for the paines, hazard and charges they have under-gone in the ſame: They ſhall by way of brotherly aſsiſtance, have due recompence made unto them by the Kingdome of England; And that out of ſuch lands and eſtates of the Papiſts, Prelates, Malignants, and their adherents, as the two Houſes of the Parliament of England ſhall think fit. And for the aſſurance thereof, the publick Faith of the Kingdome of England ſhall be given them.

VI. AND to the end the ſaid Army in manner foreſaid may bee enabled and prepared to march, the Kingdome of England is to pay in ready money to their Brethren of Scotland, or ſuch as ſhall have power from the Eſtates of that Kingdom, the ſumme of An hundred thouſand pounds ſterling, at Leith or Edinburgh, with all convenient ſpeed, by way of advance, before-hand, which is to bee diſ-compted back again into the Kingdome of England, by the Kingdome of Scotland, upon the firſt monethly allowances which ſhall grow due to the Scots Army, from the time they ſhall make their firſt entrance into the Kingdome of England.

VII. THAT the Kingdom of Scotland, to manifeſt their willingneſſe to their utmoſt abilities, to be helpfull to their Brethren of England in this common Cauſe, will give the publick Faith of the Kingdome of Scotland, to bee joyntly made uſe of with the publick Faith of the Kingdome of England, for the preſent taking up of Two hundred thouſand pounds ſterling in the Kingdome of England, or elſewhere, for the ſpeedy procuring of the ſaid Hundred thouſand pounds ſterling, as aforeſaid; As alſo a conſiderable ſum for the ſatisfying in good proportion, the Arrears of the Scots Army in Ireland.

VIII. THAT no Ceſſation, nor any Pacification, or agreement for Peace whatſomever, ſhall bee made by either Kingdome, or the Armies of either Kingdomes, without the mutuall advice and conſent of both Kingdoms, or their Committees in that behalf appointed, who are to have full power for the ſamine, incaſe the Parliament or Convention of the Eſtates of Scotland, or the Houſes of the Parliament of England ſhall not fit.

IX. THAT the publick Faith of the Kingdome of Scotland, ſhall bee given to their Brethren of England, that neither their entrance into, nor their continuance in the Kingdome of England, ſhall bee made uſe of to any other ends then are expreſt in the Covenant, and in the Articles of this Treatie: and that all matters of difference that ſhall happen to ariſe betwixt the Subjects of the two Nations ſhall bee reſolved and determined by the mutuall adviſe and conſent of both the Kingdomes, or by ſuch Committees as for this purpoſe ſhall be by them appointed with the ſamine power, as in the precedent Article.

X. THAT in the ſame manner, and upon the ſame conditions, as the Kingdome of Scotland is now willing to aide and aſſiſt their Brethren of England; the Kingdome of England doth oblige themſelves, to aide and aſſiſt the Kingdome of Scotland in the ſame, or the like caſes of ſtraits and extremities.

LASTLY, It is agreed and concluded, that during the time that the Scots Army ſhall bee imployed as aforeſaid, for the defence of the Kingdome of England, There ſhall be fitted out men of Warre eight Ships, whereof ſix ſhall be of burden betwixt one hundred and twenty, and two hundred Tunne; The other betwixt three hundred and four hundred Tunne, whereof two ſhall bee in lieu of the two Ships appointed by the Iriſh Treaty: all which ſhall be maintained at the charge of the Kingdome of England, to be imployed for defence of the Coaſt of Scotland, under ſuch Commanders as the Earle of Warriek for the time of his being Admirall ſhall nominate, with the approbation of the Committees of both Kingdomes: Which Commanders ſhall receive from the ſaid Earle, generall inſtructions, that they doe from time to time obſerve the directions of the Committees of both Kingdomes.

ARTICLES of the Treatie, agreed upon betwixt the Commiſsioners of the Convention of Eſtates of the Kingdome of Scotland, authorized by the Committee of the ſaids Eſtates, and the Commiſsioners of both Houſes of the Parliament of England, having Power and Commiſsion from the ſaids Honourable Houſes, concerning the ſetling of the Towne and Garriſon of Berwick.

WHEREAS the Commiſſioners of both Houſes of the Parliament of England, have received authority from the ſaids Houſes, to treat with the Convention of the Eſtates of Scotland, or thoſe who ſhould be appointed by them, concerning ſuch things as might tend to the mutuall peace and benefit of both Kingdomes in this common danger of Religion and Libertie: And conceiving it neceſſary thereunto, that ſome ſpeedy courſe ſhould bee taken for the ſecurity of the Town of Berwick upon Tweed for the preſent, and ſettling it in ſuch a way for the future, as may give ſatiſfaction to both Kingdomes, and may beſt conduce to their mutuall intereſt, as appeares by their Paper of the fourth of September, delivered to the Committee. And foraſmuch as it hath been thought fit by the Honourable Committee of the Convention of Eſtates for this purpoſe, to authorize their Committee, to treat and debate with the Commiſſioners of the Parliament of England concerning the ſamine: Whereupon the ſaids Commiſſioners and Committees taking it into their ſerious conſideration, conſented and agreed the ſeverall Propoſitions following ſhould be with all ſpeed repreſented by them reſpective unto the two Houſes of the Parliament of England, and to the Honourable Committee of the Convention of Scotland, as an effectuall means for the future ſetling and ſecuring the ſaid Town: Which repreſentation being accordingly made, and theſe enſuing Articles agreed and concluded on by the Houſes of the Parliament of England, and the Committee of the Eſtates of Scotland reſpective, and power by them given to their reſpective Committees and Commiſſioners to ſettle that Town and Garriſon, according to the ſaid Articles, as may appear by an Order of the ſaids Houſes, dated Octob. 27. 1643. and an Order of the ſaid Committee dated the 17. of November, We the ſaids Commiſsioners and Committee, do formally conclude and agree upon theſe following Articles, which we mutually ſubſcribe.

I. IT is agreed and concluded, That there ſhall bee placed forthwith in the Town of Berwick, by the mutuall advice and conſent of both Kingdomes, A Garriſon of the Scots Nation; The Governour and Prime Officers thereof to be approved by the two Houſes of the Parliament of England, or their Commiſſioners in that behalfe appointed; This Garriſon to conſiſt of Six hundred Foot, and two Troopes of Horſe, ſixty in a Troop, beſides the Officers; or leſſe, or more, as ſhall from time to time be thought fit by the two Kingdomes, or their Committees appointed in that behalf, the which Garriſon is to be part, and payed as part of the Scottiſh Army, which according to the grounds of the Covenant and Treaty being mutually agreed unto, they are to bring into England for the ayde and aſsiſtance of their Brethren. And becauſe it is intended, that the ſaid Army ſhall be (beſides the Garriſon) the full number at leaſt which is propoſed in the Treaty; and that theſe men, Foote and Horſe, will be an over-burden, in reſpect that the Thirty thouſand pounds is not a full monethly pay of the Army, and the charge of the aforeſaid Garriſon by eſtimate, will ariſe unto Fifteen hundred pounds monethly, or thereabouts, It is therefore agreed and concluded, as juſt and reaſonable, that in regard of the new charge, the ſaid Thirty thouſand pounds monethly to be allowed for the ſaid Army, ſhould be made up Thirty one thouſand pounds.

II. THAT the publick Faith of the Kingdome of Scotland, ſhall be given to the Kingdome of England, That when the Peace of the two Kingdomes ſhall be ſettled, there ſhall bee no Garriſon in Berwick, but the Works ſlighted, and the places dismantled, ſo as all monuments, tokens, and ſhewes of hoſtilitie be taken away, according as is ſpecially provided and agreed to, between the two Kingdomes, by the Articles of the large Treaty; and that during the time the Garriſon foreſaid ſhall be and remain in the ſaid Town, the Liberties, Properties, and Priviledges of the ſaid Town, in their perſons, eſtates, or politick Governement, ſhall be maintained and preſerved inviolably unto them, without any moleſtation or infringement; and if any differences ſhall happen to ariſe in and about the ſame, they ſhall be ſetled and determined by the advice of both Kingdomes, or their Committees in that behalf appointed. THE Convention of Eſtates conſidering that this Kingdome having entred into a ſolemne League and Covenant, for Reformation and Defence of Religion, the Honour and Happineſſe of the Kings Majeſtie, and the Peace and Libertie of the Kingdomes of Scotland, England, and Ireland: and in purſuance of theſe ends, being forced to leavie an Armie to bee ſent into England: and that by the ſaid Covenant they are bound in Conſcience, Dutie, and for their own ſafetie, To contribute their beſt endeavours in providing of ſome means for preſervation of Religion, Laws and Liberties, from utter ruine; for relief of the neceſſities of the Armie ſent from this Kingdom for that purpoſe; and for ſome ſupply of the extreme wants of the Scots Armie in Ireland. And alſo remembring that the great burdens of this Kingdome have hithertills lyne upon the well-affected, who did willingly embrace the ſame, whiles the Malignants were uſing all cunning wayes, both to free themſelves, and hinder others, Do finde it abſolutely neceſſar, that ſome conſtant, juſt, and equall way, leaſt prejudiciall to the Kingdome, and moſt beneficiall to the Cauſe in hand, be reſolved upon, for ſettling ane ſolide foundation of a ſtock of credit and ſecuritie, whereupon ſummes of Money may be raiſed for the preſent ſupply, and future relief of the neceſſities of theſe Armies: And after ſerious deliberation have agreed, that the ſame ſhall be by way of Exciſe.

And accordingly Statutes and Ordains, that the ſeveral Rates put upon the Exciſeable goods contained in the Roll thereof ſet downe thereanent, ſhall be laid on all and every one of the Commodities therein ſpecified, over and above all Cuſtomes, and other duties due and payable for the ſame: And recommends to the Committee of Eſtates, To take ſome courſe how this Exciſe may moſt ſpeedily, and with leaſt trouble and expence to the Kingdome, be up-lifted thorow the Shires and Burrows thereof.

AN Act of the Eſtates of Scotland, for raiſing of Moneys for a preſent ſupply to the Armies ſent into England and Ireland.

AT EDINBURGH the ſecond of February 1644

FORSAMEIKLE as the Convention of Eſtates finding themſelves bound in conſcience and dutie for ſetling of a ſtock of credit and ſecurity, whereupon ſummes of Money may be preſently raiſed for ſupply of the Army ſent into England, and relieving in ſome meaſure the extreme wants of the Scots Army in Ireland, Did conclude and agree that the ſame ſhould be by way of Exciſe; Yet conſidering that the neceſſitie of the Armies cannot admit of delayes, and the ſummes to be raiſed on this Exciſe will not be timouſly gotten in for ſupply thereof, But that the ſamine joyned with the Publick Faith of this Kingdome, may be a ſufficient ſurety to any that will advance Moneys in the interim;

HAVE therefore thought fit to require and ordain, That all perſons of this Kingdome, who have Moneys, or by their credit and ſurety can beſt and ſooneſt raiſe Money, To lend the ſame to the Eſtates, or their Committees, for the uſes foreſaids, Who ſhall have aſſurance for their repayment from the Publick, out of the Moneys due by the Kingdome of England to the Armies, according to the proportion to be advanced to either of them reſpective; Or that ſhall be raiſed upon this Exciſe, which the Collector and his Deputes ſhall be bound to pay them, out of the firſt of his intromiſſion thereof; Or by any other manner of ſurety, private or publick, they ſhall deſire. And in caſe any ſhall deſire private ſurety, It is hereby ordained, that the perſons whom the Lenders ſhall deſire to be bound to them, ſhall either obliege themſelves to the Lenders, or furniſh the Moneys themſelves: and in either caſe ſhall have publicke ſurety foreſaid for their reliefe. And the perſons thus obliged to the Lenders in a private ſurety, ſhall have ſuch others of any Eſtates (that are in the Towne or Shire where the Money is to be borrowed) joyned with them as they ſhall deſire.

AND for the better proſecuting hereof, The Eſtates gives power to their Committee, in ſuch an exigencie, and upon warrandize of repayment foreſaid, To call before them all ſuch perſons as are knowne to be able by themſelves or their credit to Lend or raiſe Money; And to require and ordaine them to Lend, or give ſuch ſurety as will preſently raiſe the ſummes of Money the Committee ſhall require from them, upon the aſſurances above-written. And if any ſhall refuſe, with power to the Committee, To take ſuch courſe with them, as in a time of ſo preſſant neceſſity they ſhall thinke fitting to make them advance Moneys, as ſaid is. But if any will be pleaſed upon this ſecurity willingly to offer Moneyes, it ſhall be eſteemed and imbraced as a reall teſtimony of their affection to Religion and the Cauſe in hand.

AND further, the Eſtates gives hereby power and command to the Committee of Warre in the Shires, To take ſuch courſe within their ſeverall bounds for procuring of Moneys in manner foreſaid, as is above-written, or from time to time ſhall be direct to them from the Committee of Eſtates, and to report.

LIKEAS, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament ſtatutes and ordains, the borrowing of Moneys, conforme to the Act above-written made there-anent by the Convention of Eſtates, and hereby ratified, to endure while the firſt day of Auguſt 1645. years; And declares, That there ſhall be no returning for borrowing of Moneyes from theſe perſons who has already lent Moneyes by ordinance of the Committee, conforme to the ſaid Act, and who has accordingly payed the ſamine, and received ſecurity from the Publicke therefore.

AND farther, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, but derogation to the particular and generall ratifications reſpective before-rehearſed, likewiſe ratifies, approves, and confirmes thir Acts after-ſpecified, made by the ſaid Convention of Eſtates; viz. The Act anent the conſtitution of the foreſaid Convention of Eſtates, declaring the ſaid Convention to be lawfully called, and als full and free in it ſelfe, conſiſting of all the Members thereof, as any Convention has beene at any time by-gone, dated the 26. day of June 1643. years. COMMISSION for the Northerne Buſineſſe.

34 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and the three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering that the Convention of Eſtates of this Kingdome, upon occaſion of the recent Northerne Rebellion, did nominate and appoint a Committee, conſiſting of certain Noblemen, Barons, and Burgeſſes, to go alongs with the Forces ſent thither for ſuppreſsing of the ſaid Rebellion; Giving full Power and Commiſsion to them, to provide Victuall and all other neceſſars for the uſe of the ſaid Army, and to have the Government of the affairs thereof, and to purſue the Authours, Actors, and Aſsiſters in the ſaid Rebellion, and to call before them all Malignants, and Oppoſites, and to cenſure them, and to give their concurrence for ſetting on and eſtabliſhing of the matter of the Exciſe, and for bringing forth of the Forces, Horſe and Foot, appointed by the Printed Orders, and for eſtabliſhing the Peace of the Countrey, and for doing and managing of certaine other great and important points at length conteined and expreſt in the ſaid Commiſsion; as the ſamin dated the ſixteenth day of April laſt by-paſt bears. And that the ſaid Committee, according to the ſaid Commiſsion, having gone alongs with the ſaid Army to the North; Hes moſt carefully and prudently acquit themſelves of that great and weighty charge committed unto them, in diſsipating the Army of the ſaid Rebellion, apprehending ſome of the prime authours thereof, and their aſſociates, and ſending them to the Committee of Eſtates at Edinburgh, to receive their tryall there, or before the high Court of Parliament; in taking of all the ſtrong Holds and Caſtles belonging to the ſaids Rebels, and fortifying the ſame with Gariſons; in providing the ſaid Army with Victuall, and all other neceſſars, in citation of the Rebels and Malignants before them, to the number of four or five hundreth perſons or thereby, and putting ſuch as compeired under band, and in the execution of many other important points and paſſages at length conteined in the report made by the Lord Marqueſſe of Argyle, as chief Commander of the ſaids whole Forces, Horſe and Foot, ſent alongs in the ſaid expedition, and by the Lord Burghlie as Preſident of the ſaid Committee, unto the Eſtates of this preſent Parliament; As their ſeverall reports and Ratification and Approbation of their good ſervices granted to them in this preſent Parliament at length bears. And howſoever the ſaid Lord Marqueſſe of Argyle, and the ſaid Lord Burghlie and remanent of the ſaid Committee, and all other, Noblemen, Gentlemen, and others intereſſed in the ſaid imployment, have ſo acquit themſelves therein, that ſuch ſucceſſe could not be expected in ſo ſhort time, yet in regard of the preſent Parliament, were then forced to break up, and adjourne their meetings untill the twentieth day of June laſt by-paſt; and which ſince have been continued by order of Parliament, firſt, untill the eleventh of July, and thereafter untill the twenty fifth day of July, inſtant; ſo that there reſteth many and weighty matters to be done, which doth require and call for the election of a Committee of Eſtates for finiſhing and ſetling thereof. XX JULII.

ACT and Ratification in favours of the Natives, anent the Coale.

FORSAMEIKLE as the Lords of Privie Councell, by their Act and Decreet given the nineteenth of October 1643, in favours of the free Royall Burrows, againſt all and whole the Heritors of the Coal-heughes, on both ſides of the water of Forth, and others within this Kingdome, by vertue of their former Act, dated in December 1620. As alſo by another Act dated in April thereafter: As likewiſe by their other Act, dated the 29. November the ſaid year, 1621. The ſaids Lords did ordain every one of the ſaids Heritours, and Maſters of Coal-heughs, To ſell their Coales at the prices and meaſure reſpectivè therein contained: And did ordain and command the whole Coal-maſters of this Kingdome, to preferre Natives coming to them for Coal, to whatſomever Strangers: and not to poſtpone or delay them upon whatſomever pretext, colour, or bargain made with the ſaids Strangers, and to ſerve them at the prices and meaſures contained in the ſamine Decreet, under the pain of an hundred pounds, to be payed to the partie wronged, either by heighting the prices, altering the meaſure, or delaying and poſtponing them to Strangers: And that by the contraveeners toties quoties, conforme to the ſaid Act of Councell, and Proclamation thereof on the 29. of November 1621. And farther under the pain to be altogether reſtrained from tranſporting any Coal at all, and alſo cenſured in their perſons & goods, at the arbitriment of the ſaids Lords of Councel, as the ſaid Act and decreet of the date foreſaid at more length bears. Likeas the ſaids Lords by an other Decreet given and pronounced by them the 9. November 1643. in favours of the Commiſsioners of the Royall Burrows, againſt divers of the ſaids Heritors on both ſides of the ſaid water of Forth, they did ordain them to ſell their Coal at the prices and meaſure reſpectivè therein contained: And that the ſamine prices and meaſures ſhould ſtand onely to Whitſunday now laſt bypaſt, and aye and while the ſaids Lords of Councell took farther order thereanent, and the Burrowes to be warned anent the ſamine: and that under the pain of the foreſaid an hundred pounds, and abſolute diſcharge of tranſportation of Coal at all, as the ſaid Decreet of the date foreſaid at more length proports. As alſo the ſaids Lords of Privie Councell, by their other Decreet, given on the ſaid 9. November 1643. in favours of the ſaids Commiſsioners of the free Royall Burrowes, againſt divers and ſundry Heritors, and Maſters of Coal-heughes within the Sheriffdomes of Lowthian, & Stirling, diſcharge the ſaids Heritors and Coal-maſters, to ſell any of their Coale to be tranſported out of the Kingdome, under the paines contained in the Acts of Parliament; But to ſell their Coales to Natives, at the prices and meaſure formerly received by them thir ſeven yeares bygone, for the reaſons and cauſes therein contained, as the ſaid Decreet of the date foreſaid at more length beares. Which Acts and Decreets being ſeen and conſidered by the ſaids three Eſtates preſently conveened in Parliament, and underſtanding that the ſaids Acts and Ordinances has not taken ſufficient effect; ſo that the Natives of this Countrey doth as yet greatumly ſuffer in default of the ſaids Coal-maſters; Therefore the ſaids Eſtates ratifies and approves the foreſaids three Acts and Decreets of the ſaids Lords of Privie Councell, in the whole Heads, Articles and Clauſes thereof, and interpones their authority thereto; and ordaines the ſamine to ſtand and bee obeyed by the ſaids Coal-maſters, their Coal-grieves, and Coalyars, under the paines therein contained, aye and while the Lords of Secret Councel, or Committee of Eſtates take farther order thereanent: The Coal-maſters and Burrows being lawfully warned for that effect. And becauſe the foreſaids Acts of Councell would appear to bee conceived onely in favours of Burghes Royall, at whoſe inſtance the ſaids Coal-maſters were cited, albeit the whole Natives and In-dwellers within this Kingdom, has the like reaſon of complaint and exigence of Coal; Therefore the Eſtates of this preſent Parliament, ſtatutes and ordaines the whole Coal-maſters within this Kingdome, to readily anſwer and obey all the Natives of this Kingdome, as they, their Coal-grieves, or Coalyars ſhall be deſired from time to time; not onely with great burning-Coales for uſe of their Houſes and brewing, but alſo with ſmall Coales, for burning of Lyme, ſerving of their Smiddies, or any other uſe needfull; and that at ſuch prices, and with ſuch meaſure as the ſaids Coal-maſters, Coalgrieves, and Coalyars has been in uſe to ſell the ſamine theſe ſeven years bygone: And that the ſaids Natives bee preferred to any Stranger or Forreiner from time to time, as the ſaids Natives from Land or Burgh ſhall deſire themſelves to bee furniſhed with Coales, for the uſe within this Kingdome, under the paines and penalties contained in the ſaids Acts of Councell made anent Coales, and alſo under the paine of forfeiting of their Liberty of ſelling or tranſporting at any time thereafter of their Coales by Sea, after they ſhall be found to have refuſed any of the Native Subjects of this Kingdome, deſiring to be ſerved with Coales, for their owne, or others of his Majeſties Lieges their uſe within this Kingdom, in manner as ſaid is. And for the better execution of the ſaids Acts, The Eſtates of this preſent Parliament grants and gives full power and Commiſſion to George Dundas of that Ilk, William Drummond of Riccartoun, Sir Robert Drummond of Meidop, Maſter George Dundas of Mainer, and George Bell Proveſt of Linlithgow, to put the foreſaids Acts to execution, for the bounds be-Weſt the Queens-Ferry, up to Stirling, upon the South-ſide of the water of Forth. And to Sir Wauchope of Nidrie Knight, Maſter George Winrahame of Libbertoun, Maſter John Cant of Comerſtoun, Maſter Samuel Johnſtoun of Sheines, and Edward Edgar Burgeſſe of Edinburgh, to put the ſamine Acts to execution for the whole bounds of the Sheriffdome of Edinburgh principall, and to Sir Patrick Hepburne of Wauchtoun, Patrick Cockburne of Clerkingtoun, Maſter John Hepburne of Smeitoun, Patrick Inglis of Elvingſtoun, and John Cockburne Proveſt of Hadingtoun, to put the foreſaids Acts to execution, for the bounds of Eaſt-Lowthian. Item, to William Monteith of Randiefurd, Thomas Bruce Proveſt of Stirling, Sir John Erskein of Balgonie, Robert Dempſter of Babowgie, and James Reid Proveſt of Dumfermeling, to put the ſaids Acts to execution for the North ſide of Forth be-Weſt the Queenes-Ferry. Item, to Sir Michael Balfoure of Deanmylne, Maſter Aytoun of Inchederny, Maſter James Schonar of Caskieberrian, George Gairne Burgeſſe of Bruntiland, James Law Burgeſſe of Kirkaldie, Sir Andro Skein of Halyards, and Maſter Robert Cuninghame in Kinghorne, to put the ſaids Acts to execution for the bounds of the Northſide of the water of Forth, be-Eaſt the Queenes-Ferry, to the Coal-heugh of Durie inclusivè. And to Sir James Monypenny of Pitmille, George Hay of Nauchtoun, John Beatoun of Balfoure, and James Lentroun Burgeſſe of S. Andrewes, and George Jamiſon Proveſt of Cowpar, to put the ſaids Acts to execution for the whole remanent bounds on the North ſide of Forth, be-Eaſt the Coal-heugh of Durie. And the Eſtates ordaines the fore-named perſons above-named, or any two of them, as ane Quorum, within every one of the ſeverall bounds reſpectivè above-deſigned, committed to them, as ſaid is, to uſe their beſt diligence for putting of this preſent Act, and of the Acts abovementioned hereby ratified, to due and timeous execution; and that every Coal-maſter bear their own proportion for ſerving the Natives, conforme to the ſaids Acts. And for this effect ordaines one of the Commiſſioners for ilke ane of the ſeverall bounds above-ſpecified, to viſit every week once, the whole Harberies within the bounds reſpectivè foreſaids aſſigned to them, and to cauſe the Natives be readily ſerved, conforme to the foreſaids Acts. With power alſo to the ſaids Commiſſioners, and their Quorum foreſaid, to appoint their diets and places of meetings within their bounds reſpectivè before rehearſed, as they ſhall think fit, for the better and more exact putting to execution of the ſaids Acts and Ordinance hereof. And upon the complaint of any party grieved, to conveene the ſaids Coal-maſters, Coal-grieves, and Coalyars before them, or their Quorum within their ſeverall bounds, and after tryall, to inflict and up-lift from the perſons found guilty, all ſuch unlawes, penalties, and Fines, as are appointed by the foreſaids Acts, to bee incurred by theſe who tranſgreſſe the ſamine, to be applyed for the uſe of the complainers, provers of their complaints, whereupon the ſaids unlawes and penalties are to be exacted. And the Eſtates declares the ſaids Coal-maſters, Coal-grieves, and Coalyars, to be ſubject and lyable to the juriſdiction and ſentence of the foreſaids Commiſſioners, or their Quorum, within the feverall bounds reſpectivè above-ſpecified, and to the execution of the ſamine ſentence, ſua far as concernes the putting of the foreſaids Acts of Secret Councell, with this preſent Act of ratification thereof, and Commiſſion above-ſpecified, with the power hereby granted, to due and exact execution, to the effect before rehearſed. And ordains Letters, and all execution needfull, to bee direct for charging the ſaids Commiſſioners, and ilke ane of them, to accept this Commiſſion for the ſeverall bounds before-deſigned, and to do their exact diligence in putting of the ſamine to execution, in manner before preſcribed, as they will bee anſwerable to the Parliament, Convention of Eſtates, or their Committees; and to be cenſured as the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, Convention of Eſtates, or their Committees ſhall finde their faults, over-ſights, and ſlackneſſe to deſerve cenſure. As alſo ordaines Letters, and all other execution needfull, to paſſe and be direct upon all ſentences, to be pronounced by the ſaids Commiſſioners, or their Quorum, in form as effeirs.

DECLARATION and Act anent the Duke of Hammiltoun his impriſonment.

36 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Taking to their Conſideration the Fundamentall Laws, Liberties, and Independencie of this Kingdome, and the practice of former times, which doth require, That all Natives and Inhabitants accuſed for committing crimes in this Kingdome, or againſt the King or Kingdome, ſhould be tryed and judged in a legall way by the ordinary Judicatories of this Land: And conſidering the preſent impriſonment of James Duke of Hammiltoun, a Native and Eminent Peere of this Kingdome, and his ſo long reſtraint, upon pretence of Crimes alledged to have been committed by him in this Kingdome, or againſt the Kings Majeſtie, or the Kingdome, without the leaſt ſignification or intimation to the Kingdome, or Judicatories thereof: They cannot ſo farre forget the Publick intereſt, and juſt libertie of the Subjects (which they are obliged to maintaine) as not to be ſenſible of the wrong done to his Majeſties honour and this Nation thereby in its freedome and priviledges. And likewayes conſidering the dangerous preparative to them and their poſterity, which may enſue thereupon if they ſhould paſſe this over in ſilence: Therefore the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament do declare, That if his Majeſtie be informed of any ſuch Challenge againſt the ſaid Duke, as deſerves that hee ſhould be put to tryall, that he ought to be returned to this Kingdome here to abide his tryall, according to Law and Juſtice: And if there bee any Crimes alledged againſt him, for which he is anſwerable as a Peer of England; That he be there tryed in a Parliamentarie way, according to the Laws of that Kingdome. Otherwayes they are confident, That his Majeſtie wil, upon better conſideration, be graciouſly pleaſed, according to his accuſtomed Juſtice, to cauſe the ſaid Duke forthwith to be ſet at liberty, and thereby preſerve the Liberties of this Kingdome; As he hes done to others whoſe perſons upon ſiniſter informations hath formerly been reſtrained. But if the evil counſels of ſuch as are enemies to his Majeſties honour, and the publick libertie of this his Majeſties ancient and Native Kingdom ſhall ſo far prevail, as that the perſon of the ſaid Duke be detained any longer, or he proceeded againſt forth of this Kingdome of Scotland: The Eſtates of Parliament declares, The juſt priviledges of this Kingdome, and freedome and liberty of the Subject, to be thereby infringed and violate, and all courſes and proceedour to the contrary hereof, to be unwarrantable and illegall; and that this Kingdome will reſent the ſame as a National wrong. And withall, declares all ſuch perſons of this Kingdome, as by their actions, counſels, plots, advice, or aſſiſtance, are, or ſhall be any wayes acceſſorie thereto, or any ſuch impriſonment, reſtraint, and detention of any Peer or free born Subject of this Kingdome, without re-manding them to abide the tryall in the lawfull Judicatories of this Kingdome, To be enemies to the Kings Honour, the lawfull priviledges of this Kingdome, and the juſt liberty of the Subject, and that they ſhall be puniſhed accordingly: And if they be Natives of the Kingdome of England, they will earneſtly deſire the Honourable Court of Parliament there to doe Juſtice upon them, as they will be ready in the like caſes to render to the Subjects of that Kingdome.

XXVII JULII.

ACT concerning the Declaration at Oxford, and the Rebels in the North and South.

67 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering ane Act of the late Generall Aſſembly, upon the third of June laſt, concerning a Declaration made and ſubſcribed at Oxford, a Copy whereof was preſented to them by the late Convention of Eſtates, and from the ſaid Aſſembly now preſented in this Parliament, the tenour of the which Copy followeth:

AS it cannot bee but that all good men and loyall ſubjects are very much afflicted with the preſent lamentable and diſtracted eſtate of all his Majeſties Dominions, ſo we that are his Majeſties Subjects of the Kingdome of Scotland, have great reaſon above all other to be grieved thereat: for beſide the common reſentment that every one borne under his Majeſtie ought to have of his undeſerved ſufferings, and the evils wherewith his Kingdomes are ſo afflicted, we muſt be more peculiarly touched for the honour and reputation of that our native Countrey, that is ſo deeply wounded by the perfidious treachery of ſome of her unnaturall brood, whoſe baſe and diſloyall proceedings reflect upon the whole, as if all were the like guilty of the ſame. And no marvell that ſome be miſtaken in this point, when they conſider that all their moſt treaſonable actions are countenanced with publick authority, and ſo may ſeeme to carry along with them the approbation of all. To take off this prejudice (which in the opinion of ſome that are ſtrangers to our affairs, may lay upon the generall Body of our Kingdome) ſo many of us his Majeſties faithfull ſervants as are here preſent, think our ſelves bound for ſatisfying of the world, but eſpecially the honourable Members of both Houſes, conveened here at this time (of whoſe juſtice and wiſedome we may expect that they will diſtinguiſh betwixt Faction and Nation, and in all their reſults ſo make it appear) to emit a Declaration of our judgements concerning our proceedings in that late pretended Convention of Eſtates in Scotland. And ſince that it may be ſeen how much wee loathe and abhorre the ſame, and are reſolved never to owne any thing that hath iſſued from them as an act of any lawfull or warrantable Judicatorie: Wee doe therefore for our ſelves, and in name of all his Majeſties faithfull ſubjects of Scotland (that have in hatred and deteſtation the ſaid traiterous Convention with all that hath followed thereupon) utterly renounce and diſclaime the ſaid pretended Meeting, as preſumptuous and illegall, and called for no other end but to raiſe ſedition and rebellion in that Kingdome, with all Committees general or particular, following from the ſame, and all Ordinances and Decrees made and given therein: And particularly, eſpecially that Act concerning that traiterous and damnable Covenant, drawne up and taken between them and the Rebels here, which wee moſt heartily deteſt, and ſhall never enter therein by force, perſwaſion, or any other reſpect whatſomever; as alſo all Acts and Orders, authorizing the levying of Armies, under colour whereof, the preſent rebellious Army there is gathered together, which wee eſteeme an Act of high Treaſon, and hold our ſelves obliged by vertue of our alleadgeance, and to that Act of Pacification, to withſtand and oppoſe the ſame. Likeas wee faithfully promiſe upon our honour every one of us, to leave no meanes unattempted, to ſuppreſſe the ſaids Rebels, now in Armes againſt his Majeſtie and his Crown of England. From all the faithfull ſubjects whereof, but eſpecially the honourable Members of the two Houſes here conveened, wee will expect ſuch countenance and aſſiſtance, as wee may be the better enabled thereby to prevail againſt their & our common enemies, and whereby it may be ſeen, that they will not ſuffer the Rebels on both ſides, to go before them in this point, and leave nothing undone in ſo bad a cauſe to ſtrengthen one another. And becauſe wee will take all ſuch of our own Countreymen as wil not joyn heartily with us in this our Declaration, and in the courſes to be taken for the proſecution thereof, for enemies both to his Majeſty and us, if for ſuch of them as are here, it were not expedient we ſhould know how to eſteem of them, The honourable Members of both Houſes may bee pleaſed to take it to their conſideration: Our deſire is, that the honourable Members of both Houſes here conveened, would joyne with us in a requeſt to his Majeſtie, That what Scottiſhman ſoever ſhall refuſe to ſet his hand to this Declaration ſubſigned by us, may not be permitted to live under his Majeſties protection, but be chaſed from among his Majeſties loyall ſubjects, as a partaker, in affection at leaſt, with the odious rebellion of both Kingdomes.

AND as the ſaid Declaration being examined by the Aſſembly, was found to be a perfidious Band, and unnaturall confederacie, to bring this Kirk and Kingdome to confuſion, and to bee full of blaſphemies againſt the late ſolemne League and Covenant of the three Kingdomes, and of vile aſperſions of Treaſon, Rebellion, and Sedition, moſt falſely and impudently imputed unto the Eſtates, and the moſt faithfull and loyall Subjects of theſe Kingdomes: So the ſaids Eſtates having re-examined the ſaid Declaration, Declare their judgement to be the ſame thereanent: And therefore, according to the recommendation of the Aſſembly, that a publick and perpetuall note of ignominie may be put upon that Declaration, Ordains the ſaid Copy thereof to be burnt at the Market-croſſe of Edinburgh by the hand of the hangman now preſently. And ſeriouſly recommends to the Commiſſion for trying and cenſuring Delinquents, the exemplar puniſhment of the ſubſcribers of that, or the like Declaration or Band, and of all ſuch as have been acceſſory to the framing, or have been or ſhall be acceſſorie to the execution thereof, according to the merit of ſo treaſonable, unnaturall, and impious ane offence. And ſicklike the ſaids Eſtates taking to their conſideration ane other Act of the ſaid Aſſembly, of the ſame date, concerning their proceedings againſt the Rebels in the North and South, Do unanimouſly approve the ſame; And according to the Aſſemblies deſire therein, as they have already cenſured and puniſhed ſome of the ſaids Rebels, ſo do they alſo earneſtly Recommend to the ſaid Commiſſion to puniſh any others who ſhal be found either principall Actors in the ſaids Rebellions, or to have joyned therein, according to the merit and degree of their delinquencie.

ACT extending former Acts anent deſignation of Manſes and Gleibs to Miniſters.

by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament holden by his Majeſty & three Eſtates, in An. 1641. Gives power to every Presbytery to deſigne Manſes & Gleibs to Miniſters at every Paroch Kirk within their ſeverall bounds where they have not been at all deſigned, or not to the full quantity, or where the Manſes and Gleibs are decayed, or become unprofitable by inundation, ſanding, or any other extraordinary accident, out of Kirklands, eweſt to the Paroch Kirk, according to the order in the Act of Parliament, in the year 1593. Borrowſtoun Kirks being alwayes excepted: And Ordains Letters to paſſe thereupon in the ſame way as they paſſed upon the deſignations of Biſhops, or others, having power to deſigne. And further the Eſtates declare, where there is no Kirklands or houſes formerly belonging to Parſons, Vicars, or any other Eccleſiaſtick perſons within the Paroch, or when the ſame are mortified to Univerſities, Schooles, or Hoſpitals, it ſhall be lawfull to deſigne out of whatſomever other Lands, or out of graſſe (where there is no arable Land) moſt commodious and eweſt to the Paroch-Kirks, Manſes and Gleibs, according to the quantitie contained in the former Acts of Parliament. Which deſignations ſhall have all the freedoms and priviledges granted to Gleibs or Manſes, by any former Acts of Parliament, ſuchlike as if the ſame were here particularly expreſſed. And ordains, that the whole Heritors of the Paroch contribute proportionally for making recompence to the Heritors, out of whoſe Lands the ſaid Manſe and Gleib ſhall be taken reſpectivè, viz. Heritors of Kirklands, when Kirklands are deſigned, and the Heritors of all Lands of other holding, when the deſignation is of other Lands nor Kirk-lands. It is alwayes declared, that the Heritors of the Land or Graſſe, eweſt to the Kirk which are not Kirk-lands, ſhall have libertie to offer any other Lands or Graſſe reſpectivè, belonging to them in the Paroch to be a Gleib, the ſame being good and ſufficient Land and Graſſe, in quantity and quality, and lying within half a mile of the Kirk, or Manſe, at furtheſt: which Land or Graſſe reſpectivè ſua offered, ſhall be deſigned for the Gleib, and the other Lands or Graſſe eweſt to the Kirk, ſhall be exeemed from deſignation.

by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parlament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering how neceſſary it is for the better regulating of the Forces imployed againſt the

And the Eſtates declares, That the Commiſſioners above-named in this Committee, ſhall be of the great Committee of Eſtates that reſides at Edinburgh, and ſhall have place and voyce in that Committee when they are preſent there.

70 THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. And alſo findes and declares, That the true Creditours and Cautioners of the ſaids forfeited perſons, or theſe who have any part of the Fynes aſſigned to them by the publick, ſhall nowayes be prejudged by the foreſaid forfeiture anent the payment to the ſaids Creditours, of their real, juſt, and true debts, owing & aſſigned to them, and anent the ſaids Cautioners their relief of their juſt and true Engagements and Cautionries: But that the ſaids Creditours and Cautioners reſpectivè, ſhall have action and execution for their payment and relief reſpectivè againſt the Lands and Eſtate of the forfeited perſons, their Debtours, ſicklike, and in the ſamine manner, as if they had not been forfeited. Providing that the ſaids Creditours and Cautioners have not beene airt, part, acceſſory nor aſſiſting to the ſaids forfeited perſons in the committing of the crimes, for the which they are, or ſhall be forfeited; with proviſion, that they be Vaſſals, Creditours and Cautioners, before the committing of the crimes, whereupon the forfeiture followes.

And alſo conſidering that the Debtours of the ſaid ſummes, at the time when they ſhall pay theſe ſummes to the uſe of the publick, will require back again their own Bands, or other Sureties given by them to the ſaids forfeited perſons, which will be impoſſible to be done, in reſpect that the ſaids forfeited perſons hes the ſaids Bands & other ſureties themſelves. Therefore it is ſtatute and ordained by the Eſtates of this preſent Parliament, a Diſcharge to be granted by the Eſtates of Parliament, or by the Convention of Eſtates, or their Committees reſpectivè, to any of the Debtors of the foreſaids forfeited perſons, principal, or Cautioners, for any ſums of money which ſhal be payed by them, or any of them, to the uſe of the publick, ſhall be in all time-coming, als valid a liberation to the ſaids Debitours, and to their Lands and Heritages, wodſet for the ſaids ſummes (if any be) as if the principall Bands and other Sureties were redelivered to the ſaids Debitors and Cautioners foreſaids: And as if the ſaids forfeited perſons were denuded habili modo of the ſaids rights, ſua that it is heirby declared, That the ſaids Debitors and Cautioners ſhall never be troubled in judgement nor out-with in time-coming by the ſaids forfeited perſons, nor any other having right flowing from them for the ſummes of money forſaids. THE Eftates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laft Act of the laft Parliament, holden by his Majeftie and the three Eftates at Edinburgh, in Anno 1641. Having taken to their ſerious conſideration the courſe and way laid down by the Convention of Eftates for raiſing and uplifting of Moneyes by way of Excife, for fupply and relief of the neceſsities of the Armies raiſed and ſent forth by this Kingdome, for Reformation and Defence of Religion; Together with the Acts made and ſet down by the ſaid Convention of Eftates and their Committee thereanent: And after mature deliberation, finding the ſame to be the moſt juſt and equall way, leaſt prejudiciall to this Kingdome, for raiſing and uplifting of Moneys, for ſupply and relief of the Armies, and for defraying of the publick Debts and Burdens contracted for that end:

THEREFORE the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, Have ratified, allowed, and approven, And by the tenor hereof Ratific, allow, and approve, the Act made and ſet down by the ſaid Convention of Eſtates for impoſing and laying on of the ſaid Excife, to be up-lifted off the particular Goods and Commodities contained in the Table annexed thereto: With the Acts and Ordinances made and ſet down by the Committee of Eſtates anent the Regulating and up-lifting of the ſaid Excife; Together with all others Acts and Ordinances made and ſet down by the ſaid Convention of Eſtates and their Committee, or by the Commiſsioners for the Excife concerning the foreſaid Excife, and the in-gathering and up-lifting thereof. ACT in favours of lamed Souldiers.

82 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and the three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. For encouraging of theſe who has gone out, or ſhall goe out in the Expeditions and Armies levied by the Eſtates for the good Cauſe, and for purſuing of the Enemies thereof, to goe on in that Publick Service; Statutes and Ordaines, That all ſuch Souldiers that has or ſhall willingly go out in the Publick Service forefaid, and are, or ſhall happen to bee ſo hurt and wounded in the Defence of the Publicke Cauſe, or in purſuing the Enemies thereof, that they are thereby diſabled from their ordinary employments, and working in their ſeverall Callings and Crafts, and has no other meanes of maintenance for themſelves, ſhall bee maintained upon the Publicke charges, in ſuch competent way and manner, as the Eſtates of Parliament, Convention of Eſtates, or their Committees, ſhall thinke fitting, after triall and conſideration of their hurts and wounds, and of the manner of the getting thereof, and of the diſabling of the ſaids Souldiers from the exerciſe of their Crafts and Callings; And for further aſſurance hereanent, The Eſtates of Parliament interpones and gives the Publicke Faith of the Kingdome to the effect above-ſpecified.

ACT anent the payment and relief of Loan and Taxt.

by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering, that the payment of the Loan and Taxt, and other Impoſitions for the publick ſervice, payable out of theſe Lands and Teinds which are diſponed in proper Wodſet by the Heritors thereof to the Receivers of the ſamine Wodſets under reverſion, may be hindered and delayed upon thir doubts and Queries, viz. Whether the Receivers of the Wodſets ſhould relieve the Heritors of the Loan, Taxt, and other Impoſitions for the publick ſervice, or not: 2. Whether or not the Receivers of the proper Wodſets (having ſet the Lands in tak to ane third perſon as Tennant without conſent or mention of the Heritors, granters of the Wodſet, their names in the taks) the Tennant ought to retain in the firſt end of his duty, the Loan, Taxt, and other charges payed out by the Tennant, for theſe Lands, for Horſe, Foot, and Ammunition, to the uſe of the Publicke: 3. Queritur, (the Tennants being obliged in their taks to relieve the Receivers of the proper Wodſets, granters of the ſaids taks, of all Taxations and Impoſitions to be impoſed upon the Wodſet Lands) Whether or not that generall obligement to relieve the Wodſetter of all Taxations and Impoſitions, ought to inferre againſt the Tennants ſo obliged relief to the Wodſetters of the Loan, Taxt, and other publick Impoſitions. The Eſtates of Parliament for clearing hereof findes and declares, That the Receivers of the forefaids proper Wodſets, who are either actuall poſſeſſors themſelves of the Lands and Teinds wodſet to them, or has ſet the ſamin to Tennants, who poſſeſſes by taks or rights from them, Ought and ſhould relieve the Heritors, granters of the ſaids Wodſets, of all Loans, Taxations, and other Impoſitions for the publick ſervice, except it be otherwayes provided by the contract of Wodſet. And als findes and declares, That the Tennants of theſe proper wodſet Lands ought to have retention of the Loane, Taxt, and other Impoſitions payed out by them for theſe Lands for the uſe of the Publick, in the firſt end of the Duties thereof. And ſiclike the ſaids Eſtates findes and declares, That albeit the Tennants be obliged by their taks to relieve the Receivers of the Wodſets, granters of the ſamin Taks, of all Taxations and Impoſitions to be impoſed upon the ſaids wodſet Lands, yet that generall obligement ſhall not inferre reliefe by the Tennants to the Wodſetters of the payment of the Loan impoſed upon the ſaids Lands for the uſe of the Publick, but onely reliefe of other Impoſitions and Taxations, ſeeing the Loane is to be repayed to the Wodſetter, granter of the taks.

ACT anent Decreits before Lion King at Armes, and Letters thereupon.

84 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering that the Act of Parliament made at Perth in the Moneth of July 1606. cap. 10. it was then ſtatute and ordained in all time-coming, That all Decreets given by Sheriffs, Commiſſars, Bailies of Regalities, Bailies of Bailiaries and Stewartries, ſhould paſſe and have execution of Horning upon ten dayes warning, as at more length is contained in the ſaid Act, wherein there was the time of the paſsing thereof omitted, and not expreſſed therein, the Decreets to be given by Lion King at Armes againſt Heralds and Meſſengers, and others his Purſevants; Which being a neceſſary Judicatorie in it ſelfe, and of its owne nature importing ſummer execution, Therefore the ſaids eſtates of this preſent Parliament, conſidering the neceſſitie thereof, Ordaines, for the greater furtherance and better execution of juſtice to all his Majeſties Lieges, and eſchewing of the ſuperfluous and unneceſſary charges which they ſuſtained by obtaining Decreits conforme (upon the Decreits obtained before the ſaid Lion King at Armes, againſt Heralds and Meſſengers, and others his Purſevants) That the like Letters and execution of Horning be direct and granted by the Lords of Seſſion upon all Acts, Decreits, and Sentences of the ſaid Lyon King at Armes, againſt Heralds, Meſſengers, and others his Purſevants, as are granted and direct upon Decreits, Acts, and Sentences of the ſaids Sheriffs, Commiſſars, Stewarts, and Bailies, conform to the ſaid Act of Parliament made thereanent, and after the form and tenor of the ſamin in all points.

ACT declaring ſummes due by Heritable Bands to be arreſtable where no infeftment hath followed.

85 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Being ſenſible of the great charges and expences that juſt and lawfull Creditors are put to in ſeeking payment of their true debts, by compriſing of the ſummes owing to their Debtors by heretable Bands, Contracts, and others Writs, bearing payment of annuall-rent for the ſamine ſummes, which in reſpect of the obligement for annual-rent are not arreſtable, and thereby the Creditors put to the charges of compriſing thereof, as ſaid is; And herewith alſo being carefull to remeid the famine; The ſaids Eſtates findes and declares, That all ſummes of money which are addebted by Bands, Contracts, and other perſonall obligements, whereupon no infeftment has followed or proceeded, are, and ſhall be arreſtable at the inſtance of any Creditor of that perſon or perſons to whom the ſamine ſummes are addebted or due to be payed, and that thereupon the ſamin ſummes ſo arreſted may bee purſued and fought to be made forth-command to the Creditors arreſters thereof, for payment of their juſt debts, conforme to their ſeverall rights, arreſtments, and diligences to be uſed thereupon; Notwithſtanding that the Bands, contracts, and other obligements whereby the ſaids arreſted ſums are addebted and due, bear payment of annuallrent for the ſamine ſums, as ſaid is. And the Eſtates declares, That this is onely to be extended in favours of the juſt and lawfull creditors of the perſons to whom the ſaids ſums are addebted, for the more ſummar and better payment of the ſaids creditors their lawfull debts, and no wayes to change the nature of the ſaids ſums, nor to prejudge the heir nor any other perſon their rights to the ſamine ſums, as being heretable; Which are hereby declared to remaine in their own nature and condition unchanged hereby pro ut de jure; except that onely the ſamine are arreſtable at the inſtance of lawfull creditors, in manner and to the effect above ſpecified, and no other wayes.

ACT Salvo Jure Cujuſlibet.

by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering that in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament there are many particular Acts, and Acts of Ratification made in favours of particular perſons, which may be prejudiciall to the parties having intereſt, and not heard, albeit the meaning of the Eſtates be at this time as it was ever in all preceding Parliaments, that by no particular Act, or Act of Ratification granted to any particular perſon, any other parties ſhould be hurt or prejudged of their lawfull rights and defences competent to them of the Law; For remeid whereof, It is ſtatute and ordained, That no Ratification, nor other particular Act whatſoever, made in favours of any particular perſon in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be prejudiciall to any other parties rights or defences, competent to them of the law, but that the ſaid particular Acts, and Acts of Ratification made in favours of particular perſons, be alwayes underſtood Salvo jure cujuſlibet.

3 THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, in the ſecond Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſtie and three Eſtates in Anno 1641. Taking into their conſideration the great prejudice that befalls to the publike Service of this Kingdome, through the not due execution of theſe Acts formerly made againſt Deficients and Run-awayes of the firſt and ſecond Leavies: And finding it neceſſary that all means be uſed for remeid and prevention thereof in time coming, They do Statute and Ordain, that the Acts already made hereanent be put in due execution; And for that effect Ordains & Commands all and ſundry Officers (who are not members of Parliament ſitting therein) and Souldiers of any Regiments within the Kingdom, To repair to their ſeverall Colours, Theſe on this ſide of Forthe within Ten dayes after the publication hereof; And theſe on the other ſide of Forthe within Six dayes after the publication: And the Officers and Souldiers within any Regiments in England, To repair to their Colours, theſe on this ſide of Forthe within Fifteen dayes; and theſe on the other ſide of Forthe within Twenty dayes after intimation hereof: The Officers under the pain of loſing of their places, and the Souldiers under the pain of death: Certifying them that failzies, the ſaids pains ſhall be execute upon them without favour. And the Eſtates of Parliament, Conſidering how neceſſar it is for the good of the publike Service, and better execution of this Act, That an exact triall be tane through the Shires of the numbers of Horſe and Foot put out by them, They do therefore ordain and command the Committees of War in the ſeverall Shires of this Kingdome, To cauſe make an exact Lift of the whole perſons names who were put out of the Shires, either as Horſemen or Foot men in the firſt and ſecond Leavies; with the perſons names by whom they were put out, and the Officers names who received them, or money for them, and what was the proportion of money given therefore: And that they ſend in the ſame under their hand, with one or two of their own number, betwixt and the ſaid firſt day of March next, under the pain of Horning; With certification to them if they failzie, the ſaid day being bypaſt, Letters ſhall be direct to denounce them Rebels, And to eſcheat, &c. ſecond Seſsion of this firſt Triennial Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and three Eſtates in Anno 1641. Taking in conſideration the great flowneſſe and backwardneſſe in the Shires to pay their Loan and Taxt granted by the Convention of Eſtates, and appointed to have been payed eighteen moneths ſince, or thereby. Inſomuch as the moſt part of the Shires have not, nor will not give in their Accompts of their Loan and Taxt: Notwithſtanding the neceſsity and prejudice, the ſervice of the Publick ſuſtains for want of Money, albeit there be nothing more due than the Loan and Taxt granted by the Eſtates for that ſervice; They doe therefore Command and Ordain, The whole Sub-collectors of the Loan and Taxt, who hes not yet given in, cleared, and perfected their Compts thereof, To bring in to the Collector generall of the Loan and Taxt, and his Deputes, their whole Accompts of the ſamine, Together with the diligence done by the Sub-collectors, conforme to the Act of the Convention of Eſtates for ingetting of the Loan and Taxt. And to cleare and perfect their ſaids Accompts and diligence done by them thereanent, betwixt and the dayes underwritten, viz. Theſe Sub-collectors for the Shires be-ſouth Spey, betwixt and the twenty day of February inſtant, and the Sub-collectors for the Shires be-north Spey, betwixt and the firſt day of March next without farther delay: That thereby it may be cleared wha hes payed, and wha not, and where the fault and deficiencie is, With certification to the Sub-collectors and they failzie, They ſhall be compelled to pay the whole Loan and Taxt layed on the Shires whereof they are Sub-collectors, without any allowance or deduction whatſomever to be granted of any deburſements for Leavie money, Tranſport money, or any other cauſe. And als, The ſaids Eſtates hereby ordaines and Commands the whole Heritors and others lyable in payment of Loan and Taxt, who hes not yet payed the ſame, To make payment thereof or ſuſpend betwixt and the dayes reſpective above-written, To the Sub-collectors of their Shires, That the Sub-collectors may the more clearly compleat their Compts, and report their diligence at the time and in manner before ordained: With certification to the Heritors and others lyable in payment of the Loan and Taxt, and they failzie, They ſhall be compelled to pay the whole Loan and Taxt not yet payed without deduction of Leavie money, and Tranſport money, either for Horſe or Foot, or any other deduction appointed by the Act of Convention, to be granted to timeous payers.

AND farther, To the effect it may be ſeen to the Eſtates of Parliament, That the valuations of the ſeverall Shires are made conform to the order preſcribed by the Act of Convention of Eſtates; They therefore Ordains and Commands the Commiſſioners and Valuers for the whole ſeveral Shires of the Kingdom, nominate and appointed by the ſaid Act of Convention for valuation of their ſaid ſeverall Shires, To bring in and produce to the Collector-Generall and his Deputes, betwixt and the dayes reſpectivè above-mentioned, the whole valuations of their ſeverall Shires and Paroches thereof, conform to the ſaid Act of Convention, viz. Theſe Valuers for the Shires be-South Spey, betwixt and the Twenty day of February inſtant; and theſe for the Shires be-North Spey, betwixt and the firſt day of March next, under the pain of Rebellion, and putting of them to the Horn: And if they failȝie, To denounce and eſcheat, &c. And in reſpect That there are ſome Shires and perſons that queſtions the payment of their Loan and Taxt, without they get deduction therein of Leavie-money and Tranſport-money, for the Horſe and Foot put out by them in the ſecond Leavie; Which deſire, the Eſtates findes groundleſſe and unreaſonable, The ſame not being ſought nor granted to any of theſe wha hes already paid their Loan and Taxt for the Horſe or Foot put out by them in the ſecond Leavie, And ſo is far leſſe due to ſuch as hes not yet payed their Loan and Taxt. The Eſtates for clearing hereof, Findes and Declares, That there is no deduction of Tranſport-money or Leavie-money, due to be granted of the Loan and Taxt for the Horſe or Foot put out in the ſecond Leavies: And therefore they diſcharge ſimpliciter the ſeeking or granting of any deduction therefore in the payment of the Loan and Taxt. And that none pretend ignorance anent the premiſſes, Ordains thir preſents to be Printed, and publiſhed by ſound of Trumpet at the Market Croſſe of Edinburgh, and by Meſſengers of Arms at the head Burghs of the ſeverall Shires of the Kingdom.

ACT Anent the ſelling of the Lands of forfaulted perſons.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in the 10
ſecond Seſsion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and the three Eſtates in Anno 1641. Conſidering that the Eſtates of Parliament by their Act of the date the 27. of July 1644. Conſidering that it was againſt all equitie and reaſon, That the Vaſſals, Cautioners, and true and reall Creditors of any perſon or perſons, of whatſoever qualitie, that ſhould be forfaulted in this preſent Parliament, or at any time thereafter, ſhould be prejudged by the forfaulture of the ſaids perſons off their right of propertie of any Lands, Woodſets, and others, holden by them of the ſaids forfaulted perſons, or of the payment of their juſt Debts, and relief of their true and reall Cautionries, for payment and relief whereof the ſaids forfaulted perſons ſtood obliged, the ſaids Vaſſals, Creditors, and Cautioners foreſaids, not being airt, pairt, acceſſarie, nor aſſiſting to the crimes for which the ſentence and doom of forfaulture was or ſhould be decerned: Therefore the ſaids Eſtates fand, decerned, and declared, That the Vaſſals of any perſon or perſons of whatſoever qualitie, who were or ſhould happen to be forfaulted in that preſent Parliament, or at any time thereafter, for whatſover cauſe, ground, or occaſion, whereupon ſentence and doom of forfaulture ſhould be given and pronounced againſt them, ſhould not be prejudged anent their right and property of the Lands, Annuall-rents, Wodſets, and others holden by them of the ſaids forfaulted perſons; but that the ſaids Vaſſals ſhould be in that ſame caſe and condition with theſe who comes in the right and place of the ſaids forfaulted perſons, as the ſaids Vaſſals were with the ſamin forfaulted perſons, their Superiors, before the ſentence and doom of forfaulter, The ſaids Vaſſals no wayes being airt, pairt, acceſſory, nor aſſiſting to the ſaids forfaulted perſons, in the committing of the crimes or deeds, for the which the ſentence or doom of forfaulter was, or ſhould be given againſt them, as ſaid is. And alſo found and declared, That the true Creditors and Cautioners of the ſaids forfaulted perſons, or theſe who had any part of the Fines aſſigned to them by the Publike, ſhould no wayes be prejudged by the foreſaid forfaulter, anent the payment of the ſaids Creditors, or their reall, juſt, and due debts owing and aſſigned to them, and anent the ſaids Cautioners their relief of their juſt and true Ingagements, and Cautionries, but that the ſaids Creditors and Cautioners reſpectivè, ſhould have action and execution for their payment and relief reſpectivè, againſt the Lands and Eſtate of the forfaulted perſons, their Debters ſicklike, and in the ſamin manner, as if they had not been forfaulted; Providing the ſaids Creditors and Cautioners have not been airt, part, acceſſory, nor aſsiſting to the ſaids forfaulted perſons in the committing of the Crimes for which they were, or ſhould be forfaulted: And with proviſion, That they be Vaſſalls, Creditors, and Cautioners, before the committing of the Crimes, whereupon the forfaulter follows, as the ſaid Act of the date foreſaid proports. And, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened alſo, conſidering, That ſeveral perſons were forfaulted in the laſt Seſsion of this preſent Parliament, And that divers and ſundry perſons are and have been forfaulted in this preſent Seſsion of Parliament, As alſo conſidering, That it is expedient both for the weale of the lawfull Creditors and Cautioners of perſons forfaulted heretofore, or who ſhall happen to be forfaulted hereafter: And for the weale of theſe to whom the perſons forfaulted, or who ſhal happen to be forfaulted in this preſent Seſsion of Parliament, are bound as Cautioners for any other perſon or perſons. And als, for the weal of the Publick, for defraying of the Publick charges of the Eſtates of this Kingdom, That a juſt and expedite way be taken for the diſcovery of the juſt and lawful debts, owing by any perſon or perſons, either already forfaulted before the date of thir preſents, or who ſhall happen to be forfaulted hereafter in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to their juſt and lawfull Creditors; to whom the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, are Debters as Principals, or whom the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, are Debters in the way of lawfull relief: They being Cautioners for the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, or to whom the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, are Cautioners for any other perſon or perſons. And to the effect, that all perſon or perſons, who are either Creditors or Cautioners to the perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, or to whom the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to bee forfaulted, are Cautioners, May in due time, both for their own, and the Publick weal, make their Debts owing to them by the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, either as Principals or Cautioners in manner abovеſpecified, known to the Eſtates of this Kingdom, that they may have the benefit of the foreſaid Act of the date the 27. July 1644. And that their Debts being known and ſatisfied, and payed by the courſe afterſpecified; The remainder of the Lands, Eſtate, and Goods of the foreſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted, and hail farther benefit thereof, may expeditely and convéniently come into the Eſtates of this Kingdome, for the weale of the Publick, and for the relief of the Publick Burdens. Therefore the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, Statutes and Ordains, That all perſon or perſons whatſoever, to whom any perſon already forfaulted before the date of thir preſents, or who ſhall happen to be forfaulted in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, Is addebted juſtly and really in any ſums of money, or any otherwiſe, either as Principall Debters, or as Cautioners for any other perſons. And als, that all perſons who are Cautioners for any perſons already forfaulted, or who ſhal happen to be forfaulted in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to their lawfull Creditors; Shall exhibite and produce before the Committee of Eſtates, to be appointed to ſit at Edinburgh, or where it ſhall happen them to be for the time after the riſing of this preſent Seſsion of Parliament, Their whole Rights, Writs, Evidents, and other lawful Securities, wherby the ſaids perſons forfaulted, or to be forfaulted in this preſent Seſsion of Parl. are their juſt and reall Debters, either as Principal Debters to them, or as Debters to them as Cautioners for other perſons, or whereby they are Cautioners for the ſaids forfaulted perſons, or to be forfaulted in this preſent Seſsion of Parl. And which Cautioners the ſaids forfaulted, or to be forfaulted perſons in this preſent Seſsion, are obliged in law to relieve. And that the production of the foreſaids Writs, Evidents, and Securities, in ſo far concerns any perſons forfaulted heretofore, or in the preſent Seſsion of Parl. be made by the Creditors & Cautioners, ſo many of them as are without the Countrey, within three moneths; and theſe that are within the Countrey, within threeſcore dayes after publication hereof at the Head Burghs of the ſeverall Sheriffdomes within the Kingdom: With certification to all and whatſomever the Creditors of the perſons already foreſaulted heretofore, or to be foreſaulted in this preſent Seſſion; That if they failzie, To exhibit and produce before the Committe of Eſtates Their foreſaids Writs, Evidents, and Securities, made to them by the ſaids foreſaulted perſons within the Diets reſpectivè foreſaids: That the foreſaids Creditors ſhal never in any time thereafter, Have any action againſt the Lands, Eſtates, and Goods of the foreſaids foreſaulted perſons, for payment of their debts upon the pretence of the foreſaid Act of the 27. July laſt, or upon any other pretence whatſoever: But that the Lands, Eſtate, and Goods of the foreſaids foreſaulted perſons ſhall pertain to the Publick. Neither ſhall they have any action againſt their Cautioners, but prejudice alwayes to them after production, in manner, and at the time foreſaid, to take preſently back their Writs and Purſue: But prejudice alſo to the ſaids Creditors of their action and execution competent to them againſt their Cautioners, conforme to their Bands and Rights. It is alſo declared for the Cautioners of the ſaids foreſaulted, or to be foreſaulted perſons, that they ſhall not be holden to produce the Writs and Bands wherein they are Cautioners, But onely to give in a note under their hands of the names of the Creditors to whom they are Cautioners, and of the ſums contained thereintill (Becauſe the Writs and other Securities wherein they are Cautioners, are not their evidents and in their option, but in the hands of the Creditors to whom they are principally made) Like as the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, Finds and diſcerns the ſamin, To pertain to the publick for relief of their publick Debts and Burdens in all time hereafter, without any Burden of Payment of the Debts owing to the ſaids Creditors failzing, to produce and make known their Debts, at the time, and in maner foreſaid. It is alſo declared, That where the Creditors or Cautioners are Minors, Their Tutors and Curators are obliged in the like manner, To produce their Bands, Rights, or Notes; or otherwiſe be lyable to their Minors, for refounding their damnage and intereſt. Likeas alſo the Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering, That the foreſaid perſons already forefaulted, may be ingaged in maner above ſpecified, either as principals or Cautioners to divers and ſeverall perſons their Creditors: To which Creditors no preſent payment of their Debts can be made in a preſent convenient and expedit way, without the ſelling of the Lands, Heritages, and Eſtates, which pertained to the foreſaids perſons forefaulted before their forefaulter; The ſale whereof can not be expeditely done, neither for the weale of the ſaids Creditors, nor for the weale of the publick. And to the effect the ſaids Creditors may receive ſatisfaction in a juſt and reaſonable way, out of the ſaids forefaulted perſons, their Lands, Heritages, and Eſtate, And that the benefit of the reſidue thereof, may come into the Publick of this Kingdome; Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament, Decernes and Ordaines, That the foreſaids Creditors or Cautioners ſhall be obliged, To accept a proportionall part of the Lands and Heritages of the ſaids perſons forefaulted their Debtors reſpectivè, for their Debts owing to them, being inſtructed at the time and in manner above-ſpecified, at the ſight and determination of the ſaid Committe of Eſtates: And that at the rate and proportion of One hundreth Merks of ordinar yeerly conſtant Rent, for ilk ſum of Two thouſand Merks, addebted by the ſaids forefaulted perſons, to their ſaids Creditors or Cautioners; or otherwiſe to be deprived of the benefit of the Act of Parliament 27. July 1644. and to be reduced to the old eſtate of the Creditors of forefaulted perſons, as if the ſamin had never been made. Likeas alſo, It is ſtatute and Ordained, That the ſuperplus of the Lands, Heritages, and Eſtate of the foreſaids forfaulted perſons (their Creditors foreſaids being ſatisfied in manner aboveſpecified) ſhall and may be divided in parcels, and ſold and diſponed by the Eſtates of this Kingdom, or by the ſaid Committee of Eſtates to any buyer whatſomever, paying preſent money over the Table, at the rate of one hundreth Merks of yeerly conſtant Rent for ilk ſum of One thouſand Merks, as the price thereof: And where preſent money for the Lands cannot be had nor offered, that then they may be ſold and diſponed to any perſon to whom the Publick is addebted, They advancing in ready money the one half, at ten years purchaſe, and accompting in payment of their debts, being lent money, or furniſhing to the Armies: the other half, at the rate of fifteene yeers purchaſe. Likeas, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, do by thir preſents, give full power and Commiſſion to the ſaid Committe of Eſtates, To divide the Lands, and others of the foreſaids forfeited Perſons; And to that effect, To take up the juſt and true Rentall thereof, and to eſtimat and convert Victuall and other Rent (not being ſilver Rent) and to redact the ſamine to money Rent, and to ſell and diſpone the reſidue and remainder of the Lands, Heritages, and Eſtates of the foreſaids forfeited Perſons to any Buyer, at the rate and in manner foreſaid. Likeas, The Eſtates of Parliament decerns and declares, That the Diſpoſitions ſo to be made thereof to the foreſaids Creditors above-ſpecified, and to the ſaids Buyers, ſhall be valide ſureties to them thereof, in all time coming. And ſiclike Ordains Infeftments to paſſe under the Great Seal, upon the foreſaids Diſpoſitions, to be made by the ſaid Committee of Eſtates, of the Lands and others, holden of the Kings Majeſtie, and Prince. And Preſentations to be granted by the ſaid Committee of Eſtates, to other Superiours, of ſo many of the foreſaids Lands, and others aboveſpecified, as are holden of the ſaids others Superiours.

ACT of Aſſurance to theſe that ſhall buy the Forfaulted Lands.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in the ſecond Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and the three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering, that they by their Act of the 20. of February laſt, have condeſcended upon the rate and price for ſelling of the Lands of Forfaulted perſons to ſick as are not their Creditors, to be ane thouſand Merks for every hundred Merks of yeerly 14

And farther, the Eſtates declares, That theſe who ſhall firſt come in and offer to buy, ſhall be preferred to all others of whatſoever qualitie, who ſhall come in thereafter, and offer to buy the ſamine Lands aimed at by the firſt Buyers.

VI MARTII.

ACT anent the putting of the Kingdom in a Poſture of War, for Defence.

FORSAMEIKLE as in the moneth of September 16
1643. The Eſtates then conveened, conſidering the dangers of Religion, his Majeſties perſon and authority, and Peace of the Kingdom, by Papiſts, Prelats, and their adherents then in Arms in England and Ireland, Did ordain the Kingdom to be put in a Poſture of Defence, and made choice of Colonels for Horſe and Foot, and appointed Committees within the ſeverall Shires and Bounds of the Kingdom for that effect; and for making perfect Liſts of the Fenſible perſons betwixt Sixtie and Sixteene, and ſeeing them provided with Armes conforme to the Act of Poſture then made. Likeas in the moneth of February 1644 thereafter, the ſaids Eſtates being ſenſible of the deſolations of Ireland, the blood-ſhed in England, and increaſing dangers of the Kingdome, which moved them to ſet forth an Armie in purſuance of the Covenant, and thereby to empty the Kingdome of great numbers of Armes and Ammunition, Did for ſtrengthning of the ſame againſt Inteſtine Commotions and Forraign Invaſion, renew and inlarge the ſaid Act of Poſture of Defence, and the execution thereof was often and moſt ſeriouſly urged by the Committee of Eſtates, upon incidents merely concerning the ſafety of the Kingdom; which notwithſtanding, by the ſecurity and neglect of the moſt part of the Countrey, hath taken ſmall effect, To the ſenſible and deplorable loſſe of the Kingdom, and advantage of the Enemie, ſpecially James Grahame ſometime Earle of Montroſe, the Iriſh Rebels, and others degenerate and perfidious Countrymen, who have cruelly killed and murdred great numbers of the Subjects, depopulate and waſted many parts of the Countrey, and are going on with full reſolution to undo the whole Nation, and overthrow the Liberties of Kirk and Kingdom, ſo happily eſtabliſhed by Gods mercifull providence. For remeid whereof, as all good Patriots and true Chriſtians ought to take this matter deeply to heart, and ſpare no pains, expences, nor their own perſons, in purſuance of their Covenant (to the which they are ſo ſtraitly tied before God and man) againſt this Inteſtine Enemy and Forraign threatned Invaſion: So the Eſtates of this Kingdom preſently conveened, finde themſelves bound in conſcience and dutie, to preſſe the ſaid Act of Poſture of Defence, and ſee the ſame preſently put in execution: And do therefore Statute and Ordain the Colonels and Committees of War foreſaid, appointed in each Shire, to muſter the whole fenſible perſons within the Shire upon one day, every Pariſh within ſome part of the bounds of their Presbyteries, to be deſigned by the Committees and Colonells, by whom ſome are to be appointed to make up the Liſt of the ſaids fenſible perſons, armed and unarmed, ſo as it may be known that none ſhall borrow Arms from others, and how many, and what ſort of Arms are wanting, and to be provided for every Shire. The Muſters of theſe be-ſouth Dee, to be betwixt and the laſt Tueſday of March inſtant, and theſe be-north Dee, betwixt and the tenth of April next: And ordains the Burrows within the bounds reſpective foreſaids, to make their Muſters within themſelves, conform to the former Acts of Convention, and to make their reports accordingly. And if any ſenſible perſons betwixt Sixtie and Sixteene be not already provided with Arms, It is hereby Statute and Ordained, That they ſhall arm themſelves ſufficiently againſt the ſaid Muſter day reſpective, under the pain of Twenty pound, to be paid by each perſon who ſhall be found by the Committee to want a Muſket and Sword, and able to buy the ſame; and Ten merks by each perſon able to buy a Pike, and wanting the ſame: And where neither Yeoman nor Servant is able to buy Arms; It is ordained, That their Maſter or Heritor of the Land ſhall be obliged to buy the ſame, and furniſh their men therewith, under the pains foreſaids. As alſo Statutes and Ordains the Committees of War in Ilk Shire, To provide and lay in Magazine Two pound weight of Powder, Four pound weight of Match and Ball, conform for every ſenſible perſon within the Shire: And that the ſaids Committees of War make report of their diligence to the Committee of Parliament, betwixt and the 15 of April next.

AND to the effect there may be a ſufficient number of trained men in each Shire and Burgh for the ends foreſaids, The ſaids Eſtates ordains the Colonels and Committees foreſaids, and Magiſtrates of Burgh, To reduce the whole fenſible perſons within their bounds, as well to Burgh as Land, into Regiments, Foot Companies, and Horſe Troops, conform to the former Printed Acts of the Convention, for putting the Kingdom in a Poſture of Defence. And ordains the whole fenſible perſons to be Drilled and Exerciſed in handling their Arms, every Regiment once in the moneth, and every Company and Troop once in the Week, at the places to be appointed by the Committees, Colonels, and Magiſtrates within Burgh: And that each Shire and Burgh ſhall entertain an able and expert Souldier, to have the care and inſpection of Exerciſing the Regiments and Companies of the Shire or Burgh. And in regard of the prevailing and raging cruelty of the preſent enemy within the Kingdom, Ordains the Captains of each Company to be provided with Colours and Drums, the Root-maſters with Trumpets and Cornets, to be in readineſſe upon orders from the Committee of Eſtates, to bring forth ſuch proportion of their Regiments, with ſufficient Furniture, Arms, and thirty dayes proviſion, as they ſhall be required: And to be ready to defend the Countrey, oppoſe any Invaſion, purſue the Invaders, and be aſſiſting and aiding to others, and ready to march to any place within the Kingdom of Scotland, where the Invaſion ſhall happen to be, or to ſuch places of Rendezvous as upon correſpondence amongſt theſe who command, ſhall be thought moſt fitting for oppoſing and purſuing the Enemie. And if any of the Heritors be aged and known to be infirm, That they ſend out able men with their beſt Horſe and Armes. And Ordains the whole Forces, Horſe and Foot, to be ready to march upon advertiſement, by putting forth of Beacons upon the accuſtomed places, or ſuch other advertiſement as ſhall be given.

AND to the effect, the Forces of the Shires may be the better provided with Arms, and more ſpeedily and exactly brought forth; Ordains the Colonels, or Rootmaſters formerly appointed in the Shires, by the Convention of Eſtates and their Committes, to remain and continue in that charge in the ſaids Shires where they are nominat (except in the Sheriffdoms of Kincardin, Aberdene, and Bamff) the chief charge and command whereof is hereby committed to the Earl Marſhall, who is alſo to have his choice of any one of the Regiments, Horſe or foot, of theſe three Shires: And appoints the Earle of Finlater Colonell, and Laird of Aboyne his Lieutenant Colonell, within the Sheriffdome of Bamff, and the Viſcount of Frendraucht, Maſter of Forbes, Lord Fraſer, or the Maſter of Fraſer, to have command of the remanent Forces within the Sheriffdom of Aberdene, and to have their diviſions aſſigned to them as the Earle Marſhall and Committees of Warre in theſe bounds ſhall appoint: As likewiſe the ſame Diviſions and Conjunctions of Shires to ſtand. And likewiſe ordaines the whole Noblemen and Committees of War of the ſeverall Shires and Diviſions, to meet all in their own ſeverall Committees, in their ordinary place of meeting, within ſix dayes after the intimation hereof at the Market Croſſes of the Shires; And there to determine upon the ſaids Regiments, both Horſe and Foot, and according to the number of the ſame Horſe and Foot within ilk ſeverall Shire and Diviſion to appoint moe Colonels, Rootmaſters, and others Officers neceſſary for leading and commanding their Forces, Horſe and Foot, and to provide als many Arms and Ammunition as will arm all the able men in the Shire, either by giving preſent money for them, or Bands for the price thereof at a certain day, and they to have Letters of relief againſt the Heritors for repayment of the ſame: With power to the Committees foreſaids and Heritors, To diſtribute the arms in the ſeverall Shires and Diviſions to theſe perſons that wants. And ordains all fenſible perſons betwixt ſixtie and ſixteen to come forth upon advertiſement foreſaid under the pains following; viz. Ilk Nobleman, Gentleman, Heritor, and Burgeſſe, (except Edinburgh and Stirling, who are to put all the fenſible perſons in their Towne in Poſture of Defence) under the paine of a years rent; ilk Yeoman under the pain of confiſcation of their whole moveables to the uſe of the publick, and to be farther puniſhed as contemners of the Orders and authority of Parliament, and breakers of their Covenant. And ordaines ane Magazine to be provided by ilk Shire by the Committee of Warre, in one or moe places where they ſhall thinke the ſamine may be moſt ſecure, and the Heretors to be ſtented by them therefore, and the Burrows to provide Magazines within themſelves. And ordains this Act to be publiſhed.

VIII MARTII.

COMMISSION to the Committee of Eſtates.

ſecond Seſſion of this firſt Trienniall Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament, holden by his Majeſty and the three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Conſidering that by the 28 Act of the firſt Seſſion of this Parliament, Intituled, Commiſsion to the Committee of Eſtates of Parliament, There was Commiſſion then granted by the Parliament to the perſons therein nominate, Givand power to them or their Quorum, in manner, and to the effect particularly condiſcended upon in the ſaid Commiſſion: And generally to do all and every thing requiſite anent the ordering and managing of all affaires and buſineſſe which might conduce to the good and Peace of the Kingdom, and promoving of the common Cauſe, as is expreſſed in the Covenant and Treaties, as the Commiſſion in the ſelf more fully proports. And herewith alſo conſidering that the ſame Cauſes not onely ſtill remains, but are increaſed, which moved the Eſtates of Parliament in the firſt Seſſion of this Parliament to grant the foreſaid Commiſſion: Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, do hereby nominate, authorize, and appoint the perſons following, viz. ANSWER of Parliament to the Paperis given in be the Engliſh Cōmiſsionar^{r}.

THE eſtates of parliament Conſiddering the paper of the 18th of februar given in by the cōmiſſioner of the parliament of England doe warrand their Cōmitte to returne this further anſwer That all ſuch protections as ar alreadie or ſhall be complained vpoun / be reviſed and diſpoſed off be the Cōmitte of both kingdomes vpon the place as they ſhall after ſight theroff find fitting and that vpon a reveiw of the liſt of delinquents given in / they tak ſuch courſe for removeing their perſones out of the Counties or ſecuring them whither by impriſonement or cautioun for their guid behavior in tyme Cumming / as they in every particular ſhall find to be moſt neceſsarie for ſetling and continuing the peace and quyet of theſe northerne Counties in obedience to the king and parliament: And for the tyme to come we think it Juſt that all protections of delinquents be limited to the reſtraining of ſouldiers from all acts of violence / and not extendit to the protection of them from Juſtice / the ordinary courſe of the law of the orderes of parlia^{t}: But wher the generall officers of our armie thinks ther is any neceſſitie of delaying for a tyme the executioun of any order coming from the honō^{ble} houſes of the parliament of England or ather of them or their cōmitties authorized thervnto; that the neceſsitie theroff be remonſtrat in the cōmittie of both kingdomes on the place and Communicat to the Cōm^{r} off this kingdome at London for preventing any miſtakes that may aryſe thervpoun this being alwayes without prejudice of keeping and fulfilling the conditions maid or to be made in neceſsarie capitulations vpon ſurrander of places or forces / not being againſt the Lawes of the nation or nationall Covenant / and whervnto the advyce and conſent of the Cōm^{r} of the parliament of England 59 ſhould be craved eſpeciallie when they ar on the place / or the buſſines may endure delay without prejudice to the ſervice.

LYKEAS the Eſtates Conſiddering the paper of the 4. of februar given in by the Commiſſioner of the parliament of England: Gives warrand to their Cōmitte to returne this anſwer That they acknowledge the neceſsitie of appoynting ſome for rectiefieing and adjuſting of the accompts betuixt the kingdomes: And to that effect hath given and doeth heirby give warrand to the Cōmittie that goes to that armie for to appoynt ſome of their owne number or wthers to concurr with the Engliſch Cōmiſſioners or ſuch as they ſhall appoynt for the ends expreſsed in that paper

SICLYK to the paper of the 13th of februar they returne this anſweir That they haue appoynted the Cōmittie of the Eſtates to goe reallie about the regulating recruting or reforming of our armie / that ſo the moneyis due from England by the treatie may be the better diſpoſed to the interteinment of theſe Regiments and forces neceſsarie for that ſervice And we ar confident they will goe heartiely about it for the good of the ſervice and ſatiſfaction of both kingdomes.

IX JULII.

ACT anent the out-putting of Forces for the preſent neceſsitie.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now convecned in this third Seſsion of the firſt Trienniall Parliament, by vertue of the laſt Act of the laſt Parliament holden by his Majeſty and three Eſtates, in Anno 1641. Taking into their conſideration the preſent condition of this kingdom, and how that the peace of the ſame hath been troubled thir Moneths bygone, by a baſe crew of Iriſh Rebels, joyned with unnatural Countrymen, who has had the greater ſucceſſe in their traiterous attempts, That they have never yet been purſued with that ſtrength was neceſsary, Some weakned Regiments, and Countrey people raiſed in the ſhires being only employed againſt them, without the aſsiſtance or countenance of the Nobilitie, Gentrie, and ſtrength of theſe bounds from which they were lifted. And there with all conſidering, that by the bleſsing of God upon the forces of their brethren in England, and good poſture of the Scots Armie there; This kingdome is for the preſent fred of all fears from without; Have thought fit to apply themſelves and their power for ſuppreſſing this Rebellion within: And for that effect, Do ſtatute, ordaine, and command, all the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors within the Kingdome upon their alleageance, To riſe preſently in armes after the intimation hereof, with all the able Horſe they can raiſe. As alſo, that the particular numbers of Horſe and Foot underwritten, be preſently raiſed in the Shires following, viz. In the Sheriffdomes of Roxburgh and Selkirk, a thouſand Foot, and fiftie Horſe. The Sheriffdome of Berwick fix hundreth Foot, and thirtie Horſe. The Sheriffdome of Haddingtoun fix hundreth Foot, and thirtie Horſe. The Sheriffdome of Edinburgh principall, fix hundreth Foot, and thirtie Horſe. And the Bailliarie of Lauderdale their proportionall number. The Sheriffedome of Peibles two hundereth Foot, and ten Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Lithgow two hundereth and fiftie Foot, and fifteene Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Stirling and Clackmannan thirtie 1

Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Lanerik ſeven hundreth and fiftie Foot, and fiftie Horſe. Wigtoun and Kircudbright ſix hundreth Foot, and thirtie Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Drumfreis ſix hundreth Foot, and thirtie Horſe. Air and Renfrew a thouſand Foot, and threeſcore Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Fyfe twelve hundreth Foot, and threeſcore Horſe. The Sheriffedome of Perth twelve hundereth Foot, and threeſcore Horſe. Dumbartan Shire two hundreth Foot: And that both Horſe and Foot aforeſaid, and haill Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors be provided with ſufficient armes, and the Foot with eight dayes proviſion, and the Horſe with fourtie dayes proviſion; and march forthwith to the randezvous underwitten, viz. The Shires of Haddingtoun, Edinburgh, Peibles, Lithgow, Lanerick, Fyfe, Perth, and Dumbartan, to be at the Burgh of Pearth upon the nineteenth of this Moneth of July; And the Shires of Roxburgh, Selkirk, Berwick, Wigtoun, Kircudbright, Drumfreis, Air, and Renfrew, to be at the Town of Pearth upon the tuentie fourth of this Moneth, where they are to receive farther orders. And ordaines the Committees of War in the ſeverall Shires aforeſaids, and Magiſtrates of Burrows within their own bounds, To be anſwerable for bringing the numbers particularly abovewritten layed on them to the randezvous aforeſaid, With power to them for that effect To appoint one or moe in each Pariſh, for convoy of the forces of that Pariſh, and to take ſuch other courſes for procuring effectuall and preſent obedience to this Act, and bringing out of their forces as has beene allowed in any former Leavies: As alſo, that they be carefull that the Deficients and Runawayes both Horſe and Foot of the former Leavies be brought to the ſaid randezvous; Certifying hereby all ſuch Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors, Committees of War, Magiſtrates of Burrowes, and others perſons of whatſomever degree or qualitie that ſhall fail herein, or not keep the dyets of randezvous aforeſaid; They ſhall be eſteemed and puniſhed as Enemies to Religion and the ſafetie of the Kingdome, and as acceſſory to the Rebellion, and airt and pairt of the ſame. And to the effect it may be the better known who ſhall be neglective of their dutie herein; It is appointed, that the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heretors, Committees of Warre, and Magiſtrates of Burrows, ſhall under the paine aforeſaid, bring alongs with them to the randezvous a liſt of all ſuch perſons within their bounds as ſhall not come out conforme to the Act, That the ſame may be preſented to the Parliament, who have reſolved to meet at Pearth, upon the ſaid twentie fourth day of this moneth, To give their concurrence and authoritie for purſuing the Rebels, and puniſhing ſuch as ſhall not give ready obedience hereto. And the Eſtates Ordaines this Act to be printed and publiſhed at the Market Croſſes and Pariſh Kirkes of the ſhires aforeſaid, wherethrough none pretend ignorance thereof.

Conſidering how neceſſar it is that the haill Forces within the Kingdome be put in a Poſture for defence thereof and ſuppreſsing of the preſent Rebellion, and being informed of the prejudice that ariſeth through the weakning of many of the Shires and Borrows, by tranſportation of men to Ireland and other places forth of this Kingdome, who are thereby made unable to perform theſe duties required of them by the Eſtates, Do therefore Statute 3

8 THE Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering that by the ſolemn Nationall Covenant, ſworn and ſubſcribed by people of all ranks within this Kingdom, and ratified in Parliament in Anno 1641. The whole Lieges have bound themſelves before God with a ſolemn Oath ſo to behave themſelves in their lives and converſations as beſeemeth Chriſtians who have renewed their Covenant with God, and have faithfully promitted for themſelves, their followers, and all others under them, both in publike and their particular families and perſonall carriage, to endeavour to keep themſelves within the bounds of Chriſtian liberty, and to be good examples to others of all godlineſſe, ſobriety, and righteouſneſſe, and of every dutie they owe to God and man: And alſo calling to minde that the neglecting of the performance of that part of the ſolemne Oath of the Nationall Covenant, and the open abundance of all vices, diſhonourable to God, and reproachfull to the ſaid Nationall Covenant, hath without doubt occaſioned the heavie judgments which the Lord in his great wrath hath powred out upon this Land, as appeareth this day. Therefore the Eſtates for curbing ſuch vices as are groſe and moſt uſuall, and for teſtifying their deteſtation therof, and for putting a mark upon the committers of the ſame, Statute and Ordain, That whoſoever ſhal Swear, Curſe, or Blaſpheme, & whoſoever ſhall Drink exceſſively, eſpecially under the name of Healths; and alſo all mockers and reproachers of pietie, or the exerciſe thereof, or who ſhall be found culpable of all or any ane or other of the foreſaids vices by any Kirk Judicatorie whereunto they are ſubject, having beene once already cenſured by the ſaids Kirk Judicatories for the ſame vice before, ſhall after the ſecond conviction before the ſaids Kirk Judicatories be cenſurable in manner following viz. And it is declared, that the executing of this Act ſhall be beſide and without prejudice of the Kirk cenſure.

ACT for up-lifting of Pecuniall pains to be beſtowed upon Pious uſes.

FORSAMEIKLE as many Acts of Parliament 9 tending to the glory of God, puniſhment of vice, and to the Common weale of this Kirk and Kingdome, cannot take effect except ſome good courſe be preſcribed for putting theſe Acts to execution; Therefore the Eſtates finding that there can be no better way for executing theſe Acts, then by giving Commiſſion for the ſame, Gives full power and Commiſſion to the Magiſtrates within Burghs, and to ſuch perſon or perſons in Landwart Pariſhes, as ſhall be nominate by the Heritors within the Pariſh, or the moſt part of them (who are hereby appointed to meet among themſelves, upon the deſire of the Kirk Seſſion, to nominate one or mo for that effect) To put to execution the Act paſt in this preſent Parliament, againſt Swearing, Drinking, and mocking of Pietie, and all other Acts of Parliament already made, or to be made hereafter, for reſtraint and puniſhment of Vice, or for advancement of Pietie and Vertue, under pecuniall pains or corporall puniſhment, ſuch as Stocks, Irons, Jogges, Scourging, and ſuchlike, and to lift and exact the pecuniall pains, and being received, to cauſe deliver the ſame to Kirk Judicatories, to be imployed to Pious uſes, and to inflict the cor-

But prejudice alwayes to the Lords of Secret Councell to grant Commiſſions upon the repreſentation of Presbyteries, for executing all or any of the ſaids Acts to any other perſons their Lordſhips ſhall think more convenient. And ſicklike in caſe Heretors ſhall not make nomination of perſons to exerce the Commiſſion above ſpecified, The ſaids Lords of Councell ſhall alſo in that caſe grant Commiſſions to ſuch perſons as they ſhal finde moſt fit; which Commiſſions ſhal be paſt gratis, with all expedition. And the Eſtates Ordains, that Magiſtrates, Heritors, and other Commiſſioners whatſoever, be anſwerable for their diligence and fidelity in diſcharging their Commiſſions to the Lords of Secret Councell.

ACT prorogating the Commiſſion for the Exchequer.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in 42
the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Taking to their conſideration That the Commiſſion for the Exchequer did become void by the meeting of the Eſtates in this Seſſion of Parliament, And herewith alſo conſidering how neceſſary it is that the ſaid Commiſſion be renewed, for the good and diſpatch of the Lieges; They do hereby renew and prorogate the former Commiſſion for the Exchequer granted by the Eſtates of Parliament to the perſons therein mentioned in the ſecond Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, of the date the firſt day of February 1645 yeers; And ordains the ſame to ſtand in full force, ſtrength, and effect, conform to the tenor thereof in all points, While the next Seſſion of this Parliament, and longer ay and while the ſame be diſcharged by the Parliament or Committee of Parliament; And in the mean time ordains ſick of the perſons contained in the ſaid former Commiſsion as are under ſuſpition, to forbear the exercing of their charge therein while they be cleared of the ſame ſuſpition.

ACT againſt keeping Faires upon Monday and Saterday.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in 43
the fifth Seſsion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Conſidering that the prophanation of the Sabbath is occaſioned by keeping Fairs upon Saterday and Monday, as it was by keeping weekly Markets upon theſe dayes, Do therefore inhibit and diſcharge all Burghs and Towns To keep Fairs upon Monday and Saterday, under the pains contained in the Act paſt in Parliament in June 1640 againſt keeping weekly Markets on theſe dayes; Which Act The Eſtates do hereby extend againſt keeping of Fairs upon theſe dayes, in the whole tenor and effect thereof.

ACT anent non-Covenanting Patrones.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in 44
the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Taking to their conſideration the ninth Act of his Majeſties ſecond Parliament, in the yeer 1641. anent non-Covenanting Patrones, and other non-Covenanters therein mentioned, Think it very reaſonable that the ſame be extended in manner following; And therefore declare, That Presbyteries ſhall not onely have right proprio jure, to plant and provide all and ſundry Kirks of the Patronages belonging to any perſon that have not ſubſcribed the Nationall Covenant, but alſo all Kirks of the Patronages belonging to any perſon that hath not ſubſcribed the League and Covenant of the three Kingdoms, or that is, or ſhall be Excommunicate, And that from the time of the publike enjoying the Covenant by the Kirk, and of pronouncing the ſentence of Excommunication, ay and while they ſubſcribe the ſaids Covenants, and be relaxed from Excommunication reſpective. And it is alſo declared and ordained, That all Kirks of the Patronages belonging to any perſon that is, or ſhall be forfaulted for whatſoever cauſe, be provided and planted hereafter by Preſbyteries within whoſe bounds they lye, and that the right of planting thereof ſhall belong to Preſbyteries pleno & proprio jure in time coming; Declaring alſo hereby, that the planting and providing of all and ſundry the Kirks above-mentioned, ſhall alwayes be according to the Propoſitions of Ordination of Miniſters agreed upon by the Aſſemblies of both Churches, and ratified by the Parliament of this Kingdom. And further, The Eſtates extends the Act of Parliament above-mentioned, againſt the refuſers of the League and Covenant of the three Kingdoms, and Excommunicate perſons, in the whole tenor and effect thereof; Ordaining the ſame to be as effectuall in all points againſt them as againſt the refuſers of the Nationall Covenant therein expreſſed.

ACT for founding Schools in every Pariſh.

45 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Conſidering how prejudiciall the want of Schools in many congregations hath been, and how beneficiall the founding thereof in every congregation will be to this Kirk and Kingdom; Do therefore Statute and Ordain, That there be a Schoole founded, and a Schoole maſter appointed in every Pariſh (not already provided) by advice of the Presbyterie: And to this purpoſe, that the Heritors in every congregation meet among themſelves, and provide a commodious houſe for a Schoole, and modifie a ſtipend to the Schoole maſter, which ſhall not be under Ane hundred Merks, nor above Tua hundred Merks, to be paid yeerly at two Terms: And to this effect that they ſet down a ſtent upon every ones Rent of ſtock and teind in the Pariſh, proportionally to the worth thereof, for maintenance of the Schoole, and payment of the Schoole maſters ſtipend; Which ſtipend is declared to be due to the Schoole maſters by and attour the caſualities which formerly belonged to Readers and Clerks of Kirk Seſſions. And if the Heritors ſhall not conveene, or being conveened ſhall not agree amongſt themſelves, Then, and in that caſe the Presbyterie ſhall nominate twelve honeſt men within the bounds of the Presbyterie, who ſhall have power to eſtabliſh a Schoole, modifie a ſtipend for the Schoole maſter, with the latitude before expreſſed, and ſet down a ſtent for payment thereof upon the Heritors, which ſhall be as valide and effectuall as if the ſame had been done by the Heritors themſelves. And becauſe the proportions impoſed will be very ſmall, Therefore for the better and more ready payment thereof: It is further ordained, That if two Termes proportions run in the third unpaid, Then theſe that ſo faile in payment ſhall be lyable in the double of their proportions then reſting, and in the double of every Termes proportion that ſhall be reſting thereafter, ay and while the Schoole maſter be compleatly paid, and that without any defalcation: And that Letters of Horning and all other Executorials neceſſary be directed, at the inſtance of the Schoole maſter, for payment of the double of the proportions, in manner foreſaid: Diſcharging hereby any Suſpenſion to paſſe againſt the Schoole maſters without conſignation. And it is declared, that Life-renters during their life time ſhall be lyable in payment of the proportion impoſed upon the Lands Life-rented, and execution in the manner before expreſſed, ſhall paſſe againſt them for that effect: And the Heritors ſhall be alwayes free of the ſame during the Life-renters life time. And if any perſons findes themſelves wronged by the inequality of the proportions impoſed, It ſhall be lawfull for them to ſeek redreſſe thereof before the Lords of Secret Councell or Seſſion, within yeer and day after the impoſing of the ſtent, and no otherwayes.

ACT diſcharging Lyke-wakes.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the 46
fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Conſidering the great abuſe of Lyke-wakes, Do therefore Inhibite and Diſcharge all perſons of whatſoever quality, To have Lyke-wakes hereafter, and that under the pain of Twenty punds Scots to be paid by the contraveener toties quoties to the Kirk Seſsion for pious uſes: And ordains thir fines and penalties to be uplifted conform to the Act made at Pearth anent the uplifting of pecuniall paines.

ACT diſcharging the Printing of Bookes, Chronicles, or Libels without Licence.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the 47
fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Having heard and conſidered the Act of the Committee of Eſtates of the 29 of November 1644. Whereof the Tenour follows:

THE Committee of Eſtates taking into their conſideration the prejudice that doth enſue through the uncontrolled liberty that Printers take to themſelves to Print and Publiſh Books and Papers at their pleaſure without any Warrant; And that in all well-governed kingdoms it is expreſly prohibite that any Subject take upon hand to Print or Publiſh any Books, of whatſomever Diſcipline or Science, but ſpecially Libels, or Chronicles concerning the ſtate of the Kingdom or ages paſt, without Warrant or allowance for that effect: Therefore the Committee of Eſtates, according to the practice of the Convention of Eſtates in former times, Statutes and Ordains, That no perſons, of whatſomever ranke, degree, or calling, take upon hand to Print, Publiſh, or ſet out any manner of Book, Libell, Hiſtory, or other Paper: As alſo that no Book being Printed out of the Kingdom be brought in and ſold within the ſame, while they be firſt ſeen and Reviſed by his Majeſties Secretary; Certifying them that do in the contrary, they ſhall forfeit their ſaids Books and Papers, and their whole other moveable goods; and ſhall be further puniſhed, at the diſcretion of the Councell or Committee of Eſtates. And this Act to endure till the next Seſſion of Parliament, and to be without prejudice of the Act of the Generall Aſſembly anent Printing, or any order to be given by the publike Judicatories of the Kingdom.

THE ſaids Eſtates renews the foreſaid Act, and do hereby Statute and ordain, That no Act, Libell, or any manner of Book, Hiſtory, or other Papers concerning the Eſtate of this Kingdom, Be Printed, or brought in and ſold, without advice and Licence of ſome of the ſupreame Judicatories within this Kingdome, or Secretary thereof: Without prejudice alwayes of the Act of Parliament of the date of thir preſents made in favours of the Commiſsioners of the Kirk: And alſo but prejudice to the Clerk of Regiſter his power for Printing of the Acts of Parliament.

And farther, The Eſtates declares, That the haill general Officers of the Armies are hereby priviledged to be preſent in the foreſaid Committee, as they ſhall have occaſion: And Ordaines this Commiſsion to endure to the next Seſsion of Parliament.

ACT anent the charges allowed to theſe upon the Committees of Eſtate, and for the Moneys.

52 FORSAMEIKLE as the Eſtates of Parliament, Taking to their conſideration, That the perſons nominate by them To be upon the Committee of Eſtates, for ordering and governing of this Kingdom and affairs thereof, And thoſe others appointed by them for inbringing and diſtributing of Moneys, and regulating the Compts of the common burdens of the Kingdome, Will be ſubject to attendance for diſcharge of the truſt reſpectivè, thereby committed to them, To their prejudice in their own private affaires and buſineſſe: Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament, Grants the allowance following to the ſaids Commiſſioners for their attendance upon every one of the ſaids two ſeverall Committees above ſpecified, the time of their ſederunts in the ſaid ſervice, viz. To ilk Nobleman Monethly, three hundreth merks Scots. Ilk Barron Monethly, two hundreth merks Scots. And to ilk Commiſſioner for Burrows, ane hundreth thirtie three merks, foure ſhillings, foure pennies Scots Monethly, for their charges in attendance upon the ſaids Committes during the time of their attendance and ſederunts thereintill: And ficklike, the ſaids Eſtates allowes to thoſe that are upon the Committee for the Armie in England, and upon the Committee for the Armie in Ireland, and who ſhall attend the ſamine Committes reſpectivè, The ſum of thirtie ſhillings Sterling for ilk Nobleman. Twenty ſhillings Sterling for ilk Barron. And thirteen ſhillings four pence Sterling for ilk Burrow that are to be upon the ſaids Committees reſpectivè, for their charges and expenſes ilk day of their attendance in England or Ireland; And ordaines this allowance foreſaid, to be compted up to thoſe Officers of the Army that are upon thir Committees in their Monethly pay as ane part thereof: And ficklike, The ſaids Eſtates Grants the like allowance to theſe Commiſſioners that were upon the former Commiſſion for the Moneys for their bygone attendance in that Commiſſion, according to their ſederunts, as is hereby granted to the Commiſſioners that are either upon the Committee of Eſtates, or Committee for the Moneys. And further, the Eſtates of Parliament conſidering that William Thomſon Depute to the Theſaurer of the Armie, and others his Deputes will have often occaſion in reſpect of their charge, to bee preſent with the foreſaids Committees of Eſtates, and for the Moneys; Therefore the Eſtates declares, that they are hereby priviledged to have acceſſe to the foreſaids Committees, and to be preſent, as they have occaſion at every ane of the ſaids Commitees abovementioned.

INSTRUCTIONS from the Parliat of Scotland to their Coñr℄ at London

WHEREAS the honble Houſes of Parliament demand the removeall of the Scottiſh forces out of the townes and Castles of Carlile / Newcastle / Tinmouth Hartlepoole / Stocktoun Warkworth and Thirlewall or elſewhere within the kingdome of England wher ther be any gariſons placed by the Scottiſh army without conſent of both houſes of parliament or their Cōmittees befor the firſt of March nixt. Yow shall repeat the anſwers made to this demaund in the Treaty with the Coñr℄ of the Parliat of England at St Andrews / and make vſe of the Inſtructions ſent to yow from the Cōmitties of Estates from Glasgow and of any other anſwers or arguments which can proceed from your owne knowledge & Judgment adhering to the former grounds 53

YOW ſhall ſhew that theſe gariſons ar ſo abſolutly neceſsar for Magazines of victuall / armes & amunition / and to be places of retreat to the Scottiſh army / as they cannot be ſecured and inabled for promoting the ſervice / and advancing ſouth without them

THAT it is vſuall for all armies who doe ingage in the warre or ſervice of another kingdome / to have ſuch gariſons for their ſafeguard & ſecurity. And theſe Gariſons being taken by our Army from the enemy and ſtill in their poſſeſsion / with conſent of the Houſes of Parliat. And they being moſt neceſsary for the Armies accomodation / & better carying on of the warre (wch both kingdomes ar obliged to promote according to the Covenant / Treaty and declaration of both) / and the Gariſons being a part of the Scottiſh Army (who by the Treaty ar to be diſpoſed of by the direction & adviſe of the Cōmittee of both kingdomes for carying on of the warre) cannot be removed out of the Garisons without consent of both / And wher ther is no direction from a Joynt Cõmittee of both / the Generall and Cõmander in cheife of the Army / must doe that wch to his best knowledge & Judgment is best for promoting the warre & safety of the Army / wch he cannot doe / vnles he garrisone some places for retreat [safetie and magazines and the whole places now garrisoned by ws wer recovered] from the enemy. And therfor yow shall still persist that the houses of parliament would be pleased that Scottish Garisons remaine in these places so long as our army remaines in England in pursuance of the warre

YOW shall shew that wee ar content to give any reasonable security for restitution of these Garisons so soone as by a prosperous warre or a happy peace Religion shall be setled and our troubles brocht to an happy end And þt compt & payt be made of qt is duly owing to ws by the Houses of parliat þt or Army may returne into Scotland If yow find that the delyverie of the other Garisons wch ar garisoned by the Scotts Army (except Berwick / Carleill / Newcastle & Tinmouth) may satisfie the houses of parliat And that they be content we retaine Berwick / Carleill / Newcastle & Tinmouth / yow shall offer the same to testify how desirous we ar to comply with the desire of the houses of Parliat so farr as can be with preservation of the Army / and as may consist with the promoting of the warre. By granting qtof ther is no garison in effect given to the Scottish Army for a place of Magazine / retreat and safety / but New Castle and Tinmouth / In respect that by the large Treaty Berwick and Carleill ar appointed to be slighted / and the fortifications demolished

IF nothing give satisfaction to the Houses of parliat / but that they still persist to have their Garisons presently restored Then yow shall desire that they may be pleased to setle religion / and make a speedy & Just peace / that Scotland may be free of the calamities & dangers brought vpon ws by our engadging in this warre with England / And that they would secure & pay the soumes of money they ar Justly owing ws / vpon performanee wherof these Garisons shall Imediatly þeftir be restored

YOW shall perve the papers sent to yow from ws conteining some grounds of an answer to the paper of þe Houses of Parliament in answer to yor former papers of the 29. and 30. of Septemb and of the third of october. And becaus yow who ar in the place can best discerne what may be the best expresion & most conduceable and seasonable for promoting the worke / for setling religion and peace / and preserving vnion betuixt the kingdomes / We remitt to your Judgement and discretion the framing of this answer and adding to the groundś / and reasons conteined in the paper sent to yow / and smoothing the expresions therof / as yow conceave best for the busines

YOW shall vpon the grounds of the preceiding Instructions / and as in yor Judgment yow think most expedient / make an answer to that part of the paper or declaration of the Houses of parliat / wch they have returned in answer to the three severall papers from yow of the 29. and 30. of Septemb / and 3. of october so farr as concernes the Northerne Garisons exprest in the former paper according to the preceiding Instructions

YOW shall likewise (vpon the groundś exprest in yor former papers and out of the former Instructions / and these now sent vnto yow) make a Reply to what is expresed in the afoirsd paper of the Houses of Parliãt concerning Religon and the setling of Church government / and propositions of peace to be sent to his Matie.

CONCERNING the Kings letters of the 5. and 15th dayes of december craving a safe conduct for sending propositions to be a foundation of a safe & well grounded peace / and the answer to be returned therevnto / And whither a positive answer shall be sought to the propositions that should be sent without any treaty / or that a Treaty be had therevpon; We doe approve of your Answers and proceedings therein.

YOW shall shew that it is our earnest desire that the present opportunities (when both King and Parliament profese their desires of peace) may be embraced and emproved to the best advantage / and least so seasonable a time (wch is very precious) be lost / And for eviting the dangers wch ar well exprest in the papers of the 22. of December given in by yow to the Houses of parliat / And least the King should take advantage / or the people be stumbled with the inconstancy of our resolutions in altering the former propositions / wch (vpon so mature deliberation of the parliat of both kingdomes) were agreed vpon to be necesary foundations of a well grounded peace with his Matie / and of a firme vnion betuixt the Kingdomes / yow shall desire that the propositions of peace formerly agreed vnto by the parliãt of both kingdomes (the most materiall qtof have been treated & debated vpon at Wxbridge) may without delay be sent vnto his Matie and his answers sought thervnto without further Treaty

IF the Houses of Parliament shall make materiall alterations of the former propositions / or adde new ones / yow shall shew that it cannot be expected / that we can either agree to the matter of them befor we know and ponder them nor can resolve vpon the manner of sending of them till the matter be agreed vpon: And therfor to eschew the lose of time / and that ther be no retardment to the procuring of a happy peace / we desire that the former propositions agreed vpon by the Parliament of both kingdomes / especially these 3 propositions / for set-ling Religion / the Militia and Ireland formerly debated at Wxbridge / may be ſent vnto his Ma^tie / and his anſwer ſought thervnto. And that the remainder of the former propoſitions / with ſuch propoſitions as ſhall be made by his Ma^tie / may be treated vpon in ſuch manner / as his Ma^tie / the Houſes of Parliament and yow ſhall think fitt.

YOW ſhall endeavour that ther be no alterations made of the former propoſitions / especially of the 17. proposition concerning the Militia formerly agreed vnto by both Parliaments / as the best and ſureſt way for conſervation of a durable peace and vnity betuixt the king and his kingdomes and of each kingdome with other / And w^ch was ſent from the Parlia^t of England vnto the parlia^t of Scotland / as a ground and obligation of amity and mutuall confidence.

IF the Houſes of Parlia^t ſhall reſolve abſolutely to alter the 17. propoſition / or ſhall make any materiall alterations in or additions to the former propoſitions / Then yow ſhall ſhew that it is our Judgment / that the Militia of both Kingdomes ſhould be ſetled by the king / with the adviſe of the Parliament of both kingdomes reẍiue as may be best for the ſecurity of both / againſt all inteſtine Inſurrection and forraine invaſion. For wee doe conceave that the diſpoſing of the Militia / for the preſervation of the kingdome / & protection of the ſubjects / is ſo proper and eſsentiall part of the Kings duty / and of the excerciſe of his Just royall power (w^ch wee ar bound by our alledgance & covenant / not to diminiſh) as it ought not to be done without him if he be willing to doe it / with adviſe of his parliament. And we do conceave that this difference may be ſo tranſacted / by condeſcending vpon ſuch Commiſsioners as ar acceptable both to King and Parliament / or that the king have the nomination / and the parliament the approbation / or in ſome ſuch other way / as it needs not be a hinderance to a Just peace. But if the parliament can be perſuaded that the propoſitions for ſetling the Militia formerly agreed vpon by both parliaments ſhall ſtand / It is beſt of all and moſt to be deſired.

YOW ſhall endeavour ſo far as poſsibly yow can / to preſerve a right vnderſtanding & vnion betuixt the tuo Kingdomes / & betuixt their Armyes and Cõmittees / And ſhew that it is our earnest deſire / that the Councells and forces of both kingdomes may be always joyned againſt all inteſtine Inſurrection & forraine Invaſion / and in every thing w^ch may ſerve for the good of both / and promote the ends of our cõmon league & Covenant.

YOW ſhall ſhew that it is our earnest deſire / that the propoſitions for ſetling Religion & Church government / be agreed vnto / and eſtabliſhed in the firſt place / as was reſolved vpon in the treaty at Wxbridge.

CONCERNING Ireland and the Scottiſh Army there / It is deſired that the articles treated and agreed vpon by Committees of both kingdomes in Scotland & England and ratefied by both parliaments (w^ch wer alſo acknowledged by both to be a Treaty / and inſerted in the propoſitions of peace and debated at Wxbridge) be inſisted vpon and obſerved.

THAT vpon the grounds exprest in the papers and demands given in by yow / in behalf of the church & kingdome of Scotland / yow ſhall inſist for ſpeedy ſetling of Religion and a well grounded peace

THAT religion & church government (w^ch is our cheiſe deſire and hathe bene the principall cauſe of all our vndertakings & ſufferings) beeing eſtabliſhed / you ſhall by all laufull and poſsible meanes / endeavour a Just & equall peace / that thir kingdomes lying vnder the preſsures & calamities of warres / may be quyet and at reſt

IF the King shall grant the propoſitions for religion & Church government / yow ſhall apply your moſt ſerious endeavours to procure agreement betuixt his Ma^tie and the houſes of Parliament in matteris civill wherin there may be a greater latitude without ſin / then in matters of Religion wherin the glory of god is moſt concerned. And if his Ma^tie ſhall grant the propoſitions for religion and Church government / and ſhall grant ſuch propoſitions in things civill / as may be a foundation of a juſt and firme peace (although he doe not in everie thing come to the lenth of our deſires exprest in the propoſitions of both kingdomes) we conceave that peace should not be refuſed / and ſo deſtructive and vnnaturall warris continued.

THAT a joynt way by the Councell & forces of both kingdomes for better carying on of the warre / or procuring of peace according to the covenant Treaty and declaration of both kingdomes Is the beſt way for both and that w^ch wee moſt earneſtly deſire to be obſerved.

IF the Houſes of parlia^t ſhall alter the 17. proposition concerning the Militia / or make any materiall alterations of the former propoſitions or adde new ones / Then yow ſhall make the demands following / and manage them in the most dexterous way ye can for the good and interest of this kingdome

THAT the advantages w^ch the kingdome of England hath by his Ma / royall preſence and continuall reſidence with them / and the loſses and prejudice / w^ch Scotland ſuſtaines by his Ma / abſence / ar ſo many and great / as cannot be condignely recompenſed by any retribution equivalent to ſo great a benefit as England enjoyes / and as Scotland is depryved off Therfor ſince (by the good providence of God) both Nations are on one yland ſpeake one and the ſame language / profeſse one and the ſame religion / and ar vnited vnder the ſame head and Monarch / yow shall demand in behalf of the kingdome of Scotland / That in all places of trust and offices about the king Queen & prince / the equal halfe (at leaſt the thrid part) / be Scottiſhmen.

THAT in the Councell of England and Ireland a third part be ſcottiſmen / and ſo reciprocally for England in the Councell of Scotland.

THAT a capacity be declared for all Scottiſhmen to exerce any place of trust or office within the kingdome of England or Ireland / & ſo for England & Ireland in Scotland

THAT naturalization & the priviledge of poſt nati ſince K. James went into England / togither with all other freedoms & priviledges of the natives of England & Ireland / for all times to come / be declared to pertaine to Scottiſhmen / and ſo reciprocally for England within Scotland.

THAT the freedome / priviledge and benefit of cõmerce and trade within England & Ireland / be cõmunicated to Scottiſhmen / and ſo reciprocally for England & Ireland within Scotland.

THAT the freedom of all the Seaports / Cuſtomes & Iñunities wch is due to the Engliſh within England & Ireland / Be cõmunicated to the Scotts / and ſo reciprocally to the Engliſh within Scotland.

THAT all cõmodities whatſoever may be freely exported and imported by ſea and land from the one kingdome to the other as is from one county to another [or from one ſea port to another] within either of the kingdomes

THAT Scottiſhmen be declared capable to be of any Incorporation / trade / or ſociety within England or Ireland / or in forraine trade / as the Engliſh ar / and vpon like conditions as the Engliſh ar / and ſo reciprocally.

THAT Scottiſhmen be declared capable of all places faculties / profeſsions and benefits within the kingdomes of England and Ireland / as the Engliſh ar and ſo reciprocally.

THAT of all forrayne negotiations at home or abroad wch ar nationall or of joynt concernment / ther be equall number imployed of both kingdomes. That ſome of the Kings Shippes be appointed conſtantlie to guard the coaſt of Scotland / and give ſafe convoyes to Scotts ſhippes.

AND although ther be no materiall alterations of the former propoſitions nor of the 17. propoſition concerning the Militia / yow ar to make vſe of the preceiding Articles / & manage them / as yow ſhall find moſt conduceable for ſetling of Religion / peace and intereſt of this kingdome / and according to your former Inſtructions.

IF the abridging of the number of our Cavalrie to 2000 horſe and 1000 dragoones ſhall be inſiſted vpon / yow ſhall adhere to the anſwer made by yow to the vote of both houſes of the 6. of Januar vpon that ſubject / and adde further / that as the least number by the treaty / was agreed to be 18000 foot / 2000 horſe and a 1000 dragoones / beſides the forces wch were invited vnder the cõmand of the Erle of Callender / So is ther no Juſt reaſon of exception vpon the point of number / ſo long as the Army compting both foot and horſe doth not exceed the number firſt agreed vpon / and the additionall forces brought in by the Erle of Callender Nor can ther be any juſt exception taken by the houſes of parliat / for increaſe of charge and expenſs / ſo long as ther is no more money and pay ſought from them nor the 30000 lib agreed vpon to be payed monethly to the Army / and that we have ever bene / and ar still willing / that Musters be made for knowing the number and strenth of our Army

CONCERNING Belfast and the Gariſons in Ireland / yow shall ſhew that by the Treaty vpon wch an Army was ſent from Scotland to Ireland / The warre is to be first proſecute in Vlſter / and the Cõmander in cheiſe of the Army entrusted to cary on the warre as might best suppreſse The Rebell and reduce that Kingdome to the obedience of King and Parliament. And that all places recovered from the enemy / ſhould be diſpoſed of / as the Cõmander in cheiſe ſhould judge best for promoting the ſervice / and ſhould remaine in the poſſeſsion of the Scotts during their abode in Ireland

BELFAST is a place wherin a part of the Scottiſh Army at their first arryvall in Ireland was quartered without any interruption / till the Scotts forces within it were drawne foorth / & of for ſome ſervice in the fields / vpon wch Col: Chicester (then having declared himſelf an enemy to the Army / Cauſe and Covenant) was vnwilling to quarter the like number of the Scottiſh Army there againe / wch moved Generall Major Monroe to regaine that quarter which he did cairfully & actively perform without any violence / whervpon Col. Chicheſter with his people went Imediatly to the enemy into Dublin / to whom doubtles he would have ſurrandered that Gariſon if he had not bene tymly prevented And therfoir Belfast being a place alwayes in the poſſeſsion of the Scottiſh Army / and purchast from the enemy / at least from ſuch a perſon as would have betrayed it to the enemy / and being a place most neceſsary for the ſubſistance of the Scottiſh Army / and promoting the warre / it is agreeable to the Treaty and for the good of the ſervice / that it remaine in the poſſeſsion of the Scotts / ſo long as they remaine in Ireland for the proſecution of the warre And for your better information concerning this particular / yow ſhall perviſe the papers from Ireland heirwth ſent to yow.

YOW ſhall give frequent advertiſement to the Parliament or their Cōmittees of your proceedings.

Eikit Inſtructions

YOW ſhall deliver to the hono^{ll} Houſes of Parliament our letter in anſwer to theirs of the 3 of November concerning the removing of our Gariſons from Newcastle etc. and manage that particular according to the Instructions ſent vnto yow for that effect.

YOW ſhall receave our letter to the Houſes of Parliament demanding the speedy ſetling of Religion & vniformity / the carying on the warre by the joynt Councells & forces of both kingdomes / the ſending of Propositions of Peace to the king / The payment of the ſowmes of money due to this Kingdome and our Army / and keeping a right vnderſtanding betueene the Kingdomes And wee referre vnto your wiſdome & diſcretion to make the beſt vſe yow can of that letter / and deliver or not deliver it / as yow conceave may ſerve moſt for the good of the cauſe and interest of this Kingdome

YOW ſhall deliver our letter wryttin to the Aſsembly of divynes.

IV FEBRUARII.

ORDINANCE anent the Quartering of Officers and Souldiers.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Having heard and conſidered the overtures underwritten, whereof the tennor follows: The humble deſire of the Burrows to the Honourable Houſe of Parliament. 1. That they will be pleaſed to give warrand for diſcharging Quarter Maſters of Regiments and all others, to Quarter any Regiments or Souldiers within Burghs, but that the Magiſtrates of the Burrows may have the charge thereof, becauſe Quarter Maſters takes Money and makes free whom they pleaſe, and layes heavier burthens upon others nor they are able to bear. 2. To condiſcend and ſet down order, how, and at what rate all Officers of Regiments ſhall be entertained upon free Quarters within Burghs, becauſe ſome are very implaceable and at extraordinary expenſes to theſe upon whom they are Quartered, not only taking free Quarters to themſelves, but to all ſuch their Comrades whom they ſhall pleaſe to bring in with them, and doe enforce poore men to ſerve them with Wine, both at Table and extraordinary times. 3. To condiſcend what of the inferiour Officers ſhall bee oblieged to live upon Provant as doeth the Souldiers, and who ſhall be entertained for payment in Moneys. 4. To condiſcend how many Horſes is allowed upon the Officers of Foot Regiments, becauſe ſome of them doe keep four or five Horſe with them upon free Quarters, which doeth draw to great expenſes. The ſaids Eſtates ordaines the Quarterings within Burghs, To be as the Magiſtrates of the Burghs ſhall appoint, conform to the deſire of the firſt Article: And alſo, The Eſtates ordains and appoints the Committee for the Moneys, To condiſcend on the wayes, rules, and orders, how, and at what rate all officers of Regiments ſhall be entertained upon free Quarters within Burghs, or in Landward, according to the deſire of the ſecond 62

Article, which the Eſtates findes juſt. And ſicklike, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament remits and recommends the third and fourth Articles abovewritten as juſt and reaſonable to the ſaid Committee for the moneys, And ordains them to condiſcend what of the inferiour Officers ſhall be obliged to live upon Provant, as doth the Souldiers, and who ſhall be entertained for payment in moneys; As alſo to condiſcend how many horſes is to be allowed upon the Officers of Foot Regiments to be kept upon free Quarters conform to the deſire of the foreſaid third and fourth Articles.

ACT anent the Recruting of the Armies.

63 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Having upon conſideration of the continuing troubles of this Kingdom, and of the condition of their Armies, both at home, and in England, bethought themſelves of the duty which in the preſent conjuncture of affairs they owe unto God in defence of his Truth, againſt all oppoſition, and to this Kingdom (whom they repreſent) the maintenance of its Lawes and Liberties, according to the Covenant, Have thought it neceſſary, that the Armies within this Kingdom and in England, be recruted, ſtrengthened, and inabled, ſo to proſecute the Warre this enſuing Summer, as by the bleſſing of God upon their endeavours, the long-laſting troubles of this Kingdom may end in an happy and ſafe Peace; which being ſo much deſired by all good Chriſtians and Countreymen, The Eſtates of Parliament have reaſon to be confident of their ready & cheerful concurrence with their perſons and fortunes in the way and mean for attaining the ſame, whereunto alſo (albeit Religion were not in hazard) the Kingdomes honour ſo much intereſſed, were of it ſelf a motive ſtrong enough to prevail with every true Scottiſh heart: And therefore have ſtatute and ordained, that any Leavies formerly appointed by warrant of the Parliament, Convention of Eſtates, or any Committee from them reſpectivè, or Run-aways from any Regiments, who have returned back to their Shires, and are now lurking in the ſame, be with all expedition put out and delivered to thoſe Regiments unto which they are aſſigned by any Acts of Parliament, Convention, or Committee, or from which they are Run-awayes, and that there be no neglect in the due execution hereof, The ſaids Eſtates Ordains the Committees of War in ilk Shire reſpectivè, to be careful herein, as one of the moſt ſpeciall and neceſſary points of the truſt committed unto them. And becauſe the number of the ſaids Deficients and Runaways will not be ſufficient to make up the ten thouſand Foot, appointed to be entertained within, and for the ſervice of this Kingdom, and alſo to ſtrengthen and recrute the Armies in England, they have therefore ſtatute and ordained, that a new levie of Foot to be laid on and raiſed out of the ſeverall Shires and Burghs of this Kingdom, according to ſuch proportions, and for the Recrues of ſuch Regiments as ſhall be contained in the Liſt to be made up by the Committee of Eſtates: And becauſe upon the ſpeedie and effectuall execution of this Ordinance (as the only probable humane means) ſo much dependeth all the honour and happineſſe of this Kingdome, The Eſtates of Parliament have thought fitting ſeriouſly to recommend to the Committees of Warre of the ſeverall Shires, heartily and with publike ſpirits, over all difficulties, to adde unto the former, this new teſtimony of their reſolutions, to purſue the ends expreſt in their Covenant, with their lives, fortunes, and eſtates, and ſpeedily to deliver their ſeverall proportions of men, to ſuch Officers of the aforeſaid Regiments reſpectivè, as ſhall be appointed for receiving of the ſame from them. And further Statutes and Ordains, that the ſaids numbers of men appointed to be raiſed out of the ſeverall Shires and Burghs, be in readineſſe, and be delivered betwixt and the Tenth day of March next, to ſuch Officers as ſhall be appointed by the Colonells reſpectivè foreſaids for receiving of the ſame. And that betwixt and the ſaid Tenth day of March, the Committees of Warre of the ſeverall Shires, ſhall ſend ſome of their own number, fully inſtructed, to give an accompt of thair diligence, both in putting out this new Leavy, and their former Deficients, unto the Committee of Eſtates.

ACT Anent the foreſaulting of the Lands and eſtate of theſe who refuſe to pay their Fines.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the 64
fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Gives full power and warrand to the Committee for the Moneys or Quorum thereof, upon refuſall to pay the fines impoſed already, or to be imposed upon any perſon, who in the rigour of Law might have been puniſhed in life for acts of malignancie, and now falls within the compaſſe of the firſt or ſecond claſſes, to forfeit their Lands and eſtates or any part thereof, as the ſaid Committee or their Quorum ſhall think fitting, and not their lives.

ACT Salvo Jure Cujuſlibet.

66 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Conſidering That in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, there are ſome particular Acts and Acts of Ratifications made in favours of particular Perſons, which may bee prejudiciall to the parties having intereſt, and not heard; Albeit the meaning of the Eſtates bee at this time, as it was ever in all preceding Parliaments, That by no particular Act, or Act of Ratification granted to any particular Perſon, Any other parties ſhould bee hurt or prejudged of their lawfull rights and defences competent to them of the Law: For remeed whereof, It is Statute and Ordained, That no Ratification, or other particular Act whatſomever made in favours of any particular Perſon, in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be prejudiciall to any other Parties Rights or Defences, competent to them of the Law; But that the ſaids particular Acts, and Acts of Ratification made in favours of particular parties, be alwayes underſtood, Salvo jure cujuſlibet.

ACT of continuation of the Parliament to the firſt Tueſday of November 1646.

67 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the fifth Seſſion of this firſt Triennall Parliament, Continues this preſent Parliament and all matters belonging thereto (which are not committed or remitted reſpectivè to the Committee of Eſtates of Parliament, or to other Commiſſions granted in this Seſſion of Parliament) while the firſt Tueſday of November next to come; At which day, or ſooner, as the Committee of Eſtates or Quorum thereof ſhall appoint, Ordaines the haill Eſtates to be preſent, and to attend at Edinburgh, or where it ſhall happen the Committee of Eſtates to appoint the Parliament to bee holden for the time; With power likewiſe to the Committee of Eſtates, To conveen the Parliament ſooner if they think fitting, and to appoint any other place at that time if they finde the ſame expedient: And in the meane time, The Eſtates declares this preſent Parliament currant to the day foreſaid; And ordaines the haill Acts and Statutes made and concluded in this Seſſion of Parliament, To ſtand, and have the force and ſtrength of Acts of Parliament, conforme to the tenors thereof, ſicklike, as any Acts and Statutes of any preceding Parliaments in any time bygone: And ordaines publike Proclamation to bee made hereof, at the Market Croſſe of S. Andrews by ſound of Trumpet. And the Eſtates continues the Exciſe, and ordaines the Act alreadie made, to ſtand and endure till the firſt day of November next, conform to the Acts already made thereanent: And alſo ordains the Lords of Seſſion, to conveene and ſit down in Seſſion for Adminiſtration of juſtice to the lieges, the firſt day of June next to come, and to continue at the ordinary times appointed for the ſitting of the Seſſion at Edinburgh, while they be diſcharged by Parliament, Committee of Parliament, or Counſell.

And declares, that in theſe Pariſhes either in Burgh or Land, ſo Quartered upon in theſe tranſient Quarters, ſhall have their proportionall relief of the remanent Shire. And likewiſe, The Eſtates of Parliament, Ordains and commands the Committees of War in the ſeveral Shires of this Kingdome (who are hereby continued in their conſtant places, untill the Parliament give new order thereanent) To bee aſſiſting to ſee this Act punctually obſerved in the whole Heads thereof. And for that end that they ſend in weekly to their Commiſſioners, during the ſitting of the Parliament, ane accompt of each Troope and Company, with the Officers and Souldiers names, according as they are Quartered within their bounds, and of the obedience given herein by the Officers. And for that effect, That they call upon the Commiſſioners of Pariſhes, to give in to them upon oath, ane accompt of the number locally Quartered in each Pariſh, and of the cariage of Officers and Souldiers Quartered upon them: With this certification, that where the Commiſſioners of the Pariſhes ſends not ſuch ane accompt, it ſhall be reputed and holden that there is none Quartered upon their Pariſh, nor any diſorders committed therein.

And ordains the Lord Regiſter to cauſe preſently Print this Act.

ACT anent Recording of Loſſes.

THE Paper under-written, whereof the tenour followes: The Committee appointed by the Parliament for conſidering of the particular Loſſes recom- 47

mended to them, do humbly repreſent to the Parliament, That whilſt they were about the diſcharge of what was committed to them, there occurred ane particular which they conceive very prejudiciall to the Subjects, and no wayes uſefull or neceſſary either to the Publick or to the parties intereſt, viz. When Commiſſions are given out for trying of Loſſes, The Reports of the tryall are appointed to be regiſtrate: Some whereof as they are drawne in the particulars by theſe who are Commiſſioners for the tryall, will take up the writing of five or ſix ſcore Sheets of Paper; of which ſort, one was before them this day; And it is hard to put the party ſufferer to the trouble of Regiſtrating of ſo long Reports: And therefore it is the opinion of the Committee, That the Parliament would appoint, That only ane Abridgement of theſe Reports be recorded, containing the parties names who are ſufferers, and the ſumma of their Loſſes and ſufferings: And the principall Report to be given back, marked to the party: And that the Parliament would either themſelves, or warrand this Committee to ſet down a price to be payed for this Regiſtration, as is done in Comprifings: Being publickly read in audience of the Eſtates of Parliament, and the ſamine being adviſed and conſidered by the Eſtates of Parliament, They agree to the opinion above-written of the foreſaid Committee. And enacts, ordaines and appoints, That there ſhall be onely ane Abridgement of the foreſaids Reports recorded, which ſhall containe the parties names who are ſufferers, and the ſumma of their Loſſes and ſufferings; And Ordaines the principall Report to be given back to the party marked, recorded ut ſupra. And alſe, The Eſtates of Parliament, Gives hereby warrand to the foreſaid Committee, To ſet down a price to be payed for the foreſaid Recording of the ſaids Reports, as is done in comprifings.

DECLARATION of the Kingdome of Scotland, concerning the Kings Majeſties Perſon.

WHEREAS it pleaſed God to joyne the Kingdomes of Scotland, England and Ireland in ſolemne League & Covenant for reformation & defence of Religion, the honour and happines of the King, and their own peace & ſafety; and in purſuance thereof, the Scots Army being in the Kingdome of England, the Kings Majeſty came into their Quarters before New-warke, and profeſſed he came there with a full and abſolute intention to give all juſt ſatisfaction to the joynt deſires of both Kingdomes, and with no thought either to continue this unnaturall War any longer, or to make diviſion betwixt the Kingdomes, But to comply with his Parliaments, and thoſe entruſted by them, in every thing for ſetling of Truth and Peace, and that he would apply himſelf totally to the counſels and advices of his Parliaments. And this he did not onely profeſſe verbally to the Committee of Eſtates with the Scots Army, but alſo in his ſeveral Letters and Declarations under his hand to the Committee of Eſtates of Scotland, and to the two Houſes of the Parliament of England reſpective. In confidence whereof, and of the reality of his Intentions and Reſolutions, which he declared proceeded from no other ground than the deep ſenſe of the bleeding condition of his Kingdomes; The Committees of the Kingdom of Scotland, and general Officers of the Scotish Army declared to himſelf and to the Kingdom of England, their receiving of his Royall Perſon to be on theſe termes (which is the truth, notwithſtanding what may be ſuggeſted or alledged in the contrair by any within or without the Kingdoms) And repreſented to him, that the only way of his own happineſſe and peace of his Kingdomes under God, was to make good his profeſsions ſo ſolemnely renewed to both Kingdomes. Thereafter not only were Propoſitions of Peace (which after ſerious and mature deliberation were agreed upon) tendered to him in the name of both Kingdomes for his Royall aſſent 66 thereto, but alſo all the ſupreame Judicatories of this Kingdome, both Civill and Eccleſiaſtick, made their humble and earneſt addreſſes to his Majeſty by ſupplications, Letters, and Commiſsioners for that end, and did freely repreſent all the prejudices and inconveniences of the delay or refuſall of his aſſent; and in particular, That this Kingdome would be neceſsitate to joyne with the Kingdome of England, conforme to the League and Covenant in providing for the preſent and future ſecurity of both Kingdomes, and in ſetling the Government of both, as might moſt conduce to the good of both. And the Parliament of Scotland being now according to the Treaty to retire their Army out of England, Have again for their further exoneration ſent Commiſsioners to repreſent their renewed deſires to his Majeſty, with the dangers may enſue by his delay or refuſall to grant the ſame, and that till then there was danger to the Cauſe, to his Majeſty, to this Kingdom, and to the Union betwixt the Kingdoms by his coming into Scotland, and that therefore there would be a joynt courſe tane by both Kingdomes anent the diſpoſall of his Perſon. And conſidering that his Majeſty by his Anſwer to the Propoſitions of Peace in Auguſt laſt; and alſo by his late Meſſage to the two Houſes (and by his warrand communicate to the Eſtates of this Kingdome) hath expreſſed his deſires to be near to his two Houſes of Parliament: And ſeeing alſo the Parliament of England have communicate to the Scotts Commiſsioners at Newcaſtle, and by them to this Kingdome, their reſolution, that Holmebyhouſe in the Countie of Northampton is the place which the Houſes think fit for the King to come unto, there to remain with ſuch Attendents about him as both Houſes of Parliament ſhall think fit to appoint, with reſpect had to the ſafetie and preſervation of his Royal Perſon, in the preſervation and defence of the true Religion and Liberties of the Kingdomes, according to the Covenant. Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament of the Kingdome of Scotland, and in regard of his Majeſties not giving a ſatisfactorie anſwer to the Propoſitions as yet, and out of their earneſt deſire to keep a right underſtanding betwixt theſe Kingdomes, to prevent new troubles within the ſame, to ſatisfie the deſire of his Majeſty, and the two Houſes of Parliament of England, and of this Kingdome, for his reſidence in ſome of his Houſes near the Parliament of England, and to prevent miſ-information, and to give ſatisfaction to all, Do declare their concurrence for the Kings Majeſties going to Holmebyhouſe, or ſome other of his Houſes in or about London, as ſhall be thought fit, there to remain untill he give ſatisfaction to both Kingdomes in the Propoſitions of Peace: And that in the interim there be no harme, prejudice, violence, nor injury done to his Royall Perſon: That there be no change of Government other then hes been theſe three yeares paſt: And that his Poſterity in nowayes be prejudged in their lawfull ſucceſſion to the Crown and Government of theſe Kingdomes. And as this is the clear intention and full reſolution of the Kingdome of Scotland, according to their intereſt and duety in relation to the Kings Majeſty, ſo they are confident (from the ſame grounds and manifold Declarations of the Parliament of England) that the ſame is the reſolution of their Brethren. And at ſuch a time they do expect a renewed Declaration thereof: And that they will give Brotherly and juſt ſatisfaction to the deſires herewith ſent. Likeas the Kingdom of Scotland, do hereby aſſure their Brethren in England, that it ſhall be their conſtant endeavour to keep, continue, and ſtrengthen the Union and Peace betwixt the Kingdomes, according to the Covenant and Treaties.

DESIRES of the Kingdome of Scotland

1. THAT a Committee of both Kingdomes be appointed to attend his Majeſty, and preſſe him further for granting the Propoſitions of peace; And in caſe of his refuſall, to adviſe and determine what is further neceſſary for continuing and ſtrengthening the union betweene the Kingdoms, according to the Covenant and Treaties; And that no Peace nor agreement be made by either Kingdome with the King, without the other, according to the late Treaty betwixt the Kingdomes.

2. NEXT it is deſired, that ſuch of the Scottiſh Nation, as have place or charge about the King (excepting ſuch as ſtand excepted in the Propoſitions of Peace) may attend and exerciſe the ſame; and that none ſhall be debarred from having acceſſe to attend his Majeſty, who have warrant from the Parliaments of either Kingdome reſpectively, or from the Committee of either Parliament thereunto authorized.

3. IT is deſired, that the one Kingdome aſſiſt the other, in caſe they be troubled from within, or from without for this agreement.

4. That the Kingdome of England would ſpeedily condiſcend, and agree upon ſome competency of entertainement for the Forces which we are neceſsitated to keepe up, to ſuppreſſe the Iriſh Rebels, whom by the large Treaty they are bound to ſuppreſſe.

[A LETTER from the Parliament of Scotland to the Parliament of England.

Right Honorable,

OUR Commiſſioners at London and New-Caſtle, having received from the Honorable Houſes the Vote of the firſt of January, and communicated the ſame to Us; We have conſidered of it as a buſineſſe of very great concernment to both Nations, And therefore have reſolved upon the incloſed Declaration and Deſires; Whereby, it will appear how willing we are, to comply with the reſolutions of both Houſes; And how deſirous to remove all jealouſies, for ſtrengthning the Peace and Union and maintaining a good underſtanding between the Kingdoms, ſo firmly tyed by Solemn League and Covenant; And how confident, that they will ſatisfie our reaſonable deſires, And make the integrity of their proceedings and reſolutions in all this buſineſſe concerning His Majeſty, appear either by Declaration, or otherwiſe as in their wiſdom they ſhall think fit; whereby no occaſion of calumny may be left to the wicked Enemies of either Nation. And as God hath bleſſed the joynt endeavours of both, during our Armies abode in that Kingdom; So it will be a great encouragement for us to hope for the continuance of the ſame bleſſing in time coming, that our reſolution be known to be one at our removing, in relation to all the ends contained in our mutual League and Covenant; And if any difficulty occurre there (for gaining of time) we deſire, that the Honorable Houſes may be pleaſed to ſend particular Inſtructions to their Commiſſioners at New-Caſtle, with whom we ſhall authorize ours to concur for the juſt ſatisfaction of both Kingdoms; and we reſt

Edinbrugh the 16 of January 1647

this ſixth Seſſion of the firſt Trienniall Parliament, Having ſeriouſly conſidered the Remonſtrance of the Commiſſioners of the Generall Aſſembly preſented to them; Do with all thankfull acknowledgement receive the pious and ſeaſonable admonitions and exhortations therein contained, and return to their particular deſires this following Anſwer.

1. THAT they do hereby ordain all Acts already paſſed for puniſhing of vice and advancing of vertue, to ſtand in force, and be put to due execution, Recommending the ſame to all the Miniſters of juſtice whom it concernes. And that they are yet ready to enact any further new Lawes and Ordinances neceſſary for that purpoſe, having appointed a Committee for Acts and Overtures to meet with M. James Robertoun the Juſtice Depute at all convenient occaſions, for receiving and conſidering the deſires and Overtures of the ſaid Commiſsioners, and to prepare a report of their opinions therein to the Parliament with all diligence.

2. THAT they have been ever carefull to perſerve that Band of Union between the Kingdomes, and to proſecute the work of Uniformity according to the Covenant, ſtill reſolving zealouſly to ſtudy the ſame. That they have yet again made their humble addreſſes to his Majeſty for ſigning the Covenant, and ſatisfying the deſires of his Parliaments of both Kingdomes; All which their Inſtructions to their Commiſſioners at London and Newcaſtle, and their Letters to the Parliament of England do ſufficiently expreſſe: And what further is to be done in relation to theſe particulars, ſhall be communicate to the Commiſsion from time to time, that they may joyntly concur according to their place and vocation for proſecuting thereof.

3. TOUCHING the particulars concerning theſe perſons brought off the rebellion, by the Generall Major thereunto warranted; That the publick faith ſo given unto them is not to be violated: But for the better ſecuring the peace and quiet of the Kingdomes, Theſe perſons brought off the rebellion are hereby appointed to give ſuch further affurance of their good and regular behaviour in time-coming, and for keeping the Peace as is conform to the former Lawes and Practiſes; And in the mean time that ſuch of them and others acceſſary to the rebellion, and under cenſure of Church and State, whom the Committee thereunto appointed ſhall think fit, be commanded off Town, And that an Act and Proclamation be drawn by that Committee, and ſpeedily expedited and prepared for the Parliament to that effect: Ordaining further, that the ſaids perſons brought off the rebellion, and any others guilty of the crimes mentioned in the firſt Claſſe of the Act at S. Andrews, ſhall not be admitted to ſit in any publick Judicatories, nor enjoy and exerce any Offices or Places of truſt Civill or Military, during the time of theſe troubles, and longer during the pleaſure of the Parliament, without prejudice to perſons who have heritable Offices, to nominate and appoint by the advice of Parliament, Committee of Eſtates, or Secret Councell, fit perſons, againſt whom there is no juſt exception, to be their Deputes in theſe Offices. And it is alſo hereby declared, that theſe perſons brought off the rebellion, are not to be in a better condition than other Subjects, But that they are and ſhall be lyable & ſubject in payment of all Loans, Taxes, Monethly Maintenance, and of their proportions for Leavies of Foot and Horſe, at the rates and prices ſet down by Acts of Parliament, or Committee of Eſtates, or Committees of War in Shires where they have intereſt reſpective; And of all other publick burdens, impoſitions, and duties whatſomever, for all yeares bygone, and in time coming, as fully and in the ſame manner as any other perſon is or hath been ſubject thereunto.

4. THAT all the former Lawes and ordinances againſt excommunicate perſons, are hereby appointed to ſtand in full force and vigour, Recommending to every one whom it concerns, to put the ſame to due execution: And what ſhall be found further neceſſary from the Parliament, to make that dreadfull ordinance of God, ſenſible to ſuch obſtinate offenders, And to have due regard and reverence from all, is to be conſidered by the ſaid Committee, to whom the Overtures of the Commiſsion to that purpoſe are referred; and after return of their report, The Parliament will take the ſame to ſpeciall conſideration.

5. THAT they are very ſenſible of the diſtreſſes of the Province of Argyle, and have already provided ſome means for their preſent ſubſiſtance and relief, Reſolving ſtill to take further courſe for their help and ſuccour, and to proſecute the War againſt the Rebels, not only there, but in all the parts of the Kingdome.

6. THAT the buſines of Ireland is carefully recommended to the grand Committee; wherein, after the reſult of their conſultations ſhall be returned, they are to take ſome ſpeedie and effectuall courſe accordingly.

7. THAT they judge it moſt juſt and reaſonable, that the Judicatories of the Kirk be preſerved in their integrity and authority, That inſolencies againſt them be exemplarly puniſhed, And that particular ordinances be drawn for that purpoſe, which is hereby recommended to the ſaid Committee of Overtures.

8. THAT they have recommended to the Generall Officers, to puniſh the inſolencies and diſorders of Souldiers committed before this time; and for preventing the like hereafter, They are to conſider the report of the great Committee, and to take courſe how the Officers that are to have command, may give affurance for reſtraining and redreſsing ſuch inſolencies and diſorders for time to come.

AND the Eſtates of Parliament hereby Statute and Ordain, That the particular Ordinances, Declarations and Anſwers above-expreſſed, ſhall have the ſtrength and authority of Acts, Declarations, Anſwers, and ordinances of Parliament conform to the tenours and natures thereof reſpective.

108 THE which day Sir Adam Hepburn of Humbie, for himſelf, and in the behalf of the remanent Commiſſioners ſent from the Parliament to Newcaſtle to the Kings Majeſtie, for repreſenting to his Highneſſe the particulars contained in the Commiſſion and Inſtructions given to them, and for diſtributing, with advice of the Generall Officers of the Army and Governor of Newcaſtle, of the Two hundred thouſand pound Sterling that came down from London to the Armie, conform to the Commiſſion and Inſtructions given to them thereanent, Produced and Exhibite in Parliament the Act underwritten, whereof the tenor followeth.

AT ALNICK 6. February 1647.

FORSAMUCH as we are intruſted and authorized by the Parliament for diſtributing the two hundred thouſand pound Sterling come from London, proportionably amongſt all the Regiments of the Armie Horſe and Foot, who have ſerved in England, as well theſe who have been broken in the Service as theſe who are yet ſtanding, And being alſo intruſted and authorized to give a proportionable ſhare, not only to the living but to the Widows and Orphans of the dead, who ſerved in England; Therefore having already appointed a due proportion for all the dead Officers, And taking to conſideration how we might beſt acquite ourſelves in the diſcharge of that dutie, which in appointing ſome proportionable payment for the Lame, and Widows, and Orphans of the dead Souldiers, after ſpeciall advice had with the Generall Officers of the Army thereanent; Have nominated and appointed the ſumme of Five thouſand Pound Sterling, to be diſtributed amongſt the lame Souldiers, and the Widows and Orphans of the dead; And conſidering that it is impoſsible to attain to a juſt and exact accompt of the names and number of the forenamed Souldiers, and of their Widows and others having intereſt in them, Do after ſerious pondering of the Lame and ſlain of the Regiments, come from the ſeverall Shires, nominate and appoint the proportion following, viz. Sheriffdome of Haddingtoun 260 l. The Burgh of Edinburgh 50 l. Sheriffdome of Linlithgow 60 l. Sheriffdome of Edinburgh to Landward 260 l. —— Summa 5000 l. Which proportion we ordain to be delivered unto the preſent Commiſſioners of the Parliament, or any of them of each Shire and Burgh, who upon the receipt thereof ſhall give Notes to the effect after-ſpecified, And give warning to the ſeverall Preſbyteries in their reſpective bounds for cauſing every Miniſter of their number to bring into the Preſbyterie from their ſeverall Seſſions an exact Roll of all common Souldiers belonging to their ſeverall Pariſhes, of the abovenamed Regiments, Companies, Troups of Horſe or Foot, that have been lamed or are dead in the ſervice; And that this Roll ſhall be teſtified by any of the Officers of the field, Captain or Rootmaſter, under whom they ſerved, to be reviſed and approven by the ſeverall Preſbyteries reſpective, and made uſe of as after followeth; That is to ſay, Each Preſbytery of every Shire ſhall chuſe a Ruling Elder of their number to whom the ſame ſhall be delivered, which Ruling Elders are hereby authorized to meet with the Commiſſioners of Parliament of the ſeveral Shires and Burghs, at the head Burgh of the Shire or Stuartrie of Kircudbright, upon a day appointed by the ſaids Commiſſioners immediatly after the receipt of the Preſbyteries diligence made unto theſe Commiſſioners; And in the ſaid meeting one or moe as they ſhall finde expedient of the Commiſſioners of the Shires and Burghs, and theſe Elders, ſhall diſtribute the ſumme appointed for their Shires proportionably amongſt the ſeverall Preſbyteries, according to the number contained in the Rolls, and the rules of the proportion to be as followeth, viz. And although we truſt and be confident, that in a buſineſſe of this nature every man will be faithfull and diligent, as he would ſhun the curſe of the Almighty God, and procure his bleſſing, who is a defender of the Poor, Fatherleſſe, and Widow; Yet for obſerving order and regulating enormities (if any ſhall be) It is hereby appointed, That all the Committees and Preſbyteries aforeſaid, ſhall make report of their diligence unto the Parliament, or Committee of Eſtates, or any nominate by them for that effect. And we do hereby further declare, That none who were Runawayes, or who have at any time joyned with the Enemy, ſhall have the benefit of this Article.

110 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in this ſixth Seſſion of the firſt Triennall Parliament, Taking to their ſerious conſideration the long continuance of the preſent rebellion of our unnaturall Countrey-men, and of the invaſion from the Iriſh, and the great expences that they muſt ſuſtaine for ſuppreſſing of the ſame, and carrying on of the War; and how neceſſary and incumbent it is to them, that ſome ſolide and ſetled way be provided for the conſtant Maintenance of the Forces, Horſe and Foot; Have therefore concluded, that ſix thouſand Foot, twelve hundred Horſe, two hundred and ten Dragooners, ſhall bee intertained and keeped upon pay, towards the proſecution of the War againſt theſe Rebels and Invaders, untill the ſame, by the bleſſing of the God of Hoſtes, be brought to an happy end; Have therefore thought fit to ſtatute and ordain, Likeas for that effect they enact and ordain, that ilk Shire and Burgh within this Kingdome, ſhall bee lyable and oblieged, in payment of the particular ſums of Money, and that Monethly, and with the Suſpenſion underwritten, for the intertainment of the Forces, Horſe, Foot, and Dragooners abovewritten, and that for the ſpace of nine Moneths, (whereof the moſt part of the firſt Moneth is already aſſigned by a former Act, towards the payment of the Regiments which ſerved at Philiphauch) beginning the firſt termes payment from the tenth of January laſt by-paſt, and ſo forth, after the expiring of that Moneth, to continue for other eight Moneths thereafter, untill the tenth of October next enſuing. AT Edenburgh the Eighth day of April, the year of God, 1648. The Eſtates of Parliament recommends to the Lord Chancellor, Preſident of Parliament, to make known to the Commiſſioners from the Parliament of England, That the opinion of the Committee of an Anſwer to be returned to the Letters and Papers given in by them, was this day, being the laſt day of the week, preſented and read in Parliament; But according to the order kept in this Parliament, the Anſwer is taken to the conſideration of the ſeveral Eſtates till the beginning of the next week; at which time Anſwer will be given to them.]

XI APRILIS.

ACT anent the Reſolutions of Parliament concerning the breaches of the Covenant, and Treaties betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland and England, and demands for reparation thereof.

THE Eſtates of Parliament having tane to their 11
ſerious conſideration the danger this Kingdom is in, With the duties to be done thereupon, in relation to Religion, King, and Kingdoms with the report of the Committee appointed by them for conſidering thereof: They after full debate concerning the ſame: And anent the breaches of Covenant, and Treaties, betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland, England, and Ireland, and reparation to be demanded thereupon; Do conceive it not fit to inſiſt upon any violation made of the large Treatie, concerning the remainder of the money due upon the brotherly aſsiſtance, or the Treaty for the Army in Ireland by the Houſes of the Parliament of England when they were in freedom; The not performance then, was hindered chiefly by the influence and prevalency of the Independent party. The Eſtates therefore, do not here mention the not payment of the remainder foreſaid of the brotherly aſsiſtance, and the neglect of the Army in Ireland, for whoſe ſervice their was due in Anno, 1643. 312000 l. ſterling, conceiving theſe fitter to be done in a Letter, apart. Neither do the Eſtates ſpeak of the diſavowing of the Treaty of the 28. of November, 1643.

BUT the Eſtates of Parliament findes by the large Treaty betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland and England; It is provided, that if any Armies ſhall be levied in any of the Kingdoms, and the neighbour Kingdom thereby harmed or wronged, That then the Eſtates of the Countrey by which it is done, ſhall be obliged to perſue, take and puniſh the offenders with all rigour.

THE Kingdom of Scotland hes divers times deſired the performance of this Article; And in particular, the parliament of Scotland upon the 16. January 1647. Did deſire a competency of entertainment, to be given by England for maintenance of the Forces which Scotland had for a long time, and was ſtill neceſsitate to keep up for ſubduing the Iriſh Rebels Subjects to the Crown of England, whom by the large Treaty England is obliged to ſuppreſs.

TO which the Houſes in their Letter of the 27. January, ingaged themſelves to the Parliament of Scotland, That the Engliſh Garriſons being delivered up, and the Scots Army marched out of England, they ſhould take that deſire into ſpeedy conſideration. Upon the 16. Julii, 1647. The Scots Commiſsioners deſired the performance hereof, yet through the prevalency and power of the Sectaries, no reparation, ſatisfaction, nor anſwer was given.

ITEM, The Eſtates findes, that the breaches of Covenant is declared by the General Aſſembly, 20. Auguſt, 1647. and ſince by their Commiſsioners; inſtead of Reformation and defence of Religion, that Reformation which by the Covenant ought to be endeavoured, is reſiſted and hindered; inſtead of extirpation of Prelacy, Hereſie, and Schiſme: theſe laſt two encroaching, yea, offering violence to the Rights, Priviledges and Authority of Magiſtracy, are preſerved and tolerated. In the Propoſals of the Army, Epiſcopacy was hinted at: And in the new Propoſitions an almoſt unlimited Toleration of Hereſie and Schiſme is endeavoured to be ſetled, under which, moſt horrid Blaſphemies, Hereſies, and Schiſmes are openly profeſſed and allowed; inſtead of maintaining the Rights and Priviledges of Parliament, and preſerving of his Majeſties Perſon and Authority in the defence of the true Religion and Liberties of the Kingdoms, That the world may bear witneſſe of our Loyaltie, and that we have no intention to diminiſh his juſt power and greatneſſe; they have diſobeyed and threatened the Houſes of Parliament, yea, marched up againſt them in ane hoſtile manner; they have impriſoned and baniſhed faithfull Members and placed a gariſon in Whytehall: They violently ſeazed on the perſon of the king, and carried him away againſt his own will, and the declared reſolutions of both Kingdoms, kept him within their Army, and under ſtrong guards untill he was forced to flee for ſafety of his life out of Hampton court, As he himſelf declared in his meſſage from thence; And now by their power and prevalency he is committed cloſe priſoner, and Votes paſt, making it High Treaſon to make any further application to him, or to receive any Letter or Meſſages from him, yea, it is declared they will repoſe no more truſt in him. Theſe who by the Covenant ought to be brought to condigne tryall and puniſhment (for hindering the Reformation of Religion, dividing the King from his People, or any of the Kingdoms from another, or making any faction or party among the People, contrary to the League and Covenant) have been protected and aſſiſted, and theſe perſecuted, who by the Covenant ought to be defended. Inſtead of a firm peace and union betwixt the Kingdoms, a breach hath been endeavoured, ſo that there is not ane Article of the Solemn League and Covenant which hath not been ſinfully and dangerouſly violated before God, Angels and men by the prevalent party of Sectaries, and their adherents, as follows.

FIRST, the 1. Article of the Treatie is broken, For albeit it was Ordained, that the Solemn League and Covenant ſhould be taken by both Kingdoms, and that by a joynt Declaration of both Kingdoms it is injoyned to be taken; otherways it is declared, that the not takers be publick enemies to Religion and Countrey, and that they are to be cenſured and puniſhed as profeſſed Adverſaries and Malignants, yet notwithſtanding by the prevalent party of the Sectaries and their adherents; It is not only laid aſide in the new Propoſitions, and no execution nor publick orders for taking the ſame throughout the Countrey; but on the contrary many perſons of eminent and publick truſts and in the Army and others in the Countrey, have never taken, nor have not been urged to take the ſame.

THE 8. Article of the Treaty is violated, in ſending Bills and Propoſitions to the King, not onely without the conſent of Scotland, but contrary to the expreſs Declaration of the Commiſsioners of Scotland according to their inſtructions. And in the 92. page of the Parliaments late Declaration, They affirm that the 8. Article of the Treatie is onely to be obſerved during the War, tho in expreſs words, the Houſes in their Letter of the 27. of January, 1647. have agreed to obſerve that Article after the removall of our Army out of England.

THAT notwithſtanding the ingagement of the Houſes 27. January, 1647. That none having warrant from Scotland ſhould be debarred from acceſſe to the King, except ſuch as are diſabled by the Propoſitions of both Kingdoms, yet not only divers having warrant from the Parliament of this Kingdom and their Committees, have been debarred; and in particular, the Earl of Lauderdail a publick Miniſter, wes contrary to the Law of Nations debarred and violently removed from Wooburn, where his Majeſtie then was, and not ſuffered to have acceſs to him; and the reparation therein was deſired by the Committee of Eſtates, none wes given.

THE Commiſsioners of Scotland alſo gave in a Paper to the Houſes, deſiring to know whether their Votes againſt all application to the King, did extend to his Majeſties Subjects of Scotland, to debar ſuch as are warranted by the Parliament of this Kingdom, or their Committee from free acceſſe to, or intercourſe with the King, or that his Majeſtie ſhould be hindered from, and ſo made incapable of the exerciſe of any Act of Government, in relation to the affairs of Scotland.

TO which the Houſes did return no Anſwer, but in the moneth of March laſt, their Commiſsioners gave in to the Parliament a large Declaration claiming the ſole diſpoſing of the Perſon of the King in England.

UPON conſideration of theſe Breaches, the Eſtates of Parliament do conceive Religion, the King, Monarchicall Government, and the Priviledges of Parliament to be eminently wronged and endangered to be ruined: And if that Army and their Adherents ſhall ſtill prevaile, this Kingdom cannot expect ſecurity from them who have been the underminers and deſtroyers of Religion, Liberty, and Covenant in England. So that whilſt in the neighbour Kingdom the horn of Malignancie and Sectaries is exalted, The beſt-affected borne down, Reformation ebbing, Hereſie and Schiſme flowing; It can hardly be marvelled at by any perſon of prudence and diſcretion, if we be full of ſuch feares and apprehenſions as uſe to be in thoſe who dwell near a houſe ſet on fire, or a family infected, eſpecially being taught by the ſad experience of the Prelatical times, how eaſily a gangrene on the one half of this Iland may ſpread through the whole.

THEREFORE the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament thinks fit that this reparation be deſired of the Houſes of the Parliament of England.

1. THAT an effectual courſe be taken by the Houſes for enjoining the Covenant to be tane by all the Subjects of the Crown of England conform to the firſt article of the Treatie, and conform to the Declaration of both Kingdoms in anno 1643. By which all who would not take the Covenant were declared to be publick enemies to Religion and the Countrey, And that they are to be cenſured and puniſhed, as profeſſed adverſaries and malignants. And that Reformation of, and uniformity in Religion be ſetled according to the Covenant, that as the Houſes of the Parliament of England have agreed to the Directory of Worſhip, ſo they would take a reall courſe for practiſing thereof by all the Subjects of England and Ireland. That the Confeſsion of Faith tranſmitted from the Aſſembly of Divines at Weſtminſter to the Houſes be approven, and the Presbyterian government, with a ſubordination of the lower Aſſemblies to the higher be ſetled and fully eſtabliſhed in England and Ireland, and that effectuall courſe be tane for ſuppreſſing and extirpating of all Hereſies and Schiſms, particularly Socinianiſme, Arminianiſme, Arrianiſme, Anabaptiſme, Antinomianiſme, Eraſtianiſme, Familiſme, Browniſme, and Independencie; and for perfecting of what is yet further to be done for extirpating of Popery and Prelacy, and ſuppreſſing the practiſe of the Service-Book commonly called The Book of Engliſh Common Prayer.

2. THAT conform to the former deſires of this Kingdome, the Kings Majeſty may come with honour, freedome and ſafety, to ſome of his Houſes in or near London, that the Parliaments of both Kingdomes may make applications to him for obtaining his Royall aſſent to ſuch Deſires as ſhall be by them preſented to him for eſtabliſhing Religion as is above expreſt, and ſetling a well-grounded Peace.

3. AND to the end that all the Members of both Houſes who have been faithfull in this Cauſe, may freely and ſafely return and attend their charges, The Parliament may ſit and vote with freedome and ſafety, Both Kingdoms without interruption or diſturbance may make applications to his Majeſty, and the ſetling of Religion and Peace may not be longer hindered and obſtructed: It is deſired by the ſaid Eſtates of Parliament, that the preſent Army of Sectaries under the Command of Thomas Lord Fairfax of Cameron be disbanded, and none imployed but ſuch as have or ſhall take the Covenant and are well-affected to Religion and Government; excepting [from] the ſaid Disbanding, the Garriſons neceſſary to be kept up by the Parliament of England for ſecurity of that Kingdom, which are deſired to be commanded by ſuch as have or ſhall take the Covenant, and are well-affected to Religion and Government.

[ANSWER of the Parliament to the papers given in by the English Commiſsioners.

THE Eſtates of Parliament having peruſed and conſidered the ſeveral Papers given in to them, and to the Committee of Eſtates by the Commiſſioners of Both Houſes of the Parliament of England ſince their laſt coming to this Kingdom, do finde at the arrival of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and upon their firſt Addreſs to the Committee of Eſtates; Although they ſhew no Commiſſion, nor had any Credential Letters directed to the Committee, yet the Committee of Eſtates did appoint ſome of their number to meet with them, who did accordingly receive from them what they then thought fit to offer: And when they made their Addreſs to the Parliament, The very days wherein their Letters were given to the Lord Chancellor (to whom they ſent the ſame) they were inſtantly read in Parliament, and a Committee appointed to take in conſideration what was offered by them, that upon report thereof an anſwer might be returned by the Parliament.

WHEREAS your Lordſhips are pleaſed in the name of the Honorable Houſes of the Parliament of England, to expreſs their deſires to preſerve a good underſtanding and Brotherly Agreement betwixt the two Kingdoms; The Eſtates of Parliament do return this Anſwer, That as the actions of this Kingdom have been real proofs of their deſires and willingneſs to entertain a good Correſpondence and Amity betwixt the two Nations, ſo they are ſtill reſolved to keep inviolably on their part the happy Union to which both kingdoms are Solemnly engaged by the Covenant and Treaties; Yet they have thought fit to let them know, That this kingdom hath reaſon to be very ſenſible that the neceſſary and juſt deſires given in by their Commiſſioners by Warrant of the Parliament and their Committees, to the Honorable Houſes of the Parliament of England, concerning Religion, the Kings Majeſty, and Intereſt of this kingdom, have had no ſatisfactory Anſwer as yet.

AND for the particular deſires concerning Captain Wogan and his Troop, alleaged to be in this kingdom, and demanded in the Paper of the 21. of March, upon the Act of Pacification and Oblivion in the large Treaty in Anno 1641. as Delinquents, and who have been in Arms againſt the Parliament of England; And the Paper of the 31. of March, demanding the aforeſaid Captain Wogan, Sir Philip Muſgrave, and Sir Thomas Glemham, to be delivered upon the ſame Act of Pacification, as thoſe who have riſen in Arms and made War againſt the Parliament of England: If your Lordſhips will be pleaſed to peruſe that Treaty, and Act of Pacification to which the Papers given in do relate, It will clearly appear, That none can be remanded or delivered by this kingdom, but ſuch onely of the Engliſh Nation who have incenſed the King of Scotland againſt the kingdom of England, all other criminals being referred to the Laws.

AND the Eſtates of this Kingdom are confident that your Lordſhips will not miſunderſtand the not returning of an Anſwer ſooner to your Papers and Deſires, ſince the many other preſſing and weighty Affairs of this kingdom, which have ſtill been before the Parliament ſince your coming, hath been the onely Reaſon of this delay.

THE Eſtates of Parliament give warrant and command to the Committee of Twenty four to deliver to the Engliſh Commiſſioners the Anſwer this day paſt in Parliament, and to appoint ſome of their number to meet with the Engliſh Commiſſioners, and to aſſert the Parliaments anſwer, and to report what further the Commiſſioners of the Honourable Houſes ſhall offer to the conſideration of the Parliament.]

ACT concerning the Town of Edinburgh, Leith, and the Suburbs, to be free of locall Quarterings.

THE Eſtates of Parliament having heard and conſidered the Supplication of the Proveſt, Baylies, and Counſail of the Burgh of Edinburgh, ſhewing the late three ſeverall Infections in the Town of Leith, and that notwithſtanding thereof, there are a great number of Souldiers come to be quartered there; whilk if permitted, it will put that Town and the Inhabitants thereof in ſuch diſorder, that neither the Magiſtrates nor thoſe intruſted with the charge of the ſick people there, can diſcharge that duty expected from them. And therefore deſiring that preſent order may be given for removing of the foreſaid Souldiers to ſome other Quarters in the Country, and to diſcharge all locall Quartering in this place where the Parliament now ſits, and whereunto the Lieges reſorts, as the Supplication bears: The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament ordains theſe Souldiers that are now quartered in and upon the Town of Leith, to be removed from the ſame; And for this effect, they remit to that Committee appointed for Quarterings, to take ſome preſent courſe for removing of the foreſaids Souldiers from Leith, by the advice of the Generall Officers; and by the ſame advice for Quartering of the ſaids Souldiers in ſome ſick other parts as the Committee with advice foreſaid ſhall find juſt and equall. And for this effect ordains the foreſaid Committee to meet this afternoon for taking this buſines in conſideration: And farder the Eſtates of Parliament ſtatutes and ordains, that there ſhall be no Souldiers locally quartered in Edinburgh, Leith, Cannogate, or any of the Suburbs, during the ſitting of this preſent High Court of Parliament, except upon orders from the Parliament, whereanent thir preſents ſhall be ane ſufficient warrand. 15

XIX APRILIS.

A DECLARATION of the Parliament of Scotland, to all his Majeſties good Subjects of this Kingdom, concerning their Reſolutions for Religion, King, and Kingdoms, in purſuance of the Ends of the Covenant.

WE the Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, in the firſt Seſſion of this ſecond Triennial Parliament, finding the ſtrong endeavours and attempts of diſaffected perſons and Enemies of Truth, to blaſt and obſtruct our Labours in the performance of our Duties, in order to all our Relations, by traducing and calumniating our proceedings; Are therefore obliged to undeceive the abuſed People, to vindicate our ſelves from all unjuſt aſperſions, and to clear and evidence to this Kingdom our conſtancie and firmneſſe to the Cauſe of God, which we finde now in as great (if not greater) danger then it ever was in ſince the beginning of all thir late Troubles. 18

UPON the growing diviſions and debates betwixt his Majeſtie and his two Houſes of the Parliament of England, this Kingdom did for the ſpace of neer two yeers, by reiterated Petitions and Meſſages offer their Services and endeavours, for compoſing and removing theſe diſcentions and differences. But their deſires therein, through the Councels and Practiſes of their common Enemies were ſtill made ineffectuall and diſappointed, untill at length many thouſands of either ſide were fallen by the fury and rage of a cruell and unnaturall Sword, and the flouriſhing Kingdom of England turned into a field of blood. And while they were thus with their own hands, tearing out their own Bowels, and maſſacring themſelves: The Houſes of Parliament then in a very low condition invited this Kingdom to their aſsiſtance, who finding their Petitions and addreſſes to his Majeſty, for a more naturall and amicable deciſion of differences, then by the Sword, rejected; and juſtly apprehending to have the dregs of that bitter cup, which overflowed in England poured out upon their own heads, if thoſe councels and advices, which gave firſt life and motion to theſe diſſentions, ſhould ſtill be prevalent; Did engage in a Solemn League and Covenant for Reformation and defence of Religion, the Honour and Happineſſe of the King, and peace and ſafety of the three Kingdoms; In purſuance thereof, this Kingdom joyned in Arms with their Brethren in England, and for divers years through many hazards and wants, did proſecute theſe ends, untill by the bleſſing of God upon their joynt endeavours, their common Enemies were ſubdued and moſt of them brought to ſuch condigne puniſhment as the reſpective Parliaments thought fit. Thereafter our Army returned home, upon aſſurance from the two Houſes, that the Treaties and Covenant ſhould be inviolably kept. But by the contrary, We find that there is not ane Article of the Solemn League and Covenant which has not been ſinfully and dangerouſly violated before God, Angels and Men, by the prevalent party of Sectaries and their adherents, nay the Covenant itſelf like to be deſtroyed, or at leaſt forgot and laid aſide. For where we expected, that according to the firſt Article of the Treaty betwixt the Kingdoms in Anno 1643. It ſhould have been tane by both Kingdoms, and that the not Takers thereof are by the joynt Declaration of both declared publike Enemies to Religion and Country, and are to be puniſhed as profeſſed Adverſaries and Malignants: We now find, by the prevalent party of Sectaries and their adherents, it is not only laid aſide in the new Propoſitions lately ſent to His Majeſty to the Ile of Wight, and no execution of publike Orders for taking it through the country, but alſo many perſons of eminent and publike Truſts in the Army and elſewhere, have never taken it, neither are urged thereunto. In ſtead of Reformation and defence of Religion, That Reformation which by the Covenant ought to be endeavoured, is reſiſted and hindered, Hereſie & Schiſm tolerated, under which moſt horrid Blaſphemies are ſheltred & protected, if not openly profeſſed & allowed. In ſtead of maintaining the rights and priviledges of Parliament, the Houſes have been highly diſobeyed and threatned; Thoſe who by the Covenant ought to be brought to condign tryal & puniſhment for hindering the Reformation of Religion, dividing the King from his People, or any of the Kingdoms from another, or making any Faction or Party amongſt the people, contrary to the League & Covenant, have been protected and aſſiſted, and thoſe perſecuted who by the Covenant ought to be defended. In ſtead of a firm union and peace betwixt the Kingdoms, a breach hath been endeavoured. And whereas both Kingdoms by the Solemn League and Covenant are obliged to preſerve his Majeſties perſon and authority, in the preſervation and defence of the true Religion and Liberties of the Kingdoms, that the world may bear witneſſe with our conſciences of our Loyalty, and that we have no thoughts nor intentions to diminiſh his Majeſties juſt power and greatnes. And the Kingdom of Scotland having alſo upon his Majeſties going from Newcaſtle declared againſt all injury, harm, prejudice or violence to be done to his Royall perſon: Yet by a ſudden ſurprizall his Majeſty was violently ſeized on, and carried from his houſe at Holdenby againſt his own will, and the declared reſolution of both Kingdoms, by a party of the Army under the command of Sir Thomas Fairfax, and by that Army thereafter carried about from place to place at their pleaſure, kept and invironed with ſtrong guards within their Quarters untill he was forced for ſafety of his life to flie from Hampton Court, as he himſelf declared in his Meſſage from thence: And by the power and prevalency of that Army and their adherents he is kept a cloſe Priſoner in the Ile of Wight, and Votes paſt, declaring it High Treaſon to make any further applications to him, or to receive any Meſſages or Letters from him; yea, even to that extremity are they already gone againſt him, that it is declared they will repoſe no further truſt in him. Likeas not only ſuch as had Warrants for acceſſe to him, from the Parliament of this Kingdom are debarred thereof, notwithſtanding of the ingagement of the Houſes 27. January, 1647. to the contrary; but the Earl of Lauderdale a publick Miniſter of this Kingdom, contrary to the Law of Nations, was violently removed from Woburn, where his Majeſtie then was, and not ſuffered to have acceſſe to him; and though reparation therein was deſired by the Committee of Eſtates, yet none was given: And when the ſaids Commiſsioners deſired to know whether the Votes againſt all Applications to the King did extend to his Majeſties Subjects of Scotland, to debar ſuch as are Warranted by the Parliament of this Kingdom, or their Committees from free acceſſe to, or intercourſe with his Majeſty; or that he ſhould be hindred from, and ſo made uncapable of any Act of Government in relation to the affairs of Scotland, no

Anſwer at all was returned thereto, untill the Commiſsioners from both Houſes now reſiding here, did in March laſt give to us a large Declaration from them, acclaiming the ſole power of the diſpoſing of the Perſon of the King in England. We do not conceive it fit at this time to inſiſt upon any violation made of the large Treaty concerning the remainder of the money due upon the brotherly aſſiſtance, nor of the Treaty for the Army in Ireland, for whoſe ſervice their was due in Anno 1643. by a ſubſcrivit Accompt 312000l. ſterling (though we can never part from the intereſt of that Army till they be juſtly ſatisfied for their long and faithfull ſervices) For as money neither was the cauſe nor motive to any of our undertakings nor reſolutions, whatever hath been falſly ſuggeſted by our Enemies, ſo we ſhall not value it ſo much as now to mention it amongſt the cauſes and grounds of our proceedings at this time.

BY the large Treaty betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland and England, it is provided, That if any Armies be leavied in any of the Kingdoms, and the neighbour Kingdom thereby harmed or wronged, that then the Eſtates of the Country by which it is done ſhall be obliged to purſue, take, and puniſh the offenders with all rigour. The Kingdom of Scotland hath divers times deſired the performance of this Article, and in particular the Parliament of Scotland upon the 16. of January, 1647. To which the Houſes in their Letter of the 27. of January ingaged themſelves to the Parliament of Scotland; That the Engliſh Garriſons being delivered up, and the Scottiſh Army marched out of England, they ſhould take that deſire into ſpeedy conſideration. Vpon the 16. of July, 1647. the Scottiſh Commiſsioners deſired performance hereof. But through the prevalency and power of the Sectaries, no reparation, ſatisfaction nor anſwer was given.

AND although by the eighth Article of the Treatie, 1643. It is agreed that no Ceſſations, Pacifications, nor agreement for peace whatſoever ſhall be made by either Kingdom, or the Armies of either Kingdom without mutual advice and conſent of both Kingdoms, which ingagement the Houſes of Parliament alſo repeated in their Letter of the 17. of January 1647. to obſerve that Article after the removall of our Army out of England; yet contrary thereunto the Army of Sectaries and their adherents framed Propoſals deſtructive to the ends of the Covenant, which were preſented to his Majeſty without the adviſe or conſent of the Kingdom of Scotland: And thereafter, by their power and prevalency, the Houſes of Parliament have laid aſide the Propoſitions agreed on by both Kingdoms, and have contrary to the Treaty, preſented Propoſitions and Bills to his Majeſty; againſt which the Commiſſioners of this Kingdom by order, and according to their inſtructions, did proteſt, as being deſtructive to Religion, the Crown and union of the Kingdoms.

THESE dangers ſo eminently threatening Religion, and Government call upon us, as Chriſtians, as Subjects, as Scotchmen, to a duty to God, our King and Countrey, and to our oppreſſed and heavily afflicted Brethren in England who are faithfull and conſtant to the cauſe of God. We have therefore reſolved in the firſt place to endeavour and aſſay all brotherly and amicable means of repairing and making up ſuch differences or breaches, as may otherwiſe neceſsitat this Kingdom to ingage in a War: And therefore, we do intend to ſend to the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England, theſe following neceſſary, and juſt deſires for Religion, his Majeſty, and good and peace of theſe Kingdoms.

1. THAT an effectual courſe be tane by the Houſes for enjoyning the Covenant to be taken by all the Subjects of the Crown of England conform to the firſt Article of the Treaty, and conform to the Declaration of both Kingdoms in Anno 1643. By which all who would not take the Covenant were declared to be publike enemies to Religion and the Countrey, and that they are to be cenſured and puniſhed as profeſſed adverſaries and Malignants: And that Reformation of, and Uniformity in Religion be ſetled according to the Covenant. That as the Houſes of Parliament have agreed to the Directory of Worſhip, ſo they would take a reall courſe for the practiſing thereof by all the ſubjects in England and Ireland, that the Confeſsion of Faith tranſmitted from the Aſſembly of Divines at Weſtminſter to the Houſes be approvin; and that Presbyteriall Government with the ſubordination of the lower Aſſemblies to the higher be ſetled and fully eſtabliſhed in England and Ireland; And that ane effectual courſe be taken for ſuppreſsing and extirpating all Hereſies and Schiſmes, particularly Socinianiſm, Arminianiſm, Arianiſm, Anabaptiſm, Antinomianiſm, Eraſtianiſm, Familiſm, Browniſm and Independencie; & for perfecting what is yet further to be done for extirpating Popery and Prelacy, and ſuppreſsing the practiſe of the Service Book, commonly called, The Book of Engliſh Common Prayer.

2. THAT conform to the former deſires of this Kingdom, the Kings Majeſty may come with honour, freedom and ſafety to ſome of His houſes in, or near London, that the Parliaments of both Kingdoms may make their applications to Him for obtaining His Royall aſſent to ſuch deſires as ſhall be by them preſented to Him, for eſtabliſhing Religion, as is above expreſt, and ſetling a well grounded peace.

3. AND to the end, that all Members of both Houſes who have been faithfull to this Cauſe, may freely and ſafely return and attend their charges, the City of London may enjoy its liberty and priviledges which it had before the late encroachment of the Army, the Parliament may ſit and voice with freedom and ſafety, both Kingdoms without interruption or diſturbance may make their applications to his Majeſty, and the ſetling of Religion and Peace may be no longer hindred and obſtructed, that the preſent Army of Sectaries under the Command of Thomas Lord Fairfax of Cameron, be disbanded, and none imployed but ſuch as have or ſhall take the Covenant, and are wel-affected to Religion and Government, excepting from the ſaid disbanding the Garriſons neceſſary to be kept up by the Parliament of England, for the ſafety of that Kingdom, which are deſired to be commanded by ſuch as have or ſhall take the Covenant, and are well affected to Religion and Government as aforeſaid.

WE will not doubt, but the Honourable Houſes will ſeriouſly weigh and conſider how neceſſary and juſt theſe our demands are, to which we will expect ane ſatisfactory anſwer: But if through the influence and power of the Army of Sectaries that now invirons them, theſe our deſires be ſlighted and rejected; yet we reſolve by Gods aſsiſtance in all our proceedings never to break on our part the union betwixt the Kingdoms, nor to encroach upon the Nationall Rights of the Subjects of England, or intrench upon their juſt liberties, much leſſe is it our intention at all to make an Nationall ingagement againſt the Parliament and Kingdom of England; But for them whoſe Freedom, Priviledges and Happineſſe ſhall be ever as dear to us as our own. And if we ſhall be neceſsitat to any undertakings in a War, We do reſolve that as the ingagements of this Kingdom have been conſtantly hitherto for ſetling Truth and Peace under his Majeſties Government, ſo they ſhall ſtill be for the obtaining the ſame ends. And we will be carefull that in the managing and carrying on of ſo pious and dutifull a work, that we ſhall not enter into Aſſociation and conjunction of Forces with thoſe, who ſhall refuſe to ſwear and ſubſcribe the Solemn League and Covenant, nor uſe ſuch means or inſtruments as may diſcourage or diſoblige the Presbyterians in England, who continue firm to the Solemn League and Covenant: And that we will be ſo far from joyning or aſſociating ourſelves with the Popiſh, Prelaticall or Malignant party, if they ſhall again riſe in Arms, either to oppoſe or obſtruct all or any ane of the ends of the Covenant; that on the contrary we will oppoſe and endeavour to ſuppreſs them, as enemies to the Cauſe and Covenant on the one hand, as well as Sectaries on the other. And we further declare, That we will give truſt in our Armies, & Committees to none but ſuch as are of known integrity, abilities and faithfulneſſe to this Cauſe and Covenant, and againſt whom there is no juſt cauſe of exception. And as we ſhall endeavour the reſcuing of his Majeſty from thoſe who violently carried him away from Holdenby, and by whoſe power he is ſtill detained cloſe priſoner; That he may come with Honour, Freedom and Safety to ſome of his Houſes, in or neer to London, where both Kingdoms may make their Applications to Him, for ſetling Religion and a well grounded Peace: So we reſolve not to put in his Majeſties hands or any others whatſoever, any ſuch Power, whereby the foreſaids ends of the Covenant, or any ane of them may be obſtructed or oppoſed, Religion or Presbyterian Government indangered. But on the contrary, before any agreement or condition to be made with his Majeſty, having found his late Conceſsions and Offers concerning Religion not ſatisfactory, That he give aſſurance by his ſolemn Oath under his hand and Seal, That he ſhall for himſelf, and his Succeſſors give his Royall aſſent, and agree to ſuch Act or Acts of Parliament, and Bills as ſhall be preſented to him by his Parliaments of both or either Kingdoms reſpectivè, for enjoyning the League and Covenant, and fully eſtabliſhing Presbyteriall Government, Directory of Worſhip, and Confeſſion of Faith in all his Majeſties Dominions. And that his Majeſtie ſhall never make any oppoſition to any of thoſe, nor endeavour any change thereof. And further to ſhew and evidence the candor and reality of our intentions, we are willing to ſubjoyn to the grounds of our undertakings ane Oath, wherein both in the framing thereof, and otherwayes we are willing the Church ſhall have their due intereſt as formerly in the like caſes.

AND albeit we are reſolved not to engage in any War before the neceſsity and lawfulneſſe thereof be cleared, So as all who are wel-affected may be ſatisfied therewith; And that reparation to ſuch breaches and injuries as are or ſhall be condiſcendit on, ſhall be demanded in ſuch a juſt and fit way as ſhall be found moſt lawfull and expedient. Yet we cannot be anſwerable to the great truſt laid upon us, if ſeeing ſo imminent and great Dangers to all that is deareſt to us; We did not make uſe of our Authority and Power for the common ſafety of this Kingdom; And therefore we have reſolved to put this Kingdom preſently in a poſture of defence, as it was in Anno 1643.

AND now as many of the dangers, with the grounds and Reſolutions in purſuance of our duties, are hereby made known to this Kingdom; ſo we are aſſured, that all, and every one, who have any zeal to Religion, love to Monarchial Government, ſenſe of the ſufferings and impriſonment of their King, affection to their oppreſſed Brethren in England, or deſire to preſerve the Priviledges of Parliament, and liberty of the ſubject will chearfully in ſuch an exigent (while the eyes of all Chriſtendom are on us) rouze up themſelves, and contribute their beſt endeavours, as they ſhall be required by us, in purſuance of all the ends of the Covenant, as well for Religion as for his Majeſties Perſon, and Government, and Priviledges of Parliament; in doing whereof we ſhall witneſſe to the world, that we have not ſwerved from theſe our firſt principles contained in our Nationall Covenant, and in our ſolemn League and Covenant, whereby we did ſolemnly ſwear and promiſe before God and his Angels, To endeavour in our ſeverall places and callings, the Reformation of, and Uniformity in Religion and Church-Government in all his Majeſties Dominions, according to the Word of God, and example of the beſt Reformed Churches; and not only to the utmoſt of our Power, with our means and lives to ſtand to the defence of our dread Soveraign, his Perſon and Authority, in the preſervation of the true Religion, and liberties of the Kingdoms; But alſo in every cauſe which may concern his Majeſties honour to concur according to the Laws of this Kingdom, and duty of good Subjects: And alſo hereby give a ſingular proof of the good intentions of all that maintain Presbyteriall Government, that they are not enemies to Monarchie, as they are falſely by their enemies branded. And in particular this Kingdom of Scotland will now make it evident as they often declared, That their quietneſſe, ſtability, and happineſs doth depend upon the ſafety of the Kings Majeſties perſon, and maintenance of his greatneſſe and Royall Authority, who is Gods Vice-gerent ſet over us for maintenance of Religion, and Miniſtration of Juſtice: Having ſo many bands and ties of Duty and ſubjection to his Majeſty, and his Government, who is our Native King from a longer Series and diſcent of his Royall Progenitors then can be paralleld in Europe. That we reſolve, cloſely, and conſtantly to adhere thereunto, as alſo to all the ends of the Covenant.

[A LETTER from the Parliament of Scotland to the Parliament of England.

Right Honourable,

THE Parliament of Scotland now aſſembled, being reſolved by all fair and juſt means to endeavor the preſerving and entertaining the Brotherly Union and good correſpondency betwixt the kingdoms; to which by ſo many bonds and tyes they are mutually obliged: Yet being very ſenſible that the many juſt and neceſſary Deſires given in by their Commiſſioners by order from this kingdom, for the good of Religion, of His Majeſty, and for the Intereſts of Scotland, have not received a ſatisfactory Anſwer; and conſidering the many great and imminent dangers threatning Religion, His Majeſties Perſon and Authority, yea, Monarchical Government it ſelf, and the Peace and Union of theſe two kingdoms of Scotland and England, by the power and prevalency of Sectaries and their Adherents; Have thought fit to make theſe juſt and neceſſary Demands to the Honorable Houſes of the Parliament of England, to which the Parliament deſires a clear and ſatisfactory Anſwer, not having the leaſt thought or intention to encroach upon the National Rights of the kingdom of England, nor to intrench upon the Priviledges of Parliament; But their Zeal to the Glory of God, their Loyalty to their King, and their deſire of Unity betwixt the Kingdoms, hath moved them to make theſe incloſed Demands, whereby Religion may be ſetled according to the Covenant, His Majeſty may enjoy His freedom and Juſt Rights; And ſo by ſetling a Religious and ſafe Peace, the preſent Confuſions and Diſtempers may be removed, and all occaſions of Miſtakes and Differences betwixt the two kingdoms prevented. This is all I have in command from the Parliament; In whoſe Name this is ſubſcribed by

Edenburgh 26 April 1648 — Your Lordſhips affectionate Friend and humble Servant,

Loudoun Canc' Preſident of the Parliament.]

[ANSWER of the Parliament of Scotland to the Commiſsioners Papers of the 19 and 29 of April, 1648. concerning the perſons demanded by the Commiſsioners.

THE Eſtates of Parliament have conſidered the two Papers bearing date the 19. and 29. of April, preſented to them from the Commiſsioners of both Houſes of the Parliament of England, to which they return this Anſwer, that the perſons remanded, not being as they are informed in this Kingdom, they think it not neceſſary to inſiſt upon giving the Reaſons of their former Anſwer; but if the Commiſsioners of both Houſes ſhall think it fitting, they will appoint a Committee to confer with them anent thoſe Articles of the Large Treaty mentioned in your papers, and how far either kingdom ſtands ingaged thereby, wherein they are confident to give all juſt ſatisfaction.]

ACT anent the Leavies of Horſe and Foot to be put out by the Shires and Burghs, and the liſt of the Colonells, with their numbers.

FORSAMIKEL as the Eſtates of Parliament conſidering the great and imminent danger to Religion, the Covenant, His Majeſties Perſon and authority and peace of thir Kingdoms, have thought fit, and accordingly given order, That this Kingdom be put into a poſture of warre, and that the Colonels and Committees of warre in the ſeverall ſhires be carefull in lifting and exerciſing the hail fencible perſons within their bounds, and providing them with Armes, that they may be in readineſs to ſend forth ſuch number of horſe and foot as the Parliament or their Committees ſhall call for. And now finding that the Town of Berwick is ſeaſed on, and that the dangers are nearer to us than formerly, whether from Sectaries or Malignants, and that it is our duty to make uſe of the power and ſtrength of the Kingdom for its preſervation and ſafety, 26

And for preventing thoſe evils wherewith we are threatned, have thought it therefore fitting to require the ſeverall Colonels and Committees of warre of the Shires on this ſide Tay, to meet upon the ninth of this inſtant, and theſe on this ſide of Spey upon the twelfe, and thoſe on the North ſide thereof upon the ſixteenth day of the ſame moneth, to take preſent courſe for lifting and inrolling the particular numbers of men, horſe and foot, according to the liſt hereunto ſubjoyned. And that they appoint and nominate under officers to the foot, viz. Lieutenant-Colonel, Major, and Captain: and that they cauſe the heritors, proper wodſetters, liferenters, and others ſubject in outputting of horſe and foot conform to the Acts of Parliament, put out their proportion of horſe and foot well armed, the foot, two part with muſquets, and third part pikes, and all with ſwords, with two Dollors of Levie-money, and twenty days proviſion to each ſouldier, and to all officers under a Captain conform to the Scotts eſtabliſhment, at two part pay horſe and foot: And that for carrying of the neceſſary proviſion of thir forces, They provide a ſufficient baggage horſe for every Twelve men: And that ane ſtrong and able man with ſword and half pike be appointed to attend each two baggage horſe, who is to have a ſouldiers pay: And that the heretors, liferenters, and others aforeſaid of the ſeverall Shires who are lyable to the putting out of men, be Ordained to bring their ſeverall proportions of horſe and foot Armed and provided as aforeſaid, to the place of Randezvouz in each Shire, under the pains following, viz. Under the paine of 400. marks for each deficient horſeman, And under the paine of 100 l. for each deficient footman not brought to the foreſaid Randevouz, which are hereby Ordained to be keeped at the dyets following, viz. All the Shires on this ſide Tay upon the 24. of this moneth, and theſe upon the Southſide of Spey upon the 27. and thoſe upon the Northſide of Spey upon the laſt of this moneth, and Ordains the ſaids Colonels and Committees in the ſeverall Shires to have their proportions of Horſe and Foot Armed and provided as aforeſaid, in readineſs at the place of Rendezvous, and at the dyets reſpectivè before mentionate, to march according to ſuch orders as ſhall then be ſent to them, under the penalties aforeſaid: And for the more ſpeedie and effectuall raiſing of the ſaid Foot and Horſe, the Eſtates of Parliament gives power and command to the Colonels, with aſſiſtance of ſuch of the Committee of the Shire as will joyn with them; and are hereby commanded to be aſſiſting to them, to poynd and diſtrenzie the goods of any Heretors and others aforeſaid, who are deficient in outputting either of the Horſe or Foot, viz. For every horſman wanting at the day of Rendezvous the ſum of 400. Marks from every Heretor and others aforeſaid, who are liable to put him out. And for every Footman wanting, the ſum of 100 l. And further the ſaids Eſtates declares, that the Heretors and others aforeſaid failing in putting out of their proportions ſhall be eſteemed as enemies to, and hinderers of the publick ſervice of the Kingdom, in perſuance of the ends of the Covenant, and notwithſtanding ſome perſons may be hereby overburdened in reſpect of the means of their Rents, and multitude of Tennants, living upon their lands: Yet the Eſtates Ordains the foreſaid Number of men providit as aforeſaid to be put out by them, and in caſe any of them find themſelves thereby prejudged, and make their complaint known to the Committee of the Shire, in that caſe the ſaids Eſtates Ordains the Committee of the Shire to caſt up the accompt, what the price of the aforeſaid Armes, Levi-mony and the price of Baggage-horſe will amount to, and ſo to provide for their relief, that the burthen may be equally upon the whole Heretors and others aforeſaid according to their Rent, as in the maintenance. And becauſe the ſaids Eſtates having after calculation, found that the number of horſe, according to the proportion of the Levie in Anno 1644. are to be raiſed, will not exceed 2700; And ſeeing the preſent ſervice will neceſſarily require a greater number; and that the Shires of this Kingdom will hardly be able to outreik the ſame: Therefore the ſaids Eſtates have ordained that each Regiment of horſe ſhall conſiſt of 160. Troopers, to be framed in three Troops, and commanded by a Colonel, Major, and Rutemaſter, and the Colonel to have the nomination of all his under Officers; Providing, the Lieutenant or Cornet be appointed with adviſe of the Committee of the Shire, out of the which the Troop is to be levied: And Ordains the Regiments to be made up in manner following, viz. The preſent Rutemaſter to have aſſigned to them locallie out of ſome Shire or Shires, the number of 80. Troopers, according as is ſet down in the liſt hereunto ſubjoyned, which Troopers the ſaids Rutemaſters are to receive at the day and place of Randezvous of the foreſaid Shire or Shires before written; and ſhall give ſufficient ſecurity to leavy upon their own charges as many Troopers well mounted, and Armed, as with the Troops they preſently have, ſhall make 160. in the whole; and that they ſhall have the ſaids Troopers ſo to be lifted upon their own charges at the foreſaid day and place of Randezvous, under the pain of 400. markes for each deficient Trooper: And for ſuch Noblemen and Gentlemen deſigned Colonels, who have no Troops preſently, the Eſtates Ordains them to receive the number of 80. Troopers from the Shire aſſigned to them for that purpoſe, as is contained in the foreſaid ſubjoyned Liſt; and to find ſufficient ſurety for leavying the number of 100. Troopers upon their own charges, and to bring them to a Randezvous at upon the 10. day of June next, under the pain of foure hundred Marks for each deficient well mounted and well armed Trooper: And in caſe any Colonel ſhall upon his own charges raiſe 60. horſe more to make up the fourth Troop, the Eſtates of Parliament allows him to have a Lieutenant Colonel; and what farder Troopers the Colonel and his Officers ſhall leavy upon their own charges, they ſhall have entertainment therefore as the reſt of the Army: And the Eſtates of Parliament ordains the foreſaid Committees to uſe all diligence for performing the foreſaids duties intruſted to them, as they will teſtifie their affection to Religion, and the peace of the Kingdom; and that they fail not to make report to the Parliament or the Committee of Eſtates of this Kingdom, within ſix days after the day of Rendezvous reſpectivè above written, aſſigned by the Parliament to the Shires reſpectivè, as is foreſaid: And if the Committees of Shires be remiſſe in their meetings, or in putting thir Orders to execution, that the Colonels with ſuch of the Committee as are willing to joyn with them, conveen upon all occaſion for putting thir orders to execution, and for doing every thing that may further the Leavies, being always comptable for their proceedings to the Parliament, or Committee of Eſtates: And if any perſon or perſons of what degree, quality or condition ſoever ſhall offer to oppoſe or obſtruct by violence, the reſolutions of the Parliament, or Committees thereof, With power to the ſaids Committees and Colonels to uſe all means to compeſs them, and if need be, to purſue the raiſers of the tumults, and publick oppoſers of the Reſolutions of the Eſtates in a hoſtile way by the ſtrength of the Shire: And if the Inſurrection or oppoſition come to that hight, that the Shire where it falls out is not able to ſuppreſſe the ſame, that the Colonels, Committees and Commanders of the next adjacent Shires, on all Quarters, joyn for ſuppreſſing thereof, as they ſhall receive advertiſement. And farther, the ſaids Eſtates upon conſideration of the great abuſes in former Leavies, committed by Officers: in taking of money from the Heritors, and others aforeſaid, who are liable in putting out of Horſe men, or Foot in place of their ſaid men; Declares, that whatſoever Officer ſhall be found to have done ſo, ſhall not only be caſhiered from his charge, but alſo branded with ane mark of infamy and diſgrace: And that the ſaids whole forces may be kept in the better order and diſcipline, the ſaids Eſtates Ordains all Officers conſtantly to attend their ſaids charges, and that none of them upon any pretext whatſoever be abſent the ſpace of ane moneth, With certification to the contraveeners hereof, that their places ſhall be declared vacant, and ane other eſtabliſhed in their charge. And the Eſtates of Parliament declares, that whatſoever Officer or Souldier ſhall be found guilty of taking at their own hand of horſe, or any other guids from the Subjects of this Kingdom, they ſhall die for it without mercy. And for the better regulating of the putting forth Horſe and Foot of ſuch as will not fall to put forth ane whole Horſe or Footman: It is declared, that the greateſt rent of theſe to be joyned for making up ane horſe, ſhall provide the horſe, and the reſt that joyneth to contribute, according to 160. l. for ilk Horſeman; and who have the manyeſt men to provide the Footman, and the remnant that joyneth, to contribute with him according to 40. l. for ilk Footman for their outreik of Arms, and whole furniture belonging to them with their twenty dayes proviſion: And where the rent, or number of men are equall, to caſt lots.

THE Shires & Burghs always paying punctually the ſums, over and above what is ſuſpended, at the terms aforeſaid: And in regard of the preſent diſtreſſed condition of the Sheriffdoms of Argyle and Bute: The Eſtates do exeem the whole Sheriffdom of Argyle from all payment of the foreſaid five moneths maintenance: As alſo exeems the Sheriffdom of Bute from all payment of the equall half of the monethly maintenance abovewritten, impoſed upon that Shire for the ſaids five moneths: And Ordain the ſame Shire of Bute to be onely liable in payment of the other half of the ſaid monethly maintenance for theſe five moneths: And declares the Ile of Arran to be altogether free of any payment of that half, but the reſt of the Sheriffdome of Bute to pay the ſame.

AND alſo, The Eſtates declares this preſent Act to be without prejudice of the Act granted in favours of the Town of Inuernes of the 5. of January, 1647. That any Taxations or Impoſitions to be laid on that Town, be allowed to them in part of their loſſes, conform to the Tenor of that Act.

AND for the ſums particularly above ſuſpended, That the General Commiſſary ſute no payment thereof before the laſt day of Auguſt next to come, that betwixt and that time it may be tried what part and portions of that ſuſpended maintenance may be raiſed of the Shires. And for tryall thereof, Ordains Commiſsions to be direct to ſuch perſons, as the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates ſhall appoint, as the ſame ſhall be called for by theſe Shires and Burghs, in whoſe favours the ſuſpenſions are granted; and that betwixt and the ſaid laſt day of Auguſt, the report of the ſaids Commiſſions be returned, that accordingly the ſuſpended maintenance may be either diſcharged, or called for. And in caſe of the not return of the report as ſaid is, the Commiſſary General is hereby commanded after the ſaid laſt day of Auguſt, to charge for the haill maintenance of theſe Shires, without conſideration of the ſuſpenſions.

AND alſo it is Ordained, that no Retention, Suſpenſion, or diſcharge of this preſent maintenance be granted for any cauſe, other nor is above written for burnt and waſted lands, excepting onely for quarterings and payments as foreſaid; and ſuch Lands, Rents, Annual Rents, and other duties mortified to Colledges, Schools, Hoſpitals, Miniſters and School-maſters ſtipends, & for upholding Kirks and Bridges, whilks mortifications are to be deduced in each Shire, but notwithſtanding, the Shire beſides to be liable in payment of their whole maintenance: And that all other Heritors, Life-Renters, Takiſmen, Titulars, proper Woodſetters, Pentioners, Conjunctfiears, Lady tercers and others, ſubject to the valuation within Shires and Burghs, ſhall be lyable to their proportionable part of this maintenance, notwithſtanding of any Act paſt, or to be paſt in their favours, other nor is above ſet down, or to be paſt by this preſent Parliament.

AND in regard of this prorogating of the maintenance on the Shires and Burghs, for the five moneths above mentioned, viz. From the firſt of March laſt to the firſt of Auguſt next to come, at the full maintenance above written: It is Statute and Ordained by the Eſtates of Parliament, that every debtor ſhall have retention from the Creditors of ane and a half of each eight, payable for annuall Rent, for the ſaids five moneths above ſpecified; ſo that the debtor ſhall only be liable in payment of ſix and a half of annuall Rent for each hundreth of ſtock for theſe five moneths: And becauſe the foreſaid monethly maintenance was only continued upon the Shires and Burghs, and payable by them, from the firſt of November laſt, to the ſaid firſt of March laſt, with deduction of ane third part of the ſaid maintenance during that ſpace: Therefore the Eſtates grants only retention to the debtors, of ane of each eight, payable for annuall Rent during the ſaid ſpace, from the ſaid firſt of Novemb. to the ſaid firſt of March, during the whilk time the debtor ſhall only be liable in payment of ſeven of annuall

Rent, for each hundreth of ſtock; with this proviſion, that no debtor whatſoever ſhall have the foreſaid benefit of retention, who ſhall not pay his annuall Rent to the Creditor, within the ſpace of ane year after that ane preceding years annuall Rent is fully reſtand unpaid.

AND farder it is provided, That what ever creditor ſhall take band, promiſe, or condition from his Debtor, for payment of the haill annuall Rent at 8. per Centum, without retention of ane and a half for the hundreth, or ſhall not grant the retention aforeſaid; ſhall be conveened and cenſured as ane Uſurer; notwithſtanding of any ſuch paction by word or writ.

AND laſtly, It is Ordained that no ſuſpenſion be granted without conſignation, as is appointed by Act of maintenance of the 27. of February 1645. And that all Heritors within Burgh and Pendicles, and Liberties thereof (including for Edinburgh as Pendicles of the ſame, the houſes, Tenements and Yairds in Leith, Cannogate & Pleaſands, whereof the Town is either Proprietors or Superiors; and for the other Burrows, all that have been in uſe to be taxed with them) ſhall contribute with them for payment of the Maintenance, as is mentioned in the ſaid Act of the 27. of February, 1645.

AND laſt, to the end that the payment of this maintenance be alſe equall and proportionable as can be: The Parliament Ordains the valuers of the ſeverall Shires already named, or ſuch as ſhall hereafter be named by Parliament or Committee of Eſtates, to meet, reviſe, and rectifie the valuation within the Shires: Provided alwayes, that notwithſtanding of this tryall, the Shires be liable in payment to the generall Commiſſar of the whole ſums above written laid on them by this Act.

AND Ordains, that the Lands and Teinds ſhall pay the foreſaid Maintenance, as they lie locally in Shires or Burghs, conform to the former Acts of maintenance. And it is hereby declared, that this Act is to be without prejudice of the Priviledges of the Lords of Seſſion conform to former Acts of maintenance. And Ordains this Act to be printed, and the former Act of Loane and Taxt to be reprinted and publiſhed, and gives hereby Warrant to the Clerk of Regiſter for that effect.

ACT prorogating the Excife, and appointing the Commiſsioners and Theſaurer of the ſame.

48 THE Eſtates of Parliament taking in conſideration the preſent ingagement and increaſing occaſions for money; Do therefore hereby prorogate and continue the haill Excife of the Kingdome at the rates mentioned in the Act of Parliament of the 10. of March 1647. for the ſpaces following, viz. the Wines for the ſpace of three yeares after the firſt of November next 1648. yeares. And the haill remanent Exciſeable goods for the ſpace of ane year, conform to the tenour of the foreſaid Act in all points, and with the power of collecting and up-lifting of the ſame Excife in manner mentioned in the ſaid Act, Except allanerly that the Excife of the Wines is onely to be collected and up-lifted from the Vintners thereof, and not from the Merchants and home-bringers of the ſame: The Excife of the whilk Wines is ſet by the Parliament to Sir William Dick for the ſpace of three years after the ſaid firſt of November next, conform to the Act granted in his favours by the Parliament thereof, of the date the 9. day of May inſtant. And ficklike the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament grants and renewes the former Power, Warrant and Commiſſion mentioned in the ſaid Act and Commiſſion of Excife of the date above-written to the perſons following, viz. David Earl of Southesk, Robert Lord Burghlie, Maſter George Dundas of Maner, Cockburn of Clerkingtoun, Archbald Sydſerf Burgeſſe of Edinburgh, and George Gardyne Burgeſſe of Bruntiland: To whom, or any foure of them as the Quorum, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament grants the former Power, Commiſſion and Warrant contained in the former Commiſſion of the Excife in all points, and conform to the tenour thereof without derogation in any ſort. And diſcharges any former nomination and election of Clerk deputes to the Excife. And declares that place to be void and vacand in the Clerk Regiſters hands. And ordaines Sir John Weymes of Bogie Generall Commiſſar, and the Theſaurer of the Excife after-named to be ſuper-numerarie in the foreſaid Commiſſion for the Excife. And for the better keeping of accompts and the more ready regulating of the Publick moneys, Ordaines that there be but ane Publick Receiver or Theſaurer, And that therefore the Parliament nominates John Jowſſy Merchant Burgeſſe of Edinburgh, to be Theſaurer of the ſaid Excife, and he to have the ſame Power, Priviledge and Fees that Sir James Stewart laſt Theſaurer had, and ane Commiſſion to be drawne conform thereto. And that the Eſtates of Parliament remits and recommends to the Commiſſion for the Excife, to take in conſideration the particulars that the Burrows or any others ſhall repreſent for regulating of the Excife; With power to the Committee to do thereanent, as they ſhall finde juſt. As alſo that no ſtranger be preferred to the Excife of Shires and Burghs, if the Inhabitants will take the ſame to the avail, and give aſſurance for payment thereof.

ACT repealing the Commiſsion granted to the Commiſſioners ſent to England.

49 THE Eſtates of Parliament taking in conſideration, That the Parliament by their Act of the 16. of July, 1644. hes given Commiſſion to the Commiſſioners therein-ſpecified, to go to England and treat with the Parliament of England, or ſuch as they ſhall appoint concerning the Propoſitions of peace with the Kings Majeſty, as the foreſaid Act of Commiſſion at more length bears. And herewith alſo conſidering, That the foreſaid Commiſſion with the treatie and matters therein-mentioned, are now interrupted, and for ane time intermitted, ſo that it is needleſſe that the ſamine Commiſſion, nor power therein-ſpecified, thereby granted to the Commiſſioners reſpectivè therein-mentioned, remain or ſtand any longer in vigour, force, ſtrength or effect, while new occaſion to renew the ſamine. Therefore the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, Repeals, recalls and reſcinds the ſaid Act of Parliament in the haill heads and clauſes thereof, and declares the ſame void and expyred in all time coming. Without prejudice alwayes to the Commiſſioners therein-mentioned of their bygone approbation granted to them. And alſ without prejudice to them and the Earl of Lanerk, of the ſummes due and allowed to them for their expenſes and the arrears thereof reſting unpayed, whereof the Eſtates remits and recommends the conſideration to the Committee of Eſtates, That they may take an effectuall courſe for their preſent payment, and the like for Sir John Cheiſlie, and John Done ſervitour to him.

A LETTER ſent from the Parliament of Scotland to the ſeverall Presbyteries within the Kingdom.

THE many ſcandals that are thrown on our Actions by the favourers of Sectaries, and haters of the Perſon of our KING and Monarchicall Government invite us to this extraordinary addreſſe to you; Conjuring you, as you will anſwer to the great GOD whoſe ſervants you are, not to ſuffer your ſelves to be poſſeſt with unjuſt and undeſerved prejudices againſt us and our proceedings, who have ſince our late meeting in Parliament preferred no earthly thing to our Duties to Religion, and the promoving of all the Ends of our Covenant, and have conſtantly uſed all reall endeavours to have carried on thoſe Duties to the ſatiſfaction of the moſt tender conſciences: And eſpecially by our great compliances with the many deſires from the Commiſſioners of the Generall Aſſembly; We have proceeded to greater diſcoveries of our Reſolutions, in the wayes and means of managing this preſent Service, then poſſible in prudence we ought to have done, having ſo neer and active enemies to oppoſe us: Neither can it be with any Truth or Juſtice in any ſort alledged, that we have in the leaſt meaſure, wronged or violated the true Priviledges and Liberties of the Church, or any wayes taken upon us the determination or deciſion of any matters of Faith or Church Diſcipline, though we be unjuſtly charged with taking an antecedent judgement in matters of Religion; under pretence whereof great encroachments are made on our unqueſtioned Rights. For what can be more Civill, then to determine what Civill Duties we ought to pay to our KING? Or what Civill Power he ought to be poſſeſſed of: And if we meet with obſtructions and oppoſition in carrying on thoſe Duties, are not we the onely Judges thereunto? Is there any other Authority in this Kingdom, but that of KING and Parliament, and what flowes from them, that can pretend any Authoritative power in the choice of the Inſtruments and Managers of our publick reſolutions? Is it a ſubject for the diſpute of Church Judicatories, Whether his Majeſty hath a negative voice in Parliament, or not? Theſe certainly cannot be pretended to by any Kirk-man, without a great uſurpation over the Civill Magiſtrate, whereof we are confident the Church of Scotland, nor any Judicatory thereof will never be guilty, nor fall into the Epiſcopal diſeaſe of medling with Civill affairs: And if any have already in theſe particulars exceeded their bounds, we expect [the] enſuing Generall Aſſembly will cenſure it accordingly; and prevent the vilifying and contemning the Authoritie of Parliament by any of the Miniſtery, either in, or out of their Pulpits, or who ſhall offer to ſtir up the Subjects of this Kingdom, to diſobey, or deny to give Civill obedience to their Laws: It being expreſly prohibit by the 2. and 5. Acts of Ja. 6. his 8. Parliament in Anno 1584. That none of his Majeſties Subjects, under pain of Treaſon, impugne the Authority of Parliament. And therefore ſeeing the cauſe is the ſame, for which this Kingdom hes done and ſuffered ſo much, and that we are reſolved to proceed for the preſervation and defence of Religion, before all other worldly intereſts whatſoever; And to carry on ſincerely, really, and conſtantly the Covenant and all the ends of it; as you will finde by our Declaration herewith ſent to you: We do confidently expect, that as the Miniſters of this Kingdom have hitherto been moſt active and exemplary in furthering the former Expeditions, ſo now you will continue in the ſame zeal, to ſtir up the people by your preaching and prayers, and all other wayes in your calling, to a chearfull obedience to our Orders, and engaging in this buſineſſe: And that you will not give ſo great advantage to the enemies of Presbyteriall Government, and bring ſo great a ſcandall on this Church, as to oppoſe the Authority of Parliament, or obſtruct their proceedings in their neceſſary duties for the good of Religion, the Honour and happineſſe of the KING and his Royall Poſterity, and the true peace of his Dominions.

THE Eſtates of Parliament have received your Lordſhips Papers of the firſt of this inſtant June, with the Votes of the Honorable Houſes of the 6. of May laſt, to which they can return no Anſwer, until juſt ſatisfaction be given to their neceſſary Deſires of the 26. of April.

BY your other Paper of the ſame date, your Lordſhips gave notice of the Lord Fairfax his march unto the Northern counties, by command from the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England, with this aſſurance, That it is not with the leaſt intention of any offence or prejudice to the Kingdom of Scotland: And as you therein expreſs the reſpect of the two Houſes to this Kingdom, ſo the Parliament do aſſure your Lordſhips, That their Reſolutions of raiſing new Forces within this Kingdom for their own ſecurities, and for obſerving their pious and loyall Deſires, are without the leaſt intention to interrupt the Union betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland and England, or violate in the leaſt maner any of the Articles of the Solemn League and Covenant, by which they are ſo ſtrictly united under his Majeſties government.]

ADDITION of Commiſſioners for Barons and Burrows to the Commiſsion for plantation of Kirks.

THE Eſtates of Parliament upon the reſpects and 108
conſiderations moving them, Hes added, and do hereby add to the number of Commiſsioners formerly appointed and nominate in that Commiſſion granted by the Parliament to the Commiſsioners therein ſpecified, for plantation of Kirks and valuation of Teynds, thir perſons following, viz. For the Barons, the Lairds of Lamingtoun, Arnieſtoun, Polmais, Balthayok, Preſtoungrange, and Carden. And for the Burrows, George Porterfield Burgeſſe of Glaſgow, James Lentroun Burgeſſe of S. Andrews, and James Pedie Burgeſſe of Montroſe. And Ordains the forenamed perſons hereby added, to have that ſame power, priviledge, place and voyce in the ſaid Commiſsion, as any other of the Barons or Burrows, formerly nominate and appointed to be upon the ſame Commiſsion, had or hes, and as if thir perſons now added had been inſert thereintill at the beginning. Whereanent the Eſtates of Parliament declares thir preſents ſhall be ane ſufficient warrant.

ACT ordaining all Miniſters to exhort their people to obedience to the Lawes of the Kingdom: And aſſuring theſe Miniſters of their ſtipends during their lifetimes.

109 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in this firſt Seſsion of the ſecond trienniall Parliament, being neceſsitate to undertake ſome neceſſary duties for the good of Religion, the honour and happines of our King, and peace of this Kingdom; And having for the ſatisfaction of all his Majeſties good ſubjects, emitted a Declaration containing the grounds of their preſent reſolutions; And expecting an humble obedience and heartie concurrence of all his Majeſties good ſubjects, eſpecially of the Miniſtery, to thir their pious and loyall undertakings; yet they finde that contrary to diverſe ſtanding Lawes and Acts of Parliament, ſome of them are ſo far from giving obedience thereunto, That they both in their Sermons inveigh againſt it, and in their private diſcourſes and otherwayes labour ſo far as is in their power to ſtir up the people to an open oppoſition againſt the authoritie and proceedings of Parliament: Neither do they meet with this obſtruction by particular Miniſters; but alſo even in theſe who are now intruſted in the Commiſsion of the Generall Aſſembly, as will appear by their Act of the fifth of June inſtant, whereby they do recommend to the Presbyteries, That if any Miniſter be found, who do not declare themſelves againſt the preſent ingagement, nor joyne with their brethren in the common reſolutions againſt it, nor give publick information to the people of the unlawfulneſſe thereof, they may be referred to the next Generall Aſſembly; And if any of them have already declared themſelves for it, that they be preſently cenſured. Whereby the Eſtates findes, that to the great ſcandal of Reformed Religion and Presbyteriall Government, they do not onely lay a heavie yoke on the conſciences of their brethren, who in conſcience of their dutie, finde themſelves oblieged to give obedience to the Lawes of the Kingdom: but alſo uſurp a power upon themſelves to be Judges of the Lawes and of the proceedings of Parliament, who by the fundamentall Lawes of the Kingdom, have in them the onely legiſlative power, namely in publick ingagements concerning peace or war. Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament have thought fit to require, and do hereby deſire all the Miniſters within the Kingdome, by their Preaching [or] otherwiſe, to exhort and ſtir up their People to a cheerfull obedience to the Lawes of the Kingdome, aſſuring them hereby, That the Parliament will notwithſtanding of any proceedings againſt them for the ſame, by their authoritie ſecure and protect; Likeas the Parliament doth hereby ſecure to them during their lifetimes, their ſtipends, manſes, gleibs and houſes. And requires and ordains all Heretors and others lyable to the payment of their ſtipends, to continue to pay the ſame, as formerly, to all ſuch as ſhall give obedience hereunto. And ordains Letters to be direct hereupon charging the Heretors for the effect forefaid.

ACT ordaining the haill Members of Parliament, Noblemen, Barons, Burgeſſes, and all other Subjects and Inhabitants of the Kingdom, To ſubſcrive this Act for defence of the lawfulnes of this Parliament, and obedience to the Acts thereof.

THE Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering how neceſ- 110
ſary it is to eſtabliſh their union in the preſervation and maintenance of Religion, Lawes and Liberties of this Kingdom, and of his Majeſties authority, and to prevent all factions, contentions and diviſions which may ariſe in prejudice thereof from malicious ſuggeſtions and miſinformations of their adverſaries, Do hereby teſtify and declare their reſolution and obligation to acknowledge this preſent Parliament, To have been and to be a free and lawfull Parliament. Likeas they binde and obliege themſelves upon their honors & credit, And as they deſire to be, and to be holden true lovers of their Countrey, and of the Religion, Lawes and Liberties thereof, Efauldly and faithfully to the uttermoſt of their power, to joyn and concur with their perſons and eſtates every ane according to their ſeverall ſtations and callings in the maintenance of the freedome and lawfulnes of this foreſaid Parliament, and in the advancement, furtherance and aſsiſtanee of the execution, obedience and obſervation of the Acts and Conſtitutions thereof, as the moſt fit and neceſſary remedies of the bygane and preſent evils and diſtractions of this Kirk and Kingdom, And for the preſervation of Religion, Lawes and Liberties thereof, and of his Majeſties authority. And have ordained and ordains this preſent Act to be ſubſcrived by all the Members of Parliament preſent and abſent, And by all Noblemen, Barons, Burgeſſes, and all other ſubjects and inhabitants of the Kingdom, in their Shires and Burrows, as they ſhall be directed by the Commiſſioners of Parliament left at Edinburgh, and to be reported to the Clerk betwixt and the firſt day of Auguſt next to come, With certification to ſuch as refuſe or poſtpone and delay to ſubſcrive the ſame, [that they] ſhall be holden as enemies and oppoſers to the Common Cauſe, conſiſting in the maintenance of the true [reformed] Religion, and of the Lawes and Liberties of this Kingdom, and his Majeſties authoritie.

ACT in favours of theſe who gets their Ward-holding changed by the King, that their other ſuperiours get not marriage.

THE Eſtates of Parliament having taken to con- 111
ſideration, That ſome difficultie hes occurred in the profecution of his Majefties Royall intention of changeing of Ward-holdings in few for the well of his Subjects, conforme to the two Commiffions granted by his Majefty thereanent, both ratified in Parliament in January 1647. And that the ſaid difficultie hes riſen upon that ground, that diverſe of his Majefties Subjects holding Lands of his Majefty, or of the Prince, waird or few cum maritagio, holds alſo other Lands of other ſuperiours waird, who whilſt their Vaſſals held Lands, waird or few cum maritagio of his Majefty, or of the Prince, could pretend no right to the maritage of the Vaſſals heirs when the ſamine ſhal [fall out]: But now the ward holding of his Majefty or of the Prince, being changed in few, & compoſition & an yearly few dutie being granted to his Majefty or the Prince, for the ſaid Waird and Marriage, the other ſuperiours of the ſaid Vaſſals of whom he holds waird, may contend for the benefit of the caſualitie of the [maritage] of his Vaſſals heir, when the ſamine fals out, he being the Vaſſals eldeſt ſuperiour, of whom he holds waird, whilk was grievous to the vaſſals, who by this new courſe of changeing of his holding, hes componed both for ward & maritage. Therefore it is ſtatute and ordained, That all Vaſſals holding waird of his Majefty, or of the Prince, or holding few cum maritagio, who ſhall here compone and agree with the Commiſsioners appointed by his Majefty for that effect for changeing of their holdings from waird to few, or for renunciation of the maritage contained in their few infeftments, their heirs and ſucceſſors in the ſaids Lands, ſhall be free of the maritage that can be acclaimed by their other ſuperiours of Lands holden by them of their ſaids other ſuperiours waird, and that their ſaids other ſuperiours ſhall have no right to the maritage of their heirs, when the ſamine falls out, no more than they would have had, if the Lands holden waird of his Majefty, or of the Prince, had continued ſtil waird, but that the ſaids Vaſſals, whoſe holding ſhall be changed, or who ſhall compone for their maritage, as ſaid is, their heires and ſucceſſours ſhall bruik their Lands in all time thereafter, free of any ſuch burden of maritage. Providing alwayes, likeas the Eſtates of Parliament provides and declares, if the foreſaids Vaſſals whoſe holdings ſhall be changed, as ſaid is, and who ſhall compone for the renunciation of the maritage, contained in their few infeftments, or their heires or ſucceſſours in the ſaids Lands, which once held ward or few cum maritagio, ſhall annallie and diſpone the ſaids Lands to any other perſons, That then and in that caſe the annalier or his heires, ſhall no longer have the benefit of this preſent [Act]. But that notwithſtanding of this preſent Act, if they hold Lands waird of any other ſuperiour, That their ſuperiour ſhall bruik all the benefit of his ſuperioritie, as if this preſent Act had never been made. And ſiclike the Eſtates of Parliament for the great furtherance of his Majefties Lieges in the way of the changeing of the tennours of the ſaid waird-holdings, or renouncing of the maritage contenit in their ſaids few infeftments, Ordains ſignators to be paſt to the Lieges by the Exchequer, on the recommendation of the ſaids Commiſsioners of the waird Lands in their favours upon the Lieges their reſignation, for new infeftments to be granted to them, bearing the new manner of few holding, or bearing the renunciation of the ſaid maritage, conteined in their old few infeftments, as ſhall be ordained by the ſaids Commiſsioners of the waird Lands.

ACT and Declaration of Parliament, in anſwer to the ſupplications from Synods and Presbyteries.

THE Eſtates of Parliament, finding by the Petitions preſented to them by ſeverall Synods and Presbyteries, that their preſent proceedings for the good of Religion his Majefties reſcue and ſafety, and the true peace of theſe Kingdoms, is much miſconſtrued and miſunderſtood; They have thought fit to declare for the ſatisfaction of all ſuch as are ſatisfiable; That in their undertakings at this time, they ſhall prefer no earthly conſideration to their duties for preſerving Religion in Scotland in Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline and Government as it is already eſtabliſhed and for endeavouring to ſettle it in England and Ireland according to the Covenant: And as we cannot with ſafety to our conſciences and Honour, live, and ſuffer our King to continue in his baſe impriſonment, ſo our undertaking for him ſhall ever be ſubordinate to Religion, and to our duties to God: And in purſuance of theſe ends, as we ſhall employ none in our Army but ſuch as have ſigned the Solemn League and Covenant, and ſuch againſt whom there is no juſt cauſe of exception, ſo we ſhall aſſociate with none but ſuch as will engage themſelves to be faithfull to the ends of the Covenant: And our undertaking ſhall not be in any wayes againſt the Kingdom of England or to break the union between the two Nations, but only for Reformation and defence of Religion, the Honour and Happineſs of the King and his Royall poſterity, and the peace and ſafety of theſe Kingdoms, againſt ſuch who have deſtroyed Religion, and impriſoned our King; and certainly when they have brought their intended confuſion in England to paſſe both in Church and State, we cannot hope for ſafety here, whatſoever their profeſſion may now be. Therefore we are reſolved to proceed in this Levie in a vigorous doing of our duties: And we do expect from you and all his Majefties good ſubjects a ready obedience to the Command of the Parliament and Committee of Eſtates in purſuance thereof. And the Eſtates of Parliament remits to the Committee of Eſtates to give forth a more full Declaration of the great endeavours the Parliament has uſed and ſtill re- 112 ſolves ſhall be uſed, to ſatisfie the deſires of the Commiſſioners of the General Aſſembly, and to anſwer their Papers given in this day to the Parliament; And Ordains this Act to be Printed and publiſhed, and ſent by the Committee of Eſtates to the ſeverall Presbyteries.

ACT and Declaration of Parliament in anſwer to the Petitions preſented to them from ſome Committees of War of Shires.

113 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in this firſt Seſſion of the ſecond Triennial Parliament, having tane into conſideration the ſeveral Petitions preſented to them from the Committees of War of ſome Shires for delaying the preſent Levies, untill ſatisfaction be given to the deſires of the Miniſters, do return this Anſwer.

THAT as to the ſaids deſires of the Miniſters (tho many of them are abſolutely civill) yet they have beſides their former anſwers, of new, returned to them that which ought to ſatisfie.

WE have again ſeriouſly weighed our dangers as to Religion, his Majeſties Sacred Perſon and Poſterity, and the ſafety of this Kingdom, and finding them daily growing, we ſhould betray the truſt laid on us, if we ſhould not make uſe of the power God hes put in our hands, and go actively about our duties in relation thereto; Therefore whoſoever obſtructs this preſent Levie, we cannot but look upon them as Malignants, and will proceed againſt them accordingly; and we do therefore require you as you will be anſwerable at your higheſt perils to go actively about the truſts laid upon you, for putting out the Foot and horſe within your Shire, according to former Orders of Parliament, and as you ſhall be required by the Committee of Eſtates, and we do aſſure you (whatſoever you hear to the contrary) that we have nothing before our eyes in this preſent undertaking, but the preſervation and good of Religion, and the endeavouring the ſetling of it in England and Ireland according to the Covenant in the firſt place, and before all worldly reſpects, his Majeſties reſcue from his baſe impriſonment, his reeſtabliſhment upon his throne in all his juſt powers, the ſafety of this Kingdom from dangers on all hands, and the preſervation of the union and brotherly correſpondence betwixt the Kingdoms, under the Government of his Majeſty and of his Royall poſterity according to the Covenant.

ACT anent Deficients and Fugitives, who are deſigned to go out in the preſent Levy, and runs away from their Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires where they are deſigned.

114 THE Eſtates of Parliament, Taking to their ſerious conſideration the hinderance that is made to the preſent Levie and expedition by the running away of the Heritors Vaſſals, Tenents and their ſervants reſpectivè forth of the ſeverall Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires of the Kingdom where they have their being or remaining; and by the ſheltering and reſetting of them in other parts Burghs and Shires thereof: They for remedy hereof, renews, revives and ratifies the Acts of Parliament formerly made againſt Run-awayes and their Reſetters and againſt theſe deficient in putting out of their men, horſe and foot for the publick ſervice, viz. The ſecond Act made in the firſt Seſſion of the firſt Trienniall Parliament of the 14. Junii 1644. Anent theſe who are or ſhall be found fugitives and Run-awayes from their Companies and Colours, with the Act of 25. of Junii 1644. made in that ſame Seſſion of Parliament for putting out of Horſe and Foot, and anent theſe deficient thereintill: Item, the third Act made in the ſecond Seſſion of the firſt Trienniall Parliament of the 24. January 1645. Act made in the ſixt Seſſion of the firſt Trienniall Parliament of the 25. February 1647. againſt Run-awayes and their Re-ſetters, with the 26. Act of the ſame Seſſion of Parliament of the 15. of March 1647. alſo made againſt Run-awayes and their Reſetters: And Ordains the ſamen Acts reſpectivè abovewritten with the ſeverall certifications and penalties therein contained to ſtand in full force, and to be put to execution conform to the tenours thereof againſt theſe deficient, and who are Run-awayes and Fugitives from their Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires, to the hinderance of this preſent Levy and expedition. And declares the ſeverall penalties and certifications reſpectivè, to be by and attour the outputting of the horſe and men conform to the Acts made for that effect, With this farther addition, that all theſe Heritors, Vaſſals, Rentallers, Takſmen and Tennents, who ſhall flie and run out of the ſeverall Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires where they have their being, reſidence and remaining, ſhall by their flying and running out thereof, to any other Pariſhes, Burghs or Shires of the Kingdom in prejudice and hinderance of this preſent Levy in theſe Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires reſpectivè where they have their remaining as ſaid is, amit tyne and loſe ipſo facto their Fewes, Taks, Rentalls and other Rights they have made and pertaining to them or to their Predeceſſors to whom they may ſucceed of any Lands, Tenements, houſe and others in the ſaids Pariſhes, Burghs and Shires out of the whilk they flie and run away in prejudice aforeſaid, by and attour the incurring and payment reſpectivè of the certifications and penalties contained in the foreſaids former Acts now hereby renewed and ratified: And with this addition alſo, That if any who are or ſhall be deſigned to go out in this expedition ſhall flie from the Shires or Burghs where they are deſigned and ſhall not return within twenty four hours after the Proclamation hereof at the head Burgh of that Shire where they are deſigned, or within five dayes being in remoter Shires, ſhall be hanged to death. And Ordains publict proclamation to be made hereof at the Mercat Croſſes of the head Burghs of the Kingdom, and at the Kirk doors of the ſeverall Pariſhes thereof, That none pretend ignorance of the ſame.

ACT Salvo jure cujuſlibet.

115 THE Eſtates of Parliament conſidering that in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, there were ſome particular Acts, and Acts of Ratification made in favours of particular perſons, which may be prejudiciall to the parties having intereſt and not heard, albeit the meaning of the Eſtates be at this time as it was ever in all preceeding Parliaments, that by no particular Acts, or Acts of ratification granted to any particular perſon, any other parties ſhould be hurt or prejudged of their lawfull rights and defences competent to them of the Law. For remeid whereof, it is ſtatute and ordained, That no ratification, nor other particular Act whatſoever, made in favours of any particular perſon in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be prejudiciall to any other parties rights or defences competent to them of the Law. But that the ſaids particular Acts and Acts of ratification made in favours of particular parties be alwayes underſtood, Salvo jure cujuſlibet.

May it please yoʳ Loꝛ

THIS day wee have received yoʳ Loꝛ Letter of the 19ᵗʰ of this instant, wherein for our direction in the manageing of affaires yow doe referre to the Instructions given by yow, on the 6ᵗʰ of this moneth. But the State of affaires being much altered from what it was supposed by yoʳ Loꝛ to bee, when these Instructions were framed, both in relation to the condition of the King, & the houses of Parliamᵗ, to whom wee are directed by our Comiſsion & Instructions to make our addreſses; Wee have found it neceſsary for vs, by this expreſse, to adde this further account of the State of affaires, to what yoʳ Loꝛ have already received; And vpon the whole, to crave yoʳ Loꝛ particular directions.

VPON the 6ᵗʰ of this instant, the Army haveing sent some forces to the houſes of Parlt, did by officers, appointed for that purpose, seaze vpon the persons of above 40ᵗⁱᵉ members of the house of Comons, and denyed to set them at liberty againe, though it was twice desired by order from the Members that were permitted to sit, who alſo refuised to act vntill this force was removed, & their members set at liberty. The day following, about 50ᵗⁱᵉꝛ or 60ᵗⁱᵉꝛ of those who were permitted to sit the day before, were by force debarred from entering the houſe. Some did forbeare to come to the house, that they might avoide imprisonment; And others abstaine, because they will not sit in the house as long as it is vnder force. What the number of the whole may bee, we know not; but wee haue sent yoʳ Loꝛ a list of those who were imprisoned, & of others appointed to be debarred from entring into the house, wᶜʰ doe amount to two hundred & odde; yet no charge hath beine given in against them. There was a paper given in by the Army to the house; wherein, it was affirmed, that it appeared vpon a division of the house, that nynty & odde were against declareing the Scotts who invaded this Kingdome, Enemyes; But vpon triall & search of the bookes, it was found that the house was not at all divided about that question. The Number of those who now sit in the house, is vſually betuixt 40ᵗⁱᵉꝛ & 50ᵗⁱᵉꝛ & sometyme betuixt 50 & 60ᵗⁱᵉꝛ amongst wᶜʰ number, wee have few or no freinds. Wee have also sent a list of their Names who were once imprisoned, and are now at liberty, but doe not come to the house.

AMONGST the Lords, the Earle of Northumberland; E. of Manchester, Lord Say & others, forebeare to come to the house of Peeres, and their number who doe come, is vſually three or foure of these six, viz the Lord Pembroke, Denbigh, Nottinghame, Kent, Mulgrave, & Grey of Worke. Vpon fryday the 11ᵗʰ of this instant, a private fast was keept in the house of Comons; after wᶜʰ, all former votes relateing to a Treaty with the King, and the ordinance concerneing the Militia, were revocked. Vpon fryday last, they had another fast, wᶜʰ they keep't publictly in the litle Church in Westminster; And the next day this vote, for proceiding agᵗ the king & other capitall offendoʳˢ paſsed, there being few above a quorum present. A Committee of 38 was first appointed to consider of the way of proceiding; but after so many were named, the whole house was appointed to be of the Comittee, As will appeare to yoʳ Loꝛ by the copy of the vote herewith sent. Some say, they will proceid to the triall of the King by a Comiſsion from both houſes vnder the great Seale; but the debate of the Comittee, as wee are informed, tended most to a proceiding against him, as a Prisoner of Warre, by a Court Martiall. Hee was brought to Windsor on Saturnday last at night.

WEE have alſo sent yoʳ Loꝛ a paper, called the agreemᵗ of the people wᶜʰ generally for the substance, wee heare, is approved by the Councell of Warre; the greatest alteration wee can learne of, is in that part of it, wᶜʰ is called the first reserve, & relates to matters of Religion Concerneing wᶜʰ, there hath beine much debate betuixt the Levellers & others, And at Lenth is thus composed; That the representatives shall have power in things naturall & Civill, & those only. The word morall was once offred; but vpon the question was rejected, becauſe it might be supposed to extend to matters of Religion, wᶜʰ is equivalent to an vniversall Toleration. Yoʳ Loꝛ will likewiſe receive Mʳ Ashhursts observations in print, vpon that agreement.

WEE have further to represent vnto yoʳ Loꝛ that, if wee shalbe silent at these things, it wilbe taken as an approbation of them; Or at the best, wilbe vnderstood to be a complyance with the Armyes proceidings, vpon private & vnderhand agreements; And vpon the other part, if wee make addreſses to the Lords & Comons, who are permitted to sit, & acknowledge them to be the houses of Parlt, It willbe looked vpon by others, as a wronging of the cause, & a breach of the Covenant; wᶜʰ obleigeth vs to ꝑserve the rights & priviledges of the Parlts, & libertyes of the King.

domes; vnleſse it be done with a Salvo to the priviledges of Parlt, & takeing notice of the force vpon the houses. In these difficult & tickliſh affaires wch are of so great importance, & dangerous consequence to Religion, And to the peace & vnion betuixt the Kingdomes; Wee have judged it most neceſsary for vs, to desire yor Lo / speedy & positive directions vpon the whole particulars represented In expectation whereof, Wee rest, Yor Lo / most humble Servants.

IN the List of Members wch wee have sent wee desire yor Lo / to observe, That all those who are marked with a croſse, were designed by the Army, to imprisonment; And those who are marked with an · O · are now releaſed.

THE Lres from New Castle came hither yesterday; but the Lres from Edinbrugh came not till this day.

ACT ratifying the Act of Indiction of this preſent Parliament.

10 THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſsion of the ſecond Triennial Parliament, by vertue of an Act of the Committee of Eſtates who had Power and Authority from the laſt Parliament, for conveening the Parliament; Having taken to their conſideration the ſaid Act of the Committee of Eſtates of the date the twenty ſeventh day of October one thouſand ſix hundred fourty eight yeers, whereof the Tenour followeth. At Edinburgh the twenty ſeventh day of October one thouſand ſix hundred and fourty eight yeers. Whereas it is the ſpeciall duty and priviledge of Parliament to ſettle and preſerve the Government and Peace of the Kingdom, to keep the Judicatories thereof free from corruption, and preſerve the union betwixt the Kingdoms. And that the expedience and neceſſity of frequent meetings of Parliament for the good of the Kingdom, eſpecially in troubleſome times is known to all, and that now after ſo many great diſtractions and alterations, the Kings Majeſtie and the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England are upon a Treaty, wherein Religion, the King, and the good and peace of the Kingdoms are ſo nearly concerned; In all which, the intereſt of this Kingdom, can be beſt ſetled and ſecured by the wiſdom and authority of the Parliament. Likeas by the late Treaty at Edinburgh and Stirling; It is agreed on, That all Civill queſtions and differences whatſoever, be referred to the determination of a Parliament, to ſit down before the tenth of January next. And in regard of the clauſe contained in the Commiſsion to the Committee of Eſtates, giving them power to call a meeting of the Eſtates of Parliament, (The whole perſons on the Committee within the Kingdom being warned); Therefore the Committee of Eſtates having warned duely by Letters all theſe that are now of their number, and being frequently conveened, They think fit to call; Likeas they doe hereby appoint and call a meeting of the Eſtates of Parliament to ſit down at Edinburgh the fourth day of January next to come, In the year of God one thouſand ſix hundred forty nine yeares. And ordains the ſeverall Shires and Burghs to ſend thereto Commiſſioners qualified according to the Acts of the twenty two of September, and fourth of October [inſtant]. And doth hereby warn all Members of Parliament, Noblemen, Commiſsioners of Shires and Burghs, who are free of the faults contained in the foreſaids Acts, To meet and conveen at Edinburgh in Parliament on the day aforeſaid, without any other or further warning or premonition to be made for that effect, But only the Proclamation and publication of this preſent Act, and that in place of all other ſolemnities and formalities. And whereas the corruption of Judicatories of this Kingdom, and Officers of Eſtate, and other perſons in publick truſt, hath been the cauſe and fountain from whence our former evils hath proceeded; And whereas by our ſolemn Acknowledgment agreed on by Kirk and State, we are bound to God; by our Engagement to England, we are bound to them: and by the forecited Acts and publick Declarations, we are obliged before the world to endeavour the purgation and reformation of our Judicatories and places of publick truſt. And foraſmuch as the foreſaids perſons, and all who are in publick truſt, are liable to the judgement and cenſure of Parliament for their proceedings in their ſeverall places and offices. Likeas by the agreement at Edinburgh and Stirling, all ſuch as have been imployed in publick place and truſt, and have been acceſſory to the late unlawfull Engagement, ſhould forbear the exerciſe of their places in the mean time; And all queſtions are referred to the determination of the Parliament. And whereas by the ſaid Treaty, all theſe who have been acceſſory to the ſaid Engagement, or challengeable for their ſaid acceſsion, at the leaſt in ſo far as concerns their places and publick truſt, and the debarring of them from any of theſe; Therefore the Committee of Eſtates do hereby warn and cite all and every one of theſe who exerciſed any office, place, or publick truſt, or who were Members or Clerks of any publick Judicatory, of whatſoever degree, quality or condition ſoever, in Burgh or Land within this Kingdom, And hath been acceſſory to the late Engagement, or are guilty of the faults mentioned in the printed Acts of the twenty two of September [laſt] and fourth of October [inſtant], To compiere before the Eſtates of Parliament at Edinburgh the fourth day of January next to come, in a peaceable way, accompanied only with their own domeſtick ſervants, to hear and ſee the Parliament take ſuch courſe as they in their juſtice and wiſdom for the good of the Kingdom ſhall think fit, For purging of the Judicatories, and for declaring of their places vacand, and filling of them with ſuch as are able and qualified perſons fitteſt for the ſervice, and may give moſt contentment, and as hath continued conſtant to the Covenant and Cauſe in the time of Tryal; and for debarring them who are put out from any other publick places or truſt during ſuch time, and in ſuch manner as the Eſtates of Parliament ſhall think fit; With certification to every one of the perſons concerned, as is aforeſaid: and warned by this publick Proclamation (which the Committee of Eſtates Declares, that they finde it a ſufficient intimation in this notour caſe of ſo great and publick a back-ſliding to all perſons concerned therein for the effect aforeſaid To be eſteemed by them equivalent to a perſonall citation at thair dwelling-houſes, upon particular Summons againſt every one of them) to compeir before the Eſtates of Parliament, as is aforeſaid; And if they compeir not, that then the Eſtates will proceed both to determine the generall queſtion, and the particulars concerning their places and truſt, And take what further courſe they ſhall think fitting for the good of the Kingdom. Likeas the Committee of Eſtates conſidering the preſent diſtractions of the time, and that the Parliament ſo neerly approacheth; They think fit to continue the down-ſitting of the Seſsion untill the Parliament give Order thereanent: and for the acceleration of juſtice to the Lieges, The Committee of Eſtates Ordains the Clerks of Seſsion to give out Acts and Letters of continuation upon the firſt ſummons, within the ordinary time of ſitting of the Seſsion, albeit they ſit not; And that none [may] pretend ignorance of what is mentioned in this preſent Act, The Committee of Eſtates appoints it to be proclaimed at the Mercat Croſſe of Edinburgh, Peir and Shore of Leith, and to be Printed; Doth approve and ratifie the ſame in all the Heads and Articles thereof; And findes and declares the indiction and meeting of this preſent Parliament, to be free, lawfull, and neceſſary; And diſcharges any perſons guilty of the faults mentioned in the ſaid Act, To ſit in this preſent Seſsion of Parliament: And prohibits all perſons whatſoever, To call in queſtion the freedom, lawfulneſs and authority of this preſent Parliament, upon whatſoever pretext under the pain of Treaſon. And appoints this Act to be proclaimed at the Mercat Croſſe of Edinburgh by an Herauld, with ſound of Trumpet, that none pretend ignorance thereof: And thereafter Ordains the ſame to be Printed.

XVI JANUARII.

ACT repealing all Acts of Parliament or Committee, made for the late unlawfull Engagement, and ratifying the Proteſtation, and Oppoſition againſt the ſame.

THE Eſtates of Parliament, preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſſion of the ſecond Triennial Parliament, by vertūe of an Act of the committee of Eſtates, who had Power and Authority from the laſt Parliament for conveening of the Parliament, Taking to their moſt ſerious conſiderations (after ſo great judgments and deliverances on Gods part, and after ſo Solemn an Acknowledgment and Covenant renewed on their part) the Acts of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Beginning the ſecond of March, and ending the tenth of June 1648. and of the Committee of Eſtates before September laſt, and the proceeding of the Forces raiſed by them in the firſt and ſecond Levie, and theſe brought out of Ireland; and of the Committees of war in the ſeverall Shires appointed by them with the grounds, reaſons, and pretences therefore, whither contained in the Kings conceſſions at the Iſle of Wight, or ſet down in their Declarations, as in the fourth and ſeventh, ſixteen, twenty ſix, twenty ſeven Acts of the laſt Parliament, and in their Declaration to the Kingdom of England, emitted by the Committee of Eſtates the twenty eight day of June laſt when their Army went into England, in eſtabliſhing, carrying on, and proſecuting the late Engagement againſt the Kingdom of England, and raiſing the firſt and ſecond Leavie, in preſſing the ſame at home by unlawful Bands and cruel Plunderings; and in rejecting all Warnings, Petitions, Remonſtrances from the Kirk-Judicatories, and from Shires at home, and all Remonſtrances and offers of Treaty made from the Parliament of England by their Commiſſioners, in refuſing to declare the Kings Conceſſions at the Ile of Wight unſatisfactory to them, in trampling under foot the liberties of the Church at home, in invading of the Kingdom of England, and ſurprizing of their Towns, and marching through their Counties, and aſſociating with the Malignant party there; in returning after their defeat to Scotland, to renew their oppreſſion in this Kingdom, and invaſion of England; and to that end in the raiſing of new Forces, ſending Commiſſions to the claſſed Incendiaries of this Kingdom (who by ſtanding Acts of Parliament were debarred from all Truſt, for their joyning in the late Rebellion) and in many other ways, acts, and deeds proſecuting their deſigne at home and abroad. And conſidering the ſeveral offers & deſires made by the 13

Commiſſioners of the Kingdom of England for continuing the Peace & Union and the many earneſt and humble Petitions from ſeverall Shires, and the moſt part of provinciall Synods and Presbyteries; and the juſt and neceſſary Deſires, Remonſtrances and Declarations of the Commiſſioners of the Church to the Parliament and Committee, with their unſatisfactory Anſwer thereunto; and the Papers paſt betwixt the late General Aſſembly and the Committee, and the Diſſent and Proteſtations entred in the Parliament by a great number of every Eſtate and that of ſuch as hath been moſt inſtrumental and conſtant in this Cauſe ſince the beginning. And withall, taking to their ſerious conſideration the manifold ſolid reaſons againſt the Engagement, expreſſed in the Remonſtrances of the Commiſſion of the Kirk given in to the Parliament; and of the unanimous Declaration of the late General Aſſembly, and the reply of their Commiſsioners, demonſtrating from the Word of God the unlawfulneſſe of the ſaid Engagement, and evidencing the many Breaches of Covenant and treaties of Peace, the many wrongs done to the Liberties of the Church, and oppreſsions of the people of God, and many other unlawfull ingrediences in the matter, manner, nature and effect of that Engagement: and therefore denouncing Gods judgment againſt it, and warning the people to do their duty for the Cauſe of God and to the Covenant againſt all lets and impediments. All which was ſeconded ſo ſpeedily and immediately by Gods own hand, ſtirring up the hearts of his conſcientious people to the reſolution of oppoſing ſo great a defection from the Cauſe and Covenant. And by his performing the Counſell of his meſſengers and confirming the words of his ſervants in the defeat of that Army, and their overthrow in England with their aſſociats in England: as alſo in ſcattering of the remainder of that force returned unto Scotland, and joyned with theſe who at home were enſlaving this Kingdom, and in deveſting them with their own conſent by Treaty (with ſo little blood) of all outward force and exerciſe of State power, untill the determination of this Parliament. And the Eſtates pondering ſeriouſly the great neceſsity, and manifold reaſons preſsing the proteſters in Parliament with the aſſiſtance of the conſtant Covenanters throughout the Land, To make that oppoſition in Armes, ſo tryſted, directed and contenanced by Gods own good hand upon them as is more expreſſed in the Declaration of the Committee of Eſtates of the ſeventh of October laſt, and Information of the Kirk, publiſhed to the view of the world upon the ninth day of October laſt.

THEREFORE, and for many other reaſons and conſiderations, convincing them in their conſciences, That the foreſaid proceedings of the late Parliament and Committee in the appointing and proſecuting that Engagement againſt England, and in the oppreſsing of the Church in her Liberties, and of the good People throughout the Land in their perſons and eſtates; And which is moſt of all, in their conſciences by force and violence, cauſing the people to ſin, after they had declared by their Petitions the ſame was againſt the light of their conſciences, were unlawfull before God, and againſt his Word, were breaches of the Solemn League and Covenant (which being an Oath to GOD ſo neceſſary is not alterable by any humane Authority) and of the Treaties betwixt the Kingdoms, and under pretence of doing for Religion, for the King, for the Kingdoms, did really tend (as doth now more appear) to the ruining of Religion, undoing of the King, and dividing of the Kingdoms; And which in few moneths hath more waſted the ſubſtance of this Kingdom, and eſpecially of the wel-affected, then all our former troubles; And hath led out a forced multitude to ſlaughter or ſlavery, with ſo great reproach and diſgrace to the Nation, and occaſioned a powerfull Army to enter the bowels of this Kingdom in purſuit of their enemies who had invaded England, to the great endangering of this Kingdom, and ſo laying the Land open, and making it lyable to the guilt and miſerie of an unjuſt and offenſive War, drawing down Gods judgements, and expoſing us and our poſterity to invaſion from our neighbour Kingdom, if God in his providence had not remedied the ſame. As the Eſtates of Parliament have made before God a Solemn Aeknowledgment of the publick ſins and breaches of the Covenant, and a Solemn Engagement to all the Duties therein contained, Namely theſe which do in a more ſpecial way relate unto the dangers of theſe times, that Gods judgement drawn upon the Nation by ſuch a ſinfull courſe by a prevalent party of the repreſentative body, may be removed, and the like in time coming prevented; So alſo that all pretence of Law at home for proſecuting of theſe courſes; And that all pretence of quarrell from abroad againſt this Nation for the ſame may be taken away; And to teſtifie the firm reſolution and earneſt deſire of this Kingdom to preſerve inviolably the Vnion betwixt the Kingdoms, The Eſtates foreſaids, do hereby finde and declare the Kings Conceſsions at the Iſle of Wight, and late Declarations emitted by the Parliament and Committee, to be unſatisfactorie to them, and deſtructive to the Cauſe and Covenant: And doth diſclaim, condemn, annull, repeal, and declare to be void and of non-effect the Acts aftermentioned, as being in themſelves from the beginning, unjuſt and unlawfull, and contrary to the Word of GOD, and Solemn League and Covenant, and large Treaty betwixt the Kingdoms, The fourth Act, intituled, Act anent the reſolutions of Parliament, concerning the breaches of the Covenant and Treaties betwixt the Kingdoms of Scotland and England, and demands for reparation thereof. The ſixt Act, intituled, Act for putting of the Kingdom in a poſture of War for defence, and conſtituting the Committees of War of the ſeverall Shires. The ſeventh Act, intituled, A Declaration of the Parliament of Scotland, to all his Majeſties good Subjects of this Kingdom, concerning their reſolutions for Religion, King, and Kingdoms in purſuing of the Ends of the Covenant. The eighth Act, intituled, Deſires of the Parliament of Scotland, to the honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England. The ninth Act, intituled, Act anent the Levies of horſe and foot to be put out by the Shires and Burghs, and the Liſt of the Colonels, with their numbers. The eleventh Act, intituled, Act in favours of the outreikers of Horſe and Foot. The ſixteenth Act, intituled, A Letter from the Parliament of Scotland, to the ſeveral Presbyteries within this Kingdom. The eighteenth Act, intituled, Act anent the Oath to be taken by the Committees of War in the ſeverall Shires. The nineteenth Act, intituled, Act and Ordinance concerning the Garriſons within the Kingdom, for proviſion of the Forces thereof, and adding of two moneths Maintenance to the former five. The twentie Act, intituled, Act for raiſing of Troops. The twenty third Act, intituled, Act Ordaining all Miniſters to exhort their people to obedience to the Laws of the Kingdom, and aſſuring theſe Miniſters of their ſtipends, during their lifetimes. The twenty fourth Act, intituled, Act Ordaining the whole Members of Parliament, Noblemen, Barons, Burgeſſes, and all other Subjects and inhabitants of the Kingdom to ſubſcribe this Act for defence of the lawfulneſs of this Parliament, and obedience to the Acts thereof. The twenty ſixt Act, intituled, Act and Declaration of Parliament, and Anſwers to the ſupplications from Synods and Presbyteries. The twenty ſeventh Act, intituled, Act and Declaration of Parliament, in anſwer to the Petitions preſented to them from ſome Committees of War of Shires. And all other Acts, or parts, or clauſes of any other Act of the laſt Parliament publiſhed, and grounds and pretences thereof, in ſo far as they import, the approbation, purſuance, or furtherance of the ſaid late unlawful Engagement. And this generall Clauſe, is declared to be als ſufficient for repealing and annulling of them, as if the tenour thereof were herein inſert, wherewith the Eſtates diſpenſe.

SICLIKE the Eſtates annuls, reſcinds and repeals among the unprinted Acts, The Commiſsion granted to the cloſe Committee, concerning Berwick and Carliſle, againſt which divers Members of Parliament entred their Diſſent and Proteſtation, The Commiſsions granted to Duke Hammilton, and other Officers of the Army; The Ordinance in favours of theſe that proteſted in Fyfe, and Hadingtoun; The Ordinance for giving thanks to theſe, who in the ſeverall Shires preſented Petitions, or writ Letters for encouraging the Parliament to go on in the Engagement, The Act anent the Colledge of Juſtice, and their Colonell: The Act anent the Lord Cochrane, Laird Garthland, and Alexander Crawfurd their going to Ireland: The Act anent the Magiſtrates and Counſell of Glaſgow: The Act ratifying the Acts of Committee made in the receſs of Parliament; and all other unprinted Acts, or clauſes of unprinted Acts, grounds and pretences thereof, in ſo far as they import the approbation, purſuance or furtherance of the ſaid late unlawfull Engagement. And this generall clauſe is declared to be als ſufficient for repealing and annulling them, as if the tenours thereof were herein inſert.

IN like manner the Eſtates of Parliament condemns, annuls and reſcinds all the Acts of the Committee of Eſtates, contained in the table ſubjoyned to this Act, And all other Acts or parts, or clauſes of any other Acts of the ſaid Committee of Eſtates, grounds and pretences thereof, in ſo far as they import the approbation, purſuance, or furtherance of the ſaid late unlawfull Engagement; and this generall clauſe is declared to be als ſufficient for repealing and annulling of them as if the tenour thereof were herein inſert, wherewith the ſaids Eſtates diſpenſe.

AND in like manner, do annull, condemn and repeal all Acts made, and deeds done by the former Parliament and Committee of Eſtates, contrary to the Liberties of the Kirk, or any wayes encroaching upon the ſame, in particular theſe which follow; firſt, their emitting of Declarations, containing things highly concerning Religion, not onely without advice and conſent of the General Aſſembly and their Commiſsioners, but contrary to their expreſs Deſires, ſupplications, Remonſtrances and Declarations, declaring the ſame to be dangerous and deſtructive thereto, eſpecially the reſtoring of the King to honour freedom and ſafty, without ſufficient ſecurity firſt had from him for ſecuring of Religion, as is more fully expreſſed in the deſires and Repreſentation of the Commiſsioners of the General Aſſembly; Secondly, the puting of an unſound gloſs in the cloſe of the Declaration of the Parliament upon the Covenant, and Acts of the Generall Aſſembly, in theſe things that concern our duties to the King, as is clearly holden forth in the Repreſentation of the Commiſsion of the Aſſembly. Thirdly, the making proviſion for ſecuring of the ſtipends of ſuch Miniſters as ſhall be cenſured for their concurring in, or preaching for the unlawfull Engagement againſt England: Fourthly, their groſs miſrepreſenting of the proceeding of the Commiſsion of the General Aſſembly by the Parliaments Letter of May the eleventh to the ſeveral Presbyteries, and endeavouring to incenſe them againſt the Commiſsion of the Generall Aſſembly, and to pre-poſſeſs with prejudices the Commiſsioners to the following Aſſembly. Fifthly, the taking upon them in the Act and Declaration of the Parliament, commonly called the Band, to judge and determine ſuch things without adviſe of the Kirk, wherein the Aſſemblies of the Kirk have a ſpecial intereſt of an antecedent judgement, as who are enemies to Religion, and who not, and what are the moſt fit and neceſſary remedies for preſerving of the ſame. Sixthly, their depriving of the Generall Aſſembly and their Commiſſioners of the liberty of Printing, by putting an inhibition to the contrary on Printers, under the pain of death, againſt ſeverall Acts of Parliament, Declaring and confirming the Kirks Liberty and Priviledge of Printing: And ſiclike diſclaims and condemns their impious uſurpation in calling in the Printed Copies of the Cauſes of a Solemn univerſall Faſt and Humiliation, indicted by the Commiſsioners of the Aſſembly, and inhibiting of the Printer to give any out of his hands, thereby intending to interrupt the obſerving of the Faſt by the want of information of the Reaſons and Cauſes thereof; And alſo annuls, and repeals, diſclaims and condemns, all and ſundry other Acts made, and deeds done by the ſaid Parliament or Committee of Eſtates, or by their Authority that may infer any prejudice to Religion, or the power, priviledges and Liberties of the Kirk which we are bound by ſo many ſtrong Bands and Solemn obligations to maintain: And ſiclike annuls and reſcinds all Acts of Committees of Shires, or Burghs Royall, or of Regality, Barony Courts, or other Judicatories whatſoever made in purſuance of that Engagement; And Ordains all the ſubſcribed Copies of the Band, condemned by the Generall Aſſembly, to be brought in to the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates, to be diſpoſed of as they ſhall think fitteſt: And all other Acts, grounds, and pretences thereof, in ſo far as they import the furtherance, or purſuance of the ſaid late unlawfull Engagement. Likeas the Eſtates of Parliament, upon the manifold abovementioned grounds more fully related in the Declaration of the Committee of Eſtates, and Information of the Kirk, being perſwaded that the Proteſtations of the Members made in Parliament, and their Oppoſition ſince by defenſive Armes for the ſafety of the Covenant, Cauſe, and themſelves from ruine, againſt ſo great a defection, carried on with ſo great oppreſsion: and their proceedings in the Treaty at Stirling, diveſting the Ingagers with their own conſent, of power and force which they had in their hands; and their aſſurance given by the Act of the ſixt of October to the Kingdom of England for debarring of the Authors and Abettors of that Engagement from places of publick Truſt or Power without their conſent, which was demanded by their forces as the leaſt ſatisfaction and ſecurity before their removal, and their proceedings by publick Acts in the purſuance of theſe two Treaties, to ſeclude thoſe who had concurred in the Engagement from power in Judicatories, Armies, or places of Truſt untill the determination of a Parliament were Laws in themſelves, and neceſſary for them according to the condition of affairs. Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament did allow, approve of, and confirm the Diſſent and Proteſtation made in Parliament by many Faithfull Members of each Eſtate, whereof the tenour follows. "Whereas the draught of a Declaration hath been "read concerning the breaches of the Covenant in "matters of Religion, and the Demands to be "made for remedy and reparation thereof, the "dangers to Religion, and the duties whereunto "we are obliged by Covenant, for Reformation "and Uniformity in Religion, and the ſecurity to "be had for the eſtabliſhing the ſame: upon which "grounds alſo a War is principally founded: And "whereas we have earneſtly deſired and inſiſted, "that there may be no proceeding to any determi-"nation concerning the ſaid Declaration, before the "Commiſsion of the Generall Aſſembly be firſt con-"ſulted therein: We do hereby enter our Diſſent "from proceeding to the determination of matters "ſo highly concerning Religion, without the adviſe "and concurrence of the Kirk, as a preparative of "moſt dangerous conſequence to Religion, and "deſtructive to the Liberties of the Church; as "contrary to the Nationall and Solemn League "and Covenant, and to the known Laws and con-"ſtant practiſe of this Kingdom. And we do pro-"teſt, that we may not be included in any ſuch "Vote or Reſolution, but may be free of all the "guiltineſs, confuſions, diſtractions, and evils what-"ſoever that may follow thereupon to Religion, "the King, this Kirk and Kingdom, and the union "betwixt the Kingdoms."

AND ſiclike allows the riſing of ſuch Shires and others who joyned in Armes for oppoſing of the ſaid Engagement, and reſcuing the Kingdom from the oppreſſion of the Forces under the command of the Earl of Crawfurd, Earl of Lanerk, and George Monro, and their proceedings in purſuance thereof, and alſo ratifies the late Treaty at Stirling & Edinburgh, upon the twenty ſixt & twenty ſeventh of September laſt; and ſiclike allows the Treaty and Engagement to the Kingdom of England by their anſwers of the ſixt of October laſt, for debarring of the Engagers from publick truſt in this Kingdom without their conſent. Siclike the two Acts of Committee of the twenty ſecond of September, and fourth of October; and the Act of the ninth of November, all made for debarring of theſe who concurred in the late Engagement, from the exerciſe of publick places or truſt untill the determination of this Parliament. Likewiſe the Declaration of the Committee of Eſtates concerning their proceedings in oppoſition to the late unlawfull Engagement againſt England of the date the ſeventh of October laſt, publiſhed to the world; and the Act of the ſaid Committee for making of the publick Acknowledgment, and renewing of the Covenant, and the Act of the Committee of the fourteen of October laſt: All which the Eſtates of Parliament, as is aforeſaid, do allow, confirm and ratifie in all the Heads, Clauſes and Articles thereof. And this generall Clauſe is declared to be als ſufficient for ratifying and confirming the ſaids Acts and Clauſes thereof, as if the Tenours of the ſame were here particularly inſert; Wherewith the Eſtates foreſaids do hereby diſpenſe.

FOLLOWES the liſt of the Acts of the Committee of Eſtates for advancing the Ingagement. Act for diſplacing of ſuch of the committee of Warre as would not take the Oath. [LETTER frome the ꝑmiſſ^{rs} at Londone To the plia^{t}

FOR the most honob^{te}: the Lords and the Comñ^{rs} of Shyres and Burroughes aſsembled in the Parlt of Scotland at Edinbrugh

May it please yo^{r} Lo^{s}

VPON thursday Last, the Comons paſsed these votes inclosed; declareing the people, vnder God, to be the Originall of all juſt power; themselves to be the Supreeme authority of this Nation; And that they alone, have power to make Lawes, though the King & Lords conſent not therevnto. Vpon fryday, the Ordinance for triall of the King, was ingroſsed; And Order was given to cōmitt him cloſse prisoner. Wherefore, being certainely informed, that vpon Saturnday it was to paſse as an act of Parlt; And likewise takeing into conſideration the manyfest dangers to Religion, the priviledges of Parl^{t}, and fundamentall constitution of the governement of this Kingdome, Wee found that wee could not ansuere yo^{r} Lōps expectation, and the trust reposed in vs, if wee should be longer silent: And in purſuance of our Cōmiſsion & Instructions; wee delivered this Letter to the Serjant of the house, at the doore, about 12 of the cloke, it being about that tyme, before they were a quorum. After the Serjeant had delivered our letter, to the Speaker; hee was sent to enquire; if the Letter was to the Speaker only, or to be cōmunicated to the house, And wee ans^{d} it was to be cōmunicated to the house; Yet notwithstanding, it was layed aside, & not read: and they proceeded in the bussines concerneing the King, and paſsed the Cōmiſsion for his triall, in the nature of an Act of Parlt, the substance whereof, is the ſame with the ordinance whereof wee sent a copy the laſt weeke. Yesterday, the Generall [Lieu^{t}] Generall, & others of that Cōmiſsion, mett at the painted Chamber . . . . . late; What they did, wee know not further then that this day, when wee were in Westminster Hall, there came into the Hall, some Trumpeters & horſemen, with a Herald, and made a Proclamation, the summe whereof was; That by vertue of an act of Parlt of the Comons of England, a Cōmiſsion was given for triall of CHARLES STEWART, King of ENGLAND; and that the Comm^{rs} were to meete for that purpose to morrow, at one of the Cloke in the afternoone, at the painted Chamber. The end of that Proclamation, as is conceived, was to invite all Men to bring in to those Comm^{rs}, what they have to ſay againſt the King. Whither hee is to be brought hither, Or they are to send some to Windsor to him, Wee know not; but many think they will proceede with expedition.

IN the Letter w^{ch} wee have given in to the present house of Comons, Wee have only related the matter of fact, touching the late proceidings, without declareing any opinion therevpon. Concerneing Religion, we have expreſsed the desires of the Kingdome of Scotland, and given a testimony against Toleration; And anent the King, wee have proceeded vpon the grounds contained in the Declaration of the Parlt of Scotland of the 16th of Januarij 1647, And the declaration of both houses, when hee came from Newcastle to Holdenby; w^{ch} wee did the rather mention, at this tyme, becauſe it is frequently objected, That the Kingdome of Scotland did part with the King, without any conditions. Wee have ſent yo^{r} Lo^{p} the reaſons of the Counsell of Warre, for secureing & secludeing the Members of Parlt; which is all wee have to ſay, for the preſent; but that wee dayly waite yo^{r} Lo^{ps} speedy directions; And ſo remaine

[LETTER from the Commiſsioners at London to the house of Comons

SIR.

THE Comittee of Estates of the Kingdome of Scotland, vnderstanding, that the hon^{ble} houſes of Parlt, were proceeding in a Treaty for peace, with his Ma^{tie} / did about the beginning of the last moneth, authorize vs to present Propoſitions to his Ma^{tie} / And particularlie to deall with him, & the hono^{ble}: houses; ffor eſtabliſhing the Covenant and Presbyteriall Governement, the Confeſsion of faith, Directory for worship, & Catechiſme; ffor preventing the Toleration of Idolatry, Popery, Prelacy, Superstition, blaſphemy, hæreſy and Schisme; And for perfecting the great work of reformation & Vniformity, according to the Covenant: the substance whereof, hath beine formerly cōmunicated in a letter from the Comittee of Eſtates to both houſes; and by one of our number, vpon his reception at the Com^{tee} / of Derbyhouse, by order from the houses of Parlt. But to our great greefe wee doe perceive; That the distractions of this Kingdome are, beyond our expectation, growne exceedeing high; That a force hath beine placed on the paſsages to the houses; w^{ch}, dureing transactions of higheſt concernem^{t}, hath imprisoned and secluded a great Number of Members of Parlt; And given occasion to many others to withdraw, becauſe they finde they cannot act, as in a free Parlt; That applications are made to yow, for proceeding againſt the King, to take away his life, And for chang ing the governem^{t} of this Kingdome; And ſtrong endeavours are vsed, to overturne the whole work of reformation, to cast off the Ministery, and introduce a toleration of all Religions and formes of worship; And so in effect, to destroy the cause wherein both Nations have beine engaged; And frustrat all the ends of the Solemne League & Covenant, w^{ch} both Kingdomes have Sworne with vplifted hands to almighty God, sincerely, really, & constantly to performe. The Consideration of these things doth exceidingly trouble vs, and fill our hearts with feares; That, as they are for the present, matter of great provocation of the wrath of God against vs, diſhonourable to his Name, and a reproach to Religion; So, if perſisted in, that they shall greatly weaken & divide vs amongst our ſelves; Vnite forraigne Enemyes against vs; advance the Popish intereſt; Loose Ireland; And, in end, prove destructive to the reformed Religion, & to the peace & happineſse of these Kingdomes.

IN the yeare 1640, when these Kingdomes were oppreſsed vnder the yoke and tirranny of the Prelats, who then were farre advanced in the designe, to introduce Popery, The Kingdome of Scotland did joyne their endeavo^{rs} with this Kingdome, to procure a free Parlt here, Lookeing vpon it, as the cheiſe meane, by the bleſsing of God, to give a check to the designes of the Prelats, who were studying the change of Religion; And to the interpriſes of evill Councello^{rs} about the King, who were endeavo^{ring} to Eſtabliſh an arbitrary & tirrannicall governm^{t}. And afterward, when through the power & prevalency of Papists, Prelats, & Malignants, this Kingdome was diſtreſsed, the Kingdome of Scotland did enter into a Solemne League & Covenant, with this Nation: ffor reformation and defence of Religion, the honour and happines of the King, and the peace & safety of the three Kingdomes; And particularly, for bringing the Churches of God therein, to the neerest conjunction & vniformity in Religion, Confeſsion of faith, forme of Church government, Directory for worship, And Catechiſeing: ffor extirpation of Popery, Prelacy, Superstition, hæresy, Schisme, Profannes, and whatsoever shalbe found contrary to sound doctrine: ffor mutuall preservation of the rights & priviledges of the Parlts, & libertyes of the Kingdomes: ffor diſcovering of Incendiaryes, Malignants, and Evill Instruments, that hinder reformation of Religion, divide the King from his people, or one of the kingdomes from another; Or make any faction or party among the people, contrary to this League and Covenant, that they might be brought to publict triall & puniſhment: ffor preserveing peace & vnion betuixt the Kingdomes, and defending one another in this Cauſe; and continueing therein all the dayes of our lives, zealously & constantly, against all oppoſition; And for promoteing the ſame, according to our power, against all Letts & impediments whatsoever.

IN purſuance of the Solemne League & Covenant, both houses of Parlt have often declared, that they will establiſh the reformation of Religion; Extirpat Popery & Prelacy, And suppreſse hæreſy & Schisme; And that they will mantaine the foundamentall governm^{t} of this Kingdome, by King, Lords, & Comons: And when the Cõmoun Enemy being subdued, the Scottish Army was to goe out of this Kingdome, in the beginning of the yeare 1647, And his Ma^{tie} / by conſent of both Kingdomes, was to come to Holdenby; The houſes of Parlt did declare, both to the King & to the Kingdome of Scotland, That reſpect should be had to the safety & preservation of his Ma^{ties} / person, In the preservation & defence of the true Religion and Libertyes of the Kingdomes, according to the Covenant; And when the King should be at Holdenby, and the Scottish forces gone out of this Kingdome, that they would joyne with the Kingdome of Scotland, in imploying their best endeavo^{r}, to procure his Ma^{ties} / aſſent to the Propoſitions agreed on by both Kingdomes; And in caſe the King should not give his aſsent therevnto, that the two houses are still resolved to mantaine the happy Vnion already setled betweene the two Kingdomes, according to the Covenant & Treatyes. The Parlt of Scotland, did at the same tyme alſo, publiſh a declaration of their intentions (whereof one copy was delivered to his Ma^{tie} / and another to the houses of Parlt) That in the interim (vntill his Ma^{tie} / should give satiſfaction to both Kingdomes in the Propositions of Peace) there should be no harme, prejudice, injury, or violence done to his royall person; That there should be no change of governm^{t}, other then had beine for the yeares preceiding; And that his Posterity should be no wayes prejudiced in their lawfull Succeſſion to the Crowne and Governement of these Kingdomes.

THESE being the engagements of both Kingdomes joyntly together, and severally one to another, for the ends aforesaid, Wee hold it our duety to endeavour, That Reformation of Religion be setled & establiſhed, as is before expreſsed; And especially, that the toleration of Idolatry, Popery, blasphemy, hæresy, and Schisme, bee prevented; least wee partake in other mens Sinnes, and thereby be in danger to receive of their plagues; That the rights & priviledges of Parlt may be preserved; That there may bee no change of the foundamentall governement; And that there be no harme injury, or violence offred to his Ma^{ties} / person, the very thought whereof the Kingdome of Scotland hath alwayes abhorred, as may appeare by all their proceedings & Declarations: And the houses of Parlt have vpon severall occasions, expreſsed a detestation thereof in their Declarations.

WHEREFORE Wee doe expect, that there shalbe no proceeding against his person, which cannot but continue and encrease the great distractions of these Kingdomes, And involve vs in many difficultyes, miſeryes, and confuſions: But that by the free Councells of both houſes of the Parlt of England, and with the advice & consent of the Parlt of Scotland (w^{ch} is now sitting) such course may be taken, in relation to him, As may be for the good & happineſse of these Kingdomes, both haveing an vnquestionable interest therein. Wee are

ACT containing the Return of the Eſtates of Parliament upon the Teſtimony communicated unto them by the Commiſsioners of the Generall Aſſembly, and their concurrance with the ſame.

THE Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, 16
Takeing to their moſt ſerious conſideration, The Seaſonable Teſtimony againſt Toleration, and the preſent proceeding of Sectaries and their abettors in England in reference to Religion and Government, with an admonition and exhortation to their brethren there from the Commiſsioners of the Generall Aſſembly of the Kirk of Scotland, communicated unto them by you, And pondring the preſent ſad and ſtrange condition of affairs in their neighbour Kingdom of England repreſented therein, and in ſeverall other papers come to their knowledge, They do return unto you their hearty thanks, both for your good correſpondence (which this Parliament will with all cheerfulneſſe entertain) And for your great care and faithfulneſſe in giving ſuch neceſſary and ſeaſonable warnings and teſtimonies againſt the dangers of the times on all hands at all occaſions, And do heartily concur in the grounds thereof againſt Toleration and the preſent proceedings of Sectaries in England, in Reference to Religion and Government, and in the admonitions and encouragements ſo fully expreſt in the ſaid paper, and do moſt willingly adde this our Teſtimony thereunto, That our Brethren of England may be the more moved by the mouth of two witneſſes, and eſpecially ſuch as together with them ſtand and fall, and are covenanted with them for mutuall good, To lay theſe things to heart, and to abſtain from all ſuch ſinfull and dangerous courſes, and the faithfull not to faint under theſe afflictions, or to omit any neceſſary teſtimony or duty againſt the corruptions of the time, And becauſe there hath been ſeverall aſperſions publiſhed in printed pamphlets, for the ſtrengthening the hands of theſe who go on in theſe ſinfull wayes and for diſcouraging the hearts of theſe who are ſuffering under them, Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament after diligent enquiry at all the Members of this Court upon their publick and ſolemn oath both concerning themſelves and others, Do declare and can aſſure their Brethren at England, that they cannot find that either this Kingdom, or any perſon thereof had any knowledge of, or acceſsion to the late proceedings of the Engliſh Army in relation to the Kings perſon, or the Houſes and reſtrained members thereof, But are very confident there is no ground for ſuch aſperſions, on the other hand, So ſoon as this Parliament was conveened, and conſtituted, and heard of the preſent poſture of affairs, They being no wayes ſatisfied with their proceedings and the reaſons thereof publiſhed to the world, And being convinced of the dangerous conſequences thereof and calamities likely to follow thereupon, They did give preſent inſtructions to their Commiſsioners upon many reaſons founded on the obligations and declarations made between and by both Kingdoms (of which the matter of fact is fully expreſſed in the paper given in by our Commiſsioners on the ſixth of January inſtant, To the ſpeaker of the Houſe of Commons in our name and according to our mind, and herewith communicated to you,) to preſſe a delay of all theſe procedours againſt the Kings perſon, The Princes right of ſucceſsion, or the fundamentall government of the Kingdom, untill this Kingdom were heard to repreſent their intereſt and deſires, And in caſe of their refuſall, That they ſhould enter in the name of this Kingdom their diſſent and proteſt, That as this Nation is free from all knowledge of, and acceſsion to theſe deſignes and practiſes, So they may be free of all the calamities, miſeries and confuſions which may follow thereupon to theſe diſtracted Kingdoms, And as our conſtant reſolution and earneſt deſire to preſerve inviolably the peace and union between the Kingdoms, will evidently appear to any who will read (beſides all our former actions and ſufferings for it) our Act of approving the indiction of this preſent Parliament, & our Act of repealing all paſt in the laſt Parliament or Committee of Eſtates for the late unlawfull Engagement againſt England, And as ye are witneſſes of our keeping a ſolemn day of humiliation, not only for our own ſins and miſeries, But alſo for the ſins and diſtreſſes lying on our dear Brethren and for ſeeking the Lords directions to us, That wee may know and perform all the duties which the Lord requires of us at ſuch a time, after ſuch judgments and deliverances on his part, ſuch an acknowledgment & renewed Covenant on our part, not only in relation to our own affairs at home, but alſo to what may concern Religion, King & Kingdoms, according to the ſolemn League & Covenant in theſe united Nations; So We with Gods aſsiſtance Declare that it is our conſtant reſolutions, to give all ſeaſonable Teſtimonies, and doe all neceſſary duties within our power & calling, for the preſervation of the begun Reformation againſt Toleration of all Religion, and of the fundamental government againſt Anarchy and confuſion, And for continuing and preſerving the peace and union between theſe Kingdoms, and all the bands thereof, ſo often acknowledged and expreſſed in their Treaties, eſpecially one King, one Covenant, one Religion, And for the obſervance of the manifold declarations emitted between and by both Kingdomes to the World, in the poſitive and neceſſary duties for purſuance of all the ends of the ſolemn League and Covenant. And to this effect we are and ſhall be moſt ready to deal and interpoſe in all earneſtneſſe and ſincerity of heart, and by all lawfull and neceſſary means with all whom it may concern, for ſetling Truth and Peace in theſe Kingdoms, upon the grounds and propoſitions ſo often agreed unto, and ſo long inſiſted upon by theſe two Nations, and upon what further ſhall be found ſafe and neceſſary for the removing of theſe diſtempers, and preventing new iſſues of blood, Calamities and Confuſions in theſe Kingdoms, which the Searcher of hearts knoweth to be the earneſt deſire, and firm reſolution of this Court and Kingdom.

XXIII JANUARII.

THE Act of Claſſes for purging the Judicatories, and other places of publick truſt.

AT Edinburgh the twenty third day of January 1649. years. The Eſtates of Parliament preſently conveened, in this ſecond Seſsion of the ſecond Triennall Parliament, By vertue of an Act of the Committee of Eſtates, who had power and authority from the laſt Parliament for conveening the Parliament; Conſidering, That forſameikle as the late Committee of Eſtates did in the indiction of the Parliament by their Act of the 27. of October laſt, declare and warn, as after follows, To wit, that whereas the corruption of Judicatories of this Kingdom and Officers of Eſtate, and others perſons in publick truſt, have been the cauſe and fountain from whence our former evil hath proceeded. And whereas by our Solemn Acknowledgment agreed upon by Church and State, We are bound to God, by our Engagement to England we are bound to them, and by the forecited and publict Declaration, we are obliged before the World, to indeavour the purgation and reformation of our Judicatories and places of publick truſt: And foraſmuch as the foreſaids Perſons, and all who are in publick truſt are liable to the judgement and cenſure of Parliament for their procedure in their ſeverall places and Offices, Likeas by the Agreement at Edinburgh and Striviling all ſuch as have been imployed in publick place and truſt, and have been acceſſory to the late unlawful Engagement ſhould forbear the exerciſes of their places in the mean time; and all Queſtions are referred to the Determination of the Parliament: And whereas by the ſaid Treaty, all theſe who have been acceſſory to the ſaid Engagement are challengeable for their ſaid acceſsion, at the leaſt in ſo far as concerns their places and publick truſt, and the debarring of them from any of theſe. Therefore the Committee of Eſtates doth hereby warne and cite all and every one of theſe who exerciſed any office, place, or publick truſt, or who were Members, or 24

Clerks of any publick Judicatories, of whatſoever degree, quality, or condition ſoever, in Burgh or land within this Kingdom, and hath been acceſſory to the late Engagement, or are guilty of the faults mentioned in the Printed Acts of the twenty two of September, and fourth of October, To compeir before the Eſtates of Parliament at Edinburgh on the 4. day of January next to come in a peaceable way, accompanied only with their own domeſtick Servants, to hear and ſee the Parliament take ſuch courſe, as they in their Juſtice and Wiſdom for the good of the Kingdom ſhall think fit, for purging of the Judicatories, and for declaring their places vacand, and filling them with ſuch as are able and qualified perſons, fitteſt for the ſervice, and may give moſt contentment, and as have continued conſtant in the Covenant and Cauſe in the time of tryall, And for debarring them (who are put out) from any publick places, or truſt, during ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as the Eſtates of Parliament ſhall think fit, With certification to every one of the perſons concerned as is aboveſaid, and warned by this publick Proclamation, (which the Committee of Eſtates declares, That they finde it a ſufficient intimation in this noture caſe of ſo great and publick a back-ſliding to all perſons concerned therein for the effect foreſaid, to be eſteemed by them equivalent to a perſonall citation, or at their dwelling houſe upon particular ſummonds againſt every one of them) to compeir before the Eſtates of Parliament as is before ſaid and compeir not, That then the Eſtates will proceed both to determine the generall queſtion and the particular concerning their places and truſt, and take what farther courſe, they ſhall think fitting for the good of the Kingdom: And forſameikle, as the Eſtates of Parliament beeing now conveened have ratified the foreſaid Act in all the heads thereof, and by open Proclamation intimate the ſame; Likeas they have made their ſolemn Acknowledgement of the publick ſins and breaches of the Covenant, and their ſolemn Ingagement to all the duties contained therein, namely theſe which do in a more ſpeciall way relate to the dangers of theſe times; And in relation thereto have renewed their Solemn League and Covenant before God: And by their Act of the 16. of January inſtant, have diſclaimed and condemned the late unlawfull Engagement, as contrary to GODS Word, and a manifeſt breach of Covenant and Treaties, as deſtructive to the cauſe and Covenant, to Religion, the King and theſe Kingdoms: And is the cauſe of all the oppreſſions & miſeries that hath followed or may follow thereupon: and therefore, and for many other reaſons, Have annulled and repealed all Acts made by the late Parliament and Committee of Eſtates in proſecution thereof, and have ratified and approven the Proteſtation in Parliament & oppoſition thereafter made by this Kingdom againſt the Authors and Abettors thereof, and the late Treaty made at Stirling, debarring all acceſſory to that unlawfull Engagement from the exerciſe of their places or publick truſt, untill the meeting & determination of this preſent Parliament, unto whom all Civill queſtions are referred: And likewiſe hath confirmed the aſſurance given by the committee unto the Kingdom of England that we ſhould not admit any of theſe authors or abettors of the late Engagement to any publick place or truſt without the conſent of that Kingdom againſt which their Engagement was, as is more fully expreſt in their Anſwer of the 6. of October laſt. And whereas the Eſtates of Parliament, are not only ſatisfied of the truth, lawfulneſs and neceſsity of the foreſaid grounds, but alſo are convinced in their conſciences from the Word of God, from the large treaty between the Kingdoms, and from their Oath of Parliament, from their ſolemn League and Covenant, eſpecially from the 2. 4. and 5. Articles thereof, and from ſad and dear-bought experience, That the Malignant dealing of ſome, and the profane looſe walking of others who have been Members of Judicatories, and imployed in places of power and publick truſt, hath been a chief cauſe of all the evils both of ſin and puniſhment under which the land now groans; And that the Lord requires in his Word, that thoſe who judge and bear charge among his people ſhould not only be able men, but ſuch as fear God, hate covetouſneſs, and deal truly. And that it is of ſpeciall importance for the remedie of all our evils, and for ſecuring and advancing of Religion & Righteouſneſs, for keeping a right underſtanding between the Kingdoms, and for proſecuting all the ends of the Solemn League and Covenant, and for removing the judgement of God, and preventing or diſappointing all the deſigns and oppoſition of enemies of all ſorts, and for procuring the bleſsing of God upon the whole Land, That men not only of known ability, but alſo of approven integrity and conſtant affection to the Cauſe & good and Chriſtian converſation, be intruſted in all Judicatories and places of power and truſt, according to the ſeventh deſire of the Commiſsioners of the Church given in to the laſt Parliament, as ſo abſolutely neceſſary for the ſecuring of Religion, which by the Engagers themſelves in the Treaty at Stirling is ſubmitted to the Church their determination. Which determination anent the qualifications aforeſaids is clearly ſet down in the 5. 6. 7. 10. and 12. pages of the Acknowledgement and their Declaration emitted to the world.

THEREFORE the Eſtates of Parliament remembering well the laudable precedents of the Parliaments, 1641. and 1646. and ſeverall others for purgation of the Judicatories and places of truſt; And conſidering that all perſons both by the common Law, by many Acts of Parliament, and the nature of their place and truſt, are comptable for their proceedings in their ſeverall places and truſt, which they have ad vitam aut culpam: And pondering how great a fault it is to have had any hand or acceſsion in the enacting, or inforcing, or proſecuting ſo unlawfull an Engagement, thereby drawing on the Land (ſo far as they could) the wrath of God, and all the miſeries of a War with our Brethren of England, againſt Covenant, Treaties, & many warnings from the Kirk, and contrary to the Petitions from many Synods, Presbyteries and Shires, and the ſolemn Proteſtations of ſo great a number of each Eſtate in Parliament: They do in purſuance of their ſolemn Acknowledgment, performance of their vows to God, Declaration emitted to the World, and aſſurance given to the Kingdom of England, both in the large Treaty, 1641. and late Anſwer 6. of October laſt, and for ſatisfying of the Kirks juſt deſires for Purgation and Reformation of our judicatories, and for determination of this queſtion anent places of truſt, referred by the Treaty at Stirling to their determination, and for deterring all others in this or ſubſequent generation, who ſhall be intruſted with publick power or place from drawing on this nation the guiltineſſe and miſery of ane offenſive unneceſſary and unlawfull war, and againſt Covenant and Treaties, and publick warnings from Church judicatories and Shires, and for incouraging all who ſhall be in publick place or truſt in times of new ſtraits and trials; To abide conſtantly by the Cauſe and Covenant, and to give evident teſtimonies thereunto againſt all defection and apoſtacie. The Eſtates of Parliament upon this and many other great and weighty conſiderations moving and preſsing them to this neceſſarie dutie, Do therefore Declare, Enact and Ordain, that all theſe Officers of Eſtate, Members or Clerks of the Parliament, Committees thereof, ſecret Counſel, Seſsion, Exchequer, Juſtice courts, Commiſsion for plantation of Kirks, or conſervation of the Peace, Sheriff Courts, Stewart Courts, Baillie Courts, Commiſſar Courts, Bailies of Regalitie Courts, Warden Courts, of his Majeſties Minthouſe, Admirall Court, Gild Court, Town Counſell, or any other publick Judicatorie, or Deacons of Crafts, and all who had any office, place or publick truſt, and all having deputation from, or dependance upon any of theſe aforeſaid, who were guilty of any of the faults contained in the four ſeverall Claſſes aftermentioned, ſhall be removed and ſecluded from publick truſt according to the ſeveral rules reſpective after following.

The firſt Claſſe.

THE Eſtates declare all theſe to be comprehended in the firſt Claſſe, who were General Officers, which led & accompanied the Army into England; And all thoſe Officers that continued in the Engagement, who commanded the Forces at Mauchlein moore, or at Striviling, and all thoſe who were principally active in perſuading, or bringing over of the Forces from Ireland, and all theſe perſons who were plotters, chief actors and prime promoters of the late unlawfull Engagement from the beginning to the end thereof, in Parliament, Committees, or otherwayes: and ſiclike all theſe who were chief actors and prime promoters of the horrid Rebellion of James Grahame, & who ſince have either accepted of charge or joyned as voluntiers in the ſaid unlawful Engagement, or taken the Oath in Committees, or Subſcribed the Band for themſelves or others for the Engagement, or ſate in the Committees or other meetings, and gave order for proſecuting the ſaid Engagement, or who otherwayes gave or received, and execute orders againſt others for proſecuting the Engagement; As alſo ſuch Clerks of Parliament, Committees thereof, ſecret Councell or Seſsion, who were guiltie of any of the Faults contained in any of the Claſſes at St. Andrews, and retaining their former Principles of Malignancie, and have been Active in their places or imployments for promoving the late unlawfull Engagement.

The ſecond Claſſe.

25 THE Eſtates of Parliament, having taken to their conſideration a Supplication given in to them by the Commiſſioners of the Generall Aſſembly, deſiring that the Eſtates of Parliament would reſcind and Declare null, all gifts and ratifications (if any be) granted in prejudice of the Univerſity of St. Andrews of the excreſcence of the Rents of the Archbiſhoprick and Priory of St. Andrews to whatſomever perſon or perſons by and attour the ſum of one thouſand pounds ſterling, mortified to the ſaid Univerſity by his Majeſtie, in manner after-ſpecified; And that the Eſtates of Parliament would declare by their Act, that no gift be paſſed in time coming of that excreſcence to any perſon or perſons whatſomever, but only for pious uſes towards the maintenance of the Kirks and Univerſity of St. Andrews; As alſo that they would paſs an Act that no Rents mortified to Univerſities, Schools, or any other pious uſes, ſuffer any diminution by whatſomever manner of way in time coming, as the ſaid Supplication bears: And alſo conſidering that his Majeſtie by Act of Parliament dated the fifteenth day of November 1641. years, did with advice and conſent of the three Eſtates of Parliament, declare all gifts granted or to be granted by his Majeſtie to whatſomever perſon or perſons of the Teynds and Teynd-duties of whatſomever nature pertaining to any Biſhopricks within this Kingdom ſhould be null, except ſuch as were or ſhould be grantit for pious uſes, And excepting ſuch as were granted already by his Majeſtie to whatſomever perſon or perſons of their own Teynds, they and every one of them always being lyable to the quantitie conteined in the Act maid be the ꝓmiſſioune for plantatione of kirkis: And alſo that his Majeſtie did in the year of God 1642. out of his pious and Chriſtian inclination towards the Univerſity of St. Andrews found and mortifie in favours of the ſaid Vniverſity, the Rents of the late Archbiſhoprick and Priory of St. Andrews, conform to his Majeſties Charter of Mortification made thereupon, of the date the fifteenth day of January One thouſand ſix hundred and fourty two yeers, reſerving to his Majeſtie the excreſcence of the Rents of the ſaid Biſhoprick and Pryorie to be diſpoſed upon by his Majeſtie for pious uſes; Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament to the effect that the Vniverſities of this Kingdom, and eſpecially the Vniverſitie of St. Andrews be no wayes wronged or prejudged, and that no let nor impediment may be for hindering and impeding the full proviſion of the ſaid Vniverſity in all things neceſſary and expedient for promoving the advancement and flouriſhing of the ſame, Do ratifie and approve the foreſaid Act of Parliament in that clauſe thereof, whereby his Majeſtie did declare by the adviſe of the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, That the Teynds and Teynd duties of all and whatſomever Kirks, Parſonage and Vicarrage thereof, and Teynds of whatſomever nature pertaining to the ſaids Biſhopricks ſhould be applied to the maintenance of the Miniſtry and of the Vniverſities and Colledges and other pious uſes, and to no other uſe: And declared all gifts granted or to be granted by his Majeſtie, to whatſomever perſon or perſons of the foreſaids Teynds and Teynd-duties or any part thereof except to the uſes foreſaid, to be null in the ſelf; Likeas the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament by thir preſents Declares all gifts granted or to be granted by his Majeſtie, to whatſomever perſon or perſons of the Rents of the foreſaids Archbiſhoprick and Pryorie of St. Andrews, or any part thereof, except to the uſes foreſaid towards the maintenance of the Kirks and Vniverſity of St. Andrews, to be null of themſelves, and of no force nor effect. WEE have diverse times waited on yow, to sollicite yor endeavorr for preservation of his Maties / person. And now haveing received pticular directions, from the Estates of the Parlt of Scotland, to make application to yor Excy / for the same end: Wee doe in their names earnestly desire & intreat, That yow will take into serious consideration, that the Kingdome of Scotland, hath vndoubted interest, in his Maties / person; And how hard a thing it is, to proceede agt their King, Not only without, but against their advice and consent; That his Person was intrusted by that Kingdome, to the honobte houſes of Parlt; And how much it will reflect vpon the honour of Scotland, & the ffaith of England, to take away his life. Bee pleased alſo to remember, the many tyes & bonds of Love & freindship, betweene the Kingdomes; Their solemne Engagemts / in one Cause & Covenant; And the many obligations & mutuall good offices which have paſsed betuixt them, & betuixt the Kingdome of Scotland, And the forces vnder yor Comand. Consider, what an vnsetled peace, it is like to prove, wch shall have its foundation layd in the bloud of the King; What dangerous evills, & greevous Calamityes it may bring vpon vs, and our Posterity; What reproach vpon Religion, & the work of reformation; And what infamy abroad in other Nations. And let it never be recorded to future ages, that yow have beine wanting in yor duety, at such a time, as this. But according to the Eminency of yor place, honour, & dignity, And the greatnes of yor interest, improve this present opportunity, by all lawfull wayes & meanes, to prevent the takeing away of his Maties / life; Wherein alſo, wee doe earnestly intreat the concurrence of yor Councell of warre. ACT anent ſecuring of the Covenant, Religion, and peace of the Kingdom.

44 THE Eſtates of Parliament, Taking to their moſt ſerious conſideration the unhappy differences between their late Soveraign and theſe Kingdoms, cauſed by the evil counſells about him, unto the great prejudice of Religion, and long diſturbance of the peace of theſe Kingdoms: As lykeways the manifold Acts of Parliament and fundamentall conſtitution of this Kingdom anent the Kings Oath at his Coronation, which judging it neceſſary, that the Prince and the People be of one perfect Religion, appointeth that all Kings and Princes who ſhall Reign or bear Rule over this Realm, ſhall at their Coronation or receipt of their Princely Authority, ſolemnly ſwear to obſerve in their own perſons, and to preſerve the Religion as it is preſently eſtabliſhed and profeſſed, And rule the people committed to their charge according to the will of God revealed in his Word, and the loveable conſtitutions received within this Kingdom, And do ſundry other things which are more fully expreſſed therein, And withall pondering their manifold ſolemn Obligations, to endeavour the ſecuring of Religion, and the Covenant before and above all worldly intereſts: Therefore they do Enact, Ordain and Declare, That before the Kings Majeſtie who now is, or any of his Succeſſours ſhall be admitted to the exerciſe of his Royall Power, he ſhall by and attour the foreſaid Oath aſſure and declare by his Solemn Oath under his Hand and Seal, his allowance of the Nationall Covenant, and of the ſolemn League and Covenant, and Obligation to proſecute the ends thereof in his ſtation and calling; And that he ſhall for himſelf and his Succeſſours, conſent and agree to Acts of Parliament, enjoyning the Solemn League and Covenant, and fully eſtabliſhing Presbyterian Government, the Directory of Worſhip, Confeſsion of Faith and Catechiſms, as they are approven by the Generall Aſſembly of this Kirk and Parliament of this Kingdom in all his Majeſties Dominions, And that he ſhall obſerve theſe in his own practiſe and Family, And that he ſhall never make oppoſition to any of theſe, or endeavour any change thereof.

IT is alſo Declared, Enacted, and Ordained, that before the King who now is be admitted to the exerciſe of his Royall power, he ſhall leave all Counſell and Counſellors prejudiciall to Religion, and to the Nationall Covenant, and to the Solemn League and Covenant, And give ſatisfaction to the Parliament of this Kingdom, as it is now conſtitute in what further ſhall be found neceſſary for the ſetling of a happy and durable Peace, preſervation of the Union between the Kingdoms, and for the good of the Crown, and for his own Honour and Happineſs; And ſhall conſent and agree that all matters Civill be determined by the Parliaments of this Kingdom, and all Eccleſiaſtick matters by the Generall Aſſembly of this Kirk, For the which ends the Eſtates of Parliament are reſolved to make their humble and earneſt addreſſes to his Majeſtie with all poſſible expedition, All which they finde themſelves bound to proſecute, and reſolves not to recede therefrom, but to ſee the ſame really performed.

LIKEAS, the Eſtates of Parliament diſcharges all the Lieges and Subjects of this Kingdom to procure or receive from his Majeſtie any Commiſsions, Patents, Honours, Offices or gifts whatſomever, untill his Majeſtie give ſatisfaction as ſaid is, under the pain of being Cenſured in their perſons and eſtates, as the Parliament, or any having power from them ſhall judge fitting.

AND if any ſuch Commiſsions, Patents, Honours, Offices or gifts ſhall be procured or received by any of the Subjects of this Kingdom before ſuch ſatisfaction; The Parliament Declares and Ordains all ſuch Commiſsions, Patents, Honours, Offices or gifts, and all that ſhall follow thereupon, To be void and null.

ACT anent the Catechiſmes, Confeſsion of Faith, and ratifying thereof.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſsion of the ſecond Triennall Parliament, by vertue of an Act of the Committee of Eſtates, who had power and Authority from the laſt Parliament for conveening the Parliament, Having ſeriouſly conſidered the Catechiſmes, viz. The Larger and Shorter ones, with the Confeſsion of Faith, with three Acts of Approbation thereof by the Commiſsioners of the Generall Aſſembly, preſented unto them by the Commiſsioners of the ſaid Generall Aſſembly, Do ratifie and approve the ſaids Catechiſms, Confeſsion of Faith, and Acts of Approbation of the ſame, produced as ſaid is, and Ordains them to be recorded, publiſhed and practiſed. 45

ACT for information of the Lieges, anent the ſecuring the Peace of the Kingdom.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened, Taking to their ſerious conſideration, how cunning ſome are to coyn, and others bold to vent; and a third ſort weak and ſimple to believe lies and calumnies againſt their proceedings, even whilſt they are doing their beſt for the good of Religion, the Honour and Happineſs of the King, the preſervation of the welfare and peace of this Kingdome, And of all the bonds of Union betwixt the Kingdoms. And being informed that ſome falſe rumours are ſpread as if they had intended to ſeaſe upon the perſons of thoſe that had been active in the late unlawfull engagement, which hath been but invented and vented by malignant ſpirits, to make men out of ſuch apprehenſions to quit their houſes and families, and to draw together with other diſcontented perſons to caſt the peace of the country looſe, and to weaken the hands of the Parliament, In the proſecuting of the ends of the Covenant, and of their duties for Religion, King and Kingdomes. And conſidering the late Act of Parliament of the date the twenty ſixt of January laſt, containing the band for ſecuring of the peace of the Kingdom, and ane other Act of the date the fift day of February inſtant, Proclaming Charles the ſecond King of Great Brittain, France and Ireland, &c. They doe Inact, Ordain, and Declare for the ſatisfaction and ſecurity of all the Leiges, That they have no ſuch intention or reſolution to prejudge the Freedome of any mans perſon, who offers himſelfe, or doth when required, ſubſcribe, and find ſurety for the peace of the Kingdom, according to the foreſaid Band: And doth teſtifie his allowance of the foreſaid Proclamation concerning the King His Majeſty who now is; and to the effect it may be known who are willing to doe the ſame, and who refuſes, The Eſtates of Parliament ordaineth that the new Committees of Warre in the ſeverall Shires, and Magiſtrates in Burghs, call before them all ſuch perſons as were active in the late ingagement, and any other diſaffected perſons known to them, To ſubſcribe and finde ſurety according to the ſaid Band, And to teſtifie their allowance of the ſaid Proclamation, with certification contained in the Act anent the Band, And that theſe on this ſide of Tay give an account of their exact diligence hereof to the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates betwixt and the fifteenth day of March, And theſe on the other ſide of Tay, betwixt and the firſt day of Aprill. And Ordains this to be Proclaimed at the Mercat Croſſe of Edinburgh, and thereafter to be Printed. 72

ACT againſt remiſsions for Capitall crimes.

73 THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened in the ſecond Seſsion of this ſecond Triennall Parliament, conſidering the exceeding great abuſe that hath creeped in by granting remiſſions or reſpits to perſons guilty of crimes, which are ordained to be puniſhed by death, both by the Law of God, and Law or practique of this Kingdom. By which remiſsions and reſpits, Gods Law is preſumptuouſly diſpenſed with, the Law and practique of the Land made uſeleſſe, the whole Land polluted with ſin, a door opened unto the committing of many hainous crimes without fear through hope of impunity, and the Lord provoked in his wrath to plague the Land, and to do juſtice upon the inhabitants thereof, becauſe of the neglect of the Magiſtrate herein; Do therefore Statute and Ordain, that no remiſsion or reſpite ſhall hereafter be given or paſs in favours of any perſon or perſons that are puniſhable by death both by the Law of God, and by the Law or practique of this kingdom: And that if any remiſsion or reſpit ſhall be purchaſed and obtained by any ſuch perſon, or in their favours, The ſame is hereby declared null and of no effect, and that the ſaids perſons notwithſtanding of the ſaid remiſsion or reſpite, ſhall be proceeded againſt and puniſhed by death, according to the Law and practique of the Land: And Ordains the Juſtice-Generall and his Deputies, and all others, having power in criminalls, accordingly to proceed and do juſtice, notwithſtanding of any ſuch remiſsions or reſpits. And Ordains his Majeſties Advocate and others having intereſt to intend and proſecute purſuits to the finall deciſion of the ſame, againſt the contraveeners of the Act foreſaid.

ACT anent the ſeverall degrees of caſuall homicide.

74 THE Eſtates of Parliament for removing of all queſtions and doubts that may ariſe hereafter in criminall purſuits for ſlaughter, Statutes and Ordains, that the caſes of homicide after following, viz. caſuall homicide, homicide in lawfull defence, and homicide committed upon theeves or robbers, breaking houſes in the night, or in caſe of maſterfull depredation, or in the purſuit of denounced or declared Rebels for criminall cauſes, or of ſuch who aſſiſt and defend the Rebels by Armes, and by force oppoſes the purſuit and apprehending of them, whilk ſhall happen to fall out in any time coming, nor any of them ſhall not be puniſhed by death, And that notwithſtanding of any Laws or Acts of Parliament, or any practique made heretofore or obſerved in puniſhing of ſlaughter: But that the man-ſlayer in any of the caſes aforeſaid, be aſoilyed from any criminall purſuit purſued againſt him for his life for the ſaid ſlaughter before any Judge criminall within this Kingdom, Providing always, that in the caſe of homicide caſuall, and of homicide in defence, notwithſtanding that the man-ſlayer is by this Act free from Capitall puniſhment, yet it ſhall be leaſome to the chief Juſtice Court, with advice of the Counſell to Fine him in his means to the uſe of the defuncts Wife and Bairns of neereſt of kin, or to impriſon him.

ACT againſt Swearing, Drunkenneſſe, Scolding and other Prophanities.

75 THE Eſtates of Parliament conſidering, that notwithſtanding the laudable and pious Act made at Perth the 7. of Auguſt 1645. againſt Swearing, Drunkenneſſe, and mocking of Piety, Theſe vices do ſtill continue and encreaſe in the Land, unto the great diſhonour of God, and ſcandall of the Goſpel, Do therefore for remedie thereof renew the ſaid Act with the alteration and addition following, viz. That whoſoever ſhall be found culpable of any one or other of the vices mentioned in the ſaid Act by any Civill or Eccleſiaſticall Judicatory, whereunto they are ſubject, ſhall even after the firſt conviction before either of the ſaids Judicatories be liable unto the ſeverall reſpective penalties mentioned in the ſaid Act, And Ordained the Act foreſaid to have full force, ſtrength and effect in all the other clauſes thereof: And farther Ordains the ſaid Act to be extended and executed againſt ſcolders, filthy ſpeakers, and makers or ſingers of Bawdie ſongs, and they made liable to the reſpective penalties contained therein, according to the quality of the offenders, even after the firſt conviction as ſaid is, And as for thoſe who after the fourth conviction of any one of the ſaids faults, do not yet amend, but prove incorrigible, the conviction being repreſented by the Seſsion or Presbyterie to the Magiſtrate of the Paroch appointed for lifting the penalties, or Sheriff of the Shire, Lords of ſecret Counſell, or Magiſtrate of Burgh; The Eſtates Ordains the ſaids incorrigible perſons to be put in priſon, there to remain aye and while they finde caution of their good behaviour in all time coming, under the pain of four hundred pounds to ilk Nobleman, to ilk Baron four hundred Merks, ilk Gentleman, Heretor and Burgeſs two hundred Merks, ilk Yeoman fourty pounds, ilk ſervant twenty pounds to be imployed on pious uſes: And becauſe healthing and ſcolding is the occaſion of much drunkenneſſe, Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament extend this Act and the ſaid Act at Perth and the reſpective penalties therein contained againſt all thoſe who under whatſoever name, or by whatſomever geſture, drink healths or ſcolls and motion the ſame, and urge others thereunto; And it is declared that the executing of this Act ſhall be beſide and without prejudice of the Kirk Cenſure.

ACT anent mortifications and dotations to Hoſpitals and other pious uſes.

76 THE Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering that Mortifications and Dotations to Hoſpitals and other uſes of the poor within this Kingdom have been much wronged and diminiſhed in divers places of this Kingdom, through the converſion of the victuall doted and mortified to the ſaids Hoſpitals, or to other uſes of the poor in money: whereby the Rents and means of ſuſtenance of the ſaid poor people through the ignorance of the preſent granters of the ſaid converſion, have been much impoveriſhed and diminiſhed, by taking a little ſum of money for the Boll of victuall mortified as ſaid is: And ſeeing the granters of the ſaids converſions, had no power to dilapidate the ſaid Mortifications in prejudice of their Succeſſors; And to the effect that remeid may be had thereof, Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament Statutes and Ordains, that all converſions of victuall in money of any Rents doted and mortified to Hoſpitals, or to any other uſes of the poor, ſhall be reduced to the old Foundation: And that the Heritors and poſſeſſors of the lands, ſubject in and liable to the payment of any doted or mortified victuall, ſhall yeerly in all time coming, make payment of the Bolls of victuall themſelves to the uſes foreſaid: And that the Act of preſcription made in anno 1617. ſhall be no ground of a defence againſt the actions to be purſued for reducing of the ſaid converſion to the firſt foundation, but that notwithſtanding thereof that the ſaids converſions be annulled and reduced, It is always provided, that if the party defender againſt whom the ſaid action of reduction ſhall be purſued, either himſelf or his predeceſſors to whom he hath ſucceeded as Heir, have acquired the heritable right of the Lands ſubject in and liable to the payment of the foreſaid mortified victual at any time within theſe fourty yeers laſt bypaſt, in reſpect he or his Predeceſſors hath payed the price of the lands in relation to the ſaid converſion that then and in that caſe the decreet of reduction of the converſion ſhall onely be extended to the juſt and equall half of the Bolls of victuall contained in the firſt dotation and mortification, whilk the Heretors and Poſſeſſors ſhall be obliged to pay in all time coming to the uſes foreſaid, But if the defender in the ſaid reduction be Heir by progreſs or ſucceſſor titulo lucrativo to the firſt receiver of the converſion, Then and in that caſe it is Statute and Ordained that the converſion ſhall be reduced to the firſt foundation in totum; And that the hail Bolls of victuall mentioned in the firſt dotation ſhall be payable by him and his Succeſſors in the ſaids Lands to the uſes foreſaids in all time coming, It is alſo provided that this preſent Act ſhall onely be extended ad futura for payment in time coming of the doted and mortified victuall in manner as ſaid is: Likeas it is Statute and Ordained that no victuall mortified to any Colledges or any other pious uſes ſhall be converted in money, in any time coming by any Writs to be made, except from yeer to yeer, as the parties ſhall agree; And if any ſick converſion ſhall be made, the Eſtates of Parliament by theſe preſents, declares the ſame null, and of no force. And Ordains the foreſaids actions of reduction for the foreſaid converſion, to be purſued at the inſtance of the Procurator for the Kirk.

ACT againſt Clandeſtine Marriages.

ſary it is that no Marriage be celebrate but according to the laudable order and conſtitution of this Kirk and by ſuch perſons as are by the Authority of this Kirk warranted to Celebrate the ſame; And that notwithſtanding hereof ſundry, either out of diſaffection to the Religion preſently profeſſed in this Kingdom, or being deſirous to eſchew the Cenſures of this Kirk or to ſatisfie their promiſe of marriage formerly made to others, or to decline the concurrence and conſent of their Parents or others having intereſt, or out of ſome other unlawfull pretext do procure themſelves to be married, And are married either in a Clandeſtine way contrary to the eſtabliſhed Order of the Kirk, or by Jeſuits, Prieſts, depoſed or ſuſpended Miniſters, or any other not authorized by this Kirk, Do therefore Statute and Ordain, that whatſoever perſon or perſons ſhall hereafter marry or procure themſelves to be married in a Clandeſtine and inorderly way, or by Jeſuits, Prieſts, or any other not authorized by this Kirk, That they ſhall be impriſoned for three moneths, and beſides their ſaid impriſonment ſhall pay, ilk Nobleman five thouſand pounds, ilk Baron and Landed Gentleman five thouſand Merks, ilk Gentleman and Burgeſs one thouſand pounds, ilk other perſon five hundred merks, and that they ſhall remain in priſon ay and while they make payment of theſe reſpective penalties abovementioned, which are hereby Ordained to be applyed to pious uſes within the ſeverall Paroches, where the ſaids Perſons dwells, and that the Celebrater of ſuch marriages be baniſhed the Kingdom, never to return therein under the pain of death. Likeas the Eſtates ratifies 8. Act of the Parliament 1641. made againſt theſe parties who go to England or Ireland and marries there, without Proclamation of Bands in this Countrey, and againſt the Order and conſtitution of the Kirk thereof, with this addition, that the Contraveeners ſhall be liable to the reſpective pecuniall and corporall pains mentioned in this Act: And that the pecuniall pains ſhall be applied to pious uſes, And Ordains the Procurator for the Kirk to purſue before the civill Judge the fulfilling of this [Act], and Ordinance for the Corporal and pecuniall pains abovementioned, but prejudice alwayes to the Kirk to proceed with their Cenſures againſt ſuch offences.

ACT againſt ſcandalous perſons.

78 THE Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering that notwithſtanding of the Act made at Perth in the year 1645. concerning one or moe to exact the penal ties and inflict corporall pains againſt ſcandalous offences that are not capitall, yet the ſame is ineffectuall becauſe the perſons nominate for that purpoſe either will not accept of that imployment [or] are negligent therein, or will not exact theſe penalties nor inflict theſe pains without a new civill proceſs, Therefore they do renew the former Act at Perth in all the heads and clauſes thereof, And do further Statute and Ordain, that whatſoever perſon or perſons ſhall be nominate and choſen for theſe imployments after the manner contained in the ſaid Act, or by the Lords of ſecret Counſell upon recommendation of the Presbyterie or Seſſion if they ſhall refuſe to accept of the ſaid imployment, That Letters of horning upon the deſire of Presbyterie or Kirk Seſsion ſhall be given out againſt them for charging them to accept thereof: And it is alſo Ordained that theſe perſons that ſhall accept of the ſaid imployment ſhall upon the deſire of the Seſsion, fit with them, And upon the hearing of ſcandalous offenders convict before them by proof or confeſsion, or upon the ſight of the proceſſe of the Kirk Seſsion, ſubſcribed under the Miniſter and two Elders hands, when they themſelves cannot be preſent, that they ſhall without any new civill proceſs exact the penalties contained in the Acts of Parliament, and deliver them to the Kirk Seſsion, and inflict the corporall puniſhments, as is provided in the Acts of Parliament, And it is alſo Ordained, that any of theſe perſons who ſhall be proceſſed by the Seſsion or Presbyterie for their negligence in theſe duties, ſhall upon complaint made and verified againſt them by the Seſsion or Presbyterie, before the Lords of ſecret Counſell be fined or impriſoned by the ſaids Lords, not exceeding the quadruple of the penaltie; And that this Act ſhall be extended in the ſeverall heads and clauſes thereof, To Magiſtrates in Burgh as well as Landward; And becauſe it is needfull that the perſon or perſons who ſhall be choſen to theſe imployments have inferiour ſervants and officers for exacting the penalties and inflicting the Corporall puniſhments provided in the Acts of Parliament, Therefore it is Statute and Ordained, that the tenth part of ilk penalty ſhall be given at the ſight of the ſaids perſons, unto the ſaids inferiour ſervants & officers for recompence of their pains in every Landward Congregation.

ACT againſt going of Mylnes, Kills, Salt-pans, or Fiſhing on the Lords-day.

THE Eſtates of Parliament, conſidering that not- 79
withſtanding of former Acts of Parliament made againſt going of Mylnes and Salt-pans, and againſt Salmond-Fiſhing and other ſervile work on the Lords-day, yet the Sabbath is in many places of the Kingdom prophaned by doing of theſe works in the morning or evening of the Lords-day, do therefore Statute and Ordain, That whoſoever ſhall work in Corn, or walk Mylnes, dry in Kills, work in Salt-pans, or in fiſhing [or] be acceſſory thereto, or any other unneceſſary work betwixt midnight and midnight on the Lords-day, ſhall be liable to the penalty contained in the reſpective Acts of Parliament, made againſt Prophaners of the Sabbath.

WHICH perſons above condiſcended upon, and appointed to be Conveeners of the Committees of the ſeverall Shires for the firſt meeting are hereby ordained to advertiſe the foreſaids ſeverall Committees to keep the dayes of meeting reſpectivè after ſpecified, And for this effect, Ordains the Commiſſioners of the Shires, To advertiſe theſe who are appointed to be conveeners of the ſaids Committees in every Shire in due time, To keep the dayes and times of meeting reſpectivè underwritten, Viz. Theſe Committees upon this ſide of Forth betwixt and the firſt day of March next to come, And all theſe Committees benorth Dee, betwixt and the fifteenth day of March next to come, And thereafter once in the week, at the leaſt, at the head Burgh of the Shire, or any other convenient place they pleaſe; And the ſaids Committees are hereby authorized, after their firſt meetings to make choice of ſuch Conveeners amongſt themſelves from time to time, as they ſhall think fit: And the Eſtates of Parliament Declares, That none of the perſons, either Colonels or Commanders, or upon the Committees of War of the ſeverall Shires, who are guilty of the crimes of the firſt or ſecond Claſſes of the Act of Claſſe made at St. Andrews, and fall under the firſt or ſecond Claſſe of the ſame, ſhall be either Colonells or Commanders, or upon the Committees of War reſpectivè aforeſaid, notwithſtanding of the nomination and election abovewritten: And likewayes, that none of the perſons, either of Colonels or Commanders, or upon the Committees of War foreſaid, who are guilty of any of the crimes contained in any of the four Claſſes of the Act of this preſent Parliament, and fall under any of the ſame, ſhall be either Colonells or Commanders, or upon the Committees of War reſpectivè foreſaid, (excepting ſuch perſons contained in the exception of the third Claſſe of the Act, as the Parliament upon certain knowledge hath, or ſhall think good to diſpenſe with) And the Eſtates of Parliament, do hereby grant to the ſaids Colonels and Committees reſpectivè, the power contained in the former Acts of Poſture in the years 1643. 1647. And any other Acts of Poſture, where holden as herein expreſt, which Acts the Conveeners of each Committee of War aforeſaid, are to have and keep beſide them, for the better proſecuting and obeying the Orders therein ſet down, With power alſo to inflict and uplift penalties for abſence from the ſaids Committees, and for any deficiency of the duties expreſſed and injoyned in the ſaids Acts of Poſture, and diſobedience of the Orders to be given by themſelves reſpectivè, according to the nature of the offence and quality of the offender. And for avoiding the great charge and expenſes the Countrey might be put to by training the whole fenſible men, The Eſtates foreſaid, do Ordain the ſaids Colonels and Committees of War, to cauſe train and exerciſe the number of Foot expreſſed in the Act of convention of Eſtates, and the double of the number of Horſe, expreſſed in the foreſaid Act, Anno 1643. or in the option of the Shire at the rate of a thouſand pounds of Rent, according to the preſent valuation, And that each Company of Foot and Troop of Horſe ſhall meet and exerciſe within their ſeverall Paroches, at a certain place of Rendezvous one day in the week under the pain of two ſhillings Sterling for each Horſeman, and one ſhilling Sterling for each footman that ſhall be abſent therefrae; And that a whole Regiment ſhall meet once in the moneth, under the double of the penaltie foreſaid, in caſe of falzie, for each deficient Horſman and Footman reſpectivè, and the ſaid reſpective penalties to be paid by the ſeverall Heretors and others Subject in putting out of the ſaid Horſe and Foot, in caſe of the abſence of the ſaid horſe and Foot at the ſaid Rendezvous, Which Rendezvous with the ſeverall places of meeting of the trained and exerciſed men, the ſaids Committees of War, with advice of the Colonels, are to appoint with all conveniencie after ſpeciall Order in writ had from the Committee of Eſtates, or Generall, or Lieutenant General to the Committees of War in the Shires. And the ſaids Regiments and Companies ſhall either in whole or in part keep ſuch Rendezvous and exerciſe within their Shires as the Committee of Eſtates or Generall Officers ſhall appoint, to the end they may be ſeen to be in good Order, well Armed, and in readineſs to oppoſe all Forraign invaſion and inteſtine inſurrection, when neceſſity ſhall require: And to the effect there may be a competent number of Horſmen as well as of Foot, trained and exerciſed in each Shire; Therefore the Parliament give power to the ſaids Committees of War, with the adviſe of the Colonels of the ſeverall Shires, to appoint ſo many Troops or Regiments of Horſe, as they ſhall think fit in place of the Companies or Regiments of Foot, allowing one Horſman well Armed in place of three Footmen.

AND it is hereby ſpecially declared, that if any perſon of the Committees of the warre aforeſaid ſhall be deficient of their duty, and neglect to put in execution the order ſet down in this preſent Act, or any of the former Acts of Poſture; They are not to have the benefit of any deduction that ſhall be made of the maintenance, but they, becauſe of their failzie, to be liable in the whole: And the Eſtates of Parliament doe permit and allow the ſaid Committees of Warre, to appoint ſuch of the Colonels or Commanders above nominated for the Shires reſpectivè, To train and exerciſe the ſaids Regiments, Troops, and Companies, in the ſeverall ſhires as they ſhall think fit, And by the advice of the ſaids Colonels or Commanders, to divide the ſaid trained men in Troops, Regiments, and Companies, in ſuch ſort as may conduce moſt to the good of the ſaids Shires reſpectivè; And in caſe of any difference betwixt the ſaid Committees and Colonels, or Commanders, That the ſame be referred to the ſaid Committee of Eſtates, To doe therein as they ſhall think beſt. And it is hereby provided that the Burrows royall ſhall have the like liberty and priviledge which they had in any former Acts of Poſture according to uſe and wont, And to the end all things relating to the peace and quiet of the countrey, may be carried on in an orderly way, The Eſtates foreſaids doe ordain a conſtant correſpondence to be keeped among themſelves, and with the ſaids Committees of the Shires reſpectivè, and the ſtanding Forces of the kingdome, And that frequent advertiſement be given of their proceedings, And of the condition of the ſeverall Shires, to the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates, to whom they ſhall be anſwerable for the diſcharge of the truſt committed to them, by this Commiſſion, which is to endure till the ſame be recalled by the Parliament, or committee of Eſtates; And all other former commiſsions for this purpoſe, and nomination of Colonels and committees of the Shires, to be voyd and null in all time comming. And the Eſtates of Parliament gives hereby power to the committees of the Shires, that are ſpacious and large, to ſubdivide the Committees thereof, and to appoint the times and places of their meetings for the ſame, as the Committees of theſe Shires ſhall think fit, and as may conduce moſt for the furtherance of the publick ſervice and good of the ſaid Shires. And in caſe of difference anent the making the ſaid diviſions, the ſame to be determined by the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates, and theſe ſubdivided Committees are to act within their own diviſions, only the place being appointed. And the Eſtates of Parliament gives power, and authorizes the Committees of Warre within ilk Shire and diviſion, to fortifie one or more places within their bounds, as they ſhall think fit; the ſame being done with conſent of the party intereſt: or in caſe of difference upon the ſpeciall warrand of the Committee of Eſtates to that effect, and to appoint officers and ſouldiers for keeping thereof upon the expenſe of the ſaids Shires and Burrows therein. The ſaids Officers or Commanders thereof being alwayes ſuch as the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates ſhall approve of, and to continue ſo long as they find neceſſity; or that the ſame be diſcharged by Parliament or Committee of Eſtates. And ſicklike, Statutes and ordanes, that no ſervants, Cotters nor ſub-tennents to Burgh or Land, ſhall have power to remove from the Heretors, Liferenters, or Tennents, to whom they are ſervants, Cotters or Sub-tennents, without conſent of the Maſter of the ground untill Mertimas next, 1649. without diminition to them of their conditions or fees under the pain of an hundred pounds, to be paid by the Reſetter to the Heretor from whom they fled, and confiſcation to his uſe of the fugitives goods and geer, beſide the puniſhment of his perſon by the ſentence, and at the arbitriment of the Committee of the Shire, and ordains the Committees of Warre of the ſeverall Shires, to rectifie any inequality of the ſubdiviſions of the Shires, without diminition of the totall number of their men, appointed to be exerciſed within their Shires.

XVII FEBRUARII.

ACT for keeping the Judicatories and places of truſt free of corruption.

108 THE Eſtates of Parliament taking unto conſideration, that the Lord our God requires that ſuch as bear charge amongſt his people, ſhould be able men fearing God, hating covetouſneſſe, and dealing truly; and that many of the evils of ſin and puniſhment under which the Land groans, have come to paſſe, becauſe hitherto there hath not been ſufficiently provided and cared for, And being ſenſible of the great obligation that layes upon them by the Nationall Covenant, and by the ſolemn League and Covenant, and by many deliverances and mercies from God; and by the ſolemn Ingagement unto duties to advance Religion & righteouſnes in the land, and fill places of power and truſt with men of approved integrity, and of a blameleſſe and Chriſtian converſation, And being convinced in their conſciences that there cannot be a more effectuall way for bearing down of malignants, and ſuppreſſing of prophanity, and iniquity, and ungodlineſſe, and rendring all the Lawes already made, or hereafter to be made forcible and effectuall for the honour of God, the advancing of Religion and Righteouſneſſe, and the good of the Leidges: Then that all the Judicatories of the Kingdome conſiſt of, and places of power and publick truſt be filled with able and honeſt men, Do therefore ſtatute and ordain, that no perſon that is malignant and diſaffected to the preſent work of Reformation and Covenants, and againſt whom there is juſt cauſe of exception, or juſt ground of jealouſie, becauſe of their diſaffection; Nor any perſon given to drunkenneſſe, ſwearing, uncleaneſſe, or any other ſcandalous offence, ſhall hereafter be choſen to be a Judge, or any officer of Eſtate, or Magiſtrate, or Counſellor in Burghs, Clerks, or Deacons of Crafts, or any officer of any army belonging to this Kingdome, or imployed in any place of publick power and truſt within this Kingdome; and that all ſuch as ſhall be choſen to be Judges, Officers of Eſtate, Officers of the Army, Magiſtrates, Counſellors in Burghs, Clerks, Deacons of Crafts, or imployed in any place of power and truſt in this Kingdom, ſhall not onely be able men, but alſo ſhall be men of known affections unto, and of approved fidelity and integrity in the cauſe of God, and of a blameleſſe and Chriſtian converſation. And it is ſtatute and ordained, that if any malignant or ſcandalous perſon ſhall be choſen to be Judges, Officers, or imployed in any of the places aforeſaid, or other places of power and truſt, or if after they being called to be Judges, Officers; and imployed in places of power and truſt, They ſhall make defection to the malignancy as is aforeſaid, or give themſelves to ſcandalous offences one or more: That this their Malignancie and profanity, conjunctly, or either of them ſeverally being proved againſt them, ſhall be a ſufficient cauſe to the Parliament of this Kingdom, or any having power from them for that effect, to keep back, remove, or ſuſpend theſe perſons from the places of power and truſt to which they are called, or in which they are imployed, as their faults and crimes ſhall be found to deſerve: but prejudice alwayes to all other Judicatories and perſons having right by the Lawes of this Kingdom thereto, To purge and fill all offices and places of power and truſt within their reſpective powers according to the Tenor of this Act; Who are hereby required and ordained to doe the ſame, as they will anſwer thereupon to the Parliament, or any having power from them in that behalfe.

ACT anent Mynes and Minerals.

109 THE Eſtates of Parliament taking to their conſideration the great prejudice of the Leiges, in that Taks and Donations have been granted by the Kings Majeſty of the Mines and Minerals of the Kingdom, wherethrough the Leiges have been ſubject unto the ſaids Donators wills and malice, by having power to open their grounds, deſtroy their policy, woods, houſes, and orchards, to the diveſting of them of their property, whereby they are moſt unwilling to detect and diſcover the preſumptions of Minerals within their grounds; for remedy whereof, and for ſecuring the Leiges of their property, and increaſing of the wealth of the Kingdome, It is ſtatute and ordained that it ſhall not be leiſum to the Maſter of his Majeſties mettals, and minerals, or to any other by Infeftments, Rights, Securities, Warrand, Tak, or Commiſsion granted, or to be granted by his Majeſty or his royall Predeceſſours, to open and ſearch any of the Leiges grounds for minerals, untill the Heretor thereof be cited before the Lords of Counſell or Exchequer, To hear it found and declared that there are probable preſumptions of the ſaids minerals in his ground; ſuch being found, The ſaid Eſtates declares and ordains, that the ſaid Heretor himſelf be preferred, he finding Caution to uſe diligence within three yeers thereafter for ſearch-ing, winning, and working the ſaid minerals, and paying therefore the tenth part of all Ure and Mettals found therein, to his Majeſties Donator, or to the Maſter of his Majeſties Mettall, or Maſter Refiner thereof, according to their reſpective places; And if the Heritor failzie in working of the ſaids minerals of his own accord, or in craving preferrence, or finding Caution, or doing diligence within the ſpace foreſaid; That then and in that caſe the Maſter of his Majeſties mettals or the ſaids donators or perſons, having warrand as ſaid is, ſhall have power and warrand granted to them, to ſearch, win, and diſpoſe of the ſaid mettals and minerals, but withall, no wayes to deſtroy the ſaid Heretors policy, except upon neceſſity proven before the ſaid Lords of Counſell or Exchequer, and ſhall be obliged to pay to the ſaid Heretors the whole dammage and intereſt ſuſtained by them through the breaking and ſpoyling of their ground and policy foreſaid, in the ſearching, winning, and working of the ſaids minerals. It is alwayes provided, in caſe of the ſaids Heretors their uſing diligence as aforeſaid, That theſe preſents ſhall no wayes be prejudiciall to the Maſter of his Majeſties mettals, in ſo far as may concern his Majeſties tenth part thereof allanerly. And the Eſtates of Parliament do hereby retreat, reſcind, caſſe and annull all infeftments, rights, ſecuritie, Taks, Donations or other gifts whatſoever granted by his Majeſtie or his Predeceſſors, and all Acts of Parliament, Counſell, and others heretofore made or granted to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, which may any ways prejudge or derogate from this preſent Act, declaring the ſame to be void and null, and for the more effectual ſearching and winning of the ſaids Minerals, The Eſtates of Parliament do hereby Declare that it ſhall be leiſome to the ſaids Heretors to bring home to this Kingdom, Strangers one or moe skilled therein, and for their further encouragement, Do hereby ratifie and renew the whole Priviledges & Immunities, ſpecially from watching or warding, granted to them or their workmen in any Acts of Parliament, Counſell and others, made at any time heretofore thereanent, And the ſaids Eſtates do hereby Declare, that all Heretors eo ipſo that they have right to any Lands they have, In all time coming ſhall have right to all and whatſomever Minerall within the ſaid Lands without any neceſſity of taking ſpeciall and particular infeftments, paying and doing diligence as is aforeſaid.

ACT againſt the horrible crime of Blaſphemy.

110 THE Eſtates of Parliament, conveened in the ſecond Seſſion of this ſecond Triennall Parliament, conſidering that hitherto there hath been no Law in this Kingdom againſt the horrible crime of Blaſphemy, Therefore do Statute and Ordain, That whoſoever, hereafter not being diſtracted in his Wits, ſhall rail upon, or curſe God, or any of the perſons of the Bleſſed Trinitie, ſhall be proceſſed before the chief Juſtice, And being found guilty ſhall be puniſhed with death; Likeas it is found Statute and Ordained, That whoſoever hereafter ſhall deny GOD or any of the Perſons of the Bleſſed Trinity, and obſtinately continue therein, ſhall after the declaring of the ſaid obſtinacy by the Kirk, be proceſſed before the Chief Juſtice, and being found guilty, that they be puniſhed with death.

ACT of Levy.

128 THE Eſtates of Parliament having conſidered the dangerous poſture of affairs in this Kingdom, both in reſpect of Inteſtine and Forraign enemies; And being informed that many of theſe who have been moſt active in the late Engagement are upon deſigns and attempts to involve this Kingdom in new troubles, Withall having received ſeveral intelligences of imminent dangers to the Cauſe and this Kingdom from abroad, and being obliged in diſcharge of the truſt committed to them, to take care of the ſafety of the Kingdom: As they reſolve for themſelves to uſe all lawfull means and peaceable wayes to prevent the dangers, ſo they have thought fit to give warning thereof to the ſeverall Shires and Burghs, that according to the Law of God, Nature, and Nations, and according to the Duties which they by ſo many ſacred Bands owe to the Covenant and Cauſe, to the King & Kingdom, they might be in a condition and poſture for defending all theſe, and whatſomever is near and dear to them againſt all invaſion: Likeas for the ſtopping of the mouth of calumny, removing all ſcruples and miſtakes, and clearing to the conſciences of all, the Lawfulneſse neceſsity and Juſtice of their reſolutions and proceedings, And that they may have the greater aſſurance of Gods Bleſsing and preſence to all their endeavours, The Eſtates of Parliament Declare and aſſure that they enjoyne the following Leavy of Horſe and Foot for this end allanerly of meer juſt and neceſſary defence of this Kingdom from invaſion, without any deſign or intention of invading any who ſhall not firſt invade this Kingdom; The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament do therefore hereby Ordain the whole Shires and Burghs within this Kingdom, preſently to raiſe and put out the double of the number of Horſe, and the half of the number of Foot that were appointed and deſigned in the yeer 1643.

Viz. THE Sheriffdom of Edinburgh ſix hundred Foot, and two hundred Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Hadingtoun ſix hundred Foot and two hundred Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Berwick 600. Foot and 200. Horſe. The Sheriffdoms of Roxburgh and Selkirk 1000. Foot and 400. Horſe. The Sheriffdoms of Fyffe and Kinroſhire 1200. Foot and 440. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Linlithgow 250. Foot, and 120. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Peibles 200. Foot, and 80. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Dumbartan Foot, and 80. horſe. The Sheriffdom of Dumfreis 600. Foot, and 240. horſe. The Sheriffdom of Wigtoun, and Stewartry of Kirkcudbright 600. Foot and 240. Horſe. The Sheriffdoms of Air and Renfrew 1000. Foot and 480. horſe. The Sheriffdom of Lanerick 600. Foot and 360. Horſe. The Sheriffdoms of Stirling and Clackmannan 500. Foot and 240. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Pearth 1200. Foot and 480. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Forfar 750. Foot and 280. Horſe. The Sheriffdom of Kincardine and Earl Marſheils part of Aberdeen 600. Foot and 200. Horſe. The reſt of Aberdeen and Sheriffdom of Bamff 800. Foot and 480. Horſe. Out of the Sheriffdom of Elgine, Nairne and that part of Inuerneſs on this ſide Neſs 500. Foot and 240. Horſe. Out of the Earl Seaforth and Lord Lovats diviſion of Inuerneſs 500. Foot and 240. Horſe. Out of the reſt of Inuerneſs, Sutherland and Caithneſs 800. Foot, and 240. Horſe. Out of the Sheriffdom of Orknay 500. Foot; whilk ſheriffdoms aforeſaid are to put out the ſeverall proportions, and to have their Rendezvous at ſome convenient place within the reſpective Shires at the days following, viz. The Sheriffdoms of Edinburgh, Hadingtoun, Berwick, Roxburgh, Selkirk, Peibles, Drumfreis, Wigtoun and Stewartrie of Kirkcudbright, Fyffe and Kinroſhire, Air, Renfrew, Lanerk, Dumbartan, Stirling, Clackmannan and Linlithgow upon the day of March next: The Shires of Pearth, Forfar and Kincardine upon the day of the ſaid moneth of March: The Shires of Aberdeen, Bamff, Elgine, Nairne and Inuerneſs, on the day of the ſaid moneth of March, And the Shires of Sutherland, Caithnes and Orknay upon the day of April next, And they are Ordained to be in readineſs upon Orders from the Parliament, Committee of Eſtates and Generall Officers, to be ready to march with fifteen dayes proviſion; 6. d. per diem to each Footman, and 16. [d.] per diem to each horſman, which is to be delivered to them and not to their Officers, the ſaid day of Rendezvous, they getting Orders to march by the Heretors, Liferenters and others, liable in out-putting thereof; And the ſaids Eſtates Ordains the Committees of War of the ſaids Shires, to be Judges anent the ſufficiency of the ſaids Horſemen and Armes, And the Officers not to have power to reject or refuſe any of theſe whom the Committees of War foreſaid ſhall allow of; And becauſe in this Levie the proportion anent the out-putting of Foot, is equall both for Shires and Burghs; And the whole burthen of out-putting of the Horſe lyes on the ſaid Shires, to put forth the double of what they put forth in Anno 1643. And that the Burghs of the ſaids Shires in all equity ought to put out their proportion of the Horſe, now to be put out by the ſaids Shires; Therefore the Eſtates foreſaids, Ordains the Burghs of the ſaids Shires either to put out the proportion of the ſaid equall half in furniſhed Troopers horſe and men, or elſe in their option three Foot Souldiers furniſhed, conform to the Act for every Trooper, of their proportion of Horſe, for relief of the ſaids Shires pro tanto. And the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament Ordains the Officers and Committees of War foreſaids, not to take in charge or imploy any as Officers who have bein in the former Engagement, or are known Malignants, except upon Warrant from the Parliament or their Committee, and Commiſsion of the Church. And for the better regulating of the Horſe and Foot of ſuch as will not fall to put out one whole Horſe or Footman; It is Declared, that the greateſt Rent of theſe to be joyned for making up one horſe, ſhall provide the horſe, and the reſt that joyn to contribute according to an hundred and threeſcore pounds for ilk Horſeman, And who have the manyeſt men, to provide the Footmen, And the remanent that joyneth, to contribute with him according to fourty pounds for ilk Footman for their out-reik of Armes, and whole furniture belonging to them with their fifteen dayes proviſion, and where the Rent or number are equall to caſt lots: And the ſaids Eſtates Ordains the Committees of War of the ſaids Shires with adviſe of the Colonels, To do all things conform to the former Acts of Levie in preceding Parliaments as they ſhall finde neceſſary for the more ſpeedy and effectuall uplifting and out-reiking of the Horſe and Foot forſaid, And notwithſtanding ſome perſons may be hereby overburthened, in reſpect of the meanneſs of their Rents and multitude of Tenents living upon their Lands, yet the Eſtates Ordains the foreſaid number of men, provided as aforeſaid to be put out by them, And in caſe any of them finde themſelves hereby prejudged, and make their complaint known to the Committee of War of the ſaids Shires, In that caſe the ſaids Eſtates Ordains the Committees of War of the ſaids Shires to caſt up the Accompt what the price of the ſaids Armes, Levy money and proviſion foreſaid will amount to, and ſo to provide for their relief, That the burthen may be equally upon the whole Heritors and others aforeſaid, according to their Rent as in the Maintenance, And alſo the Parliament requires the Colonells and Committees of War, to put out the Forces abovementioned in their ſaid Localities, and under their ſeverall Officers Lifted and well Armed, and ready upon order to march, ſo for the preſent, they being unwilling to burthen the Countrey, untill by extream and unavoidable neceſſity they be conſtrained thereto, And conſidering what at leaſt is required on preſent ſecurity from incurſions or Inſurrections of Parties, Do Ordain the third Horſe and fourth Foot abovementioned, to be preſently Levied and raiſed by the ſaids Shires at the Rendezvous abovewritten, and to be put in Troops by the Colonells in their ſeverall Localities to march from the ſaids Shires inſtantly to ſuch Rendezvous as the Generall Officers ſhall appoint, And in reſpect of the preſent neceſſity of outputting the third horſe for the ſaids Shires as ſaid is: Therefore the ſaids Eſtates Declares that they with conſent of the Commiſsioners of the ſaid Shires and Commanders foreſaids of the ſaids Horſe who are here preſent, will nominate the Root-maſters of the ſaids Horſes, And the Eſtates Declares, that the nomination of the ſaids Root-maſters by Parliament ſhall no wayes be prejudiciall to the Committees of the ſaids Shires in time coming anent any power whatſomever granted to them for nomination of their own Root-maſters, conform to any preceding Acts of Leavie.

ACT anent the Poore.

THE Eſtates of Parliament now conveened, taking 129 to their conſideration the great number of indigent and diſtreſſed perſons in the ſeverall places of the Kingdome, and that they are expoſed to great miſery, through the want of a generall and orderly way of entertainment, to the ſhame and reproach of our Chriſtian profeſſion, which obliges us to the releiſe of our poore brethren, as being members of the ſame body.

THEREFORE, for remedy hereof, the Eſtates hath thought meet to ordain, that every Paroch and Presbytery ſhall be bound to entertaine their own native poor in manner following.

THAT there ſhall be twice in the year, at the firſt of December, and the firſt of June taken up in every Paroch in Burgh or Land, and Presbytery, A lift of the poore within the ſeverall bounds reſpective: At which time there ſhall be alſo a ſolemn intimation to the Paroch, and a deſignation and expreſſion by the contributors what they will give every moneth in money or victuall for a voluntary and charitable contribution in every Paroch, for the entertainment of theſe poore people, into the number whereof there ſhall be no perſon received, who are ſlothfull and able by the labour of their hands to win their own livings, at which time the Miniſter and Elder of the Pariſhes, or ſuch as they ſhall depute, and to whom they will give power for that effect, ſhall meet with the Presbyterie, to the effect they may compare the burden of the poore of every Paroch, and if the common good and weekly contribution, and that yearly benevolence, will not be ſufficient to entertain theſe poor people given up and lifted as ſaid is; Then in that caſe, the Eſtates of Parliament hereby give power to the Lords of ſecret Councell or Committe of Eſtates to grant Commiſſions to ſuch perſons as ſhall be recommended to them by each Presbytery [with] full power upon oath to impoſe a ſtent on the ſeverall Paroches according to their ability and wealth for making up a competent entertainment to the poor perſons aforeſaid with a tenth part more for the Officers and Serjeants, which ſtent after it is divided upon the Paroches or Presbytery by the Commiſſioners, having power from the Councell or Committee of Eſtates as ſaid is, the ſame ſhall be ſubdivided and ſtented on the Heretors and others by the Elders and Deacons of every Paroch reſpective, with as much equality as is poſſible, wherein they are to have ſpeciall regard to lay the greater proportion on theſe Maſters that deale rigorouſly with their Tennents, and thereby impoveriſh and put them to beggary, and to deale the more favourably with theſe Maſters who endeavour to maintain their Tennants, and deals charitably with them, and in diſtributing of the alms, ſpeciall regard is to be had to the pious, and diſtinction to be made betwixt ſuch, and the profane deboſhit or drunken ſort. And it is declared that Magiſtrates and Councel of Burghs have hereby power to ſtent within themſelves. And the Eſtates of Parliament ordains generall Letters of Horning and poinding to be direct gratis at the inſtance of the Collectors appointed by the Presbytery for that effect, againſt the diſobedient, and them that refuſes to make payment of their proportion, who are hereby ordained, in caſe of their refuſall, to make payment of the double within ſix dayes after they be required, and diſcharges any ſuſpenſion to be granted thereupon. And ſiclike ordains every inferiour Judge to give precept of poynding upon the ſaid ſtent Roll ſubſcribed, as ſaid is; and to goe themſelves, or ſend their Deputes or Officers, to poynd thereupon ſo ſoon as they be required thereunto, With certification if the ſaid Judges faill, they ſhall be lyable to pay the double of the ſaid ſtent; And ordains the Councel or Committee of Eſtates to give out Letters thereupon.

THE Eſtates of Parliament further ordains the Elders of every Paroch to take notice of theſe who being able to work or win their livings, give themſelves to a trade of begging, which perſons, the Elders are hereby warranted to apprehend and to put them upon imployments, whereby the country may be eaſed of an unprofitable burden, and lawful induſtry maintained through the Land; Hereby ordaining that none be ſuffered to beg from houſe to houſe under pain of impriſonment, and other puniſhments contained in the former Acts of Parliat. And becauſe the forning of vagabonds and ſturdy beggars, doth hinder the expreſſions of charity towards thoſe that are truly indigent, Therefore it is ordained that none ſupply or reſet theſe vagabands, ſturdy beggars whether men or women under the pain of five pounds toties quoties, to be paid by the contraveener towards maintenance of the poor, and each neighbour is hereby commanded to help one another, in caſe ſuch ſturdy beggars ſhould offer to enter into their houſes againſt their will, and the ſaid beggars being apprehended by the Heretors or others, being enquired where they dwell, or where they were born, The Heretors hereby are ordained to take them to the next adjacent Judge, or his Deputes, they being found in Landward by the Sheriff, to be convoyed to the next Sheriff, and being found in the town, to be convoyed from Burgh to Burgh, who are hereby ordained to receive them, and convey them from one Burgh or Shire to another, until they be brought to the place where they were born, which Pariſh ſhall be obliged to receive and entertain them as one of their own, with the reſt of the poor of the Paroch, and in caſe they be found able to work, the ſaid Paroch ſhall furniſh them employment, and keep them on work, ſo as they may be anſwerable for them, to the effect they may not be permitted to wander over the Kingdom, as before; And if any Sheriff or Magiſtrate of Burgh refuſe to receive them and take them off their hands who preſents them, The ſaid Sheriff or Magiſtrate ſhall be ſuſpended from his office by the Councell or Committee of Eſtates, and pay the ſumme of 40. l. and for the third fault ſhall loſe their offices and Priviledges during their life time, and when they come to the place of their alleadged nativity, if they cannot clear their birth there, that they be reckoned amongſt the ſupernumerary following.

LIKEAS the Eſtates gives hereby power to any of his Majeſties ſubjects to take and apprehend ſuch idle and ſturdy beggars, and to employ them or diſpoſe of them to others to be imployed in work for their meat and cloath allanerly. And for the better executing of this foreſaid Act at one time throughout all the Kingdom, they ordain the ſame to begin in all parts of the Kingdom upon the firſt day of Auguſt next to come, & from thence forward to be duely proſecuted, untill the ſame take due effect, With power to the Councel or Committee of Eſtates, in caſe any impediment interveen to appoint a new day to this purpoſe, as they ſhall think expedient. And if any that are aged, lame, blind, and weak, cannot condiſcend upon the Paroch where they were born, (as being the offſpring of ſuch beggars as never had a conſtant reſidence) theſe are to be kept amongſt the poor of that Presbytery where they are apprehended, untill a liſt of their names be ſent unto Councell or Committee of Eſtates, who are to have power to divide and proportion theſe ſupernumeraries, amongſt ſuch Presbyteries and Shires in the Kingdome, as have leaſt burden, and are moſt able to bear them.

LIKEAS the Parliament recommends to the Generall Aſſembly or their Commiſſioners to propone ſuch Overtures as may repreſſe the ſcandalous and Godleſs behaviour of theſe lewd Vagabonds, who hitherto hath been liable to no good order of Diſcipline, And to the effect this Act may be put in execution, It is Ordained and required that every Presbyterie make account of their diligence herein to the ſubſequent Synods and the Provinciall Synods to the Generall Aſſembly; And in caſe it ſhall happen through the Providence of God, that any through burning, Ship-wrack, devaſtation, or any ſuch like accident fall into diſtreſſe or poverty, It is Ordained, that theſe having a ſufficient Teſtimonial and recommendation from the Presbyterie to which they belong, they ſhall have the ſupply of a voluntary charity of theſe places next adjacent to them, or ſuch other places as the Counſell or Committee of Eſtates ſhall think fit.

Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament Declares the ſaid Perſons, and all ſuch as ſhall hereafter joyn with them to be rebels & guilty of the crime of high Treaſon, and to be proceeded againſt accordingly; And to the end that none may be enſnared in ſo deteſtable and horrid an enterpriſe; Do hereby diſcharge and prohibite all Perſons of whatſoever degree, ranke, or quality within this Kingdom from joyning with, or giving aſsiſtance to, or ſupplying with Armes, Money, Ammunition, Victuall, Counſell, Intelligence, or keeping correſpondence, private or publique meetings, or giving any other aid or countenance to the ſaid Rebels or any of them, under the pain of being eſteemed as Rebels, and to be proceeded againſt as Enemies to Religion, the Kings Majeſtie, and the good and peace of the Kingdom; And further the Eſtates of Parliament do hereby give Power and Warrant to all the good Subjects of this Kingdom to riſe in Arms for oppoſing, and for hindering and ſuppreſsing the ſaids Rebels, and impeding their ſo wicked and Rebellious practiſes, as they ſhall be required by the Generall, Lieutenant Generall Leſly, or any having power from them for that effect, Hereby giving power and Commiſsions to the General or Lieutenant General, to reclaim, remit and pardon ſuch who being out of ſimplicity deceived or enſnared in this pernitious enterpriſe, ſhall now quit, renounce and diſclaim the ſame, And give aſſurance for their good behaviour in time coming, they always accepting and embracing their pardon within ſuch a ſpace as the Lieutenant General ſhall think meet to grant, whereby ſuch as are not incorrigible may be reclaimed and reduced to due obedience, And the obſtinate may be left altogether without excuſe; And for the greater encouragement of theſe who ſhall ſuffer prejudice in oppoſing or ſuppreſsing the ſaids Rebells: The Eſtates of Parliament hereby declares, that the ſufferings and the loſſes of thoſe wel-affected, who behave themſelves forwardly and actively in this cauſe againſt the Rebels, ſhall be taken into ſpeciall conſideration, and repaired out of the means and eſtates of thoſe who ſhall remain obſtinate in the ſaid courſe of Rebellion, as their carriage and faithfulneſs ſhall deſerve: And Ordains theſe preſents to be Printed and Publiſhed at the Mercat Croſſe of Edinburgh, and other places needfull.

PAPER Given in by the ſcots Commiſsioners at London to the Parliament of England.

IN the yeare 1642. & afterwards in the yeare 1643. when the Popiſh, Prelaticall, & Malignant party, did grow prevalent in this Kingdome, the honoble Houſes of Parlt, did cõmunicate ſeverall Declaracõns & papers to the kingdome of ſcotland, thereby to informe their iudgem^{ts}. of the ſtate of the differences here, And to gaine their aſsiſtance, and invite their forces to come into this Kingdome. In w^{ch} Declaracõns & other papers, they affirme & declare, That the Army of the Houſes of Parlt was raiſed for maintenance of the true Religion, the Kings perſon, hono^{r}:, & estate; priviledges of Parlt; rights & libertyes of ſubiects; and for the prevencõn of the alteracõn of Religion. That their Enemyes deſigne was, to corrupt & alter Religion, throughout the whole Island; And that they begunne with Scotland, knowing well, that the ſame fate attended both Kingdomes. That they have onely inverted the manner of their proceeding, conceiveing it an eaſier way to deſtroy them, if they may firſt prevaile over the Parlt & Kingdome of England. That whenſoever Religion is ſubverted or changed in the one Kingdome, it will be eaſily accompliſhed in the other, Religion being the band & foundacõn of the happineſse of both, That what corruptions take roote in England, will quikely spread their venome, & infection, to their Neighbour Church of Scotland. They declare the true state of the quarrell to be Religion, In reformation whereof they are ſoe forward & zealous, as there is nothing expreſsed in Scotlands former or later Declaracõn wch they have not ſeriouſly endeavoured to effect They earneſtly intreat the Generall Assembly to further & expedite the aſsiſtance deſired by both Houſes from the Kingdome of Scotland, upon this ground and motive; That thereby they ſhall doe great ſervice to God, and great honor: may redound to themſelves, in becomeing the Inſtruments of a glorious reformacõn not onely throughout this Island, but from thence poſsibly to be spread to other Churches, oppreſsed under the Anti Chriſtian bondage & tirranny of pe popiſh & prelaticall faction. They cõmend the piety & faithfulneſse of the Generall Assembly of the Church of Scotland, in propounding thoſe things wch may conduce to a more close & firme union of the two Churches & Nations of England and Scotland, in preſerveing & mainteyning the trueth & purity of the Reformed Religion, Not onely againſt Popery, but all Superſtitious Sects and inovators whatſoever; And declare that the Houſes of Parlt have ever made the reformacõn of Church government and Diſcipline, their cheifeſt ayme, though they have beene frequently interrupted & powerfully oppoſed in the proſecucõn & accompliſhmt: of it, And however they continue still in the storme & conflict; yet they take the peace, liberty and preſervacõn wch God hath affoorded Scotland, as a pledge of the like mercy intended to them, in his good tyme; hopeing, that God will perfect their deſignes & endeavors. of a full reformacõn in all things pertayning to Religion: And profeſse their earneſt deſires for unity of Religion in all ſubſtantiall parts of Doctrine, worſhip & Diſcipline, that both Kingdomes might be more ſtrictly united; And enioy the advantages of his Mã. more eaſy, ſafe, & comfortable Governmt:, the people a more free communion in all holy exerciſes, & duetyes of worſhip; and that there might be a more conſtant ſecurity of Religion, agt. the bloudy practiſes of Papists, & deceitfull errors. of Sectaryes. They Remonſtrate, that it is farre from their purpoſe or deſire, to let looſe the golden reines of Diſcipline and governmt: in the Church, to leave private perſons or particular Congregacõns, to take up what forme of Divine ſervice they pleaſe; but doe hold it requisite, that there ſhould be throughout the whole Realme, a conformity to that order which the law enioynes, according to the word of God. They proteſt in the preſence of the All seeing Deity, that the ſervices wch they have beene desirous to performe to their ſoveraigne Lord and King, and to this Church & State, in provideing for the publique peace & proſperity of his Matie: and all his Realmes, to have beene and ſtill to be the only end of all their Councells and endeavours; wherein, they have reſolved to continue freed and enlarged from all private aymes, perſonall respects, or paſsions whatsoever. They oft mention their proteſtation, taken by every member of both Houſes, promiſeing in the presence of Allmighty God to defend his Matie:, And diſclame the haveing any purpoſe to offer the least violence to his person, wch hath and ever shall be deare unto them. They declare, that they expect the helpe and aſsistance of Scotland, in defence of the Cauſe, which if the popish party prevaile, muſt needs either involve them in that alteration of Religion, which will be made here, or ingage them in a Warre againſt this Kingdome to defend their owne Religion and liberty. And they profeſse before the Everliveing God, the safety of Religion, lawes & libertyes in this and all other his Maties: Dominions to be the cheife end of all their Councells & reſoluõns, w'out any intention or deſire, to hurt or iniure his Matie: either in his perſon or in his iuſt power; That they reſt aſsured, both God and Man will abhorre & abominate that monſtruous & iniurious charge layd upon the repreſentative body of this Kingdome, of deſigneing the ruine not onely of his Mã. perſon, but of Monarchy itſelfe; And appeale to all the world, whether worſe words than theſe can be given them. These Declaracõns & ſolemne Engagemts:, were Communicated to the Kingdome of Scotland, before they did ioyne in the warre wth the Houſes of Parlt. And alſoe both Kingdomes entred into a Solemne league & Covenant; for reformcõn & defence of Religion, for uniformity in one Confeſsion of faith, forme of Churchgovernm; Directory for worſhip & Catechiseing, ffor extirpacõn of Popery, Prelacy, Superſticõn, hæresy, Schisme, profanenes, and whatſoever ſhall be found contrary to ſound doctrine, & the power of Godlineſse, ffor preſervacõn of the rights and priviledges of parliamt:, & libertyes of the Subiect; ffor the honour & happineſse of the King and his poſterity, and the peace & ſafety of theſe Kindomes.

IN the yeare 1646; after the power and strength of the enemy was broken, the houſe of Cõmons did upon the 17th. of Aprill, publiſh a Declaracõn (wch they likewiſe cauſed ſet up & affixe in every Pariſh Church) wherein they vindicate themſelves from ſeverall miſconſtructions & miſrepreſentacõns of their proceedings: As that they ſhould have any intention or deſire, to make uſe of the great ſucceſse God had given them, contrary to their former profeſsions; or to exceed or swerve from their firſt aymes & principles, in the undertakeing this warre; And to recede from the ſolemne League & Covenant, and treatyes betwixt the Kingdomes; or to prolong theſe uncomfortable troubles & bleeding diſtractions, in order to alter the foundamentall Conſtitucõn & frame of this Kingdome, and to leave all governmt; in the Church loose & unsetled; and themſelves to exerciſe the same arbitrary power over the perſons & Estates of the Subiects, wch the preſent Parlt had thought fit to aboliſh, by takeing away the Starre Chamber, high Cōmiſsion and other arbitrary Courts, and the exorbitant power of the Councell Table. And further they declare, That their true & reall intentions are, and their endeavors: shall be, to ſettle Religion in the purity thereof, according to the Covenant; And to mainteyne the ancient & foundamentall Conſtitucōn & Governmt: of this Kingdome by King, Lords & Cōmons.

IN Novembr 1647. when a peticōn was preſented to the Houſe of Cōmons, ſtileing them, The Supreame authority of the Nation, together wth a printed paper annexed, entituled, An Agreemt: of the people for a firme & preſent peace, upon grounds of cōmon right (wch agreemt: as Wee have found upon peruſeall of both, is the ſame for ſubſtance wth the agreement lately publiſhed) the houſe of Cōmons did declare, that the matters conteyned in theſe papers, were deſtructive to the being of Parlts, and to the foundamentall Governmt: of the Kingdome; And appointed a letter to be written to the Genth: to examine the proceeding of that buſineſse in the Army, and returne an account thereof to the houſe. And when another Peticōn directed to the ſupreame authority of England the Cōmons in Parlt aſsembled, was preſented the 23. of the ſame moneth, They voted that peticōn, a ſeditious and contemptuous avowing & proſecucōn of the former Peticōn & paper annexed, ſtyled, An Agreemt: of the people, formerly adiudged to be deſtructive to the being of Parlts & foundamentall Governmt: of the Kingdome; And another letter was appointed to be ſent to the Generall, to take notice of his proceedings in the execucōn of a mutinous perſon (who was an abettor. of that agreement) at the Rendezvous neere Ware, And to give him thankes for it, and deſire him to proſecute the examinacōn of that buſineſse to the bottome, And to bring ſuch guilty perſons as he ſhall thinke fit, to condigne & examplary puniſhmt. All wch Declaracōns, Proteſtacōns, Oathes, Covenants & ſolemne engagemts: notwthſtanding; Wee finde to our great greife, wonder & aſtoniſhment, That contrary to the diſsent & proteſtacōn of the Kingdome of Scotland, his Matie: is removed out of this life, by a violent death That orders are publiſhed in print, entituled Acts of Parliamt; prohibiteing the proclameing of the Prince of Wales, King of theſe Kingdomes. That the Cōmons, wch now ſit at Weſtmr: (after many Members of the houſe have beene impriſoned, ſecluded by force or neceſsitated to wthdraw, becauſe they cannot act as a free Parliament) have voted away the Kingly office, and the Houſe of Lords, and clame the Authority of a Parliamt: and under colour thereof the power of repealing all oathes of alleadgence or obedience whatsoever even wthout exception of the Solemne League & Covenant, from which the Conſcience cannot be absolved by all the powers on earth: Wee ſee likewiſe strong endeavors uſed & reſolutions taken, to maintaine a licentious liberty and ungodly toleration in matters of Religion (as appeareth by a paper lately published, comonly called An Agreement of the people) againſt which, upon the 26th: of January laſt Wee did preſent a Teſtimony of the Comrs of the Generall Aſsembly of the Church of Scotland, approved of by þe Estates of parliamt of that Kingdome.

IF the honoble: houſes of Parliamt: of England who made the Declarations & ingagemts aforesaid, had beene permitted to ſit & Act with freedome, Wee know there would have beene no ſuch proceedings as Wee have already ſeene, nor cauſe to feare such dangerous evills & strang alterations, as are now carryed on by will & power. Wee may confidently ſay, they would have beene more mindfull of their many Declarations & the Solemne League & Covenant, And more ready to hearken to the advice of their Bretheren of Scotland; And however no regard hath beene had by thoſe who now rule, to what wee have formerly ſaid. And so wee have small hopes that any great notice shall be taken of what wee ſhall further say, Yet in purſuance of the Instrucōns wee have received from the Parliamt: of Scotland, Wee hold it our duty to desire, That there may be no toleration of Idolatry, Popery, Prelacy, Hæreſy, Schisme, or prophanenes That there be no change of the fundamentall constitution & Governmt: of this Kingdome by King, Lords & Cōmons That there may be nothing done, wch may wrong King Charles the Second in his Succeſsion as righteous heire of the Crowne of theſe Kingdomes, But that by the free Councells of both houses of Parliamt: reformation of, and uniformity in Religion may be setled, according to þe Covenant And particularly, that Presbyteriall Governmt: the Confeſsion of ffaith, Directory for worship, and Catechisme may be eſtablished That the juſt right & title of King Charles the Second to the Crowne of theſe Kingdomes may be acknowledged And upon juſt satisfaction given to both Kingdomes he may be received & admitted to the exercise of his Governmt And if notwthſtanding all our earneſt defires & endeavors: to the contrary, the Cōmons now ſitting at Weſtmr: shall proceed otherwiſe in all, or any the particulars aforeſayd Wee doe hereby in the name of the Parliamt: & Kingdome of Scotland, diſsent from the ſame And solemnely protest That they may be free before God & man of all the guiltines, evills, confusions, misereyes & calamityes that may follow thereupon, to theſe diſtracted Kingdomes

Act of his Majeſties Parliament, in March 1647. And all other Rights of Superiorities of Kirk-lands, and others foreſaids acquired, and pertaining to the Burrows Royall, or to their Colledges, Schooles and Hoſpitals preceding the day and date hereof, and what they ſhall acquire hereafter, excepting alſo from this preſent Act, In the like manner and form as is excepted, for the Burrows in the foreſaid Act, 1647. The Rights of the lands of Larg and Kincarden, and ſeventeen Akers of land lying about the Burgh of Culros with the Few-fermes thereof, and ſuperiorities therein ſpecified, pertaining to Mr. Alexander Colvil Profeſſor of Divinity in the new Colledge of St. Andrews conform to the Infeftments and Rights made to him and his Predeceſſours thereof, excepting likewiſe the Signator granted to the Earl of Eglingtoun, and the Lord Montgomerie of the Abbacie of Kilwining, with the Declaration, and Conform to the Tenour of the ſaid 33. Act of his Majeſties Parliament upon the 24. of March, 1647. Excepting likewiſe from this preſent Act, the Infeftment and Right of the Few-duties of the Abbacie of Aberbrothock granted to Patrick Earl of Panmure, in reſpect he hath not right to the Few-duties of the ſaid Lordſhip by vertue of his Majeſtie of worthy memory his Decreet Arbitrall and reſervation contained in the ſame, as likeways in the Act of Parliament 1633. But his right to the

ſaids Few-duties were acquired by him at a very dear rate from Will. Murray his Majeſties ſervant who had right from ~~the Duke of Hamiltoun~~ his Matie as Lord of the erectioun. Likeas the ſaid William Murray his Infeftment and the Charters and Infeftments upon his reſignation granted to the ſaid Patrick Earl of Panmure are not onely ratified, but alſo the Few-duties are diſſolved from his Majeſties Crown, and from all annexation thereof, conform to an Act of the date the 27. of July 1644. And the ſaid Patrick Earl of Panmure cannot be Ordained to diſpone his right to the Vaſſals of the ſaid Lordſhip, for any ſum as being liable to accept the like ſum from his Majeſtie for Redemption thereof, becauſe he hath not right to the foreſaids Few-duties by the reſervation foreſaid, neither is he liable by his right to receive any ſums of money from his Majeſtie for redemption thereof, And the ſaids Vaſſals cannot crave to be in a better caſe nor his Majeſtie, for the whilk cauſe the exception foreſaid is granted as ſaid is: And by thir preſents annuls, that clauſe whereby the Eſtates did then remit all by-gone rights and Infeftments, Warrants, Commiſsions, and others therein mentioned of the Superiorities of Kirk-lands already paſt ſince the year 1633, To the deciſion of the Lords of Seſsion, And farther, the Eſtates of Parliament Decerns and Ordains the ſaids Lords of Erection, and others in whoſe hands the ſaids Few-mails and Few-duties remains, untill they be redeemed by his Majeſtie, to accept the ſame ſums from the Vaſſals themſelves, whilk they are liable and bound to accept from his Majeſtie for Redemption thereof, And to diſpone all right and title they have to the ſaid Few-ferms, Few-mails, and caſualities and Few-duties of the ſaids Superiorities, And denud themſelves of the ſame within fourty dayes after they ſhall be required thereto; And in caſe of refuſall by the ſaids Lords and Titulars of Kirk-lands the ſums of money whereupon the ſaids Few-mails, and Few-duties are redeemable, ſhall be offered and conſigned in the Dean of Guilds hands in Edinburgh, upon the perill of the conſigner for redemption thereof, whereby the ſaids proprietars may be in the ſame caſe, anent the right and poſſeſsion of the ſaids Few-fermes and Few-duties, as the ſaids Lords and Titulars of Kirklands now are, reſerving alwayes the right to his Majeſtie to redeem the ſame upon the ſaids ſums, conform to the Act of Parliament: And it is hereby declared, that the Vaſſals ſhall have the benefit of this Act, they paying yearly to his Majeſtie one fift part more of his Few-dutie nor his preſent Few-dutie is, And alſo after retention of the ſame Few-dutie by the ſpace of fifteen years (the Vaſſall in the mean time making payment to his Majeſtie of the fifth part foreſaid) That the Few-dutie foreſaid ſhall be declared to be lawfully redeemed thereby by his Majeſtie, without payment of any ſums of money; And his Majeſtie in all time thereafter, to have the full right to the Few-dutie foreſaid, and fifth part abovewritten. It is likeways declared that the Vaſſals of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Priors and Prioreſſes, Preceptories and other benefices of whatſomever eſtate or degree, title or deſignation they be of, and are not erected in Temporall Lordſhips, whoſe Few-duties have been given and diſponed by his Majeſtie by gift or other right to any perſons by whatſomever manner of right ſhall have the ſame benefit of redeeming their foreſaids Few-duties from the ſaid Perſons having right thereto by payment to them or conſigning as aforeſaid in caſe of their refuſall the like years purchaſe as is above-ſpecified, whilk ſhall be always redeemable again from, and expire to them in favours of his Majeſtie in the ſame manner as is above expreſt: And it is hereby Ordained that the Heritors, who gets the benefit of buying of his Few-dutie from the Lords of Erection, or others having right thereto, ſhall relieve him of the Blenſh-dutie payed by him to the King, And of the contribution payable to the Colledge of Juſtice and that proportionally, And Declares and Ordains the Lords of Counſell and Seſsion or his Majeſties Commiſsioners of Theſaurie and Lords of Exchequer at the option of the purſuers, to be Judges Competent to all citations and actions to be intended at the inſtance of any of the ſaids Vaſſals, after the offer and conſignation above-mentioned; againſt the ſaids Lords and others Titulars, for denuding them of the ſaids Few-mails and Few-duties, And for ſecuring of the ſaids Vaſſalls thereintill, And in the mean time Ordains the ſaids Lords of Erection and Titulars of Kirk-lands to accept the ſame or like prices for the ſaids Few-fermes and Few-mails from the ſaids Vaſſalls, as are or ſhall be Ordained and modified by the ſaids Commiſsioners of Exchequer, to be payed for his Majeſties other Rents of the like kinde, And becauſe the benefit of this preſent Act will be of no effect to ſuch Vaſſalls as have ſmall and mean proportions of Lands, in reſpect they are not able to bear the expenſe of paſſing their Infeftments through the ſeals, For remede whereof the ſaids Eſtates Statute and Ordain, That the Infeftments of all Tenents and proportions of the ſaid Kirk-lands, not exceeding the yearly Rent of three hundred Merks, ſhall paſſe and be expede by the Exchequer and great ſeal per ſaltum without any neceſsity of the other ſeals, And Ordains the precept of ſeizing to be contained in the Infeftment, And Declares the ſame ſo paſſed to be as valid as if they had paſt the ſame through the hail Seals; And the Eſtates declares that he in whoſe hands the ſaid infeftments is paſt, ſhall be only lyable in payment of the ſum of four pounds for parchment to write the ſame on, and wax for the ſeal, and four merks for writing the ſame Infeftment, whilk ſum of ten merks is likewayes declared to be ſufficient for the price of the Brieve, Retour, and precept granted in favours of any of the ſaids Vaſſalls at the time of their entring

Heirs to their predeceſſors, And their ſhall be onely one Brief, Retour, and precept of Heirs Portioners, whilk is to be given out and expede for the like ſum allanerly; And the ſaids Eſtates Ordaines the compoſitions of the Infeftments foreſaids of the ſaids mean Vaſſals, to be paſt gratis by the Lords of Exchequer, and to be written out and paſt the great Seal within ſix dayes after the giving in thereof, to the director of the Chancellary and if the ſame be not expede by writing thereof, and appending the Seal to the ſame within the ſpace foreſaid, that the writer to, or appendar of the great Seale, in whoſe default the failzie is, ſhall content and pay an yeers rent of the lands contained in the Infeftment, craved to be expede, the one half thereof to be payed to the party in whoſe favours the infeftment is granted, and the other halfe to the Exchequer for his Majeſties uſe. And ſicklike the ſaid Eſtates Decernes and Ordaines that all Vaſſalls of the ſaids Kirk-lands, whoſe Tenements being Houſe, Yards, Ruids, or Akers of Land, not exceeding twelve Akers, the ſame being within Regality, or Burgh of Barronie, or of Regality; ſhall have liberty to expede their Infeftments by the Baylies of the ſaid Regalities and Burghs reſpectivè, who ſhall be obliged to make compt and payment in the Exchequer for the Few-duties and Caſualities belonging to his Majeſty forth of the ſaids Tenements, and ſhall receive the ſaids Vaſſals gratis.

IX MARTII.

ACT aboliſhing the Patronages of Kirks.

THE Eſtates of Parliament being ſenſible of the 171 great obligation that layes upon them by the Nationall Covenant, and by the Solemn League and Covenant, and by many deliverances and mercies from God, And by the late ſolemn engagement unto duties, To preſerve the Doctrine, and maintain and vindicate the Liberties of the Kirk of Scotland, and to advance the Work of Reformation therein, to the utmoſt of their power; And conſidering that Patronages, and Preſentations of Kirks, is an evill and bondage, under which the Lords people and Miniſters of this land have long groaned, and that it hath no warrant in Gods word, but is founded onely on the Canon law, and is a cuſtome meerly Popiſh, and brought into the Kirk in time of ignorance and ſuperſtition, And that the ſame is contrary to the ſecond book of Diſcipline, in which upon ſolid and good ground, it is reckoned among abuſes that are defired to be reformed, and unto ſeverall Acts of Generall Aſſemblies, And that it is prejudiciall to the liberty of the people, and planting of Kirks, and unto the free calling and entrie of Miniſters unto their charge. And the ſaids Eſtates being willing and deſirous to promove and advance the Reformation foreſaid, That everie thing in the houſe of God may be ordered according to his Word and Commandement, Doe therefore from the ſenſe of the former obligations, and upon the former grounds aud reaſons diſcharge for ever hereafter, All Patronages and Preſentations of Kirks, whither belonging to the King or to any Laick Patrone, Presbytries or others within this Kingdome, as being unlawfull and unwarrantable by Gods Word, and contrary to the Doctrine and Liberties of this Kirk; And doe repeal, reſcind, make voyd, and annull all gifts and rights granted thereanent, And all former Acts made in Parliament, or in any inferiour Judicatory in favours of any Patrone or Patrones whatſoever, So farre as the ſame doth or may relate unto the Preſentation of Kirks, And doth ſtatute and ordain that no perſon or perſons whatſomever ſhall at any time hereafter take upon them under pretext of any Title, Infeftment, Act of Parliament, Poſſeſſion, or Warrant whatſoever, which are hereby repealed, to give Subſcrive, or Seal any Preſentation to any Kirk within this Kingdom: And Diſcharges the paſſing of any infeftments hereafter bearing a right to Patronages to be granted in favours of theſe for whom the Infeftments are preſented; And that no perſon or perſons ſhall either in the behalfe of themſelves or others, procure, receive, or make uſe of any Preſentation to any Kirk within this Kingdome: And it is farther Declared and Ordained that if any Preſentation ſhall hereafter be given, procured, or received, that the ſame is null and of no effect, and that it is lawfull for Presbytries to reject the ſame, and to refuſe to admit any to trialls thereupon, and notwithſtanding thereof to proceed to the planting of the Kirk upon the ſute and calling, or with the conſent of the congregation, on whom none is to be obtruded againſt their will. And it is Decerned, ſtatute, and Ordained, That whoſoever hereafter ſhall upon the ſuit and calling of the congregation, after due examination of their literature and converſation, be admitted by the Presbytry unto the exerciſe and function of the miniſtry in any Paroch within this Kingdom, That the ſaid perſon or perſons without a Preſentation, by vertue of their admiſſion, hath ſufficient Right and Title to poſſeſſe and enjoy the Manſe and gleib, and the whole rents, profits and ſtipends, which the Miniſters of that Burgh had formerly poſſeſt and enjoyed, or that hereafter ſhall be modified by the commiſſion for plantation of Kirks; And decerns all Titulars, and Taksmen of Tythes, Heretors, Life-renters, or others ſubject and lyable in payment of Miniſters ſtipends, to make payment of the ſame, Notwithſtanding the Miniſter his want of a Preſentation: And Ordains the Lords of Seſſion and other Judges competent to give out Decreets, & Sentences, Letters conform, Horning Inhibition, & all others Executorials upon the ſaid admiſſion of Miniſters by Presbytries, as they were formerly in uſe to doe upon Collation and Inſtitution following, upon Preſentations from Patrons. Declaring alwayes that where Miniſters are already admitted upon Preſentation, and have obtained Decreets conform thereupon, That the ſaids Decreets and Executorials following thereupon, ſhall be good and valide Rights to the Miniſters for ſuiting and obtaining payment of their ſtipend, And the Preſentation and Decreet conform, obtained before the date hereof, ſhall be a valid ground and right for that effect; Notwithſtanding the annulling of Preſentations by vertue of this preſent Act, And becauſe it is needfull that the juſt and proper intereſt of Congregations and Presbytries in providing of Kirks with Miniſters be clearly determined by the Generall Aſſembly, and what is to be accompted the Congregation having that intereſt; Therefore it is hereby ſeriouſly recommended unto the next Generall Aſſembly, clearly to determine the ſame, and to condiſcend upon a certain ſtanding way for being a ſetled rule therein, for all time comming. And it is hereby provided, declared, and ordained, that the taking away of Patronages and Preſentations off Kirks, ſhall import nor inforce no hurt nor prejudice unto the title and right that any Patrone hath unto the tythes of the Paroch, nor weaken his Infeftment wherein the ſame is contained, But that the ſaid Title, Right, and Infeftment, ſhall in every reſpect (ſo farre as doth concern the Tythes,) be als valid and ſtrong as when Preſentations were in uſe. It is further ſtatute and ordained, that the Tythes of theſe Kirks whereof the Preſentations are hereby aboliſhed, ſhal belong heretably unto the ſaids Patrons, and be ſecured unto them, and inſerted in their Rights and Infeftments in place of the Patronage. Likeas the Eſtates of Parliament declare the ſaid Patrons their Right thereunto to be good and valid, Hereby granting full power to them to poſſeſſe, ſell, annalgie and diſpone the ſame in manner after ſpecified, as fully and freely as the Miniſter and Patrone might have done before the making of theſe preſents, Excepting alwayes therefrom theſe tythes which the Heretors have had and poſſeſt by vertue of Taks ſet to them by the Miniſters, without any deed or conſent of the Patrones, concerning which it is provided, That the ſaid Tythes at the iſſue and outrunning of the preſent Taks, ſhall belong unto the Heretors reſpectivè, These ſaid Heretors and the Patrons above mentioned, each of them for their intereſt, being alwayes lyable to the payment of the preſent ſtipends to the Miniſters, and to ſuch augmentation and proviſion of new ſtipends to one or more Miniſters, & ſuch as the Parliament or Commiſſion for plantation of Kirks ſhall think fit and appoint, Excepting alſo ſuch Tythes as are and have been poſſeſt, and uplifted by the Miniſter as their proper ſtipends; concerning which, it is hereby declared, that the Miniſter ſhall enjoy the ſame without any Impediment as formerly, it being hereby provided alſo, That this Act ſhall prejudge no perſon of the Right, Title, and Poſſeſſion of their Tythes by Infeftments, Taks, and other lawfull rights acquired by them, and their Predeceſſors and Authors, as Accords of the Law. Likeas the Eſtates of Parliament renew the former Acts granted in favours of Heretors, for valuing, leading, and buying of their Tythes; Hereby ordaining any Patrone, having right to theſe tythes made to them by this Act, and having no right thereunto of before, To accept the value of ſix yeers rents, according to the prices of valued bolls reſpectivè, injoyned and ſet down in the former Acts thereanent, and that for the Heretable right of the ſaids Tythes, and for all title intereſt or claim that the ſaids Patrons can have or pretend thereunto by vertue of this Act.

ACT anent Quarterings.

172 THE Eſtates of Parliament, taking to their conſideration the former great burdens of the Kingdom, in quartering of horſe and foot, whereby the Lieges by abuſe of theſe who were quartered upon them, were made liable both to the quarterings and payment of the monethly Maintenance impoſed upon them: For eſchewing the like thereof in tyme coming, They Statute and Ordain that all the Quarterings of this Kingdom by-gone ſince the firſt of November 1648, And in time coming, during the continuance of this preſent Maintenance, the ſame being Lawfully proven either by Billets or by Witneſſes according to the Act made anent probation of Quarterings before the Committee of War of ilk Shire, or any two of them, who are hereby fully authoriſed for that effect, whilk being cloſed and made, ſhall be a charge upon ilk one of the Regiments, Troops or Companies pro tanto, And a ſufficient Warrant to the party to receive payment or allowance, conform to the eſtabliſhment after the fitting of the ſaid compt and no otherwayes; And it is hereby expreſſie declared, that the ſeverall Heretors and others liable and obliged in payment of monethly Maintenance, Having their quarterings lawfully inſtructed as ſaid is, as well for themſelves as their Tenents, They producing their Tenents aſſignation of their Quarterings to them, Shall have retention and allowance of all the Quarterings reſting, owing, unpaid ſince the ſaid firſt day of November laſt, And in time coming during the continuance of this preſent Maintenance: And alſo it is Statute and Ordained that for the relief of theſe who may be overburdened and exhauſted by quarterings, that theſe perſons and Paroches ſhall have their relief of their quarterings, which exceeds their Maintenance, And that to be payed by the ſeverall Heretors and others of that Shire pro tanto, in ſo far as their Maintenance doth extend to; And in caſe any Shire ſhall be exhauſted and overburdened with quarterings above their Maintenance, In that caſe they ſhall have payment and relief from the General Commiſſar out of their Maintenance, And it is farther Statute and Ordained that what ever Officers of the Army within this Kingdom ſhall not give Billets or Notes for their Quarterings, it being proven that they Quartered in ſuch and ſuch places, and did not leave Billets or Notes for their Quartering, conform to the juſt number quartered by the Officers and Souldiers: And in that caſe, no pay ſhould be given to the ſaids Officers and Souldiers, untill the Notes and Billets be given to the Perſons, Paroches and Shires upon whom they were quartered: It is likewayes Ordained the firſt Tueſday of every moneth, ſhall be appointed at the ordinary place of meeting for making of the Quartering compts within ilk ſhire, and leading the probation as ſaid is: And alſo it is Ordained that the Collector of ilk Shire, Be Ordained either by himſelf or ſome in his name, to be preſent at the ſaids times and places reſpectivè foreſaid.

ACT in favours of the Laird of Lawers. 176

[REPORT of the Cōmittee appointed for the Laird of Lawers ſupplication

THEY find the Bill inſtructed, by production of the actes and papers mentioned þ‹in, w‹by it appeares evidently that there is due to Lawers for the Tuo part of his arreares for his ſervice in the Kingdome of Scotland the ſūme of fourſcore eighteine thowſand pounds ſcotts. Item for his loſſe ſuſtained through burning ꝛt waiſting fourſcore ſexteene thowſand, eight hundreth, fyftie fyve pound eight ſhillings, which loſſes are ſeene ꝛt approven by the Cōmittee of Parl‹t / in āno 1646. Item for his ſervice in Ireland Seventeine thowſand fyve hundreth pound ſterling; And in reſpect that the whole former arreares, ꝛt ſūmes of moneyes wer contracted by him, ꝛt are oweing to him for his faithfull ſervice to the Kingdome and in the cauſe, And w‹in his eſtate (unleſſe he be ſpeedelie ſupplied) is altogether ruined, And that he ſealed this affection, ꝛt fidelitie to the caus by the loſſe of his lyfe. And in reguard that the great ſūmes oweing to him for the ſervice of Ireland, And the ſūme aſſigned to him for his loſſes to be payed by the Parl‹t / of Engl. are ineffectuall ꝛt deſperat. It is the humble opinion of the Committee That the Eſtates of Parl‹t / ought in Conſcience, and Juſtice to make payment to him of the aforeſd ſūme of fourſcore eighteene thowſand pound ſcottiſh due to him as his arreares for his ſervice in this Kingdome, w‹of they think payment ſhould be made p̄ntly of the ſūme of fourtie thowſand Merkes Conforme to the precept given of before by the Parl‹t / āno 1647. and renued againe āno 1648. And in reguard of his urgent neceſſitie, ꝛt long lying out of the ſūme aforeſaid, The opinion of the Cōmittee is that Twentie thowſand Merkes farder be payed to him p̄ntly out of the firſt end of his foreſd arreares due for his ſervice in this Kingdome extending to the ſūme of fourſcore eighteene thowſand pound And for the remainder of the ſaid ſūme, extending to fyftie eight thowſand pound, It is the opinion of the Cōmittee that the publict ſurety of the Kingdome be given to him, and the ārent þof payed dureing the forebeareance of the priñll ſūme without which he cannot ſubſiſt

AND for rendering ſpeedy payment of the foreſd ſūme of fourtie thowſand pounds more effectuall, It is the Judgement of the Cōmittee that precepts be drawne, & aſſignements be made to him of any bygone maintenance, taxt, loane, fynes and Contravenſions reſting oweing preceeding October 1648. Or any other publict dues oweing to the publict. And in reſpect there be dyverſe perſones who have not lent any money to the publict in the tyme of the Troubles, & diſtreſſes of this Kingdome, who may doe it better then many who have lent, And that lykewayes dyverſe of them who have not lent, have beene for the late engagement, And that it is more agreable to equity & Juſtice, that they lend as others have done, rather then that ſuch as have beene faithfull, conſtant, & Active for the Caus ſhould be totallie ruined for not payment of what is oweing to them by the publict for their ſervice, & loſſes in the caus The Cōmittee doth þfore offer as a further expedient, that ſuch perſones (according to a particular liſt to be given in) be ordained to lend not exceeding the halff of a yeares rent, upon the publict faith, And that they have the lyke bond for their ſecurity as hath beene given to others from whome money was borrowed And that out of the firſt, & readieſt of the ſaid moneyes to be borrowed, payment be made to the Laird of Lawers of the aforeſaid ſūme, And that this way of borrowing be no further extended then onely to the ſūme of After wch the ſame is declaired to ceaſe and be diſcharged. And the Cōmittee doth further offer as an expedient that a Tack be ſett pñtly to begine after the expyreing of Sr William Dicks tack of the excyſe of wynes for the ſpace of Three or fyve yeares, And that out of what ean be hade from the Tackiſmen by way of advance or for the Tack duty, payment be made to him of the ſūme of fourtie thowſ. and pounds out of the firſt end þof, And the ſuperplus to be imployed as the Parlt ſ ſhall think fitt

[LETTER from the Parliament to William Lenthall Esquire

FOR the honorable William Lenthall Eſquire, Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

SIR,

HAVING ſeen a Paper of the 24. of February laſt, given in to you by our Commiſſioners, with a Printed Paper thereupon of the 26. of February, Intituled, A Declaration of the Parliament of Eng-land, declaring the aforeſaid Paper given in by our Commiſsioners, to contain reproachfull matter againſt the Proceedings of the Parliament of Eng-land; and aſſuming power over the Lawes and Government of that Nation, with a deſigne to raiſe ſedition, and lay the grounds of a new War in that Land; And further, ordering a Meſſage to be ſent to us, to know whether we will owne the ſaid Paper preſented in our names; And that our Com-miſſioners (being by command from us, upon their return from that Kingdom) are reſtrained, and a Guard ſet upon them; We could not be ſo far wanting in that dutie we owe to this Kingdom, and the care, and regard which in juſtice and honour we ought to have of the ſafetie and freedom of thoſe imployed in ſo publick a truſt, As not to take ſpeciall notice of their condition and hard uſage; And have therefore reſolved and thought fit to ſignifie to you, That We do owne that Paper given in by our Commiſsioners, as agreeable to the In-ſtructions which they had from us, wherein we, and they in our name, could not but give Teſti-mony againſt thoſe things which we conceived to be contrary to the grounds and bonds ſo often de-clared and acknowledged by both Kingdoms, leſt our ſilence be eſteemed a complyance, or we thought any wayes acceſſorie to thoſe great Alterations, and the dangerous conſequences may enſue thereupon. And as our Proteſtations in the former Seſsion of Parliament againſt the late unlawfull Engagement, our Act of this Parliament diſclaiming and repeal-ing the ſame, and every thing done in purſuance thereof; and our whole proceedings before, and ſince, are ſufficient and reall evidences of our ſincere deſires, and conſtant reſolutions to continue the Union and Peace betwixt the Kingdoms, accord-ing to the Covenant and Treaties; ſo is it very far from our Intentions, to aſſume any power over the Lawes and Government of that Kingdom, or any wayes to raiſe ſedition, or lay the grounds of a new War, or do any thing in purſuance of the late un-lawfull Engagement, which can no wayes be in-ferred from the ſaid Paper, containing only our adherence to our former Principles, acknowledged by both Kingdoms. And it being given in to you, to be communicated in the ordinary way.

WE are ſo tender of the Union betwixt the Na-tions, that we think the Remonſtrating of the breaches of Peace, the craving of juſt reparation, and uſing of all amiable and fair means, ſhould be firſt eſſayed, before any Engagement in a War, which even then cannot be done by either King-dom, without a breach of the Large Treatie, unleſſe it be upon three Moneths warning preceding; upon which, amongſt other grounds and reaſons, We did proteſt and declare againſt the late Engagement, And do confidently expect the like from England; according to the Papers given in by their Com-miſſioners, to the preceding Seſſion of Parliament. And however any prevalent party in either King-dom hath infringed, or may break theſe bonds, yet we do not conceive it either agreeable to Gods will, or conduceable to the welfare of theſe Nations, to lay thoſe ſacred tyes aſide as diſſolved and cancelled, but rather that they ſhould be preſerved for the good of both Kingdoms, and benefit of thoſe who have no acceſſion to ſuch breaches, and of ſucceed-ing Generations who are innocent thereof, and may ſuſtain manifold Inconveniences by the diſſolution of the ſame.

HAVING thus cleared our Intentions and reſolu-tions, We hope none can juſtly blame this Nation to continue and remain conſtant in their former judgement and principles, which the Honourable Houſes of the Parliament of England, profeſſed alſo to be theirs, when they induced this Kingdom to enter into ſo Solemn a League and Covenant with them; far leſſe can it be any ground at all for re-reſtraining our Commiſſioners, contrary to the Pub-lick Faith and Law of Nations, by which the freedom of Ambaſſadours and Commiſſioners is ſacred and inviolable, not onely betwixt Chriſtian, but even amongſt Heathen Kingdoms & States. And therfore we deſire that our Commiſſioners may be free from all reſtraint, that they may, without any ſtop or moleſtation, return in what way they think moſt fit to give us accompt of their Proceedings; In confidence wherof we remain

Your affectionate Friends

[INSTRUCTIONS from the Parliament to the Earle of Lothian, Sir John Chiefly, and William Glendoning.

Edinburgh, 6. March, 1649.

1. YOU ſhall ſhew, That it is the conſtant reſolution of the Parliament of this Kingdom, inviolably to preſerve the Peace and Union between the two Kingdomes, according to our Solemn League and Covenant and Treaties, which hath been often acknowledged to be of ſo great uſe and advantage to both.

2. AND hearing that our raiſing of Forces in this Kingdom is interpreted, as if thereby we intended to Invade England; you ſhall therefore ſhew, that our preſent leavying of Forces is neceſſitate for ſuppreſſing of Malignants, who are in Armes and rebellion, and have ſurprized the Garriſon of Inuernes, to prevent further Inſurrections, and to preſerve the Peace of this Kingdom, and nowayes for Invaſion of England.

3. YOU ſhall ſhew, That by the Large Treatie, the remonſtrating of the breach of Peace, the craving of juſt reparation, and uſing of all fair means ſhould be firſt eſſayed, before any Engagement of theſe Kingdomes in a War, which even then cannot be done by either Kingdom, but upon a preceding warning of three Moneths; which rule as we intend to obſerve on our part, ſo being informed of a deſigne in England, to ſend an Army to Invade this Kingdom, we deſire you to enquire, whether theſe who have the preſent power and command of the Forces in England think themſelves obliged, and do intend to obſerve the foreſaid rule upon their part to us; for enforcing hereof, you may remonſtrate, that the Commiſſioners from that Kingdom, in their Papers given in the laſt Seſsion of Parliament, did urge this duty from the Treatie; and upon the ſame ground amongſt others, we did proteſt againſt the late Engagement, and have repealed all Acts made for promoving thereof.

4. YOU ſhall manage theſe Inſtructions as upon the place you ſhall thing fit, to the beſt advantage, and, as ſoon as you can, return to us an accompt of your diligence.

And ordains the Clerk to be appointed by the Clerk Regiſter for this Commiſsion, ſhall have the truſt and keeping of the reſpondie books, and of all the Accompts, Inſtructions and Warrants thereof, which concern the publick. And the Eſtates Ordains the Clerk to have a Regiſter containing the whole accompts, both of Intromiſsion, and how the ſame is given out, and where matters of difficulty or importance ſhall occurre, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament Ordains the Committee of Eſtates to give their advice to the foreſaid Committee hereby appointed, as they ſhall neceſſarily deſire the ſame. It is hereby declared, that whatſoever perſon to whom the publick is owing any moneys, ſhall give in to the ſaid Committee a Liſt of perſons able to lend monies, or are or ſhall be fyned, and not excepted by the Act of this preſent Parliament, That in that caſe, the one halfe of the ſaids ſummes be given to the parties in part of payment of their ſummes, and the other half is to be given to the generall Commiſſar, and applyed to the uſe of the publick, To the whilk Committee likewayes or Quorum thereof foreſaid, The ſaids Eſtates gives Power to iſſue forth Commiſſions for trying of waſted and burnt lands and other loſſes by Sea or Land, and to receive in reports of the ſame. Siclike the ſaids Eſtates doe hereby nominate and appoint the perſons above named, to be Commiſsioners for the Exciſe, And grants Power and Warrant to them or their Quorum foreſaid, or ſick of their number, as they ſhall ſubſtitute and appoint to govern the Office of Exciſe, Ferm the ſame; And appoint Collectors, Surveyers, and other under Officers, and ſet down ſuch Acts and Ordinances, as ſhall be neceſſary and requiſite for that effect, Conform to the Act of Parliament concerning the Commiſsion, and Ratification anent the foreſaid Exciſe, and according to the Act of Parliament anent the late addition to the Exciſe, and to proſecute the Wayes and Acts already ſet down anent the ſaid Exciſe, as they ſhall think fit: And for the incouragement of the ſaid Committee, and inabling them to attend and proſecute the ſaid Commiſsion, The Eſtates Ordains them to have the allowance granted formerly to the Commiſsioners of Exciſe, according to their ſederunts, and two of the hundred of the monies which they ſhall diſcover and bring in of publick dues and reſts, preceding October laſt; And for the better clearing of the Generall Commiſſars charge, It is likewiſe Ordained, That all diſcharges to be granted, and accompts to be fitted at any time hereafter by the Generall Commiſſar, to any Sub-Collectors, or other Intromettors whatſomever, with any publick dues, or who are appointed to pay to him any monies for whatſomever cauſe for the publick uſe, ſhall be by them brought in to the ſaid Committee within one moneth after the ſubſcriving thereof; to the effect, that the names of the perſons to whom the ſame are granted, the ſummes therein contained, with the cauſe for which, and date thereof may be recorded by their Clerk, who ſhall be holden to doe the ſame gratis, And if the ſame be not recorded, or inſtruments taken upon the refuſall thereof within the ſpace foreſaid, the ſame are hereby declared to be Null, and to make no faith in all time thereafter. ACT anent the Creditors of forefaulted perſons.

THE Eſtates of Parliament taking to their Conſi- 220
deration the ninth Act of the ſecond Seſſion of the third Parliament of Umquhyll King Charles of worthy memory dated the 20. of February, 1645. Intituled Anent the ſelling of the Lands of forefalted perſons, and eſpecially that clauſe thereof ordaining all perſons whatſomever, to whom any perſon already forefaulted before the date of the ſaid Act, or who ſhould happen to be forefaulted in that Seſsion of Parliament, was addebted juſtly and really in any ſummes of money, or any other wayes, either as principall debtors, or as cautioners for any other perſons, and als that all perſons who were cautioners for any perſons then already forefaulted, or who ſhould happen to be forefaulted in that Seſſion of Parliament, to their lawfull creditors, Should exhibit before the Committee of Eſtates their lawfull ſecurities whereby the ſaids perſons already forefaulted, or who ſhould happen to be forefaulted in that Seſſion of Parliament, were their juſt and reall debtors, either as principall debtors to them, or as debtors to them, as cautioners for other perſons, or whereby they were cautioners for the ſaids forefaulted perſons, or to have been forefaulted in that Seſsion of Parliament, and whilk cautioner they were obliged in law to releive, and the production of the foreſaids ſecurities be made by the creditors and cautioners, ſo many of them as were without the country within three months, and theſe that were within the country, within threeſcore dayes after publication of the ſaid Act at the head Burghs of the ſeverall Sheriffdomes within the Kingdome. And the ſaids Eſtates finding that doubts and queſtions hath riſen, and may ariſe among the Leiges upon the doubtſom conception and words of the ſaid clauſe, as if the meaning of the Eſtates of Parliament in the ſaid Act had been, that the creditors or cautioners foreſaids, who were without the Kingdome, had not been obliged to the production foreſaid, unleſſe the ſaid Act had been publiſhed at the head Burghs of the ſeverall Sheriffdoms within the Kingdom; Therefore for removing of all occaſions of doubts or ſcruples to the Lieges, The Eſtates of Parliament Declares, That the true meaning of the foreſaid Clauſe anent the Publication of the foreſaid Act at the head Burghs of the ſeverall Shires of the Kingdom was onely in relation to the foreſaids Creditors and Cautioners being within the Kingdom dwelling within the ſaids ſeverall Shires reſpectivè and that the ſame had no relation to the Creditors or Cautioners foreſaids being without the Kingdom, and that the certification of the ſaid Act did and doth militate againſt ſuch of them as did not produce their Bands and Securities within three moneths after the Publication of the ſaid Act with the remanent Acts of the ſaid Parliament at the Mercat Croſſe of Edinburgh: And that the ſaids Creditors or Cautioners without the Kingdom could not, nor cannot pretend the not Publication of the ſaid Act at the ſaids ſeverall Croſſes of the head Burghs of the ſeverall Shires to free them from the certification of the ſaid Act, in reſpect of the not production of their ſecurities before the Committee of Eſtates within three months after the Publication of the ſaid Act; Reſerving always, Likeas the Eſtates of Parliament reſerves power to themſelves or to their Committee of Eſtates, to diſpenſe with the ſaid certification in favours of any of the Creditors or Cautioners for any of the foreſaids forefaulted Perſons, The Eſtates of the whilk forefaulted Perſons are yet in the publicks hands undiſpoſed upon, and to grant a new day if they or their Committee ſhall think expedient, to the ſaids Creditors and Cautioners, yet to produce their ſecurities foreſaids, providing that this reſervation be not extended to the Creditors nor Cautioners of the forefaulted perſons whoſe eſtates and livings are diſponed by the Publick to whatſomever perſon or perſons before the date hereof.

ACT anent Miniſters Stipends, Gleibs and Manſes.

221 THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſſion of the ſecond Triennall Parliament, By vertue of an Act of the Committee of Eſtates, who had Power and Authority from the laſt Parliament for conveening of the Parliament, Taking to their conſideration, That ſeverall Miniſters of the Goſpel are diſcouraged and diſtracted from their calling, ſome for want of competent Maintenance, ſome for want of legall ſecurity, And others for want of timous and thankfull payment of their ſtipends; And that within theſe few years by-gone, the value of money or rather the prices of every thing have been ſo exceedingly altered and heightned, that Stipends formerly provided for Miniſters do altogether prove ineffectuall for their Maintenance; For remedy whereof, the ſaid Eſtates having taken in conſideration the overtures preſented unto them by the Committee of Overtures, Do therefore Ordain all Parochines where victuall can conveniently be had, to pay to their ſeverall Miniſters out of the Teinds of the Paroches eight chalders victuall at leaſt of the meaſure mentioned in the Act of Parliament in Anno 1617 years; And where victuall cannot conveniently be had, That the ſaid Paroches pay to their Miniſters three chalders victuall, and money for the other five chalders victuall, which compleats the eight chalders victuals, the ſame not exceeding an hundred pound, nor being beneath an hundred Merks for each chalder of the ſaid five, to be ſo modified by the Commiſsioners appointed for Plantation of Kirks, And where Viccarage is paid to Miniſters, the ſame is to be allowed to them proportionably in part of their ſtipend of the quality and quantity aboveſpecified reſpectively, Ordaining alſo that all Miniſters Stipends which do not yet extend to the proportions in quantity and quality reſpectivè above expreſſed, ſhall be augmented to the ſaid eight chalders victuall where it can be had, or otherways to three chalders victuall, and the remanent in money in manner abovementioned, and that notwithſtanding of any former Augmentation; And in caſe Miniſters get not thankfull and timous payment of their ſtipends, at the day and times of payment appointed or to be appointed, or within fifteen days thereafter, That Heritors or Titulars one or more, or others appointed to pay the ſame, ſhall make payment to them of a fifth part more nor their ſtipends, without defalcation or modification by the Lords of Seſsion or any other Judges whatſomever, And that by and attour the expenſe of pley to be decerned by the Judges competent; And the Commiſsioners for Plantation of Kirks are hereby authorized and appointed to follow this preſent Rule ſet down in this Act in ſuch Paroches where the foreſaid Stipends can conveniently be had, And to judge and determine betwixt the Heritors who hath bought their Teynds or hath ſtanding Taks thereof; And the titulars or others having right to the Teynds which of them ſhall be lyable in payment of the foreſaid augmentation, and what proportion thereof ſhall be payed by every one of them, Declaring hereby to the effect Miniſters may have the more effectuall payment of their Stipends, and ready execution for the ſame, That it ſhall be lawfull to Miniſters in caſe of not thankfull payment of their ſtipends in manner aforeſaid, to poynd, appriſe and diſtrengie the readieſt moveable goods and geir upon the ground of any of the Lands belonging to the perſons deficient in payment of their Stipends, according to the portions addebted by them, which poynding and appriſing being done upon the ground of the Lands, and by honeſt ſworn men reſiding within the bounds of the Presbyterie ſhall be as ſufficient as if the ſame were done at the Mercat Croſſe of the head Burgh of the Shire where the Lands lies: And it is further Declared, that Miniſters Stipends, and the proviſions and Rents of Univerſities reſting owing for three years allanerly, ſhall affect the ground right of the lands of the perſons addebted in payment thereof, againſt Compriſers, or other ſingular ſucceſſors whatſoever. And becauſe not-withſtanding former Acts of Parliament for providing Miniſters Manſes and Gleibes, yet divers Miniſters are not provided therewith, and others do not get their Manſes free at their entry; Therefore the ſaid Eſtates Statute and Ordain, That where competent Manſes are not already built, that the Heretours of the Paroch at the ſight of three Miniſters and three ruling-Elders to be appointed by the Presbyterie, build competent Manſes to their Miniſters, the coſt and expences thereof not exceeding one thouſand pounds, and not being beneath five hundreth Merks; And where competent Manſes are already built, the Heretors of the Paroch are hereby Ordained to relieve the preſent Miniſter and his Executors, & the intrant of all coſt, charges and expenſes for building and repairing of the Manſes, Declaring hereby, that the Manſes being once built and repaired, or the building and repairing thereof ſatisfied and payed by the Heritours in manner aforeſaid, that neither the Heritors nor the entrant ſhall be thereafter troubled for the ſame, but the ſaid Manſes ſhall be upholden in time of vacance of the Kirk by the Heritors and by the incumbent Miniſters during their poſſeſſion; And it is hereby appointed that Burghs, and the Heritors of the Landward parts of the Paroch provide alſo competent dwelling places and houſes for their Miniſters, the ſum not being above nor beneath the ſums above expreſſed: And in like manner it is Statute and Ordained that every Miniſter have a horſe and two kyes graſſe, and that by and attour his Gleib; And where Gleibs are far diſtant from the Manſes ſo that they cannot conveniently be laboured in reſpect of their diſtance from the Manſes, theſe Gleibs ſhall be changed, and new Gleibs deſigned more commodious and neerer to the Manſe, as good in quantity and quality as the former, the ſame being deſigned within a quarter of a mile at furtheſt from the Manſe, excepting always and exceeming villages and incorporate Akers lying neerer the Manſe then the old Gleibs which are not lyable to any deſignation of a Gleib or any part thereof; And the Eſtates give hereby power to the Commiſsion for Plantation of Kirks, to make and appoint the new Gleibs as good in quantity and quality as the former, and as is provided by Law, and to rectifie the ſame if they be not ſo, and to conſider and determine the relief of the burden of the Gleibs, horſe and kyes graſſe, deſigned to be gotten of the remanent Parochiners, the perſons liable thereunto every ones proportion thereof, and the way and manner of the payment of the ſame: And further, where leſſer Paroches lie neer to over great and large Paroches, It is declared, that ſome parts of the large Paroch may be taken and adjoyned to the ſmaller Paroch, that thereby both the charges may be made more proportionable, And the ſtipend of the Miniſter in the leſſer charge may be made competent and ſufficient, which is hereby recommended and preſented to the Commiſſion for plantation of kirks, authoriſing them with power for that effect, And the Eſtates Ordains Letters to be direct.

ACT anent Sope-works.

232 THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſſion of this ſecond Triennall Parliament, Taking to their conſideration the great benefit this Kingdome had by making Sope within the country, and the prejudice whilk the decay of Sope-works hath occaſioned to the Kingdom, And it being incumbent to the Parliament to encourage all ſuch as are vertuouſly diſpoſed to maintain and advance all ſuch publick Works and Manufactories, as may tend to the good of the Common-wealth, Therefore the ſaids Eſtates declares all the Oyles, Aſhes, Veſſels, Tooles, and other ſimples and materials of whatſomever ſort, which the undertakers & maintainers of any Sope-works within this Kingdom, ſhall import by Sea or Land for the neceſſary & true uſe of the ſaid Sope-works, and for the maintaining thereof; Are and ſhall be exempted and free from payment of any Cuſtome, Exciſe, or other impoſition in all time comming. ACT anent the dayes of compriſings, and ſervices of Aires, when the ſame ſhall happen to fall upon dayes of publick humiliation or thanksgiving.

61 THE Eſtates of Parliament Taking to conſideration the prejudice that many of the Leidges has ſuſtained and now ſuſtaines By denuncing of lands to be appriſed at their inſtance, and publiſhing of Briefs reſpective for ſerving of them Aires to certain peremtorie days & places for deducing of their compryſings, and ſerving of the ſaids Briefes, which days has ſundry times fallen out, and may hereafter fall out To be days ſet apart at that time and place, for publick Humiliation or Thankſgiving, wch ought not to be interrupted but ſolemnly obſerved, whereby the parties having intereſt wil be fruſtrate of their former diligence, and put to new paynes and charges; THE SAIDS ESTATES of Parliament for remedie hereof, Statutes and Ordaines, and hereby finds and declares, That when any of the dayes to the which denunciations be uſed for compriſing, or Briefes proclaimed for ſerving of Aires, falls out to be either upon a day appointed for publick Humiliation, Faſting and Praying or publick Thankſgiving, at that place where their compriſings or ſervices are to be, That it ſhall be ſufficient and lawfull to the parties intereſſed, And to the Judges inqueſt and other members of court To uſe the ſaids appriſings & ſervice of the Brieves reſpective foreſaids upon the morrow thereafter, not being the Lords day, which if it be; upon the day following the ſame; which the Eſtates declares to be als valid as if the ſame had been done upon the peremptorie day, to the which the lands were denunced to be appriſed, or the Brieves proclaimed to be ſerved.

ACT anent execution of poynding to follow upon Sheriffs and other inferior Judges their decreets.

62 THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently Conveened in this third Seſsion of this ſecond Triennal Parliament, Taking to their conſideration that albeit by Act of Parliament of the day of yeers, Letters of Horning are Ordained to be direct by deliverance of the Lords of Seſſion upon Sheriffs, Commiſſars and other inferior judicatories their decreets upon the ſimple charge therein mentioned; Yet the Act bears no warrand for Letters of poynding to be granted by the delyverance foreſaid upon theſe decreets, whereby the parties intereſt obtainers of the decreets, are oft-times prejudged of their payment, when theſe parties againſt whom theſe decreets are obtained doe flit or remove out of the Shyre or jurisdiction of the judge before whom the ſaids decreets are given; Therefore the ſaids Eſtates Ratifies the Act of Parliament, abovementioned In the whole heads & points thereof, And for remedie of the prejudice foreſaid, Ordaines Letters of poynding to be direct, by deliverance of the Lords of Seſſion at the inſtance of the parties intereſt upon the ſaids Sheriffs, Commiſſars and other inferior Judges their decreets contained in the foreſaid Act; Sielike and in the ſame manner as Letters of Horning are appoynted by the ſaid Act to paſſe upon the ſame decreets, That thereby the parties may have reall execution as well as perſonall upon their decreets foreſaids.

[REPORT made to the Estates of Parliament of the Kingdom of Scotland By their Commiſsioners after their return from the Kings Majeſty out of Holland.

WE have from time to time as occaſion offered, given your Lordſhips and the Committee of Eſtates, a particular accompt of our diligence, and of the progreſſe of theſe affairs, which it pleaſed your Lordſhips to intruſt us with, which had been done more frequently, if the paſſage had not been ſo difficult, & uncertain, that we could not get our papers conveyed to your Lordſhips with that ſpeed which we deſired. And although our former papers doe bear much of the Report, yet that the Parliament may have at once a recent and intire review of the whole buſineſſe together, we ſhall ſhortly reſume the ſubſtance of what hath been at ſeverall times communicated, and the papers which have not as yet been tranſmitted to your Lordſhips hands, will make known the reſt.

ACCORDING to our additionall inſtructions of the fifteenth of March, finding that James Grahame was about the King, We did by a paper of the twenty ſeventh of March, deſire that he might be removed from his Majeſties perſon and Court, as one who had been deſervedly forefaulted by the Parliament, and excommunicate by the Church of this Kingdome; which when we had preſt once and again, his Majeſty returned this Anſwer, that he was reſolved to conſider the whole that we had to propoſe, before he declared his reſolution upon any part.

ALTHOUGH we were ſorry to receive this Anſwer, yet being loath upon this ground to break off, (laying that deſire aſide for the time) we did proceed, and in three Propoſitions offered to his Majeſty the ſubſtance of theſe things which we were warranted by your Lordſhips to demand; the firſt whereof was, that his Majeſty would by his Oath under his Hand and Seal allow the Covenant, and the Solemn League and Covenant, and oblige himſelfe to proſecute the enemies thereof in his Royall Station. Secondly, that he would ratifie all Acts of Parliament enjoyning the Solemn League and Covenant, and for ſetling Preſbyteriall Government, Directory of Worſhip, Confeſsion of Faith, and Catechiſme, as they are already approven by the Generall Aſſembly and Parliament of Scotland, and would aſſent to Acts of Parliament, enjoyning the ſame in England, and obſerve the ſame in his own practice and family, and never make oppoſition thereto. Thirdly, that his Majeſty would agree that matters Civill ſhould be determined by this preſent and ſubſequent Parliaments of this Kingdome, and matters Eccleſiaſticall by the Generall Aſsemblies of this Church, as his Royall Father did formerly grant. Theſe Propoſitions were preſt with the beſt reaſons we could, both from the juſtice and neceſsity of the matter, and from the advantage that would ariſe to his Majeſties affairs upon ſatisfaction given thereunto, which for brevity we forbear to repeat.

IN ſtead of an Anſwer, his Majeſty returned a paper, containing theſe three Queries, firſt whether the papers already preſented, did contain all that we had to propoſe. Secondly, whither we had any power to recede from any thing therein, or were bound to inſiſt thereupon in terms as they ſtood. Thirdly, whither we had any Propoſitions to make toward the advancement of his Service, for his reſtitution to his other Kingdomes, and bringing of the murtherers of his Father to Juſtice.

AND conſidering that theſe Queries were moved of purpoſe to obſtruct all agreement, and to cauſe and increaſe jealouſies and differences betwixt his Majeſty and us, we offered by conference to ſhew that theſe Queries were materially anſwered in our paper of the twentieth of April, and therefore intreated his Majeſty not to inſiſt in theſe or the like, for the moving of them tended greatly to the prejudice of his own affaires at this time. But his Majeſty finding that conference could not be ſo well tranſmitted to his counſell, he inſiſted in the ſame, ſo that we were neceſsitated to make it appear by Writ, that they had been anſwered in that our former paper, as to the firſt we anſwered, that we were not to propoſe any further, unleſſe we were commanded by the Parliament or their Committee; To the ſecond, our deſires propoſed were ſo juſt and neceſſary, for ſecuring of Religion, and the peace of this Kingdom, that we could not in reaſon recede from the matter contained in them (which being retained) we were not to ſtand with his Majeſty upon words or termes. And to the third we replyed, that the granting of theſe deſires, would make his Majeſties good people, doe all for him that could be expected of faithfull and loyall Subjects to their Gracious King; and particularly, would make them contribute their utmoſt indeavours, that his Majeſty might be reſtored to the poſſeſsion of his juſt right of government of his other dominions.

AND when as yet his Majeſty ſeemed not ſatisfied, and did eſpecially recent, that in theſe Anſwers nothing was expreſt of our ſenſe of the murther of his Father, nor was any thing offered to bring the Actors thereof to Juſtice: We did by another paper cleer our former Anſwers, and did much regrat, that our ſenſe of that horrid fact againſt the life of our late Soveraign, ſhould be called in queſtion; ſince the Parliament by their Commiſsioners at London, had declared to the world, how much they did abominate and deteſt the very deſign thereof: all which, with unanimous conſent was allowed, and approven in Parliament.

AND finding that his Majeſty did all this while [defer] to give a direct or poſitive Anſwer to the Propoſitions, we did by another Paper of eleventh of May, with all the freedome and faithfulneſſe we could, preſſe his Anſwer, and did repreſent to him the great danger and diſadvantage, which would inevitably enſue upon his delaying, or refuſing, to give the ſatisfaction deſired by this Kingdome.

WHEREUPON his Majeſty gave us this paper of the twenty ninth of May; after conſideration whereof, we did repreſent to his Majeſty how grievous that Anſwer was to us, and how unſatisfactory it would be to your Lordſhips, and therefore forbearing to inſiſt upon particulars, we intreated his Majeſty to take the ſame again into conſideration, to which his Majeſty was pleaſed only to return this generall Anſwer, by the which your Lordſhips may perceive, his Majeſties purpoſe of ſending an expreſſe hither for your further ſatisfaction.

IN purſuance of our truſt, there did many things occurre in conference, which cannot fitly be now repeated; in which according to our duty, we left no means or arguments unaſſayed, that his Majeſty might apply himſelfe to the Counſels of his Parliament, in which we did expreſſe how much Affection and Loyalty your Lordſhips did bear to his Royall perſon, and government whereof we ſhall be ready to make a more full relation, when it ſhall pleaſe your Lordſhips to require it. Although we have not had as yet ſuch ſatisfaction, as both your Lordſhips and we did wiſh, yet doe we not deſpaire, ſince affairs are left in that condition, that further progreſſe may be made thereupon, by the expreſſe which his Majeſty is to ſend hither, or by new applications to his Majeſty, as your Lordſhips ſhall think fitting.

WE have had ſo many experiences and proofes of the good hand of our God with us unto this day, that (although our difficulties be many) we were of all people moſt unthankfull, if we ſhould now faint or caſt away our confidence, in doing of our duty, we may hope, that he will yet aſsiſt, and goe before us; and as all poſsible and lawfull means would be ſtill uſed, for gaining from our Soveraign the King, a gracious Anſwer to our deſires; ſo ſhould we not in the mean time become ſecure, but imploy all warrantable means, for preſerving Religion, and the Kingdome in ſafety.

[THE PAPERS interchanged betwixt His Majestie and the said Commiſsioners as they were reported in Parliament.

THE COMMISSIONERS firſt Paper to the Kings Majeſtie, deſiring the removall of James Graham from his preſence and Court.

May it pleaſe your Majeſtie,

(1) THE Eſtates of Parliament of your Majeſties ancient Kingdom of Scotland, conſidering what ſad effects the pernitious Counſels of wicked Inſtruments have produced, by raiſing and fomenting diviſion between your Majeſties Royall Father, and his faithfull Subjects; Have commanded us at our firſt Addreſs to your Majeſtie, humbly to crave, that your Majeſty would be pleaſed to remove from having acceſſe to your Royall Perſon and Court, all theſe who have been and continue Excommunicate by the Church of that Kingdom, and namely James Graham, ſometime Earl of Montroſe: And now we according to the Truſt committed to us, do humbly and earneſtly crave the ſame at your Majeſties hands, being very hopefull that a more plentifull bleſsing from God ſhall accompany your Majeſties Counſells and affairs, and that the deſires and endeavours of the Parliament ſhall prove the more effectuall to work a good underſtanding and mutuall confidence betwixt your Majeſty and your people, when ſo eminent an Author and Actor of miſchief ſhall have no countenance from your Majeſtie, nor influence upon your Royall Counſells, who abandoning the Covenant, and deſpiſing the Oath of God, did invade his native Country, and with moſt inhumane and barbarous cruelty did burn and waſte divers parts thereof, and who ſpilt ſo much blood of your Majeſties good Subjects, taking advantage of that time when the prime Commanders and Forces thereof were imployed elſewhere, for which crimes he was excommunicated by the Church and forefaulted by the Parliament of that Kingdom, and ſtill to this day continues in the higheſt contempt againſt God, under that fearfull ſentence of Excommunication, without the ſmalleſt ſign of Repentance.

THE COMMISSIONERS ſecond Paper for removall of James Graham.

May it pleaſe your Majeſtie,

WE the Commiſsioners of the Parliament of your (3) Majeſties Kingdom of Scotland, having conſidered your Majeſties Anſwer of the date the 8. of April, Stilo no. to our deſire for removing James Graham from your Majeſties Perſon and Court, muſt in conſcience of our duty with all humility repreſent unto your Majeſtie, how ſorry we are, that your Majeſty ſhould delay to give ſatisfaction to that our firſt, ſo juſt and neceſſary deſire; It being previous, and moſt conducing to an happy procedure in the other particulars, which we are warranted to tender to your Majeſtie: We do humbly beſeech your Majeſtie ſeriouſly to conſider, what fears and diſcontents it would beget in the hearts of your Majeſties moſt affectionate Subjects, and how it would blaſt their hopes of comfort by your Majeſties Reign, now in the bud, if delay or difficulty were made to remove from your Majeſtie, one who juſtly and deſervedly is moſt hatefull unto them, and how great diſadvantage it would bring to your Majeſties affairs, that he ſhould have any countenance from, or neerneſſe to your Royall Perſon; eſpecially at this time; therefore we do moſt humbly and earneſtly renew, and inſiſt upon that our firſt deſire, aſſuring your Majeſtie that we ſhall in the reſt endeavour (according to that truſt repoſed on us) to give your Majeſtie all ſatisfaction.

I DO inſiſt upon my former Anſwer, and do deſire (4) and expect that you do deliver all the Propoſitions or Deſires you or any of you are inſtructed to preſent to me, before I make an Anſwer to any particular one, being reſolved to conſider of the whole, before I declare my reſolution upon any part.

THE COMMISSIONERS third Paper, containing the Propoſitions offered to his Majeſtie in name of the Parliament of the Kingdom of Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſtie,

WE are commanded by the Eſtates of Parliament (5) of your Majeſties Kingdom of Scotland, humbly to repreſent to your Majeſty, that as they were not wanting in giving faithfull and timous counſell to your Majeſties Royall Father, for preventing the dangers which were then feared, and have ſince to their deep ſorrow and unexpreſsible grief fallen out: and as they have with all care and faithfulneſs contributed their utmoſt endeavours for preſerving their late Soveraign, as their Letters, Inſtructions, Declarations, and their Commiſſioners Papers can evidence: So they do reſolve to continue the ſame Loyal affection and faithfulneſs to your Majeſtie, and accordingly have acknowledged and Proclaimed your Majeſtie King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, with all readineſs, unanimity, alacrity and ſolemnity: and have proteſted in favours of your Majeſties juſt Right of Succeſsion in the Royall Government of your Kingdoms of England and Ireland, againſt all Acts done, or to be done to the contrary: As alſo have commanded us in their name, humbly to offer to your Majeſty, that they conceive it neceſſary for eſtabliſhing the happy government of that your Majeſties ancient Kingdome, and for reſtoring your Majeſtie to the ſetled and peaceable poſſeſsion of your juſt Right of Government of your other Dominions.

1. THAT your Majeſty would be pleaſed to aſſure and declare, that you will by your ſolemn Oath under your Hand and Seal allow the Nationall Covenant of Scotland, and the Solemn League and Covenant of Scotland, England, and Ireland, and that your Majeſty will proſecute the ends thereof in your Royall Station.

2. THAT your Majeſty will ratifie and approve all Acts of Parliament, enjoyning the Solemn League and Covenant, and eſtabliſhing Presbyteriall Government, the Directory of Worſhip, the Confeſſion of Faith, and Cateehiſme, in your Majeſties Kingdome of Scotland; as they are already approven by the Generall Aſſembly of the Kirk, and by the Parliament of that Kingdome; And that your Majeſty will give your Royall Aſſent to Acts of Parliament, enjoyning the ſame in the reſt of your Majeſties dominions. And that your Majeſty will obſerve the ſame in your own practice and family, and never make oppoſition thereto, or endeavour any change thereof.

3. THAT your Majeſty will conſent and agree that all matters Civill be determined by the preſent and ſubſequent Parliaments of your Kingdome of Scotland, and all matters Eccleſiaſticall by the enſuing Generall Aſſemblies of that Church, as was formerly condiſcended, and agreed to by your Majeſties Royall Father.

THESE deſires are ſo juſt and neceſſary for the ſecuring of Religion, and the Peace of that Kingdome, and for gaining not only the outward obedience, but alſo the inward affection of all your Majeſties good people, to your Royall Perſon, Authority, and Government, after ſo great diſtractions, and troubles, that the granting thereof will ſo farre indear your Majeſty to that Nation, that they will not only receive your Majeſty with all chearfulneſſe, and moſt willingly render to you that ſubjection, and dutifull obedience which can be expected from Loyall Subjects to their gracious King; But likewiſe will contribute their utmoſt endeavours by all neceſſary and lawfull means, according to the Covenant, and the duty of faithfull and loyall Subjects, that your Majeſty may be reſtored to the peaceable poſſeſsion of the government of your other Kingdomes, according to your Majeſties undoubted right of ſucceſsion. And if your Majeſty ſhall ſpeedily begin to move that way which will be acceptable to God, and good men, and really offer to ſetle Religion and Peace, as is repreſented in our deſires; and upon theſe grounds ſhall claim the right of your Royall government, before Democracy, or any new modell of government under the name of an Agreement of the people, or any other name or device be ſetled, or take root in England; it will be more eaſie to maintain Monarchicall government, as yet entertained in the hearts of your Majeſties Loyall Subjects there, then to reſtore it after a new form of government hath gotten leave to take root, and the people have been habituated thereto. We are very confident that your Majeſties ſpeedy and cordiall joyning in the Covenant with God, and your good people, wil open a door of hope, that God wil ariſe & ſhine upon your Majeſties juſt undertakings, and will plead your righteous cauſe againſt the enemies thereof.

HIS MAJESTIES Anſwer.

I DESIRE to know whether the papers you have already delivered, contain all particulars, which you or either of you have to propone or deſire, and whether you have any power to recede from any particular propoſed, or to be propoſed; and whither you have any Propoſitions to make, for the advancement of my Service, and toward the recovery of my right in England, and bringing of the murtherers of my Father to Juſtice, and what aſsiſtance you will give to that purpoſe, (6)

(9) BEING unwilling to trouble your Majeſtie with long and tedious Papers, We chooſed rather by conference to make it appear that your Majeſties Quæries contained in the Paper of April 22. were ſufficiently Anſwered by ours of the 20. containing the deſires of the Parliament of your Majeſties Kingdom of Scotland: But now ſeeing your Majeſtie is pleaſed to inſiſt in the ſame, by another of the 30, deſiring that we would make appear in writing that that our former Paper containeth ſufficient Anſwers thereunto. In obedience to your Majeſties Deſire, we do by theſe humbly crave, It may be conſidered, that whereas your Majeſtie deſires to know whether our Papers already delivered contain all particulars which we have to propoſe. It is Declared therein, that your Majeſties granting of the Deſires contained therein, will obtain all that in reaſon can be required of your people in Scotland, or can be expected of Loyall Subjects to their gracious King, neither are we to propoſe any other, unleſs we be commanded by the Parliament or Committee of Eſtates; That whereas your Majeſtie deſires to know, whether we have power to recede from any particular propoſed, or if we are bound to inſiſt upon them in the terms they are propoſed, It is declared therein, that theſe Deſires contained in it, are juſt and neceſſarie for the ſecuring of Religion, and the Peace of that Kingdom, ſo that we ſhall have no reaſon to recede from the matter of them, though we are not to ſtand upon termes or words with your Majeſtie; That whereas your Majeſtie Deſires to know what that Kingdom will do for the advancement of your Majeſties Service and affairs: It is Declared therein, that the granting theſe juſt and neceſſary deſires, will make your good people in Scotland, do all that can be deſired or expected from Loyall Subjects to their gracious King, and contribute their utmoſt endeavours by all Lawful and neceſſary means, according to the Covenant, and the Dutie of Loyall and Faithfull Subjects, that your Majeſtie may be reſtored to the peaceable poſſeſsion of the Government of your other Kingdoms. Wherefore we do in all humilitie, renew theſe our former Deſires, earneſtlie beſeeching that without loſing of pretious time, your Majeſtie would be pleaſed to give a direct and ſatisfactorie Anſwer thereunto.

HIS MAJESTIES Anſwer.

I CANNOT think your Paper of the 3. of this moneth to contain a particular Anſwer to the Queſtions of mine of the 30. of the laſt; all your Anſwer to my Queſtion, whether you have any other thing to propone then that you have alreadie propoſed being, that you are not to propoſe any other unleſs you be commanded: Whereas I expected you would have anſwered, whether you are commanded to make any other Propoſition or no, and that you would have told me whether you have power to recede from any particular which you have propoſed, which you anſwer no otherwaies, then by ſaying, that your demand is juſt and reaſonable, but I cannot but obſerve, that to my Queſtion of the bringing the murtherers of my Father to Juſtice, and what aſſiſtance you would give to that purpoſe, you make not the leaſt Anſwer, nor not ſo much as mention your ſenſe of that horrid and unparaleld murther, and therefore I would be glad to receive your full Anſwer thereunto. May it pleaſe your Majeſty.

OUR deep ſenſe of the great dangers which will unavoidably enſue to your Majeſties affaires, upon delaying to give ſatisfaction to theſe deſires, which we have propoſed in name of the Parliament of your Majeſties Kingdome of Scotland, as the beſt and moſt effectuall means for eſtabliſhing your Majeſties happie government of that your ancient (11)

Kingdome, and for reſtoring your Majeſty to the poſſeſſion of your juſt right of government of your other dominions; maketh us heavily regrate, that ſo much time hath been ſpent without any direct Anſwer from your Majeſtie, but inſtead thereof ſome queſtions have been propoſed to us; and that notwithſtanding we have once again, as we humblie conceive, ſufficiently anſwered and cleared the ſame, both by Word and Writ, yet they are renewed and inſiſted upon by your Majeſties paper of the ſeventh of this inſtant, to which little more can be ſaid (to our judgement) then what hath been expreſſed before. For to your Majeſties firſt queſtion, whither our papers already delivered contain all particulars which we have to propoſe; we could not anſwer more directly and clearly, then that we are not to propoſe any other, unleſs we be further commanded by the Parliament. And to that, whither we had power to recede from any particulars propoſed, we anſwer that the deſires we propoſed, are not only juſt and reaſonable, but neceſſary, and conſequently, ſuch as from which we may not recede. And to your Majeſties laſt queſtion, we gave an Anſwer very full and comprehenſive, that your Majeſties granting theſe juſt and neceſſary deſires, would move your good Subjects of Scotland to do for the advancement of your Majeſties Service & affairs, whatſoever could be expected from Loyal Subjects to their gracious King, and to endeavour to the utmoſt of their power by all lawful and neceſſary means, that your Majeſty may be reſtored to the poſſeſſion of your juſt Right of government of your other Kingdomes. Neither did we conceive it neceſſary to multiplie words in repeting our deep ſenſe of that horrid fact againſt the life of your Royall Father, ſeeing the whole Parliament of Scotland, whereof we had the honour to be members, had ſo ſolemnlie declared to the world how much they did deteſt and abominate the very deſigne thereof, as the Proteſtations and Papers of their Commiſſioners at London can bear witneſſe, and we were ſo conſcious to our ſelves of our ſincere tender reſpects, and affection towards our late Soveraign, that we looked not to have our ſenſe of that fact in the leaſt wiſe queſtioned. Wherefore we doe again in all humility and earneſtneſſe, renew our former ſupplication, that without further loſs of precious time, whereof too much is looſed already (we wiſh it be not to the prejudice both of your Majeſties affaires, and of your lamentably diſtracted, and bleeding Kingdomes) your Majeſty will be pleaſed to give a direct and ſatisfactory Anſwer to theſe our moſt juſt and neceſſary deſires; in doing whereof, your Majeſty will be to theſe afflicted Kingdomes, like the rain comming down upon the mowen graſſe, and as ſhowers that water the earth.

April 29. / May 9. } 1649. Signed by the Commiſsioners of Parliament.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

HAVING for a long time waited your Majeſties leiſure, for an Anſwer to the humble deſires of the Parliament of your Kingdom of Scotland, which we have in their name tendred to your Majeſty, and having received no Anſwer, or the leaſt ſatisfaction to any of them, in diſcharge of our duty to your Majeſty. We cannot but ſhew that both your affairs, and your diſtracted Kingdoms are expoſed to exceeding great prejudice by the loſſe of ſo much precious time, which (in our humble opinion) might have been much better improven for the advantage of both. And by your Majeſties intended removall hence, and our neceſſitie to return, we are ſo ſtraitned with time, that we cannot forbear any longer, to renew our humble and earneſt requeſt for a ſpeedy and favourable Anſwer, whereby your Majeſty hath a fair occaſion (if imbraced) at once to make both your ſelfe and people happie. And on the contrary, the great danger and irreparable loſſe, will inevitablie enſue upon further delaying, or refuſing to give ſatisfaction to ſo juſt and reaſonable deſires, is obvious to anie impartiall eye, ſo that if now when by the power and prevalencie of Sectaries, and their Army in England; that Kingdome is brought under foot, and almoſt loſt; and when Ireland is in very great diſtractions, your Majeſtie ſhall not ſpeedilie and hartilie ſatisfie the deſires of your Majeſties Kingdome of Scotland, eſpecially concerning Religion, and the Covenant, which is the ſtrongeſt band to tye Subjects to their King. It will weaken the hands of all thoſe who love Religion, and Monarchicall Government in England, and wholly diſcourage, and diſinable Scotland to doe for your Majeſty; by that means alſo your enemies will be incouraged, and ſtrengthened to proſecute their wicked deſignes, and your good people in England will be forced to couch under the burden, and ſubmit to the yoak, diſpairing of any means of releiſe, or deliverance; We intreat your Majeſtie to remember, that opportunitie once loſed, cannot be regained; the neglect, and not taking hold whereof, when ſo frequently offered, hath been the chief cauſe of the troubles of your Royall Family, and hath to our unſpeakable griefe proven ſad and fatall at laſt; We are confident that your Majeſtie rightly pondering and laying theſe things to heart, will in the entrie of your Reign ſo much cheriſh the hopefull expectation of your Loyall people, as that they may at length look for the wiſhed ends of the long continued troubles, and may live a comfortable and quiet life, under the ſhaddow of your Majeſties proſperous and happy Government. HIS MAJESTIES Anſwer, more expreſſie relating to the Propoſitions.

(13) I HAVE conſidered the ſeverall Papers and Propoſitions delivered to me by you, and do aſſure you, that I deſire nothing more, then that I may intirelie unite the hearts and affections of all my good Subjects of Scotland to me, & amongſt themſelves, als wel for the Honor, Peace and Proſperitie of that Kingdom, as that they may jointly and unanimouſly aſsiſt me, in the revenge of that horrid and impious murther of my Father, and the recoverie of my juſt Right in my other Dominions, (to which they are equally ingaged by the Laws of God, and of that Kingdom) and to the obtaining of ſuch an Union, I will conſent to all that in Conſcience and Honour I may, without impoſing on my other Kingdoms. As firſt I will maintain, confirm and defend, the Government Eccleſiaſtical and Civill of Scotland, as is ſetled by Law, and the Ancient known Laws of that Kingdom, as likeways all ſuch Acts of Parliament as have been actually conſented unto by the King my Father, being perſonally preſent in Parliament, or by his Commiſsioners lawfully Authorized by him; and particularlie, the Laws concerning the National Covenant, the Confeſsion of Faith, and Presbyterial Government of that Church; Touching that part of the League and Covenant which concerneth my other Kingdoms of England and Ireland, it is not in my power juſtly to take any Reſolution therein, without the advice of my reſpective Parliaments of theſe Kingdoms, by whoſe advice and conſent onely, Lawes are there to be made and altered, Neither can I conſent to any thing, which ſhall oppoſe or diſturb the Peace lately concluded in Ireland, but I am very willing to refer the full conſideration of the ſaid League and Covenant, and of all the other particulars you mention (as to England) to a free Parliament to be conveened there by my writ, as ſoon as the condition of that Kingdom will permit me ſo to do; By whoſe advice I am reſolved to Govern my ſelf therein; in the mean time, as I am very ready to do all that is in my power to the ſafe and quiet protection of my people in Scotland, under the benefit of the Laws of that Kingdom, as likeways further to gratifie them in all that may really tend to their welfare; So I ſhall expect that obedience and duty from them in the exerciſe of my Royall power, as is due to me by their allegiance, To which they ſubmitting, and for the burying all bitterneſſe and animoſities which the former diſtractions and diviſions may have produced, and the better effecting the happy union before mentioned, I am very willing and deſirous, to conſent to any Act of Oblivion and Indempnity to all perſons of what condition ſoever, of that Kingdom of Scotland, excepting onely ſuch perſons (if any ſuch there be in, or of that Kingdom) that ſhall hereafter upon ſufficient and due evidence in a Lawfull tryal, be found actually and expreſly guilty of that late, unparaleld, horrid Act, of the murther of their late Soveraign. And if it ſhall appear unto me, that the League and Covenant containeth any thing in it not compriſed in theſe Acts concerning the Nationall Covenant, and Presbyteriall Government of the Church of Scotland, & neceſſarily to the welfare of the ſaid Church and Kingdom, without reference to England or Ireland; I ſhall upon the firſt ſetling of ſuch an Union, and the paſsing of ſuch an Act of Oblivion as is before mentioned, apply my ſelf to give full ſatisfaction therein. Paſſionately deſiring to remove all occaſions of miſunderſtanding between my ſelf and all my good Subjects of that my Kingdom of Scotland; and what is not particularly anſwered at this time, ſhall be ſupplied by an expreſs, whom I will diſpatch into Scotland as ſoon as conveniently I can.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

(14) ALTHOUGH we were much troubled that your Majeſties Anſwer ſhould have been ſo long delayed, at ſuch a time when Reſolution and Action were ſo neceſſary, yet have we now received it with much greater grief, finding that your Majeſties Counſels lead you to reſolutions ſo contrary to the ſatisfaction deſired by us, in name of the Parliament of your Kingdom of Scotland, and ſo far from ingaging them, to hazard their lives and fortunes in your ſervice (which with ſo much affection they deſired) as that by this ſtrange Anſwer, the diſtance is made greater than before, nay by it, far leſs is offered for Religion, the Covenant, and the Laws and Liberties of that Kingdom, then was by your Royall Father; even at that time when the difference amongſt them was greateſt: yea, many of the moſt materiall Acts agreed upon by the large Treaty ratified by him, are by this Anſwer called in Queſtion: His Majeſties Conceſsions in the Iſle of Wight did bear, that he would confirm the ſolemn League and Covenant in both Kingdoms for all that had taken it, or ſhould take it, and that he would ſettle Presbyterial Government, and the Directorie of Worſhip in England (although theſe Conceſſions were found unſatisfactory) yet your Majeſtie is not pleaſed to go ſo much as that ſame length, or to offer any preſent and expreſſe ſatisfaction as to the Solemne League and Covenant, Confeſsion of Faith, Directory for Worſhip, and Catechiſme in either of the Kingdoms. And although your Majeſty profeſſes that you will confirm and defend the Civill and Eccleſiaſticall Government of Scotland, as they are ſetled by Law; yet by reſtricting your Conceſſions to ſuch Acts of Parliament, as have been actually conſented to by the King your Father, Being perſonally preſent, or by his Commiſsioner authorized for that effect, at once all our Lawes and Parliaments theſe eight yeares by paſt, ſo often acknowledged by our late Soveraign, are now by this your Majeſties Anſwer laid aſide, and utterly rejected, ſeeing it hath pleaſed your Majeſty ſo directly to queſtion the cleer and undoubted Lawes and conſtitution of the Parliament of your Majeſties Kingdome of Scotland, upon that ground; We moſt humbly crave leave to remember your Majeſtie, that as the Parliament held in the yeare, 1561. without the preſence of the Queen, or her Commiſsioner was ever acknowledged by her Majeſtie, and your Royall Predeceſſors ſince, as a lawfull Parliament; ſo your Royall Father, our late Soveraign was pleaſed, in his Wiſdom and Juſtice to acknowledge all Acts of the Parliament 1640. as Lawes to be obſerved, by all his Subjects of that Kingdome: Notwithſtanding, that neither he, nor any Commiſsioner from him, was therein preſent; amongſt which, is that Act for the conſtitution of Parliament in all time comming; whereby it is declared and ordained, that that Parliament holden by the Nobilitie, Barons, and Burgeſſes, or their Commiſsioners as the true Eſtates of the Kingdom; is, and ſhould be accompted a compleat and perfect Parliament, and to have the ſame power, authority, and Juriſdiction as abſolutely and fully as any Parliament formerly hath had within the Kingdom in time bygone; As likewiſe the 17. Act of the ſame Parliament, intituled, Act Statutarie, appointing Parliaments to be holden once every three years, wherein the appointing of the time and places is to be the laſt Act thereof, by the Authority of the which Act the Parliament 1641. wherein his Majeſty was preſent; did meet, and by the laſt Act thereof, appointed the firſt Tueſday of January in Anno 1644. to be the day of meeting and conveening of the next Triennall Parliament: His Majeſtie and the Eſtates Declaring, that the publication of that Act ſhould be als ſufficient for conveening of the whole Members of Parliament, as if all former Solemnities were uſed; By Authority of which Parliament the ſeverall ſubſequent Seſsions of Parliament have conveened, and have often by Treaties, Letters, and Meſſages, ſolemnly been acknowledged by your Father: and yet theſe are the Parliaments queſtioned by your Majeſtie, wherein if you ſhould inſiſt, it would be no leſs then to ſtrike at the fundamentall Laws of the Kingdom, nor could the Subjects there be in ſecurity of any thing whilk they poſſeſſe. Were it not to make the gap wider, we would particularly ſhew, that your Majeſties Anſwer is ſo far from containing ſatisfaction to our Deſires, that it drives at the ſubverſion of them all, and the diſſolving of that Solemn Covenant, which for the good of Religion, the Honour and Happineſs of the King, and the peace and ſafety of his Kingdoms, was ſworn and ſubſcribed before the moſt high God, by your Majeſties good Subjects of both Kingdoms, from which they will not depart, nor ſuffer themſelves to be withdrawn, by any trouble or difficultie that they can meet with. But we do purpoſely forbear further to inſiſt upon particulars, deſiring rather your Majeſtie to take the buſineſs again unto your moſt ſerious conſideration, and that (laying aſide the occaſion of ſuch dangerous debates) it may pleaſe your Majeſtie to give the ſatisfaction deſired, to the juſt and neceſſarie Propoſitions of your Kingdome of Scotland, concerning Religion, and the Solemne League and Covenant, and the determination of matters Civill by the Parliament, and matters Eccleſiaſtical by the Aſſemblies of the Church of that Kingdome: That thereby your Majeſtie may gain not only the outward obedience, but alſo the inward affection of your good people to your Royall Perſon, Authority, and Government, which is the onely way to unite and ſtrengthen their hearts and hands, and ſo to ingage that Nation intirely to perform to your Majeſtie all the duties of faithfulneſſe and loyalty. But if (by the Inſtigation and perſwaſion of pernicious Counſell) your Majeſty thus (as we wiſh it may never enter into your Royall heart) ſhall refuſe & reject theſe reaſonable deſires wherein there is nothing asked, but your Majeſties aſſent to theſe things; the particulars whereof, have been by Parliament inacted before your Majeſties comming to the Crown, and by the people univerſally received and obeyed as Law, as it will be very grievous to them, ſo it will conſtrain them in ſuch an extremitie, to doe what is incumbent to them for preſerving Religion, and the Kingdom from ruine; and we are confident that it ſhall appear to the world with how much Humilitie, Affection and Loyaltie, they have carried themſelves towards your Majeſtie, ſince the beginning.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AT your Majeſties deſire we did forbear to inſiſt upon that firſt Paper which we offered to your Majeſtie, anent the removing of James Graham as a perſon Excommunicate by the Church, and forefaulted by the Parliament of Scotland; and now having received no Anſwer nor ſatisfaction from your Majeſtie thairanent, but that he ſtill preſumes to intrude himſelf into your Majeſties preſence, and pretending Commiſſion from your Majeſtie, hath given Warrant to ſome Officers to Levie Forces, which muſt be underſtood to be againſt the Kingdom of Scotland, he having ſent ſome of his complices thither; Therefore it is our humble deſire, that he may be diſcharged your Royall preſence and Court, and that your Majeſtie would be pleaſed to let us know whether any ſuch Commiſsion be (15) granted to him or not, at this time whileſt we are expecting your Majeſties Anſwer to the deſires of that Kingdom.

HIS MAJESTIES Anſwer.

(16) I AM much unſatisfied with your Papers of the firſt and ſecond of this month, in Anſwer to mine of the 29. of May, finding by them that my reall endeavours to give all juſt ſatisfaction to my good Subjects of Scotland, are undervalued, and miſinterpreted; and obſerving in them ſeveral inferences, oppoſing the natural ſenſe and true intent of what I have propoſed, with moſt intire intentions for the good of that Church and Kingdom, and unſeaſonably ſtirring uſeleſſe queſtions, neither properly ariſing out of any thing contained in any of the former Papers, nor conducing to the Common Peace: But neither theſe nor any diſcouragements ſhall prevail with me, to omit any thing that may tend to the Peace and Happineſs of all my good Subjects of Scotland; To which I ſhall moſt affectionately to my utmoſt power, (upon all occaſions) apply my ſelf, according to the duty which I owe to the Almighty GOD, in the exerciſe of my Royall power, for the good of my people, in order whereunto, I ſhal with convenient ſpeed, ſend you by the Expreſs mentioned in my laſt Paper, the more particular Anſwer I then promiſed: I ſhall likewayes more fully expreſs my ſelf concerning the new matter contained in theſe Papers, and ſhall particularize, what I now complain of in them. In the mean time, I expect and require from all my Subjects of Scotland, ſuch obedience as is due to me their King, by the Laws of God, of nature, and of that Kingdom.

ACT in favours of the Town of Edinburgh, anent the Stipends of ſix Miniſters out of the Houſe Mails.

97 THE Eſtates of Parliament, Having taken into conſideration the Petition of the Lord Proveſt, Bailyes, and Counſell of Edinburgh, in name of the Miniſters and whole Inhabitants thereof, deſiring that the annuity of five Merks upon every hundred Merks of Mail within the ſaid Town impoſed in the preceding Seſsion of Parliament, for making up the ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks yearly for the Maintenance of ſix Miniſters, might be augmented, and a greater quota impoſed for making up that ſum according to the Declaration and Proviſion in the Act of Parliament made thereanent, In reſpect that after exact ſurvey of the whole Mails, the annuity of five upon every hundred, will not make up the ſaid ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks; And the Eſtates having conſidered their former Act of Parliament made for that yearly impoſition towards the maintenance of ſix Miniſters, and the Declaration and proviſion therein containd; And being very willing that the good town be well furniſhed with a ſufficient number of able and well qualified Miniſters, Do therefore (with the augmentation of the annuitie after ſpecified), Ratifie, Approve and confirm the ſaid Act of Parliament, whereof the tenor follows.

AT Edinburgh the ſecond day of March, the year of God, 1649. years. THE ESTATES OF PARLIAMENT now preſently conveened in this ſecond Seſſion of the ſecond Triennall Parliament, By vertue of an Act of the Committee of Eſtates, who had power and Authority from the laſt Parliament for conveening the Parliament, Having conſidered the Petition of the Town of Edinburgh for approving and ratifying the Act of the Committee of Eſtates for a yeerly impoſition upon the Houſe Mails and others for the Maintenance of ſix Miniſters, Together with the Report of the Committee of Bills thereanent: And being very ſenſible of the conſtant affection of the good Town of Edinburgh to Religion, and their eminent and exemplary zeal and deſire for providing and eſtabliſhing a ſufficient number of pious, able and well qualified Miniſters for their ſeverall Kirks; And taking alſo to their ſerious conſideration the vaſt charges they have been at in building of their Kirks and other publick Works, in advancing great ſums of money for the uſe of the publick towards the Maintenance of the Cauſe, and the promoting the Reformation, and the great loſſes they have ſuſtained ſince theſe great troubles and diſtractions; And being deſirous to encourage and enable them towards the maintaining and providing of a ſufficient number of able and well qualified Miniſters; Therefore, The ſaids Eſtates of Parliament, after ſerious conſideration of the premiſes, And of the ſaid Petition of the good Town and Report made thereanent, Do Ratifie and Approve the Act of the Councell of the ſaid good Town of Edinburgh, with the advice and concurrence of their Neighbours upon the twenty day of October laſt by-paſt, concerning their Reſolutions to have twelve Miniſters conſtantly within the ſaid Burgh: As alſo, do Ratifie and Approve the ſaid Act of the late Committee of Eſtates of the twenty eighth day of December laſt, for yeerly Impoſition of the ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks upon the Houſe Mails within the ſaid Burgh, To be a conſtant Proviſion for ſix of the twelve Miniſters of the ſaid Burgh, with the alterations and additions following: And the Eſtates of Parliament conſidering, That the providing and maintaining of the ſaid ſix Miniſters doth concern the Worſhip of God, and tend to the propagating and maintaining thereof in the chief City of this Kingdom, from which none that are partakers of ſo great a benefit will in conſcience withdraw or exeeme themſelves without great guiltineſſe before God; Therefore the ſaid Eſtates of Parliament, Do hereby Statute and Ordaine, that the yearely Stipend of ſix Miniſters be impoſed and laid upon the whole Rents and Mails of all the dwelling Houſes, Chambers, Booths, Cellers, and all other Houſes high and low paying Mail within the ſaid Town, Whilk Impoſition ſhall be paid by the Inhabitants and Poſſeſſors, And that without any exemption or exception of any Houſe of whatſomever holding or nature they be of, or of any perſon or perſons of whatſomever degree, quality or place they be of, upon any priviledge or pretence whatſomever. And that the ſaid Impoſition may be certain and effectuall, It is Ordained, that upon every hundred Merks of Mail throughout the whole Town, the annuitie of five Merks be impoſed upon the whole Rents and Mails foreſaids, That thereby the ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks may be made up yearly, to be a conſtant proviſion to ſix Miniſters within the ſaid Burgh, That every one of the ſaids ſix Miniſters may have yearly, the ſum of two thouſand, ſeven hundred Merks for his Stipend, and four hundred Merks for his Houſe Mail, and the four hundred Merks remaining to be allowed for the waſte houſe Mails, and for the Collection of the ſaid Impoſition; The payment of which Impoſition and annuitie ſhall be Quarterlie each three moneths by advance, The firſt Quarters payment beginning at Martimas laſt by-paſt for the firſt Quarter, and the next Quarter being the firſt of February laſt, for the moneths of Februarie, March and Aprill and the third quarter the firſt of May, for the moneths of May, June and July, And the laſt quarter the firſt of Auguſt for the Moneths of Auguſt, September and October, And ſo forth every year there-[after] quarterly each three Moneths. And that the Mailes and rents of all the houſes, chambers, booths, and others aforeſaid may be truly known, there ſhall be an exact ſurvey thereof made and taken upon the oathes of the Inhabitants, and thereafter the proportion of five of every hundred impoſed thereupon: And in caſe after exact trial upon oath by the ſurveyers in manner aforeſaid, It ſhall be found that the impoſition of five upon the hundred will not make up the ſaid whole ſum of ninteen thouſand Merks, That upon report to the Parliament of what ſhall be wanting and inlaiking, The Eſtates of Parliament will take to conſideration what further quota ſhall be impoſed for making up the ſaid whole ſum of ninteen thouſand merks for the conſtant and yearly proviſion of the ſaid ſix Miniſters. And alſo it is hereby Ordained That the ſaid impoſition ſhall alwayes be Collected by the Deacons of the Kirk, to be delivered to the Treaſurer of the Kirk ſeſſions, And is not to come in the hands of the Town Counſell, nor to be applied to any other uſe nor is abovewritten. It is alwayes declared, that the foreſaid impoſition is to be laid upon the Inhabitants, Tenents and poſſeſſors without exception or exemption of any upon what Priviledge or pretence whatſomever, And the ſaid Impoſition ſhall no wayes affect the ground, right or propertie of the houſes tenements boothes and others aforeſaid, But that the proportionating and diviſion of the foreſaid ſum to be payed by the inhabitants according to their mailes is onlie to be the rule and ſquare for taxing the inhabitants for payment thereof, at the rates of the mailes payed by them and not to affect the ground as is aforeſaid, The tenants, inhabitants and poſſeſſors, alwayes being ſubject in payment thereof, and lyable to perſonall and reall execution for the ſame. And ſeeing by the foreſaid Annuitie and impoſition, the ſaid Town of Edinburgh will be the more enabled to entertain twelve Miniſters, It is hereby Ordained that they uſe all diligence for getting their Kirks provided with twelve Miniſters, and for keeping alwayes that number full for the good and Inſtruction of the whole Inhabitants thereof; And when any of the number of the ſix Miniſters provided by the foreſaid Impoſition ſhall vaik, the Stipend or Stipends of any of theſe ſix vakand ſhall be diſpoſed upon ad pios uſus, conform to the Act of Parliament, by the Kirk Seſsions of the ſaid Town with adviſe of the Committee aftermentioned appointed for deciding of Queſtions and differences. And becauſe, It is not intended that any prejudice or preparative ſhould be hereupon inferred, to the Priviledges and Liberties of the Colledge of Juſtice, or that any Member thereof ſhould be unequally burdened, Therefore for preſerving the Lords of ſecret Counceil and Seſsion, and the hail Members of the ſaid Colledge of Juſtice, free from any prejudice to themſelves or their Priviledges, It is Ordained, that the ſaid annuity and impoſition ſhall be laid upon all the Inhabitants, Tennents and Poſſeſſors of the Houſes, Chambers, Boothes, and others aforeſaid within the ſaid Burgh, after exact ſurvey by four ſworn men in every Paroch, who ſhall ſurvey and value the Houſe Mails aforeſaid, whereof three ſhall be Citizens, to be choſen and ſworn by the Town Councell, and the fourth ſhall be nominate choſen and ſworn by the Colledge of Juſtice or ſuch as they ſhall appoint; And if the Colledge of Juſtice refuſe or delay, being required by the Magiſtrates of Edinburgh as follows, viz. The Preſident of Seſsion and Dean of Facultie, to be required in time of Seſsion, and any of them to be required in time of vacancie, to the effect foreſaid upon ſix dayes, In that caſe the Magiſtrates and Councell of Edinburgh to have power after the requiſition and expiring of the ſix dayes, to nominate, chooſe and ſwear ſuch of the Colledge of Juſtice as they ſhall think fit, for ſurveying and valuing of the ſaid Houſe-Mails: And if the Members of the Colledge of Juſtice, ſhall either not accept, or not concur in the ſaid Imployment being required, Then, and in either of thoſe caſes, the remanent of thoſe perſons choſen and ſworn by the Town Counſell, ſhall have power to go on in the ſaid Imployment, and act by themſelves without the Members of the Colledge of Juſtice, not accepting nor concurring as ſaid is. And if any queſtion or debate ſhall happen to ariſe betwixt the ſaid Collectors or any of the Members of the Colledge of Juſtice, concerning the valuing, exacting or uplifting of the proportions impoſed, or concerning the payment thereof, The Eſtates of Parliament Think it neceſſary that there be a Committee appointed for deciding of Queſtions, And therefore Do hereby Appoint Sir John Hope of Craighall Knight, one of the Ordinary Lords of Seſſion, Sir William Scot of Clerkingtoun, one of the Clerks of Seſſion, John Dickſon of Hartrie, and Mr. David Heriot Advocate for the Colledge of Juſtice; The four Bailyes of Edinburgh preſent and to come for the ſaid Burgh, Or any five of them, two alwayes being Members of the Colledge of Juſtice, and the Proveſt of Edinburgh preſent and to come ſupernumerary, to be a Committee for the effect aforeſaid; Authorizing them and the Quorum aforeſaid, with their full power to judge, decerne and determine all queſtions and differences aforeſaid ſummarly, and to do all things neceſſary for that effect, without any interruption whatſomever; Upon whoſe ſentence execution ſhall follow without any interruption by ſuſpenſion or other trouble: And as any of the places of theſe four appointed for the Colledge of Juſtice ſhall vaik by not acceptation, deceaſe or otherways, That the ſame be filled by the Colledge of Juſtice, The Preſident and Dean of Facultie in time of Seſsion and either of them in time of vacancy being required for that effect: And in caſe the Colledge of Juſtice ſhall not fill the places within ſix dayes after the ſaid Requiſition, the ſaid vacand places ſhall be filled by the remanent Members of the foreſaid Committee. And it is hereby Declared that for removing all Queſtions and differences, the exaction of all by-gone dues, by vertue of any former Acts of Councell, Seſsion or Parliament, is hereby diſcharged to ſuch of the Members of the Colledge of Juſtice or others as do conſent and give ready obedience to this preſent Act and make no obſtruction thereunto at any time hereafter. AND THE ESTATES Having now found by the value of the whole Houſe-Mails truly & faithfully taken up[on] diverſe ſurveys of ſworn men, and now laſt by an exact ſurvey of the Elders and Deacans of the Seſsions, with the adviſe of the Dean of Facultie and others Members of the Colledge of Juſtice, that the annuity of five on the hundred will not make up the ſaid ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks, Do Judge it neceſſary towards the Maintenance of ſix Miniſters, that the quota of the ſaid Annuity be augmented one Merk more upon every hundred: And therefore do hereby Decern and Ordain, that an Annuitie of ſix Merks, be impoſed upon every hundred Merks of the whole Mails and Rents of all the Houſes, Chambers, Boothes, Cellers, and other Houſes high and low, with the pertinents within the ſaid Burgh, That the beforementioned ſum of nineteen thouſand Merks may be collected yeerly for the Maintenance of ſix Miniſters by the Deacons of the Kirk for the time being, in the manner before expreſſed, The firſt quarters payment thereof, beginning at the Terme of Martinmaſs laſt, for the Moneths of November, December, and January, the ſecond Quarters payment at the firſt of February for the moneths of February, March and April, The third Quarter at the firſt of May laſt for May, June and July; And the laſt Quarters payment being upon the firſt of Auguſt next for the moneths of Auguſt, September and October, And ſo forth quarterly thereafter in all time coming in manner aforeſaid. Requiring and Commanding the Deacons of the Kirk, To collect preſently and gather the foreſaid Annuitie of ſix of every hundred of the ſaids Mails and Rents for the three Quarters by-gone and quarterlie in all time coming, and to deliver the ſamen to the Treaſurer of the Kirk Seſſions in manner abovementioned, And that the Magiſtrates of the ſaid Burgh ſee this whole Act and Ordinance obeyed, performed and put to due execution according to the tenor thereof, Authorizing them with full power to doe every thing neceſſary for that Effect, and The Eſtates alſo Ordain Letters of Horning and all other executorials neceſſary to be derect upon this Act in form as effeirs.

[LETTER from the Speaker of the House of Commons in England, with the Answer thereto.

TO the Right Honourable the Noblemen Commiſsioners of Shires and Burghs conveened in the Parliament of Scotland

My Lords and Gentlemen,

(1) I AM commanded by the Parliament of England, to deſire your Lordſhips to acquaint the Parliament of Scotland that they have many things of juſt reſentment on the behalf of this Nation and Commonwealth to make known and demand ſatisfaction in, from the Parliament and Kingdom of Scotland, The particulars whereof they think not needfull to mention at this time, being things ſo generally known and freſh in memory: And being deſirous in the firſt place to uſe endeavours for ſatisfaction in a peaceable way, They do therefore propound, that Commiſſioners on the behalf of each Nation reſpectively may be appointed to meet in ſome fitting and convenient place, mutually to be agreed upon, and with what convenient ſpeed may be; unto which meeting, Commiſſioners ſhall be ſent, fully authorized from the Parliament of England, and on the behalf of this Commonwealth, With Inſtructions to make known the particulars which they have to complain of, wherein, if they ſhall receive ſatisfaction, The Parliament of England are willing, and their Commiſſioners ſhall be further Authoriſed and Inſtructed to Treat and conclude a firm and ſtrict League of amity and friendſhip between the two Nations; by means wherof (if it be the will of GOD) theſe Nations may be preſerved in a laſting peace and happy enjoyment of Religion in its purity, together with their Civill Liberties, notwithſtanding the many wicked deſignes that are on foot againſt them, as well by the ſecret as the profeſſed enemies of both: This is all I have in charge, ſave only to deſire, that the Parliament of Scotlands anſwer hereunto may be returned by this bearer, who is ſent expreſſe about the ſame, And ſo reſts

Your Lordſhips humble ſervant
WILLIAM LENTHALL
Speaker of the Parliament of England.

Weſtminſter, 23. May 1649.

FOR the Honourable William Lenthall Eſquire, Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

SIR,

(2) THE Eſtates of the Parliament of this Kingdom having received a Letter dated the 23 of May, 1649 ſigned by you as Speaker of the Parliament, and written in the name of the Common-wealth of England; which Titles, in regard of the Solemn League and Covenant and Treaties, and of the many Declarations of the Parliaments of both Kingdoms, are ſuch as they may not acknowledge.

AS for the matter therein contained, thoſe many things of juſt reſentment, wherein ſatisfaction is demanded from this Kingdom, are onely mentioned in the generall, and therefore cannot ſo well receive a particular anſwer: But if by theſe generall expreſſions, the late unlawfull Engagement againſt England be underſtood, They deſire that their proteſtation againſt the ſame in Parliament, and the oppoſition made thereunto by them afterward in Arms (which they never laid down untill the Gariſons of Berwick and Carliſle were reſtored unto the Kingdom of England) may be remembred, together with the Letter of the Houſe of Commons to the Generall Aſſembly of this Kirk, of the third of Auguſt 1648: And that Lieutenant General Cromwell, authorized from both Houſes of Parliament, did upon the 5 of October laſt, repreſent to the Committee of Eſtates of this Kingdom, the wrongs and injuries committed againſt the Kingdom of England in that Engagement; and thereupon did demand that they would give aſſurance in the name of the Kingdom of Scotland, not to admit or ſuffer any who have been active in, or conſenting to that Engagement, to be imployed in any publick place or Truſt whatſoever; which was not onely granted, and afterward confirmed in Parliament, but all Acts in proſecution of that engagement have been repealed, and all proceedings relating thereunto publickly diſclaimed. And if any other wrongs ſhall be made known unto us, we ſhall be ready to return ſuch an Anſwer as may give juſt ſatisfaction.

IF the Bond for Religion, Loyalty to the King, and mutuall amity and friendſhip betwixt the Kingdoms be impartially conſidered, according to the Solemn League and Covenant, and the profeſſions and Declarations of both Kingdoms, The Eſtates of Parliament think that they have juſt cauſe to complain of the late proceedings in England in reference to Religion, the taking away of the Kings life, and the changing the fundamentall Government of that Kingdom; againſt which this Kirk and Kingdom and their Commiſſioners, have proteſted and given Teſtimony, whereunto they do ſtill adhere.

AND ſince it is apparent there hath been of late in England a backſliding and departure from the grounds and principles wherein the two Kingdoms were engaged, the Parliament of this Kingdom doth propound, that the late proceedings there againſt Covenant and Treaties may be diſclaimed and diſavowed, as the proſecution of the late un-lawfull Engagement againſt England hath been diſclaimed and diſavowed here; and that ſuch as have departed from theſe principles, and their former profeſſions, may return to the ſame: Upon which grounds they are content to authorize Commiſſioners on behalf of this Kingdom, to treat with Commiſſioners from both Houſes of the Parliament of England, ſitting in freedom, concerning all matters of juſt complaint which either Nation may have againſt the other, and for redreſſe and reparation thereof, and to do every thing that may further conduce for continuing the happy peace and union betwixt the Kingdoms, which can never be ſetled upon ſo ſure a foundation as the former Treaties, and the ſolemn League and Covenant: From which, as no alteration or revolution of Affairs can abſolve either Kingdom; ſo, we truſt in God, that no ſucceſs whatſoever, whether good or bad, ſhall be able to divert us; but as it hath been our care in time paſt, it ſhall with the Lords aſsistance be ſtill our reall endeavour for the future to keep our ſelves free of all compliance with, or inclining to the Popiſh, Prelatical and Malignant party upon the one hand; or to thoſe that are enemies to the fundamentall Government by King and Parliament, and countenance and maintain Errour, Hereſie, and Schiſm upon the other. I have no other thing in command from the Parliament of this Kingdom, but to take notice that there is no Anſwer returned to their Letter of the 6th March laſt. And ſo reſts

Your humble Servant.
LOUDOUN Cancellarius,

ACT for Redreſs of the Complaints and grievances of the People, againſt Maſters, Collectors Officers and Souldiers.

THE Eſtates of Parliament taking into their ſerious 204
conſideration the manifold grievances and complaints within the Kingdom againſt Maſters, for oppreſsing their Tenants in outreiks of horſe and foot, payment of the monethly Maintenance, and in Quarterings, as alſo againſt Officers and Souldiers, and Collectors of moneys for their diſorderly carriage and unjuſt dealing. For remedy and redreſſe herein, they do Statute and Ordain,

1 THAT the ſeveral Presbyteries ſend in to the Committee of Eſtates, a liſt of nine or ten underſtanding and conſcientious men, that upon conſideration thereof, and ſuch other Information as ſhall be given to the Committee of Eſtates concerning theſe or any other perſons, they may make choyce of five or ſix, to employ in that truſt, and any three of them to have power to do and put in execution all things within the bounds of each Preſbytery, which are referred to them by this Parliament, and that all grivances and complaints for wrongs done ſince the firſt of October laſt, or which ſhall be committed in tyme comming, being ſuch as are by this Act referred to them by the Parliament, ſhal be preſented to the ſaid perſons ſo nominated and choſen, and that the perſon firſt nominated in the Commiſſion, ſhall conveen the reſt at their firſt meeting, and take their oaths for the faithfull diſcharge of their duty, and then the next in Commiſſion ſhall take his Oath; and that thereafter they meet at ſuch times and places as they ſhall thinke fit, That they ſhall have power to conveen all perſons intereſſed within the bounds of the Preſbytery before them, to take the Oaths of parties, and to examine witneſſes upon Oath, when they ſhall ſee it needfull, and that all Officers and Souldiers ſhall be aſſiſtant to them upon their direction for executing the power committed to them.

2 THAT in all Levies of horſe, the Tenant ſhall only furniſh a ſufficient man, and ſhall be free of all charge and expence whatſomever, unleſſe they be rentallers or others, who have lands ſet unto them under the known worth and value, in which caſe, the Commiſſioners of each Presbytery to be choſen as aforeſaid, ſhall have power to determine what ſhall be the proportion of the rentaler or others aforeſaid, according to the eaſe they have of the land under the known value; Conſideration being had what the tenant gave to the maſter at his entrie to the lands, together with the yearly dutie and ſervice; And that no rentaller, nor other aforeſaid, ſhall be lyable to the payment of any part of the ſaid levy, but upon decreet of the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, & that the heretors in the interim put forth the Levie; It being alwayes underſtood, that where rentallers are already valued, diſtinct from the heritors by the Commiſſioners appointed for the valuation of the ſhire that they ſhall pay conform to their valuation.

3 THAT in the Levies of foot the maſter ſhall find armes, and pay the advance or loan money, and that the tenant ſhall onlie find a ſufficient man, and ſhall give unto him that ſhall goe forth the ſum appointed by Act of Parliament to be given by tenants, unleſſe they be rentallers or others before mentioned, in which caſe, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall determine as aforeſaid what ſhall be their proportion.

4 THAT no maſter ſhall for benefit, ſpleen or private revenge, put forth any tenant or ſervant in Levies, but that where there is any ſuch complaint, the Commiſſioners aforeſaid ſhall Judge of the fitneſs of the perſon.

5 THAT the Monethlie maintenance ſhall onelie be payed by the maſter, and the tenant to be free, unleſſe they be rentallers or others as aforeſaid, in which caſe, the Commiſſioners are to determine their proportions as is before expreſſed.

6 THAT all quarterings, whether local or tranſeunt ſhall be allowed in payment of the Monthly maintenance in manner following, viz. that the maſter, or ſuch as have power from the maſter to doe his affairs, ſhall deliver to the Collector a certificate, ſubſcribed by two of the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, that he hath allowed to his tenants the ſaid quarterings (which are alſo to be inſtructed according to the act of Parliament) in their maill or yearly rent and duty, and given them diſcharge for the ſame, before he get allowance of the quarterings in payment of the monethly maintenance, & that the Collector deliver in the ſaid certificate to the General Commiſſary; Or in caſe the maſter refuſe to give the ſaid certificat to the Collector, that then the collector bring two of the Commiſſioners certificate of the maſter his refuſal, and if the Collector ſhall fail herein, that then he make accompt to the Generall Commiſſarie, for the whole monthlie maintenance, without any deduction for quarterings, and that the Commiſſioners take care that the maſters ſo refuſing doe allow the ſaid quarterings to the tenant in their maill and duties.

7 AND becauſe quarterings upon particular perſons, may exceed their proportion of the monethly maintenance, It is therefore ſtatute and ordained, that the Collector of every ſhire ſhall make payment to all ſuch perſons as ſhall be ſo overburdened with quarterings out of the monethly maintenance of the ſhire, at the direction of the committee of war; And if the whole monethlie maintenance of any ſhire ſhall be exhauſted that then the Generall Commiſſarie ſhall make payment to them for the ſaid quarterings out of the monethly maintenance of other ſhires whoſe maintenance is not exhauſted by quarterings. And in caſe any maſter ſhall thrall his tenants, and force them to lay out any monies in levies otherwiſe then according to the directions of the Parliament, or being defired, ſhall not allow them the maintenance when they have been neceſſitated to pay the ſame for their maſters, or quarterings, not exceeding the Maintenance; The Eſtates of Parliament do Decleare, that upon probation thereof before the ſaid Commiſſioners (the maſter for ſo doeing ſhall beſide reſtitution to the tenant) pay as much to the Commiſſioners for the uſe of the publick.

8 THAT where tenants have not concurred in James Grahams rebellion, or been acceſſorie to the late unlawfull Engagement againſt England, or the late Rebellion in the north, but have ſuffered therein, effectuall courſe be taken for their eaſe and relief, that it be not in their maſters power to oppreſſe and deſtroy them; And that the loſſes of all ſuch tenants as have ſuffered for their affection (there maſters being guilty of any of the crimes aforeſaid) be cognoſced and tryed before the ſaid Commiſſioners, and what allowance and deduction ſhall be decerned by them, to be retained from their aforeſaid maſters (guilty as ſaid is) ſhall be a ſufficient exoneration and diſcharge to them of the mails and duties pro tanto, and is to be ſo allowed by all and whatſoever Judges before whom the ſaid duties are to be perſued. And that the maſter be not permitted to purſue them for theſe duties before their own Courts, and if the maſter ſhall do other wiſe, the tenant to have repetition pro tanto, provided, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to infringe any capitulation approven by Parliament.

9 THAT all Collectors of monies within ſhires have teſtificats of their honeſtie and fidelitie from the Presbyterie, and ſubcollectors from the ſeſsions where they live.

10 THAT no Collectors ſhall quarter ſouldiers upon any for deficiencie in payment of publick dues, unleſs there be intimation given ſix dayes before to the Preſident, or in his abſence, to any two of the Committee of war of the ſhire & to the partie deficient; And that no officer ſhal quarter ſouldiers upon any for their deficiency in payment of publick dues, unleſs they have ane warrant for the ſame, under the Collectors hand, or have order from the Committee of Eſtates or generall Commiſſarie: And if any collector or officer doe otherwiſe, that he ſhall be caſhiered and removed.

11 THAT if any Collector ſhall exact more from any maſter or tenant, then the juſt proportion, or ſhall cauſe them make twice payment of the ſame ſum, that he ſhall pay the double thereof to the perſons whom he hath ſo wrongd, and not only be removed from his office, but ſhalbe declared incapable of any truſt hereafter; likeas if any Collector ſhall refuſe to allow quarterings from the firſt of this moneth, being rightlie inſtructed, and within the monthlie maintenance, he ſhall be puniſhed in the ſame manner, and this is without prejudice of the Act of Parliament for relief of preceding quarterings.

12 THAT if any officer or ſouldier ſhall exact money by paction or otherwayes from any maſter or tenant to Burgh or land beſide their pay, viz. in time coming twelve pence for the trooper, and ſix pence for the foot ſouldier, or ſhal plunder any goods, that he ſhall repay the double unto them, forfeit all his arrears to the publick, be caſhiered with diſgrace, and declared incapable of any truſt hereafter, and ſhall be further puniſhed according to the Articles of war.

13 THAT in caſe any officer or ſouldier, ſhall force maſter or tenant to Burgh or land, to give him a diſcharge when he hath payed no money, or leſs then his quarterings extend to, or ſhall offer any violence againſt maſter or tenant, by beating them or otherwayes, the ſame Puniſhment ſhall be inflicted on him.

14 THAT if any officer or ſouldier ſhall in the place of the country where they quarter, wilfullie thruſt his horſe into cornes, or meddews which uſe to be mown yearlie, or where there is young planting, that they ſhall forfeit a moneths means: And if any officer or ſouldier ſhall at his own hand preſume to take any mans horſe for riding, or any other uſe, the officer or ſouldier ſo doing, ſhall pay the price of the horſe to the owner, and alſo forfeit ane moneths means.

15 THAT if any troop, or Companie, or part thereof ſhall quarter in any place, and at their removal, ſhall nither pay compleatlie for their quarters, nor leave a ticket (which they are to doe without demanding any money for the ſame) or ſhall leave a ticket for a ſhorter time then they did quarter, that there ſhalbe detained of the officers pay, who had the charge of that troop or company upon the place, the double of what ſhall be found due for the quarter, and in caſe the officers pay be not ſufficient to defray what ſhall be ſo reſtand, that the remainder thereof ſhalbe defalked out of the ſouldiers pay, and given to the party on whom they did quarter.

16 THAT no troop nor Company ſhall in their tranſient quarters ſtay above one night in a place, and that the horſe ſhall march at leaſt fifteen miles, and the foot ten miles, except upon the Lords day or otherwayes, that the double of every nights quarter ſhalbe allowed out of their pay to theſe upon whom they quarter, unleſs there ſhall be an evident neceſſitie or order from a Generall Officer.

17 THAT to prevent the abuſe of officers and ſouldiers in demanding extraordinary fare, their pay be delivered to them, at the end of every fourteen dayes (or ſooner if they remove) by the ſhire, or collector of the ſhire where they are quartered, and that they ſhall pay ready mony for whatſoever they take for themſelves, their horſe, and the ſervants of Commanders, at the ordinarie rates of theſe places where they are quartered, without extortion, and if any officer or ſouldier, receiving their pay as aforeſaid ſhall do otherwayes, that they ſhall forfeit a moneths means for the firſt fault, and if after complaint made, they ſhall continue ſo to do, that they ſhall be caſheered.

18 THAT all perſons who have furniſhed quarter to any troop, or Companie, or part thereof, without payment either upon or without billet, that they inſtruct the ſame before the Committees of the reſpective ſhires where they dwell, by the ſaid billets, and where the ſouldier hath not left billets, to inſtruct the ſame, according to the acts of Parliament for allowing of quarters by two of the Committee of war, each moneths quartering before the tenth of the ſubſequent moneth, to the end, that each Company, troop or regiment may be truly charged with what they have received, & ſo much of their pay diſcomted to them, and accordingly allowed in the monthly maintenance.

19 THAT no quarter be allowed to women or pedies attending upon troops or companies, and that all officers be carefull to ſee this dulie obſerved, and in caſe they ſhall fail herein, that they ſhall forfeit a monethes meanes.

20 THAT the Commiſsioners aforeſaid have power to heare & determine all queſtions & differences that have ariſen betwixt maſters and tenants ſince the firſt of October, or ſhall ariſe in time comming concerning the out-reikes of horſe and foot, the payment of the maintenance, and touching quarterings according to the derections of the Parliament before expreſſed.

21 THAT the ſaid Commiſſioners doe likewiſe certifie to the Committee of Eſtates the names of all ſuch maſters as have oppreſſed their tenants in any time by-paſt in the out-reiks of horſe and foot, payment of the maintenance, or in quarterings, or have any wayes made benefit to themſelves therein contrary to former Acts of Parliament, or who ſhall hereafter wrong their tenants contrary to the preſent directions of Parliament, and ſhall ſend therewith the proofs of the ſaid wrongs ſo committed, to the end the ſaids perſons may be fined and cenſured as the Committee of Eſtates ſhall find their faults to deſerve.

22 THAT when any complaint ſhall be made to the Commiſſioners aforeſaid againſt collectors for their tranſgreſſing the orders and directions of the Parliament, that the Commiſſioners ſhall call the parties before them, and after exact tryall, repreſent the whole matter to the Committee of Eſtates, and ſend the depoſitions and proofs therewith, that the Committee may take ſpeedie courſe for redreſs of all juſt grievances.

23 THAT when any complaint ſhall be made to them againſt any officer or ſouldier for tranſgreſſing the orders and directions of the Parliament, if after tryall of the matter, it ſhall appeare to them to be a juſt grievance, that then they repreſent the ſame to the chiefe officer that is upon the place, and deſire reparation, and if there be no officer on the place above him againſt whom the complaint is made, that then they deſire himſelf to make reparation, and if in any of the caſes aforeſaid reparation and ſatisfaction ſhall not be ſpeedily given, that then the Commiſſioners certifie the whole matter to the Committee of Eſtates, and ſend the depoſitions and proofs of the particular crimes and faults, that the parties wronged may be repaired, and the parties offending may receive condigne puniſhment, and that the officer denying or delaying to repaire the wrong, ſhall for the firſt fault forfeit a moneths means, and ſhall be caſhiered for the ſecond.

24. THAT theſe preſents be Printed, and ſent to the reſpective Presbyteries within the Kingdom ſpeedily, that they may ſend in a liſt of perſons to the Committee of Eſtates as is before expreſſed, and that theſe preſents be likewayes read in all Pariſh Churches.

ACT for puniſhing the horrible crime of Inceſt with death.

THE Eſtates of Parliament conſidering that it is 205 already Ordained by the 14. Act of the firſt Parliament of K. J. 6. That whatſoever perſon or perſons, who are guilty of the abominable & vile crime of Inceſt in any of theſe degrees which Gods word hath expreſſly forbidden in the 18. chapter of Leviticus, ſhall be puniſhed to the death: And conſidering alſo that there be many other degrees of Inceſt both in affinity and conſanguinity, no leſs hainous and puniſhable then theſe expreſſed in the Letter of that Text, becauſe they be either neerer or fully as neer: Therefore the Eſtates of Parliament, being deſirous to provide a ſufficient remedy againſt all theſe evils, And that the wrath of God (which could not but lie heavy upon the Land, by impunity of ſuch abominable crimes) may be averted, Do ratifie and approve the ſaid Act; And further Declare and Ordain, That not only thoſe perſons who are guilty of any degree of Inceſt, expreſt in the foreſaid Text: But alſo that whatſoever perſon or perſons ſhall hereafter be found guilty of any other degree of Inceſt either neerer or fully as neer in affinity or conſanguinity, as theſe that are expreſſed in the Letter of the foreſaid Text, ſhall be puniſhed to the death, And that ſuch perſons may be the better known, The ſaids Eſtates findes and declares all theſe degrees mentioned and ſet down in the following Table to be Inceſt and puniſhable by death.

[DRAUGHT of the Letter to be ſent to his Ma^tie to be ſigned and dated as aforſaid, (as resolved vpon be the Committee of Estates in pursuance of the above Order; September 12, 1649.)

May it please your Ma^tie

IF the Estates of Parliament of this your Ma / most ancient Kingdome had considered the power and prevalencie of your Ma / enemies, your Ma / present condition, and the difficulties and dangers that may attend ane agreement with your Ma^tie in ſuch a posture of affaires; they might have beene ſilent vpon the recept of ſo vnſatiffactorie an anſwere to there humble and earnest deſyres, and waited for the expresse promiſed by your Ma^tie in your last anſwere to there Comm̃^rs: But beeing verie deſyrous to witnesse there tender respect to your Ma^tie and becauſe they wald not bee wanting in anie thing q^ch might evidence the ſinceritie and conſtancie of þ^r affection, and begett a right vnderstanding betuix your Ma^tie and your faithfull and loyall Subjects of this Kingdome, they have resolved vpon this new addresse, there beeing no earthlie thing more in there deſyres then that your Ma / may rule over them, and that your throne may bee established in religion and righteouſnes

WEE doubt not but your Ma^tie hes ſeriouſlie considered your preſent Estate, and weighed the dangers, that do, and may further aryſe from delay in reſolution; yet wee crave leave humblie to represent, that it is matter of much trouble, and ſadnes for ws to thinke, that your Ma^tie ſhould live amongst Strangers; and (relying vpon the vncertaine ayde of forreigners) ſtand at ſuch a diſtance, with your well affected Subjects, who against all difficulties and Impediments are most willing to Intereſt themſelfes in your Ma / affaires according to the Covenant; And wee can not but acquaint your Ma^tie that it is vnto ws matter of admiration, that your Ma / ſhould all this tyme forbeare to declare your Intentions and reſolutions, whilſt your adversaries (the Murtherers of your Royall father and our Native King) are verie active and Industrious both at home and abroad, and leave no meanes vneſsayed which may either gaine reputation to themſelffes, or leſsen your Ma / estimation with your People.

AS wee are much greived to conſider the manie great Inconveniences q^ch accompanie your Ma / Irresolution, So are wee much more afflicted to thinke of the ſad effects that may enſew, Incaice your Ma^tie ſhould bee induced to beleive that it can bee ſafe for your Ma^tie to trust your Perſone or affaires to the Papists in Ireland, who for þ^r enimitie to the reformed Religion and cruell murther of manie thouſand Protestants in that Kingdome, are long ſince become detestable to all your Ma / Subjects, who either feare God, honour your Ma^tie / or wish weell to the Peace of theſe Kingdomes.

WEE do therefore most humblie begg and earnestlie beſeech that your Ma / wald in your Princelie wiſedome ſeaſonablie lay to heart your owne Estate, the long continued distraction of your Kingdomes, and the equitie of our humble deſyres presented vnto your Ma / by our Commiſsioners; which, if your Ma / ſhall bee graciouſlie pleased to grant (and aboue all if your Ma^tie ſhall cordiallie enter into the ſolemne League and Covenant) is the onlie way to procure the Lords blessing on all your vndertakings, and the heartie concurrence of your well affected Subjects in all your Kingdomes, for restoring your Ma / to your Just power and Authoritie; And for our pairts wee dare confidentlie ſay in his ſight, who is the ſearcher of hearts, that your Ma / may therevpon aſsuredlie expect from this Kingdome all the Teſtimonies of affection and fidelitie according to our Covenant, that dutifull and Loyall Subjects are capable of for restoring your Ma / to the poſſeſsioun of the Governement of your other Kingdomes.

IF in order to theſe ends your Ma / ſhall bee pleaſed to acknowledge the present Parliament of this Kingdome, particularlie the two last Sessions þof in this yeare. 1649. and the Committee haveing authoritie from them in the Intervall of Parliament, Wee are reſolved to mak a ſolemne addreſse vnto your Matie for a full agreement vpon the grounds conteinit in the former deſyres of Your Ma / most Humble most loyall and most obedient Subjects, Signed in name and by command of the Parliament of your Ma / Kingdome of Scotland, Sic ſignatur Loudoun Canſtrius, Daited, Edinb. the 7th. August 1649.

LETTER from the Committee of Estates to the Kings Majestie

May it please your Matie

3. 4. YOW ſhall ſhow his Matie, that there can be nothing more prejudiciall to his Maties ſervice, nor more greivous to this Kingdome, then his granting Commissions to, or putting anie trust or Imployment vpon James Grahame who is excommunicated by the Church and declared a Traytor be the Parliament.

YOW are to give constant Intelligence from tyme to tyme of your negotiation and the State of affaires, Sic ſubſcribitur Loudoun Canſtrius I. P. D. Com.]

[INSTRUCTIONS from the Parliament to the Commiſsioners goeing to the Kingis Majestie

YOW shall shew his Matie that imediatly after the receipt of his letter, all poſsible expedition was vsed for yor dispatch before the Parlt. But the meiting thereof haveing drawne neere before yee could be in readyneſſe, It was thought neceſsary that yow should receive their direction & approbation.

1 YOW shall shew his Matie, that this Kingdome was not satiffyed with his Maties letter; And that the sending of Comrs to treat with his Matie was not vpon the grounds of the said letter, but in prosecution of their former desires, and vpon the grounds cleered to his Matie by their Comrs in their former papers.

2 YOW shall desire that his Matie recall and diſclame all Cōmiſsions iſsued forth for acting any thing by Sea or Land, to the prejudice of the Covenant, or this Kingdome, or any who doe or shall adhere to the Solemne League and Covenant, & Monarchicall governmt in any other of his dominions, And all Declarations made by any in his Name, or by his warrant, agt the same. And further you shall desire his Matie to diſallow or declare Null & voide, all Treatyes and Agreements whatsoever, with the bloudy Rebels in Ireland, And to declare, that hee will never allow nor permitt any liberty of the Popish Religion in Ireland, or any other part of his Dominions.

3 YOW shall desire that his Matie would acknowledge the authority of this, and the former Parlts that hath beine since the time that his royall ffather or his Cōmiſsioners were present therein; And parteularly yow shall demand from his Matie such an allowance & approbation of the Acts made in this and the two last imediat preceiding Seſsions of this current Parlt, as the Comrs of this Kingdome obtained from his royall ffather in ansr to their first demands in the Large Treaty 1641.

4 YOW shall remonſtrate to his Matie the motives contained in the 11th article of the former Instructions sent in March 1649, and prosecute the same with all the Arguments yow can, especially from the Straits this Kingdome may be put to, after so many ineffectuall addreſses to his Matie.

5 YOW are to demand from his Matie that so soone as hee shall come to Scotland, and before his admiſsion to his royall power, hee shall sweare, subſcribe, and seall the Nationall Covenant, and the Solemne League & Covenant in the words following to be subjoyned to both.

I CHARLES, KING of Great Brittaine, France, & Ireland, doe aſsure & declare by my solemne oath, in the presence of almighty God the searcher of hearts, my allowance & approbation of the Nationall Covenant, and of the Solemne League & Covenant abonewritten; And faithfully obleiges my selfe to prosecute the ends thereof in my Station & calling; And that I for my Selfe & Succeſsor, shall consent and agree to all acts of Parlt enjoyneing the Nationall Covenant, & the Solemne League & Covenant, and fully establiſhing Presbyteriall Government, the directory for worſhip, Confeſsion of faith, and Catechismes in the Kingdome of Scotland, as they are approven by the Generall Aſsembly of this Kirk & Parlt of this Kingdome; And that I shall give my royall aſsent to the Acts of Parlt enjoyneing the same in the reſt of my Dominions; And that I shall observe these in my owne practise and ffamily, and shall never make any opposition to any of these, or endeavour any change thereof.

6 YOW shall likewiſe acquaint the Kings Matie with the Oath of Coronation wch according to the Acts of Parlt, hee is to take. And yee shall desire his Matie to consent & agree, that all matters Civill be determined by this, & the subsequent Parlts of this Kingdome, and such as are & shalbe authorized by them; And all matters Ecclesiasticall by the enſueing Aſsemblyes of this Kirk, and such as are, or shalbe authorized by them, as was formerly condeſcended & agreed to, by his Maties royall ffather.

7 IF his Matie shall grant the desires contained in the 2d, 3d, & 6th. articles, and shall faithfully & cleerely promiſe & aſsure in verbo Principis, to give the satiſfaction desired in the · 5th. article, so soone as his Matie shall come to Scotland, And shall deliver to yow vnder his hand & seall, the grant & aſsurance aforesaid, directed to the Parlt, and they not sitting To the Comittee of Estates of Parlt, and to the Comrs of the Kirk; Yow shall in their Name invite his Matie to come to this Kingdome, And give him aſsurance that hee shalbe received & intertained with all the duety & respect wch can be demanded or expected from Loyall subjects, who are tyed to him by so many bonds & oathes; And that vpon his giveing the satiſfaction aforesaid, his Matie is freely to exerce his royall power. But it is rather our humble advice & earnest desire his Matie should give the satiſfaction aforesaid in Holland, that hee may at his first arryvall enter to the full exerciſe of his royall Governement, to the great contentment of all his good people.

8 IF there shalbe any question about the meaneing of the Oath & aſsurance wch his Matie is to give for security of Religion, That it be declared to his Matie, that it doth not only import that the Nationall & Solemne League & Covenant, be taken by his Subjects; but alſo his approbation of all the heads & articles thereof in his owne particular judgement.

[PAPER from the Lieutenant-general.

BEING neceſſitated to be abſent from your lordſhipps, being about your reſolutions anent the kingdome's defence, I humbly crave leave to preſſe theſe following deſires:

1. THAT the danger being ſoe imminent, noe fewer horſe and foot nor is expreſt in the laſt act of leavy, be preſently raiſed out of the ſhires for the kingdome's defence.

2. FOUR reaſons are expreſſed againſt a preſent modelling or reducing of the army now in their lordſhipps ſervice.

3. THAT your lordſhipps would have a ſpeciall care in the ordering of your army, that the old troopes and regiments may by your new leavyes be compleated to 75 each troop, and 108 each regiment of foot, a mixture being better than to keep the new entirely by themſelves.

4. THAT the remainder of the new leavies, above the compleating of the number of horſe and foot above written, be formed in troopes and regiments; and by your lordſhipps election of your Officers, you may encourage the ſhires chearfully to putt out their ſeverall proportions.

5. THAT a regular and a ſpeedy courſe be taken for purging your army of all diſaffected and prophane perſons.

THESE my humble deſires proceed meerly from my affection to your ſervice, wherein I ſhall hazard life and fortune for the common cauſe, and againſt the invaſion of whatſoever.

THREE Letters from the parliat to Wm 135
Lenthall the Lord Fairfax & Sr Arthour Haſelrig

[(1) FOR the Honorable William Lenthall Esquire speaker of the House of Commons in England

SIR,

THE Eſtates of the Parliament of this Kingdome remembring that they had written a Letter unto you the ſixt of March, 1649. by an expreſſe, with inſtructions for their Commiſſioners to be communicate to you, which did much concern the good & peace of theſe Kingdomes, And that they received one from you of 23. of May following, whereunto they returned their Anſwer upon the 26. of June, 1649. and therein did take notice that they had received no return to theirs of the fixth of March preceding, neither have they to this day received any anſwer to the ſame: And having intelligence of the marching of your forces towards this kingdome, and being alſo certainly informed that your ſhips have lately ſearched divers, and ſeized upon ſome of the ſhips with the perſons and goods therein belonging to this Nation. And conſidering how contrary theſe things are (where there has been no provocation or injury offered by the party) to the Act of Pacification in the large Treaty, which requires that no ſhips ſhould ſtop the trade of the other kingdome without conſent of Parliament declaring a breach of Peace, and if any wrong be done, that upon complaint and Remonſtrance made to the Parliament or their Commiſſioners, redreſſe and reparation ſhould be ſought before it be accompted a breach of Peace by the whole kingdom; And if either Parliament ſhould denounce Warre, that they ſhould give three moneths warning, They have therefore reſolved to ſend, as they doe herewith ſend unto you Authentick duplicates of all theſe four above mentioned papers, and to ſhew how that they keep the ſame Principles and Reſolves, ſtill to walk according to the ſame Rules. and grounds, and have no other intentions or reſolutions in relation to Peace or Warre in theſe Nations, then they did expreſſe at large in theſe papers, as is moſt fully ſet doun in their Letter of the fixth of March, and Inſtructions ſent therewith to their Commiſſioners then in England; wherein as they did on their part both acknowledge their Obligation, and declare their reſolution to obſerve the rule of remonſtrating; firſt the breaches of Peace; of craving juſt reparation; of uſing all fair means; of giving a preceding warning of three months before any Engagement of theſe kingdoms in War, ſo they do now renew the ſame, and accordingly have renewed the Acts of Poſture and Leavie, for putting the forces of this Kingdome in readineſſe in caſe of Invaſion, which were made the laſt yeer when they wrot the forefaid letter of the fixth of March; All which they doe ſolemnly profeſſe to be done by them in the ſincerity of their hearts, not out of any Policy to catch advantages for any other end or deſigne whatſoever, but meerly for their own defence, which they do accompt abundantly ſufficient to remove all grounds of jealouſies and miſreports of their Intentions, and to take away all pretence of neceſsity of the marching of your forces for defence of the Borders of England; wherefore on the other part, the Parliament being informed of a reſolution in England to ſend an Army to invade this kingdome, They deſire to know from you whether thoſe who have the preſent power in England, doe acknowledge themſelves obliged, or by their anſwer will oblige themſelves, and declare their reſolutions to obſerve the foreſaid way and order upon their part to us, & plainly and clearly to declare unto us whether their forces do march for defence or offence; whether with Intention for keeping only within the Borders of England, or coming within ours; which way of procedour in clearing each others, and dealing plainly, is not only agreeable to particular Treaties, and to the many Tyes, Bonds, and Declarations paſt betwixt theſe kingdomes, but alſo to the law of God and practice of his people in his word, and to the common law & practice, even of heathen Nations, much more of Chriſtian Covenanted Kingdomes, and may prevent many evils and dangerous conſequences which may fall out, even beyond, and contrary to the intentions of Nations by their Armies lying near other upon their Borders, although upon meerly intended defence. Having thus cleared their intentions, and deſired to be cleared touching yours; They further deſire to let you know, that as Jephta and Iſrael ſent the like meſſage to the Ammonites, 11 Judges 12. and 27. ſo they reſt confident that the Covenanted God of theſe kingdomes, who did take order with thoſe of this Nation, who did unlawfully engage againſt England, in 1648. doth ſtill live and reign, and will bring ſhame and ruine upon whatſoever party in either of theſe Nations, that without a neceſſary cauſe, and cleer calling, and without obſervance of the ſaid rule and order of ſeeking firſt reparation, and giving warning as aforeſaid, ſhall offend and invade the other Nation: They further deſire, that with this bearer who is ſent expreſſe, an anſwer may be returned to this, and to the incloſed papers formerly ſent unto you, and that the ſubjects of this Nation, with their ſhips and goods, may be preſently relieved, and diſmiſſed; This being all I have in Command to repreſent to you from the Parliament of this kingdome, I reſt,

Your humble Servant,

[(2) FOR his Excellencie the Lord Fairfax, Lord General, Lieutenant General Cromwell, or any other Commanding in Chieff the English Forces.

My Lord,

THE eſtates of parliament of this kingdome haveing intelligence of the marching of your forces towards their borders, and being informed that Engliſh ſhipps have ſeized on ſome ſhipps, with the perſons and goods belonging to this kingdome; and conſidering that the large treaty requires three moneths warning before denouncing warre, they have writt to Mr. William Lenthall, Eſquire, ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, and ſhew to your Lordſhipp that they reſolve to obſerve that rule, of giveing three moneths warning before any engagement of theſe kingdomes in warre; and they deſire to know if your Lordſhipp and thoſe under your command are reſolved to obſerve the foreſaid rule on your part to us; and that your Lordſhipp would declare unto us whither your march be for defence or offence, whither with intention to keepe within the borders of England, or to come within ours. Haveing cleared their intentions, they deſire to be cleared of yours, being perſwaded God's juſtice will purſue thoſe of either nation by whom an unjuſt invaſion ſhall be made. This being all I have in command from the parliament of this kingdome to ſay, I reſt

[(3) FOR the Honorable Sir Arthur Haſelrige, Governor of Newcaſtle.

Much honnored Sir,

THE eſtates of parliament of this kingdome haveing intelligence that Engliſh ſhipps have ſearched and ſeiſed divers ſhipps, with the perſones and goods therein, belonging to this kingdome, and carryed them into Newcaſtle and Berwicke, where you command; and conſidering how contrary theſe things are (noe injury haveing been offered by the partye) to the act of pacification in the large treaty, which requires, that no ſhipp ſhould ſtopp the trade of the other kingdome without conſent of parliament declaring a breach of peace, &c. and if either parliament denounce warr, that they ſhall give three moneths warning. And they have written to Mr. William Lenthall, Eſq; ſpeaker of the houſe of commons, ſo they have reſolved to write to you, that the ſhipps and goods ſeiſed may be releaſed, and like inconveniences prevented for tyme comeing; to which they expect your anſwer. This is all I have in command from the parliament of this kingdome to ſay, and I reſt

COMMISSIONE granted for doeing Juſtice wpon W'm fraſ' 149

ACT for a Leavie of Horſe and Foot within this Kingdom, for their neceſſary Defence.

THE Eſtates of Parliament having conſidered the dangerous poſture of affaires in this Kingdome, both in reſpect of' inteſtine and forraigne enemies, And although it hes pleaſed God, to breake the power of malignants in this Kingdome, Yet know- 150

ing that they will be unceſſant in their deſignes and attempts in laying hold of all opportunities to involve this Kingdome in new troubles, And withall, having received ſeverall intelligences of imminent dangers to the cauſe and this Nation from abroad by approaching of an armie of Sectaries towards this Kingdom. And being obliged in diſcharge of the truſt Committed to them to take care of the ſafetie of the Nation, As they reſolve for themſelves to uſe all lawfull means and peaceble wayes to prevent the dangers, ſo they have thought fit to give warning to the ſeverall ſhires and burghs, That according to the law of God, nature and nations, and according to the duties which they by ſo many ſacred bonds owe to the Covenant and cauſe, to the King and Kingdom, they might be in a condition and poſture for defending all thoſe and whatſoever is neer and dear to them againſt all invaſion. Likeas for the ſtopping of the mouth of Calumnie removing all ſcrouples and miſtakes, and clearing to the conſciences of all the lawfulneſſe, neceſſitie and juſtice of their reſolutions & proceedings, & that they may have the greater aſſurance of Gods bleſſing and preſence to all their indevores, The Eſtates of Parliament declare and aſsure that they injoyne the following levy of horſe and foot for this end allanerlie of meer, juſt and neceſſary defence of this Kingdom from invaſion, without any deſigne or intention of invading, any who ſhal not firſt invade this Kingdome; And therefore the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament doe hereby ordain the whole ſhyres and burghes within this Kingdome preſently to raiſe and have in readineſſe the whole number of horſe, men, and armes, and the foot appointed to be levied by the act of Parliament of the 6 day of Auguſt, 1649. Together with what was not put forth of the third part of the horſe & fourt part of the foot, conform to the act of levie of the 28. day of Febr. 1649. And ſiclike the hail Burrows of this Kingdom to raiſe & have in readines the proportion of horſe according to the ſaid act of the 28. of February 1649. So far as alreadie is not put forth by them, Or in their option three Foot for every horſe & man, & that according to the Act 6. of Auguſt. 1649. For the preſent levie; all which are ſet down in the liſt hereunto ſubjoyned. And ordaines the forces foreſaid To be brought to Randevoweſes againſt ſuch dayes as are deſigned by the Parliament by a particular Act of the date of thir preſents herewith ſent, and that at ſuch a convenient place within the Shire as the Committee of war, with adviſe of the officers ſhal think fit, And appoints them at that time and place to be inrolled and liſted under their reſpective officers, And either to march if they ſhal receive orders, or to returne to remain with their out-putters incaſe they receive not orders from the Parliament or their Committee; Providing alwayes, that it is not hereby to be underſtood that the Committee of Eſtates ſhall have any power to give orders to the ſaid forces for bringing them forth of the ſhires for any other ends then for the juſt and neceſſarie defence of this Kingdome from invaſion as is expreſt in the narrative of this Act. And the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament ordains everie troup to conſiſt of 75. Troupers, and every regiment of horſe to be made up of 6. troupes at leaſt, and 8. Troups at moſt, ſicklike every companie of foot to conſiſt of 126 ſouldiers, and every regiment of foot to be made up of 8. companies, And likewiſe they ordaine the preſent ſtanding troupes be recruited and made up to the number of 75. in every troup out of the number of horſes to be now levyed forth of the ſeverall ſhyres reſpective, and theſe recruites not to be brought forth of the ſhires til there be a neceſſitie of bringing forth the new levy foreſaid, according to this preſent Act, And ſicklike that theſe recrutes be diſmiſsed with the new Leavie, when the ſame ſhall be diſmiſsed; And farther, the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament declare they will nominate and appoint the officers of regiments, troups and companies from a Collonell to a Captain incluſive without prejudice to the Committes of ſhires in time coming anent any power whatſomever granted to them for nomination of their own rootmaſters conforme to any preceding acts of levie, and do give power and warrant to the Committees of War of the ſeverall ſhyres with adviſe of the Collonels reſpective, according to their ſeverall diviſions if they be preſent to nominat and appoint the officers inferior to a Captain, and to the Magiſtrates and Counſels of Burghes to make choyſe of their officers under the degree of a Captain according to the proportions to be put forth by them, Providing alwayes they make choiſe of ſuch as are fit for the ſervice, and are qualified as is expreſt in the 26. Act ſeventeenth of February, 1649. which ordains that ſuch as are malignant and diſaffected to the preſent work of reformation, and Covenants, and againſt whom there is juſt cauſe of Exception or juſt ground of jealouſie becauſe of their diſaffection, or any perſon given to Drunkennes, Swearing, Uncleanes, or any other Scandalous offence, Be not made choyſe of, but only able men, and ſuch who are of known affection unto, & approved fidelitie and integritie in the cauſe of God, & of a blameles and Chriſtian Converſation. And ordaines the ſaids Committees of Warr and Counſells of Burghes, after they have made choyſe of their under officers, to return a roll of their names to the Committee appointed for purging the armie, before the day of their randezvows. And gives power to the Committees of War and Counſells of Burghs within their ſeverall Juriſdictions reſpective, To divide and lay on proportionally the horſe according to the maintenance upon the ſeverall heritors and others lyable in putting forth the ſame; And It is declared That the greateſt rent of theſe to be joyned for making up one horſe ſhall provide the horſe, And the reſt that joyne, to contribute according to one hundereth and threeſcore pounds for ilk horſe and man, With power alſo to the Committees of Warr of the ſeverall Shires reſpective, to ſet prices upon horſes fit for the ſervice, And to take them as they ſhall find neceſſarie for the good of the ſame, And Sicklyke appoints the heritors and others lyable in putting forth horſe and Foot, to bring them to the Randezvous well mounted and armed under the paine of 200. merks for ilk horſe & man, and 100. Merks for ilk Footman. [REPORT from the Committee of Conference.

27 Junii 1650.

THE committee appointed for conference with the commiſſioners from the church thought it meet, that ſome perſons ſhould be ſent to congratulate his Majeſties happy arrivall into this kingdome. And to ſhew his Majeſtie how glad his people were to heare that it has pleaſed God to move his heart to give ſatisfaction to their deſires, and that it would be very acceptable to them, that to teſtify his reality therein he would likewiſe forſake and abandon the company of malignants; and that his domeſtick ſervants, and ſuch as are about him might be well affected to the cauſe and not malignant; and ſuch as are otherwiſe, be removed and put from about him, but in a fair and diſcreet way.

AND having conſidered the liſt of his Majeſties ſervants and others of the train ſo farr as it come to their knowledge, the committee aforeſaid thought it fitt and neceſſary that the perſons after following, viz. the Duke of Hamilton, the Duke of Buckingham, the Earle Forth, Lauderdale, Sir Robert Dalzell, L. Sinclair, Doctor Frazer, L. Wilmott, L. Wentworth, Secretary Long, Mr. Uder, Earle of Cleveland, Mr. Seymor, Viſcount Grandiſon, Mr. Progers, L. Withrington, Mr. Rogers, Sir Philip Muſgrave, Col. Darſy, Col. Gray, Col. Boynton, Major Jackſon, Dr. Goff, Mr. Harding, corrupt chaplaines, and Sir Edward Walker, ſhould forthwith remove themſelves and depart out of the kingdome; and ſuch alſo as have ſerved in armes againſt the cauſe, and been evill inſtruments, and given bad counſell to his Majeſties late father and himſelfe; and likewiſe ſuch others as upon information from our commiſſioners ſhall be thought fitt to be removed.

Edinburgh, 28 Junii 1650.

This article approven, and all the perſones names ordained to ſtand and appointed to be inſert in the inſtructions to be ſent with the commiſſioners.

And the committee thought alſo fitt in the election of the officers of the army ſpeciall care be taken none be made choice of but ſuch in whome the kingdome may confide, and that a committee be appointed to make up a liſt of ſuch officers as ſhall be well qualifyed and deſerve truſt in the publique ſervice; and that the purging of the army be proſecuted ſpeedily and effectually, and the committee appointed for that effect be preſently nominated.

And conſidering how neceſſary it is for ſecurity of the kingdome that the towne of Leith be fortified with all ſpeed, the committee aforeſaid thinkes fitt that the country people in the places and pariſhes adjacent, within 12 miles about Edinburgh and Leith; the towns of Lithgow and Hadington being includit, as likewiſe the ſaid towne of Edinburgh; and the ſoldiers that were formerly appointed for theſe workes, ſhould ſpeedily repaire thither with materialls, and effectually goe about the compleating of the workes; and for the better accelerating and perfitting thereof, that the workes ſhould be diſtributed amongſt them, and ſeveral places deſigned to the pariſhes and companyes for makeing up their parts of the workes, and that a ſelect committee be appointed to ſee this orderly, ſpeedily, and effectually done, and declares that the ſoldiers ſhall worke every day, they getting their owne ordinary pay allanerly.

Edinburgh, 28 Junii.

The parliament for the firſt article ordaynes that two of every eſtaite ſhall be ſent to his Majeſtie.

For the ſecond article, that it bee repreſented in a faire way to his majeſtie, that the Scottiſh noblemen, gentry, and others conteined in the laſt act of parliament, be forthwith removed out of the kingdome, without prejudice, to proceed further againſt them as accords with the law; and that all other Scottiſh men not ſpecifyed in the act of parliament, and yet men mentionate in this article, be preſently removed furth of the kingdome, and that ſome troopes be appointed to attend the commiſſioners in putting theſe orders in execution.

And as concerning the Engliſh mentionate in this article, ordaines the commiſſioners to repreſent to his Majeſtie in a faire way, that the Engliſh noblemen, gentlemen, and others ſpecified in this article, be preſently removed out of this kingdome; and that this alſo be intimate to the perſones themſelves, declairing to them, that this kingdome will give them noe protectione; and therefore that they remove themſelves forth of this kingdome within eight dayes after intimation hereof made to them, or publiſhed at the mercat croſſes of Edinburgh and Aberdein, otherwayes the eſtaits of this kingdome will ſeiſe upon their perſones and diſpoſe upon them as they ſhall thinke fitt; and that in the meane tyme they remove themſelves from the verge of the court, and not be permitted to have acceſſe to his Majeſtie.

[REPORT from the Committee of Conference.

IT is the opinion of the committee of conference, that inſtead of the act of poſture to avoyd confuſion by the coming together of the whole fenſible perſones, there ſhall be a ſelect number throughout the whole ſhires of the kingdome to be in readineſs to march, and to draw to the ſtanding forces of the kingdome when advertiſed by beacons or orders from the committee; and that the proportion ſhall be the juſt number both of horſe and foot of the preſent leavy, the number whereof is herein preſented to the parliament, by and attour the whole noblemen, gentlemen, heritors, lyfrenters, fewers, and woodſetters, who are to be ordained to come forth under the paynes that be contayned in the act of poſture, and under the higheſt and ſtricteſt puniſhment that can be expreſt, death, infamy, loſſe of all their moveables, and forfaultor of the third part of their eſtates; and as to the bordering ſhires, and other ſhires where the actuall invaſion ſhall be, upon the ſaid invaſion, and upon ſight of the beacons, the whole perſons to riſe in armes and draw together to the ſtanding forces of the kingdome, as they ſhall have advertiſement by beacons or orders.

MEMORANDUM. To repreſent to the parliament that there be a lifeguard of horſe appointed for the king's majeſtie; and that the earle of Eglington be nominated for that charge.

THAT the Iriſh companyes be deſigned to be a lifeguard of foot.

THAT there be ſome perſon of worth and quality appointed to have charge of ſuch ſtrangers or Scottiſh voluntiers as may be uſefull for the ſervice, and againſt whome there is no exception.

THAT the ſomme appointed to be furniſhed by the burroughs for their proportion of foot be applyed towards the defraying of the king's neceſſary and perſonall charges with the burden of tenn thouſand markes for the caſtles of Edenburgh and Inchgarvie.

THAT it be carefully lookt to if there be any faithfull Engliſhmen in this kingdome who hath bein conſtant to the covenant and cauſe that may be made uſe of, to the effect it may appeare that the leavy is not carryed on by nationall intereſts.

Edinburgh, 3 July 1650.

The eſtaits of parliament approves the ſecond, third, fourth, and fixt articles within written, and the fift article agreed to with this declaration, that the ſame ſhall be allowed to the burrowes in any ſubſequent levyes, If the horſe to be leavyed furth of the ſhires bee not taken out and made uſe of. And that the ſumme of 5000 merkes, with the bygan annuall rents, reſt and be payt out of the firſt of the ſaid 80,000 merkes to John Hamilton, apothecarie, for the which hee had the lord marquis of Argyle, Mr. Robert Berkley, and Henry Kennedy, cautioners. And that ſuch aſſignments as the parliament made to them for their releif be applyed for entertaynment of the king's houſe.

ACT Ratifieing the Treatie betuix the Kingis Mätie and the Commiſſionerꝭ of the pliament of this Kingdom

THE Eſtates of Parliament now preſently Conveened in the fifth Seſſion of this ſecond Triennall Parliament of King Charles the ſecond, Taking to their conſideration, that now by the bleſſing of God upon this Church and Kingdom, and upon their endeavours in the Treaty with the Kings Majeſty; The ſaid Treaty betwixt the Kings Majeſty and the Parliament of this Kingdom, is now brought to a bleſſed and happie cloſe; And that the Kings Majeſty hath been pleaſed to give a full conſent to the propoſitions given in to his Majeſtie by the Commiſſioners of the Parliament of this Kingdom, contained in a Paper bearing date 11. June, 1650. And that thereupon his Majeſty was Invited by the ſaids Commiſsioners in name and by warrand of the Parliament to come to his Ancient Kingdom, according to the Act of Parliament of the date 18. May, 1650. Declaring and explaining their former invitation given to his Majeſty at Breda; and that his Majeſty at his arrivall to this Kingdom, did ſubſcribe the Nationall Covenant, and the Solemn League and Covenant, and Solemnely ſwear the ſame at Speymouth 23. June laſt, which the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament do acknowledge to be a 200 matter of prăiſe unto God, and of great contentment unto them as a return unto their Prayers, that now the Lord of His mercy hath been pleaſed to give them a Covenanting King, who hath entered in Covenant with God, and with His people; And therefore the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament do by thir preſents unanimouſly accept of His Majeſties Anſwers as ſatisfactory to their foreſaids demands, And therefore doth Ratifie and approve the foreſaids propoſitions given in by the ſaids Commiſsioners of this Kingdom to His Majeſty upon the 11. June laſt, with his Majeſties conſent thereto, and the foreſaid invitation given in to His Majeſty by their ſaids Commiſsioners, according to the tenour of the foreſaid Act of Parliament 18. May 1650. and the Paper given in by their Commiſsioners of the date day of anent the perſons to be left behinde, And Ordains the foreſaids propoſitions, and his Majeſties conſent thereto, with the foreſaid invitation according to the explanation thereof above written, and the Paper foreſaid to be inſert in the books of Parliament, and to have the ſtrength of an Act of Parliament in all time coming; and alſo in reſpect that the Kings Majeſty hath been gratiouſly pleaſed to give ſatiſfaction to this Kingdom, and to their demands, as is contained in his ſaid conſent to the foreſaids propoſitions concerning the ſecurity of Religion and the Union betwixt the Kingdoms, and the good and Peace of this Kingdom, according to the Nationall Covenant, and ſolemne League and Covenant: Therefore in Teſtimony to his Majeſty and to all the World of the Loyaltie and Integritie of their intentions towards his Majeſtie, and for fulfilling and performance of their part of the ſaid Treaty to his Majeſty: They do now by thir preſents unanimouſly declare, that his Majeſty may and is preſently to enter to the Exerciſe of his Royall power to govern his people in Righteouſneſſe and equity, according to the Laws of this Kingdom, the Covenants abovewritten, and the Treaty foreſaid, for the Honour of God, good of Religion, and welfare of his people. And as the ſaids Eſtates did upon 5. February 1649. publiſh the Act of their due acknowledgement of his Majeſties Right, Title, and ſucceſſion to the Crown; So alſo do they publiſh this their due acknowledgement of his Majeſties admition and entering to the Exerciſe of his Royall power according to his juſt Title and right; Likeas the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament being moſt deſirous and earneſt that his Majeſty ſhould be preſently Crowned, and ſo be ſolemnly inveſted in the poſſeſſion thereof, but in reſpect the preſent condition of his Majeſties affairs and of the affairs of this Kingdom, neceſſitates the Eſtates of Parliament to adjourn this preſent Seſſion of Parliament for a ſhort time, for putting this Kingdom in a Poſture for defending Religion, the King and Kingdom againſt the threatened Invaſion: Therefore the ſaids Eſtates, doe humbly and moſt earneſtly Invite his Majeſty to be preſent in his Royall Perſon with his Parliament at their next meeting, where they are reſolved (God willing) to perfect the Solemnity of his Coronation, at which time the ſaids Eſtates of Parliament are confident his Majeſty will again approve and confirm the whole Articles above mentioned, and renew the Covenant aforeſaid, for his Majeſties good and happineſſe, and for ſatisfaction of his people; and in the mean time, the ſaids Eſtates during this preſent intervall, do reſolve to appoint a Committee of Eſtates, by whoſe adviſe his Majeſty is to manage the Government of this Kingdom in all matters according to the Commiſsion to be granted to them; and Ordains this preſent Act to be publiſhed at the Marcat Croſſe of Edinburgh by the Lion King of Armes, with all Solemnities requiſit, in the preſence of two perſons of each Eſtate of Parliament, appointed to aſſiſt thereunto.

[(1) REMONSTRANCE and Petition of the Commiſsioners of the Generall Aſsemblie

Perth 29 November 1650

To the Kings Ma^{tie} and the Right hono^{ble} the Estates of Parliament, The Humble Remonstrance and Petition of the Comiſsioners of the Generall Aſsembly.

THE great and wonderfull goodneſse of our God that in this time of ſo ſadd diſpenſationes toward this afflicted Kirk and Kingdome: this pretious Libertie is permitted gow of aſsembling gour ſelues together in this Supreme Judicatorie: As it is a mater of great praiſe to his name, ſo we conceave it putteth ane obligation vpon yow and us to improve it to the vttermoſt for the good of the Kirk Cauſe and people of God at this time. And in conſideration heirof we Judge it neceſsarie according to our wonted freedome with gour Lo^{pis}, Humbly to Repreſent to gow how neceſſarie it is in this time when the Lord is calling to mourneing, that gour Lo^{pis} ſearche and try that gow may find out what in gour publick adminiſtrationes or privat converſationes hes contribute to the Kindling of this great wraith burneing againſt the land. And for gour Lo^{pis} help heirin we humbly lay before gow theſe particular^{s} following

1 WHAT ever hes bene your Lo^{pis} ſenſe of that paper pñted to gow from the Gentlemen officer^{s} and miniſter^{s} attending the forces in the weſt, Yet we wiſche gow ſeriouſlie to lay to heart the many ſadd treuthis contained therin: We will not heir mentioun the ſinnes relateing to the King and the Royall familie haveing particularly preſented theſe to his Ma^{ties} ſelff, and appoynted a day of ſolemne humiliation to be obſ^{r}ved therefore. Bot we doe with all earneſtnes exhort your Lo^{pis}/to take to conſideration the ſinnes therin held furthe relateing to your ſelffis, and to mourne before the Lord for them, And particularlie and in the firſt place that your Lo^{pis} will impartially and in a ſelff denying way as in the ſight of the Lord ſeriouſlie conſidder, if there hes not bene, at leaſt in ſome of gow, ſinfull precipitancie vnſtreight deſignes and carnall policie in appoynting addreſses for treating with the Kings Ma^{tie}/and in the way of carieing on and cloſeing the ſame, And what vpon ſerious ſearche gow ſhall find therin that gour Lo^{pis} may give glory to God in ane ingenuous acknowledgement and confeſſion theroff and ſincere humiliation before him for the ſame.

2 AS we humbly deſire gour Lo^{pis} to be exceidingly watchfull over gour heartis and to bewaire of harbouring any prejudices of or relenting in gour affection to the Godly in the Land, whom God hes honoured to be verie inſtrumentall in his work, So to ſearche if there hes bene at this time amongſt gow any purpoſes or reſolutiones tending to a ſinfull complyance with the enemies of the Cauſe of God; and what vpon inquirie ſhall be found of this kynd to lye low before the Lord therfore; And withall to guaird for the future againſt all inclinationes of making vſe of any ſcandalous malignant or diſaffected perſones for publict truſt, or of admitting any to employment in gour counſell^{s} or army except in the way aggried vpon by the publict reſolutiones of churche and ſtaite.

3 HOWBEIT we have gour Lo^{pis} in very high eſtimation, and deſire to look vpon all gour actiones with reverence & reſpect, and ſhall be moſt cairfull not to ſtreatch our ſelffis begond our lyne in theſe civile affaires properly ſubject to 3our Lopis / cogniſcance: Yet conſiddering the many thochtis of heartis Inreſpect of theſe actis of Indemnitie granted by your Lopis / to theſe that were now in armes in this late rebellioun (though we will not offer to queſtion what 3our Lopis / might doe for preſervation of the Kingdome in ſueh a condition as it now ſtandis in) we humbly intreat 3ow to conſidder whither that neceſſity which is held furth as the Cauſe enforceing 3ow to this Courſe hes bene occaſioned by any ſlakneſs neglect or omiſsion of endeavouring to improve the power God hade putt in 3our handf for timeous ſuppreſſing ſuch as were makeing inſurrection and diſturbeing the publict peace of the Kingdome & bringing them to Juſtice: And withall to conſidder whither any neceſſitie can excuſe for the not giveing theſe wicked menf courſe the deſerved name and 3our nevir once termeing it rebellion. Likewiſe whither it doeth not entrenche vpon the preſent conſtitution of Government in this Kingdome, & will not involue 3our Lopis / in the guilt of theſe mens ſinne, if 3ow ſhall accept of there laying doune of armes, meerely vpon the profeſsion of obedience to the Kinges Maties cōmand without the expreſsion of any reſpect or obedience to the Cōmittee of eſtaites, or any acknowledgement of there ſinne and offence, whiek we hope 3our Lopis doeth look vpon as a moſt vnnaturall & vnſeaſonable rending of the Kingdome in the time of its heavy oppreſsion by a cōmone enemie, to the ſtrenthening of his handis, and expoſeing the Kingdome to all miſerie and ruine.

4 THE great foreſlowing of that ſo important a buſineſſe the purgeing of the Kingis family, notwithstanding the many addreſses we have made to 3our Lopis / theranent, as we deſire may be looked vpon, as no ſmall guiltneſse, So we hope and deſire that yet once for all yow will take ſome effectuall courſe for purgeing the Kinges family of all ſcandalous and diſſaffected perſones, and conſtituteing it of perſones of knowne integritie and affection to the Cauſe of God, As alſo for Debarring all Malignant and diſaffected perſones from acceſse to the Kinges Matie and the Court. Wee doubt not bot your Lopis / does conſidder how ſadd effectf the land hes alreddie found of ſuch mens influence vpon the King; whereff belike we ſhall find more and more, if 3our Lopis / wiſdome and faithfulneſse doe not prevent it. Let the wicked be removed from the King & his throne ſhall be eſtabliſhed in righteouſneſse.

5 IN the ſearch of your Lopis / perſonall guiltineſse (a Dutie as incumbent to all at this time ſo eſpecially to 3our Lopis /) we ſchall intreat yow not only ſeriouſly to examine and Impartiallie to Judge your ſelues of theſe ſecreit ewills not obvious to the eyes of men, as covetouſnes ſelff ſeiking mixing your privat intereſt with your publict adminiſtration or if there be any other hidden thinges of diſhoneſtie, bot alſo the ſinnes and ewillis of 3our wayes and walking in your families & toward your tennentis vaſſallf and theſe vnder 3our cōmand: We doe in the ſeir of the Lord exhort 3ow to conſidder the odiouſneſse of that ſinne of oppreſsion ſo much abounding in the Land, the loud cry it hath in the eares of the Lord of hoaſtis, how the overburdening of the poore ones vnder there maſterf and landlordf, puttis them to extremitie of toyle, night & day to the ſpending & abaſeing of there ſpirites, the takeing them off all cair of Duties relaiting to there ſoullis and ſpirituall condition, and renderf them in the time of the Kingdomes ſufferingis vtterly vnable and vnwilling to doe or act any thing againſt the cōmone enemie And for there countreyes delyverance.

6 WE doe in the laſt place deſire 3our Lopis / by all the Bondf wherby yow ſtand obleidged to the preſervation of Religion, Libertie, the Kinges māties honour and happineſse to look vpon the ſadd condition of this diſtreſsed and diſtracted kingdome, and to improve your ſelues to the vttermoſt for its help and releiff: If the ſenſe of honour and principles of meere naturall affection to þ countrie did ſet on ſome of 3our progenitorf to ſhew ſo much valour in the defence of there nation from the vnjuſt Invaſion of enemies in former times, as hes rendred them famous and there memorie precious to after generationes what a ſtaine ſhall it be vpon 3our Lopis / if it ſhall be recorded to the poſteritie that in this generation the time of 3our publict adminiſtration and the Lordf honouring 3ow to be at the helme, all that deludge of miſerie and ſlaverie both vpon our conſciences and eſtaites ſhall come vpon us, which is threattenned by the crewell adverſarie now trampling a great pairt of the Kingdom and ordinances of God þ'in vnder his feett. We deſire 3our Lopis / with compaſſionat heartis, to look vpon the Deplorable condition of the citie of our Solemnities, and theſe pairtf of the Kingdome now vnder the yoake of that crewell enemie; ffor 3our further information of there miſeries your Lopis may look on the Supplication heirwith pñted of ſome Miniſterf of theſe pairtf now chaſed from there flockis and families. If there be any fellowſchip of the ſpirite, any compaſſion any bowellis of love, beſtirre your ſelffis and goe actively about the proſecution of this defenſive warre againſt ſo crewell & vnjuſt Invaiderf of our Religion Liberties & nation, who by there vplifted handis to the moſt high God ſtand obleidged by Covenant to the defence of all theſe; And for this effect goe vigorouſlie about the recruitting and vniteing of 3our forces, the purgeing of them of ſcandalous and diſaffected perſones, the repreſsing of exorbitancies plunderinges and oppreſsiones of 3our officerf and ſouldierf, vnder which the land is groāing, ꝛ the trieing of ꝛ takeing ordour with there takeing of money for men ꝛ horſe, to the great diſappoyntment of the ſervice ꝛ betraying of the Kingdome to the enemie. IT is high time for gow to aryſe and awaken gour ſelffis ꝛ otherꝭ, to ſhew gour ſelffis Valiant for the Cauſe and Cities of our God; Ariſe, vp and be doeing, and our prayer ſhall be that the Lord our God may be with gow.

63 ANSWER gevin in be the Cōmiſſionerſ of the gñall aſſemblie to the quere givin in to them be the parliament anent the perſones to be admittit to Joyne for defence of ꝑe kingdome

THE ſenſe of the parliament Concerning the Remonſtrance gevin in to them be the Cōmiſſioʳſ of the gñall aſſemblie

64 THE Kings Maᵗᵉ and Estates of Parliament haveing, efter mature deliberatioune Conſidered the Remonſtrance tendered to them vpon the [30] day of [Nov. 1650] by the Commʳſ of the Gñall Aſſemblie do with all thankfulnes acknowledge their zeale and tender affection in giveing ſo ſeaſonable a warneing to the Parliament and Judicatories to be humble for ꝑ ſinnes in this tyme of ſadd affliction and trouble qᶜʰ are the effects and fruits ꝑof AND ALBEIT in the Paper of the 13ᵗʰ of December, 1650 from the Parliament in answere to the ſaid Remonstrance It wes Incumbent to them to cleare ſeverall points of truth in matter of fact and to remove prejudices aff the Publict Judicatories and members thereof wᶜʰ might ariſe from miſinformations and miſtakes and wes therevpon offered to bee a ground of Conference, YET it wes na wayes thereby Intended to extenuat their faults nor to Juſtifie themſelffes before God, in whoſe ſicht they profeſse and declare their vnfained desyre to bee truelie humbled not onlie for the Sinnes of the Kingdome, but likewiſe for their owne Sinnes in the Publick administration of their Places and for their Perſonall guiltines, eſpeciallie that they have not as they ought valued the Inestimable benefite of the Gospell, Or ſubmitted themſelffes to the obedience thereof, that they have not received Christ in their hearts, and walked worthie of him in their Lyves, wᶜʰ is the fountane and cauſe of vther ſinnes and failings, As wes more fullie held foorth in the cauſes of the late Publick Humiliation of the Kingdome

AS they do thinke the addreſses made to the King in his Low condition and the vſeing of Laufull meanes to begett a right vnderſtanding betuixt his Maᵗᵉ and this Nation, that hee might joyne in Covenant with God and his People for the good of Religion and of his Kingdomes, as the moſt Powerfull and Probable meanes to reſtore him to his juſt rights wes a necessarie duetie so if anie who were Imployed in the manageing of that great buſines and truſt out of their forwardnes and zeale to have the ſame ſpeedilie effectuated, did vſe precipitancie in carrying on or cloſeing of the Treatie before full and perfect aſsurances of everie condition demanded by this Church and Kingdome they are confident when the ſamen ſhall bee made to appeare they will be moſt willing to make an Ingenuous confeſsion, and be ſincerelie humble for the ſame and do bleſse God who moved the King to grant all that wes deſyred ſo ſoone as hee came to this Kingdome And although wee have in this tyme of extreme danger to the Cauſe and Kingdom efter advyce had from the Cōmiſsioners of the Gñall Aſsemblie, admitted manie who were formerlie excluded to be Imployed in the armie in this defenſive Warr againſt that armie of Sectaries, who Contrarie to Covenant and Treaties have moſt perfidiouſlie Invaded and are deſtroying this Kingdome, not dareing to omitt ſo neceſsarie a duetie for feare of a future danger wᶜʰ may enſew vpon the Imployment of ſuch, Yet it ſhall bee our Care ſo farr as God ſhall give ws Power and ſtrength, that the cauſe bee not thereby wronged, but carried on according to our firſt Principles and grounds of the Covenant, truſting that God will in the worſt of tymes have a care of his owne work. And may make the present dangers and troubles to be a meane of true repentance to theſe who have failed and to vnite ws the more ſtronglie together in this juſt and neceſsarie defenſive warr againſt the common enemie

WEE confeſse our guiltines for our ſlownes in purgeing the Kings familie from scandalous and diſaffected Perſones and for not debarring maligNant and diſaffeeted Perſones from acceſse to his

Matie, qch is of moſt dangerous Conſequence, And ſhall Indeavour according to our Power that the Kings familie may bee conſtitute of Perſones of knowen Integritie and affection to the Cauſe and Covenant and faithfull to the King and Kingdome, knoweing that the Counſells and Practiſes of ſuch as are in truſt about his Matie and have acceſe to his royall Perſone may have great Influence vpon both.

WEE do acknowledge the oppreſsions of the officers and ſouldiers by exorbitant quarterings, by vnjuſt exactions, for ſupernumeraries, Plunderings and takeing of Money for men, the applying of the ſamen to their owne vſe, and wanting the men they ſhould have for defence of the Kingdome, To bee a verie greivous ſinne and betraying of the truſt repoſed in them, of wch wee do not hold our ſelffis guiltleſse in ſua farr as (notwithſtanding the manie acts made for puniſhing of theſe Crymes and oppreſsions) the Committers thereof are not yet brought to tryall and Condigne Puniſhment, qch wee ſhall God willing Indevour to amend

THE oppreſsions of manie Poore Tennents qch Cryes loud in the eares of the Lord hath beene a ſinne much abounding in the Land from wch wee dare not purge ourſelffes to bee free in exacting more from Poore Tennents then they could well pay even in the tyme of Peace without leading a Poore and miſerable Life, And not releiving them from Publict burdens in tyme of warr ſo much as wee ought, q'of though ſome bee leſse guiltie then others Yet there hath not beene ſuch tendernes and Compaſsion herein as ſhould have beene qch is a Juſt cauſe of Publict Humiliation

UPON ſerious and Impartiall examination of our owne wayes and Converſation Wee do Ingenuouſlie confeſse beſydes the Publick Sinnes of our adminiſtration in our Places, That wee have the guiltines of manie domeſticall and Perſonall ſinnes to bee humbled for before God, Wee have fallen from our firſt Love. Wee have not that zeale, vnitie and Courage wee had for the cauſe at the renewing of our Covenant in the beginning of this work of reformation. Our former Amitie and Vnitie are turned into jealouſie and diviſion. There is not that ſelff denyall Nor that Publicknes of ſpirit and ſincere walking that ought to be in the cauſe of God and of publict work as wee are honoured to bee actors in. AND if beſyde theſe faults there bee anie accuſation Or particular challenge againſt ws Or anie one of ws, Wee are moſt willing and deſyrous, that anie man that can give evidences of our faults and failings in ane orderlie and legal way, may be pleaſed to do the ſamen, And wee ſhall not ſhunne anie juſt tryall or Censure, Praying, That the Lord may turne ws from the evill of our wayes And that hee may turne away his wrath and heavie Indignation from the Land, And that wee may in his ſtrength go activelie about the ſpeedie performance of theſe dueties wee ow to Religion our King and bleeding Countrie qch have beene clearlie represented and ſerioullie recomended wnto ws by the Reverend Comm'e of the Gñall Assemblie, and to wch wee are ſo ſtrictlie bund by our Solemne Vowes and Covenant.

[ANSWER by the Commiſsioners of the Generall Aſsembly to the Parlᵗˢ Queerees.

Perth 24. Maij 1651.

THE Comiſsion of the Generall Aſsembly Having propounded to them by the Kings Mãtie and the honoᵇˡᵉ Eſtates of Parlᵗ vpon the nynteen day of March 1651. This Quere

WHITHER or not it be ſinfull and vnlawfull for the more effectuall proſecution of the publick resolutiones, for the defence of the cauſe, of the King and Kingdome, to admitt ſuch persons to be members of the Comittee of Eſtates, who are now debarred from the publick truſt, they being ſuch as have ſatiſfied the Kirk for the offence for which they wer excluded, and are ſince admitted to enter in Covenant with ws.

LYKAS having receaved from his Mãtie and the Eſtates of Parlᵗ vpon the third of Apryl 1651. a letter bearing date at Perth the laſt of March 1651. Expreſsing a deſire of a more ample reſolution in relation to the perſones debarred from the publick trust viz.

THAT his Mãtie and Eſtates of Parlᵗ being desireous that all grounds of miſvnderſtanding among the ſubjects of this Kingdome be removed, and that ther may be ane heartie and vnanimous concurrence in the defence therof against the cõmon enemy, and for that end that the acts of claſses (which are conceaved to be a great obſtruction in the way of that vnanimity, which wer ſo neceſsary at this tyme of ſo great and cõmon danger to all) may be taken away and reſcinded: Do intreat most earneſtly a meeting of the Comiſsion may be called, to be at Perth the ſevintin of Apryle, that after a dew conſideration of the acts and declarations emitted by the Church and the other grounds contained in the narrative of the mentioned acts of claſses, in ſo farre as conſcience can be concerned therin: His Mãtie and Parlᵗ may have a poſitive anſwer not only to the laſt Quere in the termes wherin it was propounded: But lykwayes have their cleare and deliberat Judgment and reſolution, if it be ſinfull and vnlawfull to repeale and reſcind the acts of claſses, which apparently wold tend to vnity.

AND having receaved from his Mãtie and the Comittee of Eſtates vpon the 23 of Apryle a letter bearing date at Dumfermling the 19th of Apryl 1651. with all earneſtnes renewing their former deſire, that the Comiſsion wold give a cleare and poſitive anſwer to the Quere formerly propounded, vnto the Parlᵗ to be keeped at Sterling or elſe wher as ſhall be thought fitt the 21. of May Doeth humbly returne this anſwer.

THAT leaſt any aſperſion ſhould be caſten vpon ws, of incroaching vpon, or intruding our ſelfes into the office of the civill power and authority, We declare that we do not aſsume to our ſelfes, and that it is not competent to ws but only to the King and Parlᵗ, to make or repeale acts of Parlᵗ: And therfor that as the Comiſsion of the Kirk had not hand in making of the act of claſses, ſo nether do we take vpon ws to determine the keeping vp or reſcinding and repealing the ſame Yet being Required by his Mãtie and the Eſtates of Parlᵗ to give our Judgment and advyce in poynt of conſcience Whither or not Conſidering the grounds contained in the narrative of the act of claſses, viz. The ſolemn League and Covenant, the ſolemn acknowledgment of ſinnes and engagment, Declarations emitted by the Church, and the engagment and promiſe made by the Comittee of Eſtates to the Kingdome of England; It be ſinfull and vnlawfull to admitt to be members of the Comittee of Eſtates, perſones formerly debarred from the publick truſt; or to reſcinde and repeale the acts of Claſses: We declare That as for any engagment or promiſe made vnto the Kingdome of England concerning not admitting vnto places of power and truſt, perſones acceſsory to the ſinfull engagment againſt that Kingdome; We know nothing of the nature or grounds therof, And therfor leaves it to the Eſtates of Parlᵗ themſelfes to conſider how it does oblidge or not oblidge in the preſent condition of affaires in theſe Kingdomes. But as for the ſolemn League and Covenant, and ſolemn acknowledgment and engagment and former Declarationes; We do find that they do not particularly determine any definite meaſure of tyme of excluding perſones from places of truſt, for bypaſt offences: But only binds and oblidges condignly to puniſh offenders as the degree of their offences ſhall require or deſerve, or the ſupream Judicatory of the Kingdome or others having power from them for that effect ſhall Judge convenient; to purge all Judicatories and places of power and truſt, and to endeavour that they may conſiſt off and be filled with ſuch men as are of known good affection to the cauſe of God and of a blameleſſe and Chriſtian converſation (which is a morall dewty comanded in the word of God and of perpetuall obligation) ſo that nothing vpon the accompt of theſe grounds doeth hinder, but that perſones formerly debarred from places of power and truſt for their offences, may be admitted to be members of the Comittee of Eſtates, and the cenſures inflicted vpon them by the acts of claſſes, may be taken off and reſcinded without ſin by the Parl^{t} (in whoſe power it is to lenthen or ſhorten the tyme of ſuch cenſures according as they ſhall find Juſt and neceſsary) provyding they be men who have ſatiſfied the church for their former offences, have renewed or taken the Covenant, and be qualified for ſuch places with the qualificationes required in the word of God and expreſsed in the ſolemn acknowledgment and engagment viz. that they be men of knowen good affection to the cauſe of God, and of a blamleſse and chriſtian converſation which ought alwayes carefully to be obſerved and made conſcience off, tho ther wer no ſuch act of Claſses; to the effect that no perſones get ſuch power and truſt put in their hands as may be prejudiciall to the cauſe of God
